

GRIFFITH PICKS DIFFERENT MEN THAN ANSON DID

Who Would Make Up An All American Baseball Team? — Honors For Gibson — Jeffries and Johnson — Ring, Diamond, Turf, Athletic and Football News

Artie Hoffman of the Cubs, is a fine outfielder, but I think I'd pass him up in favor of Speaker of the Boston Red Sox," said Manager Clarke Griffith in naming his choice of players for an All-American team. "Speaker is one of the best ball players that has ever broken into fast company. He is a great fielder and a star batsman."

This one choice is the only one to go to either of the Boston major league clubs. Griffith would have Mike Mitchell of Cincinnati doing the right field position instead of "Ty" Cobb, and he would place Tinker of the Cubs at shortstop instead of Honus Wagner. Also, he would put "Larry" McLean behind the bat instead of Gibson of Pittsburgh. All these other players are named by "Pop" Anson of Chicago as his choice for an All-American nine.

The pitchers chosen by Griffith are Mullin, Brown, Overall and Mathewson. Chase of the Highlanders for first base, Evers of Chicago for second, and Leach of Pittsburgh for third base, with Clarke of the Pirates for left field, complete his selections.

More honors were heaped upon George "Mooney" Gibson, the Pirate backstop, at a banquet in Pittsburgh. President Barney Dreyfus presented to him a $400 gold watch, remarking before the whole team that Gibson's work had been the most steady and creditable he had ever known, and that the pennant could not have been won without him. Gibson made a fine speech in reply, and was warmly applauded.

George Gibson put up a fine exhibition of catching during the world's series just ended. In the seven games he allowed only six stolen bases, while the Pirates stole 19 bases on the Detroit catchers. Cobb was the only Tiger to pilfer more than one sack. He got two and Crawford, Bush, T. Jones and J. Jones one each. Wagner led in number of stolen bases, with seven, Clarke and Miller had three each. Gibson and Leach two each, and Byrne and Abstein one each.

The application by the Pittsburgh National league club for a rehearing in the controversy with the American league club of Chicago regarding title to the services of player Blackburn was overruled by chairman Herrmann of the National baseball commission. As a result of this decision the former awarding of the player to the Chicago club was affirmed. Blackburn played with the Providence club last season.

Aquatic

New York, Oct. 22.—The coming of Sir Thomas Lipton to this country has stirred up a great deal of interest as to what success the Irish baronet will have in his endeavors to bring about another race for the America cup.

Sir Thomas is expected here on the steamship Cedric on Saturday, and on his arrival he will ascertain from members of the New York yacht club whether they will accept a challenge for the historic cup under the universal rules which now govern races held by the New York yacht club, or whether the club will still insist that the America cup contest be held under the old conditions, which permit the greatest maximum speed upon a given waterline length without other restrictions.

It was learned that unless the present feeling among the more influential club members undergoes a change, Sir Thomas' mission is likely to fail. "Doubtless many members of the club and the public generally would like to see another Shamrock in these waters," said a prominent officer of the New York yacht club today, "but Sir Thomas must challenge under the old conditions, which are provided for in the deed of gift. The feeling of the club has undergone no change since Sir Thomas' challenge was declined two years ago. It is certain that the America cup stands preeminently for speed, and the club members will not vote to change the conditions."

Should Sir Thomas decide finally to challenge under the old rule, and this is regarded as extremely unlikely, the New York yacht club will meet the challenger with the Reliance, which showed such wonderful speed in her races with Shamrock IV.

The Turf

A number of horses in training were sold in the paddock before the race began at Jamaica, N. Y., Wednesday. Dull Care went to J. R. Fleischman for $2,130, top price of the sale. Thistlebale was sold to W. Hogan for $2,000, and Mr. Hogan also

COLD BROUGHT ON KIDNEY DISEASE

Brantford Lady Suffered Till Cured By Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Mrs. A. H. Thomson Had Heart Disease, Lumbago and Rheumatism, and Tells How She Was Restored to Health.

Brantford, Ont., Oct. 22.—(Special).—How Colds, La Grippe and other ailments settle on the Kidneys and develop Rheumatism, Heart Disease, Bright's Disease and other terribly dangerous ailments; and how any and all of them are cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills is fully shown in the case of Mrs. A. H. Thomson, whose home is at 48 Albion Street, this city.

