JEALOUS HUSBAND SUES THEODORE P. SHONTS

New York, Sept. 25.—Theodore P. Shonts, president of the $225,000,000 Ryan-Belmont interborough-Metropolitan Company, president of the Chicago & Alton railroad, president of the Toledo, St. Louis & Western railroad, a director of many other important companies and one of the most potent figures in the financial and business life of the city, has been sued for $200,000 damages by the husband of a woman whose affections he is charged with having alienated.

Through his lawyer, DeLancey Nicoll, Mr. Shonts declares he is the victim of one of the strangest cases of mistaken identity on record.

It would seem, according to Mr. Nicoll, that the president of the Inter-Met has some double for whose misdeeds Mr. Shonts is being held responsible. As to who this double is, there is no hint.

The suit against Mr. Shonts is brought by Frederick Hipsh, the New York manager of a Kentucky distillery with offices in the Flat Iron building. He lives at the Hotel Langham. Mr. Hipsh, while not a man of large wealth, has a comfortable income.

Mr. Hipsh is most bitter against Mr. Shonts. He charges him with conducting an intrigue with Mrs. Hipsh over a period of two years, and not only wrecking her life, but destroying his happiness. Mr. Hipsh loved his wife devotedly. He was proud of her beauty, her smartness and of her social standing.

On Thursday Mr. Nicoll had a two hours' conference with Mr. Hipsh and his lawyer. At the conference Mr. Nicoll declared most emphatically that Mr. Shonts had no more to do with the troubles of the Hipshes than the man in the moon.

He insisted that it was a case of mistaken identity, and that while Mr. Shonts would have no difficulty in proving his absolute innocence in court, it was a cruel outrage on an innocent man to force him to defend himself against charges of the kind. Mr. Nicoll wanted Mr. Hipsh to withdraw the suit, but this he refused to do.

KEIR HARDIE PREDICTS

Bristol, Sept. 26.—James Keir Hardie, member of parliament for Merthyr-Tydvil, cutting the policy of the laborites in the general election, said today that he believed the laborites would emerge from the conflict with a working majority.

The laborites, he said, were confident of increased strength in the house of commons, from fifty-four members to between sixty-five and seventy, although supporting the budget. They will follow their usual course in the election, running a laborite wherever they thought he had a chance of defeating either or both of the opposing political parties.

WEDDINGS

Snell-Richardson.

Sussex, N. B., Sept. 26.—A very quiet wedding, but one of much local interest, took place here at 1:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. J. D. Frier, when Miss M. Gertrude, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth and the late Robert Richardson, was united in marriage to Charles D. Mills, engineer of the town water supply. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Canon Neales and only the immediate relatives were present.

The bride was beautifully gowned in white silk muslin over tulle, with a white veil, and carried a bouquet of white sweet peas. Her going away costume was of blue broadcloth with hat to match.

After a dainty luncheon was served Mr. and Mrs. Mills left on the C. P. R. for St. John, where they took the steamer Calvin Austin for Boston. They will visit Providence (R. I.), and other New England cities before returning. The bride, who has been living with her sister here for some time, is highly esteemed and has made many friends. She was the recipient of many useful gifts. Mr. Mills, who is a practical engineer and electrician, is a man widely known and highly respected. He installed and was owner of the first electric light plant established here.

Cronk-Stewart.

The home of Gordon Stewart, of Reeds Point, Kings county, was the scene of a quiet wedding at 6 o'clock on Wednesday evening, September 22nd, when Miss Bessie T. Stewart was united in marriage to Warren Cronk, of Clifton (N. B.) Rev. H. S. Wainwright performed the ceremony. The house was tastefully decorated for the occasion with autumn leaves and cut flowers. The bride, who was beautifully gowned in a princess costume of white tulle and carried a bouquet of white carnations, was attended by Miss Nellie Cronk, sister of the groom. Miss Cronk wore a becoming costume of cream crepe de chene. Roy Waddell supported the groom and during the ceremony the wedding march was played by Miss Waddell. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served and a very pleasant evening spent with music, games and dancing. Many beautiful presents attested the popularity of the young couple. They will reside at Clifton. The bride lived for some years in St. John and has the best wishes of her many friends for a happy and prosperous life.

Campbell-Carter.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mrs. S. Dixon, 30 Johnston street, on Wednesday, September 22nd, when Duncan M. Campbell was united in marriage to Miss Jessie B. Carter. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Gordon Dickie. The immediate relatives and intimate friends of the contracting parties were present.

The bride was becomingly dressed in a traveling suit of grey broadcloth with hat to match.

After the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served and later the happy couple left on the C. P. R. for Truro and Halifax.

Cohen-Selick.

Moncton, Sept. 26.—A Jewish wedding was celebrated in the Pythian Temple this evening at 6 o'clock, the principals being Miss Annie Cohen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Cohen, Moncton, formerly of St. John, and Samuel Selick, of this city. The ceremony was performed by Conis Shalef, rabbi, St. John.

Rev. F. S. Bamford preached his farewell sermon as pastor of the Baptist church and leaves Wednesday for his new field of labor, Summerside.

A meeting of the I. C. R. Brotherhood was held last night to discuss the amendments to the provident fund act. Another meeting will be held October 14 when the matter will be finally dealt with.

EXPERTS' VIEWS ON THE STOCK MARKET

New York, Sept. 24.—The market appears to be marking time. Any change in the general situation of business is for the better, with outlook for continuation and increase. The prospect is for a year of largest volume and increased earning power. No conflict among the important leaders, either financial or railroad, appears in sight, and this condition of harmony is prophetic of an attainment of the greatest results. Reliance upon a great crop, with the exception of cotton, now becomes one of the completed factors in rounding out the year's prosperity. The financing of harvest needs is going on without tension, and the outlook is for a healthy continuation of the firmness without strain.

