MATTER OF ECONOMY.

Ask—"Why do you employ a man to operate the typewriter instead of a woman?"

Not—"As a matter of economy."

Ask—"But you can hire a woman for less wages than a man."

Not—"True; but a woman uses a lot more ribbons than a man. See?"

"The newspaper is the ideal advertising medium. It solves the question of covering the country in the right way. It goes into the homes of the people—practically all of them. It is read by the whole family. It brings quick action at a reason- able cost. It is always on the job, and its influence with its public is strong."

—Leroy Fairman in Printers' Ink.

Advertisers covering this part of the country will find the problem of advertising mediums solved by using the Daily Telegraph and Evening Times. These papers constitute the strongest, result producing, advertising team in the maritime provinces—because they go into more homes than any other papers in this field. The rates are not high when compared with the returns.

LOCAL OPTION SUCCESS

Grafton, Ont., Sept. 22—That Local Op- tion is a success in Grafton and in Haldi- mand township, where it was carried about three years ago, is apparent from an open letter written to the press of Cobourg, the county town, where it will be voted on in January, by the Rev. C. H. Brooks, rector of St. George's church, Grafton.

"Mr. Brooks says:—'I did not vote in all our contests here. I felt too ignorant to guide others or to act myself, but I would vote every time now for local option. I do not see how any thinking man can take the responsibility of retaining the bar and so continuing the reprehensible cus- tom of public treating. When you have made a clean sweep of the iniquitous traffic it will be a wonder to you that you ever suffered it for a day. Even when we had Colborne's dragging us down on the one side and Cobourg on the other, we were far more orderly and more respect- able here than we had been under the License System.'

HIS PROVIDENCE.

"The young bride may be the one to se- lect the dress goods, but it is the hus- band to pick out a boarding-house."

"Why?"

"He's lived in a few."—Louisville Cour- tier-Journal.

GIRL MUST CHOOSE

ACTOR OR FORTUNE

Catherine Bigelow, Now Twelve, Has Much Money Left to Her Conditionally

New York, Sept. 22—"I desire that my granddaughter, Catharin Bradley Big- elow, shall at no time marry a divorced man, and in case this provision of my will shall be broken she shall for- feit her interest in my estate, both real and personal, and the same shall go to my son and daughter, Forbes Hennessey and Ellen Mary Parker, respectively."

Ellen M. Hennessey, widow of former Fire Commissioner James S. Hennessey, made this provision in her will, which has been filed with the surrogate. Viola- tion of this clause by the grandchild, who is now under twelve years of age, will mean that she will lose one-third interest in the estate, which is valued at more than $500,000.

Mrs. Hennessey made careful provision for the rearing of this child. In another clause of the will she stipulates that a maid or chambermaid of refinement and education shall be provided for the girl.

Principal When 25

Until Catherine is twenty-five years of age the money willed her by her grand- mother is to be held in trust by the ex- ecutors of the will. They are to apply $1,000 yearly for her maintenance and education until she is twelve years old; $1,200 until she is fifteen; $1,500 until she be- comes eighteen; $2,000 yearly from the age of twenty-one until she is twenty-five. If she has not wedded an actor or a di- vorced man by that time she will receive the principal.

The residue of Mrs. Hennessey's estate is divided equally between her son, Forbes Hennessey; her daughter Ellen Mary Parker, and her grandchild, Catharin Bigelow. She makes her son, daughter and grandchild her executors, and pro- vides that the contest of any bequest shall annul the same.

The largest charitable bequests are $1,000 to the College of St. Francis Xavier for the "Catherine Bradley scholar- ship"; $1,000 to the Church of St. Francis Xavier; $250 to the pastor of the Church of St. Ann; $500 to St. Francis Hospital; $250 to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul; $500 to the rector of St. Francis Xavier's Church for masses to be said for the repose of the soul of the testatrix; $1,000 for the rector of St. Francis Xavier's Church for the repose of the souls of the testatrix's father, mother, husband and brother; $500 to St. Patrick's Cathedral.

The cook and coachman are left $100 apiece. The articles of furniture and decoration in the Hennessey's were cut down in the hurricane about a month ago, and all her maids and boy- sprit were torn away. After a thrilling voyage under jury masts she was met a few days ago about 50 miles off Mobile and towed into port.

The story of the disaster to the Crosby is a thrilling one and the following from the New York Sun gives some idea of the hardships which the crew were forced to undergo.

"The dismantled three-masted schooner Henry Crosby, was towed into Mobile, having been picked up off Mobile bay without provisions or water by the Flor- ida liner Manteo. The schooner was wrecked in the hurricane of Aug. 24.

"The bringing of the vessel 700 miles under jury masts is considered a remark- able feat, doing credit to C. M. Crooks, the master of the vessel, and his crew of seven men. The Crosby ran into the West India hurricane 150 miles northeast of Grand Cayman.

"The storm continued with such force that in order to save the vessel from total destruction the three masts were cut away. When the weather subsided jury masts were rigged with booms, and with the sail that was left the course was fixed and toward Mobile. The Crosby made the entire trip under the jury rig and would have come in port under that sail if the provisions and water had not run out on Saturday night. The Crosby sighted the Manteo early Sunday morning and ar- rangements were made with the captain to tow her in.

"The Crosby sailed from Mobile on June 30 for San Juan, Porto Rico, with a cargo of lumber and was unloaded and sailed again on August 13 and was out but a short time when the hurricane struck her. Eight days after the storm struck the vessel an offer of $2,500 to tow the vessel was made by a passing steamer, but it was refused. E. & L. K. Stetson of Bangor are agents for the schooner.

DR. MINOT SAVAGE LEAVES THE PULPIT

London, Dec. 22—Dr. Minot Judson Sav- age, before leaving here for New York on Monday announced his permanent re- tirement from the pulpit. To a few friends gathered to see him off he said:—"I am out of pulpit and public life. Hereafter I will devote my entire time to writing."

It is understood that Dr. Savage does not purpose to divert his literary talent from its accustomed channels, but will devote his whole time to work in connection with the Unitarian cause. For two years he has been suffering a nervous breakdown. Long and careful treatment and extended rest have largely restored his health and vigor. When seen in London he seemed to be in excellent spirits and suffered in no way from indisposition.

REQUIEM MASS FOR DECEASED BISHOPS

Quebec, Sept. 23—(Special)—The fathers of the plenary council held several private meetings yesterday in Laval Uni- versity. This morning a grand requiem mass was sung in the Basilica for the deceased bishops, French and English sermons were delivered by Mgr. Brunault of Nicolet