Mrs. Thomson was, some years ago, taken with Colds and La Grippe, and Straining, which affected her Kidneys, and the result was Backache, Lumbago, Rheumatism and Heart Disease, which caused both her and her friends great anxiety. She had suffered some years when she heard of cures effected by Dodd's Kidney Pills, and bought a box, which she used with such splendid results that she continued to take them till she was cured. Since then she has used Dodd's Kidney Pills in her own family and recommended them widely to her friends, all of whom have warm words of praise for the standard Canadian Kidney remedy, Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Heart Disease, Rheumatism, Lumbago and Bright's Disease are all Kidney Diseases, and you can't have any of them if you keep your Kidneys sound and your blood pure. Dodd's Kidney Pills make the Kidneys sound. Sound Kidneys strain all the impurities out of the blood.

bought Salvatille for $1,300. Cowen went to the Chelsea stable for $800.

A prominent horseman, who followed the grand circuit this season, imparted some information in regard to the defeats suffered by that wonderful Canadian pacer The Eel. He claimed that The Eel was forced away from the pole on these occasions and made to pace what the horsemen call a long mile by being compelled to race wider on the turns. McEwen's gray wonder is a marvelous pacer, but does not like his work unless he is at the pole in a commanding position on the turns.

The unfinished 217 trot and the 216 pace were decided at Baltimore, Wednesday, with the regular events, the 212 trot, the 218 pace and the 220 pace. In the 217 trot, in which four heats were trotted Tuesday, R. T. C., who won the fourth heat Tuesday, came right back and won the fifth and sixth heats, pacing the fifth heat in the fastest time of the race, 2:14 1/4.

In the 216 pace Trixie S., who prolonged the race by winning the fourth heat Tuesday, won the fifth and sixth heats and the race. Trixie S. is owned and was driven by Dick Lawrence of Boston.

The Ring

Says Bob Dunbar, in the Boston Post:—"Someone blundered when Dan Sullivan was allowed to go against that crafty boxer, Harry Lewis. The matchmaker of the Army A. C., Philadelphia, Wednesday, believed that Sullivan was a second Bill McKinnon and had an excellent chance to stay the limit with the Quaker. Sullivan should have been taken along slowly and given minor bouts, as he showed plainly that he lacks ring experience and generalship. The wallowing Dan received from Lewis may shake his confidence in future matches."

Young Loughrey had the better of Johnny Krause in the windup at the Wayne A. C., Philadelphia, Wednesday. Loughrey had an advantage in weight on the Nicetown boy, which was a big factor in the clinches. The bout was one of the fastest seen at the club for some time.

A ten-round fight between "Packey" McFarlane and "Cyclone" Johnny Thompson will be fought in Kansas City on Nov. 1. They will meet at 155 pounds.

The Army A. C., Boston, made an effort to get Jack O'Brien to meet Sam Langford, but O'Brien would not accept.

Peter Sullivan, the Fall River lightweight, won the award over the Indian, Joe Gregg, in a 20-round bout at Sacramento last Tuesday night.

Jimmy Gardner is trying to get on another match with Harry Lewis but the latter will not give an answer.

Harry Lewis and his manager, Al Lippe, left Boston Wednesday, but they both lost battles before departing, and Johnny Mooney was the victor.

The affair between Lewis and Mooney was settled according to law rules. The question was whether Lewis, when managed by Mooney, had treated him right. Lewis was convinced that he had not, and given up the fight.

The bout with Lippe was settled according to go-as-you-please rules, and Mooney convinced Lippe in short order that he was a Boston manager of boxers whom he had nothing on when it came to boxing. The bout had been a feeling between Lippe and Mooney for some time on account of talk by Lippe and the clash between them was not unexpected.

Though the event was of short duration it was a hot one, and Joe Woodman, who acted as referee of the impromptu affair, declared Mooney a winner by a mile.

New York, Oct. 22.—"Eight" said Jim Jeffries tonight, as he settled his big shoulders in his overcoat before going out to see a turn of American vaudeville, "why, that's what I'm here for. Whatever Berger has signed up for goes. I don't know what it is, but it goes."

"The division of the purse has been agreed on," put in Sam Berger, Jeffries' manager. "Johnson has conceded that to us. That leaves only three points to settle: First, the selection of a stakeholder. Second, the referee. Third, a place and time for the reception of bets."

"That's all there is to it. The fight will go to the highest bidder. There's to be no wrangle about that. Various tentative offers have been received, of course, but no formal bids. We ought to have a couple of weeks to get them all in. I should, and then decision on them falls automatically to the best responsible bid."

