ONE TO BE PROUD OF.

A happily married woman, who had enjoyed thirty-three years of wedlock, and who was the grandmother of four beautiful little children, had an amusing old colored woman for a cook.

One day when a box of especially beautiful flowers was left for the mistress, the cook happened to be present, and said, "Yo' husband send you all the pretty flowers you gits, Missy?"

"Certainly, my husband, Mammy," proudly answered the lady.

"Glory!" exclaimed the cook, "he suttenly am holdin' out well."—Ladies' Home Journal.

VICTORIA RINK OPENING AND SEASON TICKETS INFORMATION.

As the thermometer takes its downward course, the thoughts of many hundred young folks are reverting to the winter pleasures to come, the most important of all being the good times to be had in the good old Victoria, which this year, under new management, promises to be more interesting than ever before—a veritable house of pleasure. For weeks the Vic has been undergoing a process of cleaning, painting, and decorating, and when it opens for the winter season on Monday, December 20, it will be difficult for the old patrons to recognize it.

In another column very interesting information is given in regard to the season ticket prices and other particulars. By telephoning the Unique Theatre or Victoria Rink any additional information will be gladly provided. The prices have been placed just as low as possible, perfect satisfaction in all details of management being considered, and those who patronize the Victoria this winter will certainly appreciate the dozen and one little conveniences that are being provided for their comfort.

ROANOKE

The St. John amateurs scored another success in their production of Roanoke last night. Standing room was at a premium and each of the performers was given a hearty ovation. Frank Stanton, as Ezekiel Morse was as good, if not better, than in the opening performance. Miss Baird, as Aunt Dinah, also acquitted herself well and was presented with a beautiful bouquet during the second act. All the rest of the cast did excellent work and the performance was carried out with much more spirit than on the opening night.

All the specialties were well received, especially the swinging song by Miss Nan Cathers and eight girls and boys, the servants' specialty by three boys and two girls and the Cynical Owl song by Miss J. Holder and Ken Bonnell, assisted by a chorus of sixteen boys and girls. Roanoke will be repeated this afternoon and tonight and judging from the advance sale of seats another bumper house will greet the amateurs.

NICKLES BIG INDIAN FEATURE

This is another day of fun for the children at the good old Nickel, the fountainhead of wholesome amusement. In the first place this is in reality the first big day of the Kriss Kringle Jingle Kontest, a competition in which the ten successful verse-writers are to get a hundred dollars' worth of the best useful prizes money could buy in this city. These awards will be shown the children from the stage this afternoon. The show itself is to be unusually good and will include the great American-Indian war picture, Custer's Last Stand, a page in United States history that is unique in world's great struggles. There are over 400 Indians and white men in this terrible fight. There are two sparkling comedies, a long dramatic reel, and excellent songs by Mr. Myers and Miss Leavitt. Same big programme at night.
