There are Little Soldiers in Your Blood

They are the white corpuscles, and there are millions of them.

It is their duty to defend you against disease, by protecting the red corpuscles and the bodily tissues from disease germs—those dangerous micro-organisms of which so much is now known.

You are helpless unless these little soldiers in your blood have the health and strength to fight for you—to repel the many infectious and contagious diseases whose germs are in the air you breathe, the water you drink, the food you eat, and on things you touch.

Among these diseases are typhoid fever, scarlet fever, diphtheria, grip, spotted fever, smallpox, malaria, ague, tuberculosis or consumption.

To make and keep these little soldiers healthy and strong, is simply to make and keep the blood of the right quality and quantity.

This is just what Hood's Sarsaparilla does.

It is the best preventive as well as curative medicine.

If your blood is impure and impoverished,—a condition indicated by eruptions, scrofula, eczema, catarrh, rheumatism, anemia, nervousness, tired, languid feelings, loss of appetite, general debility,—then the soldiers in your blood are not in condition to fight for you.

They need better health and greater strength. You should begin taking Hood's Sarsaparilla at once.

☞Hood's Sarsaparilla effects its wonderful cures, not simply because it contains sarsaparilla, but because it combines the utmost remedial values of more than 20 different ingredients, each greatly strengthened and enriched by this peculiar combination. These ingredients are the very remedies that successful physicians prescribe for the same diseases and ailments. There is no real substitute for Hood's Sarsaparilla. If urged to buy any preparation said to be "just as good," you may be sure it is inferior, costs less to make, and yields the dealer a larger profit.

ADRIFT IN THE SOUTH SEAS

Sailor's Trying Experience with Shipwreck and Hunger

(London 'Standard.').

A walk of 230 miles, the weathering of a cyclone on a bamboo raft and an existence of three weeks on turtle eggs and iguanas are some of the experiences which recently befel Captain Williams, in charge of the lugger 'Nebraska,' which was lost on Green Hill Island, a hundred miles or thereabouts from Port Darwin, in the northern territory of Australia.

When the lugger broke up Captain Williams swam to Green Hill Island and then tried to make the mainland in a dingy which he was able to make seaworthy. He was caught in a squall and after drifting for three days, was carried into the gulf, and eventually landed on Field Island, off the mouth of the Alligator River.

This Island is destitute of water, but some rain fell, and he eked out an existence for twelve days on the small supplies thus obtained, and turtle eggs. Both turtles and alligators were numerous. He then re-embarked in the dingy and made his way into the mouth of the West Alligator River, but could find no fresh water. He obtained from the bark of trees sufficent liquid to sustain life until rain fell.

Abandoning the dingy, he made his way up the east bank of the Wildman River, living on sweet potatoes and iguanas. His matches having been exhausted, he carried firesticks with him. He eventually crossed Wildman River and came out on what he thinks was Lake Finnis, where he found plenty of swamp turtles, iguanas and other native food.

On striking the Adelaide River jungle, Williams saw plenty of buffalo, but his only weapon being a revolver, he did not shoot any. He got down to the Adelaide River, near what is known as Lawrie's landing, where he built himself a raft of bamboo, and crossed. He had not long gone south, when a cycione squall came on, and blew the timber down all around him. He narrowly escaped death, but pluckily resumed his two-hundred-and-thirty-mile walk till he reached Port Darwin.

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP

Is without an Equal for COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS and all Affections of the THROAT and LUNGS.

All the most serious affections of the throat, the lungs and the bronchial tubes, are in the beginning but colds or coughs. Too much stress cannot be laid on this fact, and neglect to cure the cold very often causes years of suffering and in the end comes "Consumption." Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup combines all the lung healing virtues of the Norway pine tree with other absorbent, expectorant and soothing medicines of recognized worth, and is absolutely harmless, prompt and safe.

Mr. J. L. Purdy, Millvale, N.S., writes:—"I have been troubled with a hard, dry cough for a long time, especially at night, but after having used Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, for a few weeks, I find my cough has left me. To any person, suffering as I did, I can say that this remedy is well worth a trial. I would not be without it in the house."

So great has been the success of this wonderful remedy, it is only natural that numerous persons have tried to imitate it. Don't be humbugged into taking anything but "Dr. Woods." Put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark; price 25 cents.

A special meeting of the Y. M. C. A. will be held on Tuesday, the 13th, to appoint a nominating committee of three to nominate the directors for the annual meeting the second Tuesday in May, also to receive notice of proposed amendments to the constitution. H. J. Smith will address the Sunday morning boys' service.