"How soon will he fight?" "That depends on the other fellow," said Berger. "Jeff is pretty near right now, but he'll be absolutely right before he puts the gloves on. Delay has been the one thing the public has had any cause to complain of, but remember the fellows who kick now would be the very first to holler if Jeff turned up unfit."

Football

There will be three football games on the Every Day Club grounds this afternoon. The first game will be between the All-St. John's and the Algonquins. The teams will line up as follows:

Algonquins.	Full-back.	All-St. John's.
O'Neill.	Half-back.	Phillips.
Melrose.	Three-quarter.	Hayes.
Howard.	Quarter.	Malcolm.
F. Finley.	Quarter.	Patterson.
McGowan.	Quarter.	C. Mackay.
Clark.	Forward.	Watters.
R. Finley.	Forward.	Greason.
Roberts.	Forward.	Babson.
S. Smith.	Forward.	Hanning.
S. Seely.	Forward.	Fairweather.
Stubbins.	Forward.	Dever.

It will be seen by the line-up of All-St. John's that they have greatly strengthened their team and should put up a great game. W. Malcolm, one of Dalhousie's star backs, will play on the back line for the St. John's. The Algonquins line-up is about the same that will face the U. N. B. team on Monday and looks like a very formidable aggregation. The second game will be between the St. John's High School and Fredericton High School. The third game will be between the Carleton and Currie teams.

The scrub team again scored on the Yale varsity in the practice Wednesday. The varsity proved strong in the offensive, but weak at points on the defence. Capt. Coy's playing was not so good as it has been. The scrub team managed to score

PURITY FLOUR

Take Your Choice of the "PURITY" Family

196 POUNDS

98 POUNDS

49 POUNDS

24 POUNDS

14 POUNDS

7 POUNDS

Western Canada Flour Mills Company, Limited

W. J. MYLES HEAD OF TEACHERS' INSTITUTE

Recommendations For Health Officer and For Musical Instructor in Schools

The meeting of the St. John Teachers' Institute closed yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Throughout the day important matters were attended to, officers elected and several discussions were entered upon. Recommendations will be made, as a result of this meeting, for the appointment of an instructor of music in the city schools, and also for the appointment of a health officer. A committee has been appointed to wait on the school board in reference to the former and the latter question will be taken up at another meeting. This meeting has been the most successful ever held in St. John, 201 members being present at the Normal school, Fredericton. This work is pleasant and instructive to the scholars. They are taught how to make napkins, rings, baskets, mats, etc., out of this fibre, "raffia". And the work has been carried on by several schools in Canada with great success. Mr. Kidner explained in full the usefulness of this knowledge and urged that the matter be favorably considered. Afterwards a discussion took place and everybody seemed in favor of the work. H. V. Hays spoke highly of this branch of school teaching.

The officers elected for the next term are: President, Principal William J. Myles of the High school; vice-president, Henry Town, Centennial school; secretary-treasurer, Miss Ida A. Keagin, of St. Peter's boys' school; executive committee—W. A. Nelson, Winter street school; Miss Cate, of the Milford school. After the election of officers the meeting closed with the singing of the National anthem, and it was arranged to leave the date of the next meeting in the hands of the executive committee. These meetings take place every two years, alternatively with the Provincial Institute meeting. A vote of thanks was extended to the executive committee, retiring, for the way in which the business was carried on, and also to those who had read papers.

The afternoon's session opened with an address by T. B. Kidner, director of Manual Training, on "Raffia Work," which is now being taught at the Normal school, Fredericton. This work is pleasant and instructive to the scholars. They are taught how to make napkins, rings, baskets, mats, etc., out of this fibre, "raffia". And the work has been carried on by several schools in Canada with great success. Mr. Kidner explained in full the usefulness of this knowledge and urged that the matter be favorably considered. Afterwards a discussion took place and everybody seemed in favor of the work. H. V. Hays spoke highly of this branch of school teaching.

The officers elected for the next term are: President, Principal William J. Myles of the High school; vice-president, Henry Town, Centennial school; secretary-treasurer, Miss Ida A. Keagin, of St. Peter's boys' school; executive committee—W. A. Nelson, Winter street school; Miss Cate, of the Milford school. After the election of officers the meeting closed with the singing of the National anthem, and it was arranged to leave the date of the next meeting in the hands of the executive committee. These meetings take place every two years, alternatively with the Provincial Institute meeting. A vote of thanks was extended to the executive committee, retiring, for the way in which the business was carried on, and also to those who had read papers.

