SUPERIOR PAINLESS DENTISTRY!

"There is a world wide cry against the dentists that they torture their patients. Those of strong physique submit and endure the agony. With a second class this is simply impossible, and thousands of teeth are neglected and lost even though the patients may be able to pay for our most skilful services. Then there is a third clase who, after months of mental torture in anticipation, finally come into our hands, and, with nerves strung to a hurtful point, pass through the ordeal, but at what a cost! We do not sufficiently consider the consequences of shock in the dental chair, yet undoubtedly many suffer for months and even years from injuries to the nervous system received whilst in our hands.

The greatest duty of our profession today is to discover and adopt a mode of painlessly performing our operations."

NOTE.—The above is an abstract from a paper read by an eminent dentist of New York City before a society of dentists in Philadelphia.

The famous Hale Method of Painless Dentistry, for which we are sole agents for Canada, is the best Method on earth.

HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL

Editor Times:

Sir,—Most of the High School football team arrived home Saturday and a few came down this morning. The Fredericton team played a dirty game, and when a High School boy was tackled they drove their hands and knees in his face. The game was even throughout, the touchdown being made because the fullback, not knowing the grounds, stepped into a hole and fell, and a F. H. S. boy fell on the ball. When McGibbon was hurt it was done by accident, and then the F. H. S. began their tricks. When Capt. Donnelly tackled McGibbon, after play resumed, three F. H. S. boys made their best attempt to hit him. He was a match for them, however, and returned the one he got. Then a riot seemed imminent, and for a while both teams did their best, and when the trouble was over, they stood about even. The morning papers made some mistakes. McLennan did not tackle McGibbon. The crowd hissed High School and threw lemons, etc. The rest of the people gave the boys a good reception.

They returned sore, but not as sore as some they left in Fredericton. They (Fredericton) refused to allow Morrisey to play and Nelson was substituted.

The team was as follows:—Anglin, Machum, Donnelly, Melrose, Walsh, Malcolm, Bender, Gorman, Woods, Megarity, Winter, Belding, Nobles and Nelson. The boys, although defeated, feel that had the ground been in better condition, they would have won.

Yours.

HIGH SCHOOL.

POLICE COURT

The Lauchners in Court—Hearing in Chain of South End Cases

Gilbert Lauchner, and son, were before Judge Ritchie in the police court today Gilbert Sr., charged with the theft of a quarter of lamb from the home of George Ewing, Duke street, and Gilbert Jr., with carrying a loaded revolver, which was discharged and wounded Elijah Taylor.

The elder Lauchner pleaded not guilty, but his son acknowledged the offence. James Miller, at whose place the police found the meat said that Lauchner had brought the meat to his house on Saturday morning and wanted him to buy it. He said he got it from a butcher for some work he had performed.

Miller said he did not want the meat, but Lauchner borrowed a quarter of a dollar and left the meat, saying that he would return and repay the loan. He did not return and the police called and took the meat. He was sure he did not loan Lauchner more and did not tell any one that he did.

In answer to a question by Judge Ritchie he said that he was only slightly acquainted with the prisoner. "Well I thought everybody in Lower Cove knew Gil. Lauchner," said the judge.

"Jim," was I sober when I went to your place?" asked the prisoner. This occasioned the remark from his honor: "Well, he seems to have the advantage of you. He does not call you Mr. Miller."

The case was adjourned till this afternoon.

James Miller next appeared in the role of the defendant in a case of alleged illegal sale of liquor in his premises. He pleaded not guilty.

Deputy Chief Jenkins told of making a search in company with Detective Killen. They found a flask partly filled. There were a number of men sitting about including Frank Hopper. When the latter was asked his name he at first declined to tell. The room was dark and Hopper, who was sitting on a lounge, was asked to stand up so that a better look could be had at his face.

Killen said: "Is this you Frank?" and the latter answered in the affirmative and the deputy chief remarked: "Frank Hopper." When asked for his street address, he told the officers to go to a warm place. The case was adjourned till tomorrow morning for further witnesses.

Charles Miller and William McGouchey where fined $8 or thirty days for drunkeness.