The security market, notwithstanding its irregularity, seems to reflect all these favorable conditions, and at present there is nothing in sight which could be reasonably turned into a cause for severe reaction. Until the return of money from the west, the market will probably continue irregular with trading fluctuations. With the crop harvested, or nearly so, and abundant money again in sight, a further rise may be expected. The market is at a high level, and there has unquestionably been realizing on the part of many who bought stocks much lower down, but it does not appear that the really important interests have yet liquidated.

J. S. BACHE & CO.
New York, Sept. 25.—It is evident that the market from now on will be subject to influences that will encourage distinct interest on the part of the public. Fluctuations will be active and the situation will be exceedingly favorable for the quick trader. So far as purchases for permanent holding are concerned, I find no reason to change my belief outlined in these articles last week that they should be undertaken with great caution and discrimination. The market has had a sufficient rise to discount what actual improvement has taken place in trade and industry. Iron and steel have entered an exceedingly restricted epoch. It is probable that the restricted demand for steel products last year may make itself felt in the form of a demand much above the normal this year. Already there are warnings against overdoing in this direction, however. The new tariff permits importations of iron ore and other supplies at present prices. This is significant, as it means independent manufacturers can obtain supplies on equal terms with the Steel Corporation.

EIGHT NATIONS AND FIVE MILLION PEOPLE AT CELEBRATION

Magnificent Pageant at New York in Honor of Hudson and Fulton—The Opening of The Week's Observance

New York, Sept. 26.—The sailormen of eight nations—England, Germany, France, Italy, Holland, Mexico, Argentina and the United States—wandered along the streets of New York today, mingling with visitors from north, south, east and west, in the first day of rest after the brilliant opening of the Hudson-Fulton celebration yesterday.

Beginning at noon, Riverside drive, a vantage point affording a magnificent view of the anchored armada of battleships, began to fill up rapidly and at 3 o'clock was again uncomfortably crowded, although there was no organized naval parade today.

The Half Moon and the Clermont lay quietly at their anchorage, where they will remain until the naval parade of Friday, Oct. 1, when those little pioneers, escorted by light draft warships and followed by the merchant fleet again will sail up stream to Newburgh, where they will be turned over to the Albany Upstate Division of the celebration.

But circling about the fleet of battleships today, there was an almost unbroken line of deep-sea excursion steamers jammed to the rails as they were yesterday and listing heavily to one side with the pressure of the crowds. At the same time a scurrying flotilla of motor boats was bobbing about on the roughened waters of the river, carrying visitors to and from those battleships which were receiving the day.

American officers spoke today of the splendid appearance presented by the British flag ship Indefatigable, whose illumination last night was conspicuously brilliant. Spie and span in her new paint and pressed from steam stern in white awnings, her graceful lines of speed and power combined were more remarked today than those of any other ship on the river.

Special Hudson-Fulton services were conducted in all the churches. Forms of prayer prescribed for the occasion by Bishop Greer of the Episcopal church and by Archbishop Farley of the Roman Catholic church, were read in every parish of their dioceses. Many who could not get into Old Trinity crowded the churchyard to view the garlanded grave of Robert Fulton. Among them were officers of the visiting fleets. At historic St. Paul's chapel, the Rev. W. Montague Greer asked pertinently: "Is God a man of war?" and answered most emphatically, "He most certainly is."

At the middle collegiate Dutch Reformed church specially-invited members of the congregation were the officers of the Dutch cruiser Utrecht, General Leonard Wood, U. S. A., commanding the department of the east, and R. Van Rees, treasurer of the Hudson-Fulton celebration committee of The Netherlands.

Twenty-five million dollars, competent authorities estimate as the sum in round figures, that out-of-town visitors will leave in town. Hotel proprietors familiar with the general situation set 600,000 for the number of guests now housed under their roofs, and in more modest lodging houses and even in single rooms in flats let out for the week by their thrifty tenants, it seems safe to say there are 400,000 more. Allowing for possible exaggeration, it seems safe to estimate the entire out-of-town crowd at between 800,000 and 1,000,000.

That yesterday's rush to both banks of the Hudson to witness the naval pageant was no mere redistribution of local population is proved by all the various aspects of the city today. Saint Patrick's Cathedral up town, and Old Trinity, down town, were both filled with such congregations as their rectors are not wont to face except when the city is jammed with visitors. The streets were thronged with loitering sightseers whose gait and bearing and questions to the policemen all proclaimed them strangers.

The programme for tomorrow will include probable flights by Wilbur Wright and Glenn H. Curtiss from Governor's Island and the opening of various commemorative art exhibits throughout the city. Pittsfield, Mass., Sept. 26.—The honor of being the first ship to cross the border into New York, along the course of the Hudson for some miles and finally came down during the day at Sussex, in New Jersey, some 125 miles from Pittsfield, along the river.

Every morning train and ferryboat brought it hundreds and its thousands. By 11 it was jammed, and by noon it held one of the greatest crowds that has ever been assembled anywhere for any purpose. Conservative estimates tonight place the number of Staten Island, Long Island, Brooklyn, the Palisades and New Jersey at 5,000,000.

Transit facilities were swamped. The approaches to the subway stations were guarded by police reserves, mounted police stood at every crossing and the surging files fought their way off the sidewalks into the gutters.

The naval parade, though a little late in starting, due to the collisions of the Clermont and Half Moon, went through substantially as planned without further accident.

The directors have laid aside out of the year's earnings $120,000, or four per cent, on the stock, to meet the year's dividend requirements.