The officers elected for the next term are: President, Principal William J. Myles of the High school; vice-president, Henry Town, Centennial school; secretary-treasurer, Miss Ida A. Keagin, of St. Peter's boys' school; executive committee—W. A. Nelson, Winter street school; Miss Cate, of the Milford school. After the election of officers the meeting closed with the singing of the National anthem, and it was arranged to leave the date of the next meeting in the hands of the executive committee. These meetings take place every two years, alternatively with the Provincial Institute meeting. A vote of thanks was extended to the executive committee, retiring, for the way in which the business was carried on, and also to those who had read papers.

The officers elected for the next term are: President, Principal William J. Myles of the High school; vice-president, Henry Town, Centennial school; secretary-treasurer, Miss Ida A. Keagin, of St. Peter's boys' school; executive committee—W. A. Nelson, Winter street school; Miss Cate, of the Milford school. After the election of officers the meeting closed with the singing of the National anthem, and it was arranged to leave the date of the next meeting in the hands of the executive committee. These meetings take place every two years, alternatively with the Provincial Institute meeting. A vote of thanks was extended to the executive committee, retiring, for the way in which the business was carried on, and also to those who had read papers.

The officers elected for the next term are: President, Principal William J. Myles of the High school; vice-president, Henry Town, Centennial school; secretary-treasurer, Miss Ida A. Keagin, of St. Peter's boys' school; executive committee—W. A. Nelson, Winter street school; Miss Cate, of the Milford school. After the election of officers the meeting closed with the singing of the National anthem, and it was arranged to leave the date of the next meeting in the hands of the executive committee. These meetings take place every two years, alternatively with the Provincial Institute meeting. A vote of thanks was extended to the executive committee, retiring, for the way in which the business was carried on, and also to those who had read papers.

The officers elected for the next term are: President, Principal William J. Myles of the High school; vice-president, Henry Town, Centennial school; secretary-treasurer, Miss Ida A. Keagin, of St. Peter's boys' school; executive committee—W. A. Nelson, Winter street school; Miss Cate, of the Milford school. After the election of officers the meeting closed with the singing of the National anthem, and it was arranged to leave the date of the next meeting in the hands of the executive committee. These meetings take place every two years, alternatively with the Provincial Institute meeting. A vote of thanks was extended to the executive committee, retiring, for the way in which the business was carried on, and also to those who had read papers.

The officers elected for the next term are: President, Principal William J. Myles of the High school; vice-president, Henry Town, Centennial school; secretary-treasurer, Miss Ida A. Keagin, of St. Peter's boys' school; executive committee—W. A. Nelson, Winter street school; Miss Cate, of the Milford school. After the election of officers the meeting closed with the singing of the National anthem, and it was arranged to leave the date of the next meeting in the hands of the executive committee. These meetings take place every two years, alternatively with the Provincial Institute meeting. A vote of thanks was extended to the executive committee, retiring, for the way in which the business was carried on, and also to those who had read papers.

The officers elected for the next term are: President, Principal William J. Myles of the High school; vice-president, Henry Town, Centennial school; secretary-treasurer, Miss Ida A. Keagin, of St. Peter's boys' school; executive committee—W. A. Nelson, Winter street school; Miss Cate, of the Milford school. After the election of officers the meeting closed with the singing of the National anthem, and it was arranged to leave the date of the next meeting in the hands of the executive committee. These meetings take place every two years, alternatively with the Provincial Institute meeting. A vote of thanks was extended to the executive committee, retiring, for the way in which the business was carried on, and also to those who had read papers.

The officers elected for the next term are: President, Principal William J. Myles of the High school; vice-president, Henry Town, Centennial school; secretary-treasurer, Miss Ida A. Keagin, of St. Peter's boys' school; executive committee—W. A. Nelson, Winter street school; Miss Cate, of the Milford school. After the election of officers the meeting closed with the singing of the National anthem, and it was arranged to leave the date of the next meeting in the hands of the executive committee. These meetings take place every two years, alternatively with the Provincial Institute meeting. A vote of thanks was extended to the executive committee, retiring, for the way in which the business was carried on, and also to those who had read papers.

The officers elected for the next term are: President, Principal William J. Myles of the High school; vice-president, Henry Town, Centennial school; secretary-treasurer, Miss Ida A. Keagin, of St. Peter's boys' school; executive committee—W. A. Nelson, Winter street school; Miss Cate, of the Milford school. After the election of officers the meeting closed with the singing of the National anthem, and it was arranged to leave the date of the next meeting in the hands of the executive committee. These meetings take place every two years, alternatively with the Provincial Institute meeting. A vote of thanks was extended to the executive committee, retiring, for the way in which the business was carried on, and also to those who had read papers.

The officers elected for the next term are: President, Principal William J. Myles of the High school; vice-president, Henry Town, Centennial school; secretary-treasurer, Miss Ida A. Keagin, of St. Peter's boys' school; executive committee—W. A. Nelson, Winter street school; Miss Cate, of the Milford school. After the election of officers the meeting closed with the singing of the National anthem, and it was arranged to leave the date of the next meeting in the hands of the executive committee. These meetings take place every two years, alternatively with the Provincial Institute meeting. A vote of thanks was extended to the executive committee, retiring, for the way in which the business was carried on, and also to those who had read papers.

The officers elected for the next term are: President, Principal William J. Myles of the High school; vice-president, Henry Town, Centennial school; secretary-treasurer, Miss Ida A. Keagin, of St. Peter's boys' school; executive committee—W. A. Nelson, Winter street school; Miss Cate, of the Milford school. After the election of officers the meeting closed with the singing of the National anthem, and it was arranged to leave the date of the next meeting in the hands of the executive committee. These meetings take place every two years, alternatively with the Provincial Institute meeting. A vote of thanks was extended to the executive committee, retiring, for the way in which the business was carried on, and also to those who had read papers.

The officers elected for the next term are: President, Principal William J. Myles of the High school; vice-president, Henry Town, Centennial school; secretary-treasurer, Miss Ida A. Keagin, of St. Peter's boys' school; executive committee—W. A. Nelson, Winter street school; Miss Cate, of the Milford school. After the election of officers the meeting closed with the singing of the National anthem, and it was arranged to leave the date of the next meeting in the hands of the executive committee. These meetings take place every two years, alternatively with the Provincial Institute meeting. A vote of thanks was extended to the executive committee, retiring, for the way in which the business was carried on, and also to those who had read papers.

The officers elected for the next term are: President, Principal William J. Myles of the High school; vice-president, Henry Town, Centennial school; secretary-treasurer, Miss Ida A. Keagin, of St. Peter's boys' school; executive committee—W. A. Nelson, Winter street school; Miss Cate, of the Milford school. After the election of officers the meeting closed with the singing of the National anthem, and it was arranged to leave the date of the next meeting in the hands of the executive committee. These meetings take place every two years, alternatively with the Provincial Institute meeting. A vote of thanks was extended to the executive committee, retiring, for the way in which the business was carried on, and also to those who had read papers.

The officers elected for the next term are: President, Principal William J. Myles of the High school; vice-president, Henry Town, Centennial school; secretary-treasurer, Miss Ida A. Keagin, of St. Peter's boys' school; executive committee—W. A. Nelson, Winter street school; Miss Cate, of the Milford school. After the election of officers the meeting closed with the singing of the National anthem, and it was arranged to leave the date of the next meeting in the hands of the executive committee. These meetings take place every two years, alternatively with the Provincial Institute meeting. A vote of thanks was extended to the executive committee, retiring, for the way in which the business was carried on, and also to those who had read papers.

The officers elected for the next term are: President, Principal William J. Myles of the High school; vice-president, Henry Town, Centennial school; secretary-treasurer, Miss Ida A. Keagin, of St. Peter's boys' school; executive committee—W. A. Nelson, Winter street school; Miss Cate, of the Milford school. After the election of officers the meeting closed with the singing of the National anthem, and it was arranged to leave the date of the next meeting in the hands of the executive committee. These meetings take place every two years, alternatively with the Provincial Institute meeting. A vote of thanks was extended to the executive committee, retiring, for the way in which the business was carried on, and also to those who had read papers.

The officers elected for the next term are: President, Principal William J. Myles of the High school; vice-president, Henry Town, Centennial school; secretary-treasurer, Miss Ida A. Keagin, of St. Peter's boys' school; executive committee—W. A. Nelson, Winter street school; Miss Cate, of the Milford school. After the election of officers the meeting closed with the singing of the National anthem, and it was arranged to leave the date of the next meeting in the hands of the executive committee. These meetings take place every two years, alternatively with the Provincial Institute meeting. A vote of thanks was extended to the executive committee, retiring, for the way in which the business was carried on, and also to those who had read papers.

The officers elected for the next term are: President, Principal William J. Myles of the High school; vice-president, Henry Town, Centennial school; secretary-treasurer, Miss Ida A. Keagin, of St. Peter's boys' school; executive committee—W. A. Nelson, Winter street school; Miss Cate, of the Milford school. After the election of officers the meeting closed with the singing of the National anthem, and it was arranged to leave the date of the next meeting in the hands of the executive committee. These meetings take place every two years, alternatively with the Provincial Institute meeting. A vote of thanks was extended to the executive committee, retiring, for the way in which the business was carried on, and also to those who had read papers.

The officers elected for the next term are: President, Principal William J. Myles of the High school; vice-president, Henry Town, Centennial school; secretary-treasurer, Miss Ida A. Keagin, of St. Peter's boys' school; executive committee—W. A. Nelson, Winter street school; Miss Cate, of the Milford school. After the election of officers the meeting closed with the singing of the National anthem, and it was arranged to leave the date of the next meeting in the hands of the executive committee. These meetings take place every two years, alternatively with the Provincial Institute meeting. A vote of thanks was extended to the executive committee, retiring, for the way in which the business was carried on, and also to those who had read papers.

The officers elected for the next term are: President, Principal William J. Myles of the High school; vice-president, Henry Town, Centennial school; secretary-treasurer, Miss Ida A. Keagin, of St. Peter's boys' school; executive committee—W. A. Nelson, Winter street school; Miss Cate, of the Milford school. After the election of officers the meeting closed with the singing of the National anthem, and it was arranged to leave the date of the next meeting in the hands of the executive committee. These meetings take place every two years, alternatively with the Provincial Institute meeting. A vote of thanks was extended to the executive committee, retiring, for the way in which the business was carried on, and also to those who had read papers.

TOOK MONEY FROM UNDER HEAD OF CORPSE

Windsor, Ont., Oct. 23.—Even a death bed failed to stay the eager hands of a callous thief who entered the cheerless chamber where Mrs. Helen Smith lay wrapped in her shroud. Putting his hand under the pillow on which the head of the corpse rested, he extracted $25, the paltry sum the woman had hoarded to save her from a pauper's grave. The only person by her bedside during the last hours was her husband, who had been summoned from "The Home of the Friendless," when his wife breathed her last. The husband sought assistance and during his absence the theft was committed. Charitable neighbors have taken charge of the body.

FOUR HURT IN CHATEAU FRONTENAC EXPLOSION

Montreal, Oct. 22.—A despatch from Quebec tonight gives information of a boiler explosion in the Chateau Frontenac in which four men were seriously injured. The men were at work on the new heating apparatus being installed when the explosion occurred. E. J. Britton, engineer-in-chief of the Canada Foundry, had his face and hands badly burned.

E. Laurie, of the Angus shops, Montreal, was hurled forty feet and is now lying at the point of death in the Hotel Dieu, Quebec; John Hayes, who tried to rescue Laurie, was also badly scalded.

LLOYD-GEORGE CUTS DOWN THE BUDGET

London, Oct. 22.—David Lloyd-George, chancellor of the exchequer, presented in the house of commons this afternoon the budget estimate, as revised by him. The new figures show a falling off from the original estimates aggregating $10,500,000, of which slump $4,000,000 may be accounted for by the decreased revenue on spirits since the new and higher taxes were levied against them.

To offset these decreases there are estimated increases of $9,250,000, included in which are unexpected windfalls in the shape of death duties totaling $6,500,000 more than was originally expected and thus saving the chancellor from the necessity of facing a serious deficit. To meet a shortage of $1,250,000, Mr. Lloyd-George proposes to take $2,500,000 more out of the sinking fund.

IDENTIFIES MURDERED GIRL AS DAUGHTER

Fall River, Oct. 22.—After ten days passed in police custody on suspicion that he was implicated in the murder of Amelia St. Jean, the victim of the suit case mystery, Wilfrid C. Thibeault was released today. The police declared that their investigations had shown that Thibeault was in no way connected with the murder and that it would be an injustice to detain him longer. He was allowed to go to his home, being required only to give his personal recognition in the sum of $200 for appearance as a witness in the case against Professor Frank Hill, who is held on the charge of murder. Hill's hearing in the district court has been set for next Monday.

Aside from the release of Thibeault the interesting feature of the mystery today was the positive identification of the dismembered body of that of Amelia St. Jean by her mother, Mrs. Amelia St. Jean, of Woonsocket, and by the girl's sister, Miss Orianna St. Jean, who was also brought from Woonsocket to look at the body. Although Mrs. St. Jean has failed hitherto to identify the torso and the severed limbs, she was convinced today when certain marks on the body were shown to her that her daughter was the victim of the mystery crime. Later in the day Miss St. Jean arrived in the city and was taken to the room where the body is kept. She was very positive in her identification of the body as that of her sister.

ROBS BENEFACTOR

Bangor, Me., Oct. 22.—A man giving his name as Tom McKay, appeared at the home of Mrs. Ellen Lee, a woman of 78 years, who lives alone one mile from Howland Village, and asked for a hot drink, as he had been chilled while hunting. The stranger was furnished with supper, in return for which he milked the cows. Returning to the house the man suddenly pointed his rifle at Mrs. Lee and demanded her money and bank book. The old lady in her terror gave up $33, all the money she had, whereupon her assailant left, after threatening to blow her head off if she attempted to leave the house or give an alarm.

Mrs. Lee managed to attract the attention of a neighbor who found her in a dangerous state of collapse and took her to his home for the night. The Bangor police have been notified and are now searching for the robber, who is described as 25 years old, small of stature, with brown moustache.

COUNT BONI BRINGS EX WIFE TO COURT

Paris, Oct. 22.—Count Boni De Castellaine, having insisted that his former wife, who was Miss Anna Gould, place the three sons of the Castellaine-Gould marriage in a certain boarding school and the Princess De Sagan having objected, the grounds that the health of the children made such a step inadvisable, the case got into court today. The count asked that the princess be ordered to comply with his wishes in the matter and further that the court provide a penalty for a neglect of its order in the shape of a settlement upon the children of $100 per day for each day that their mother kept them from the school. Counsel for the princess explained that his client was willing to place the children in the school as desired and was only prevented from so doing by the condition of their health. The court promised a decision in the matter on Oct. 29.

MILL BOILER EXPLODES

St. Clements, Ont., Oct. 22.—A terrific explosion took place this morning at Rat's assmill, killing one man and completely wrecking the plant. The money loss will be approximately $45,000.

Five minutes after the boiler had been inspected and reported in good order it blew up. Walter Leaper, a well driller, was hurled 300 feet from the mill and instantly killed.

Canada's Customs revenue increased $5,827,658 the first six months of the fiscal year.

THE RENOVATED STAR

Big Re-opening Film — Hudson-Fulton Parade Thanksgiving Day

With the Hudson-Fulton Naval Parade as its great feature on Thanksgiving Day, the Star Theatre will open its doors at 10 o'clock, 1 o'clock and 6.30 p. m., fresh from the hands of the painters and decorators, as well as carpet layers, carpenters and stove-fitters.

The renovations of less than a year ago have been repeated, though on a grander scale, and the result is the prettiest little picture house in St. John. The color scheme is vermilion, gold and white, and not only the auditorium, but the lobbies, hallways and stairways and the whole exterior of the large building have been carefully gone over. A new and better curtain arrangement has been thought out, giving a still clearer view of the motion picture plays, whilst an expensive Edison kinoscope, with absolutely faultless mechanism, has been installed, assuring flickerless pictures that will not in the least strain the eyes.

As is already known, the Star has contracted for a magnificent service of "first-run" pictures, including the art productions of Pathé Freres, Paris; the Edison Co., the Vitaphone Co., Lubin & Co., and a half dozen of the best foreign makers. These features, along with a list of new vocal talent to be heard at the Star Theatre during the winter, will undoubtedly increase its already large patronage.

MARIE CORELLI'S ADVICE TO THE SUFFRAGETTES

London, Oct. 23.—Marie Corelli, in a magazine article, reiterates her entire disapproval of women in politics. Nevertheless she would be willing to enfranchise women if they proved able to meet a test which she suggests. Let the Suffragettes, she says in effect, acquire a building, furnish it like the house, and handle for three years the same subjects being dealt with by the members of parliament. If the women during that period are guileless of any violent clap-nettraps, if they endure all-night sittings without appearing in the house in their night gear, and if they show themselves wiser than men,