The flavor, fragrance, purity and deliciousness of "Salada" Tea commend it to the favor of every lover of good tea. Every year has but served to demonstrate more emphatically its superiority.

Prof. Huebner, of Berlin, strongly recommends buttermilk as a diet for infants.

GENERAL BOOTH EIGHTY YEARS OLD

Many Prominent Men Speak in Praise of Salvation Army Head at Birthday Celebration Here

Yesterday the Salvation Army celebrated the eightieth birthday of General Booth. Meetings were held in the Citadel in Charlotte street. The afternoon meeting was a special consecration service, and in the evening the meeting was of a more public character. Addresses were given by prominent citizens. There was a large audience. On the platform were the speakers and many of the local officers and members of the Salvation Army.

The chairman of the meeting, His Worship Mayor Bullock, was introduced in a few words by Brigadier Collier. His Worship said that it afforded him a great deal of pleasure to be present. He had always taken a great deal of interest in the Salvation Army and in the great work that they were doing.

After a solo was sung by Captain Porter, Colonel Turner spoke on Lessons from the General's Life. He said that the general had founded a religion for the mind, the body and the soul. It was a religion for social intercourse and for daily life. It was a religion for the present as well as for the future. It formed one great temperance organization, helping the fallen to lift themselves. Its 17,000 officers were scattered throughout the world preaching and working with the one object.

Many great schemes in religious, social and educational advancement had been instituted by the general, but all had one object, the betterment of humanity.

After a selection by the citadel band, brief addresses were given.

Recorder Skinner expressed himself as being heartily in sympathy with the work of the Salvation Army. As he understood it, Christianity had two objects to meet the elevation, civilization and salvation of mankind—to offer to the world the true religion and to banish poverty. The latter of these two had been much neglected, and General Booth had been the first who had taken hold of religion with this object in view, and had worked for the betterment of his fellow man. No country limited his great work and in it alone could be seen the approach of the millenium.

Rev. W. R. Robertson said it gave him much pleasure to be present to convey the greetings of the Baptists. There was once a time when the Salvation Army was looked down on and ridiculed. Later on it was tolerated. Then it came to be respected, but now, he said, it was accepted. Its object to raise men out of selfishness into self was the noblest.

T. H. Estabrooks said that he had felt it was his duty to be present to speak of his respect for the man who for love of his fellow man had done so much for humanity. As he was a business man, he would speak from a business man's standpoint. No man alone could accomplish any great enterprise. He must have the power of attracting to himself men who had the power and ability to carry out his schemes. And he had the greatest respect for a man who had been able to attract to himself such men as carried out the great work of the Salvation Army. The tact, executive ability and foresight of General Booth from this point of view commanded his highest admiration.

Rev. David Lang brought the greetings of the Presbyterian body. In the object to help those that were down, there was a great work, a work, he thought, that had been too long neglected by the established churches. He had always admired General Booth, especially in his independence, which perhaps, after all, had served him best in the establishment of the army.

Rev. Dr. C. R. Flanders spoke of the great work of the general and of the evidence of God's special call to him to his great work.

Dr. T. D. Walker said that he had long been interested in the work of the army. They had done great work in the rescue homes for men and women. In the establishment of their maternity hospital they had conferred a great boon on the city of St. John. Among other things it offered to the nurses training that they would otherwise have not received.

Rev. J. S. Gibb conveyed the greetings of St. Philip's African Methodist Episcopal church. He said that by his great work General Booth had made himself, not the Salvation Army's alone, but all people's general.

E. H. McAlpine, K. C., spoke of the wonderful genius of General Booth in the organization and execution of his great projects. He had been spoken of as one of the three great men of his time, ranking with Bismarck and Gladstone. He had done more than any to raise fallen man and to hasten the time when the swords and spears should be beaten into ploughshares.

Rev. S. W. Anthony said that he esteemed it an honor to be present to testify to his admiration of General Booth. He was such a man, he said, as Carlyle would have called an uncrowned king. He was one of the outstanding figures in all time. The truest homage lay in imitation, and he, for one, wished to corporate into himself all the virtues of this great man.

At the conclusion the meeting was dismissed with the benediction by Rev. Dr. Flanders.

PRESBYTERIANS HOLD A UNITED SERVICE

A united service in St. John Presbyterian church yesterday forenoon in observance of Good Friday was well attended, the congregation being representative of all the Presbyterian churches in the city. The services were participated in by Rev. J. H. A. Anderson, Rev. L. A. McLean and Rev. David Lang. The Te Deum was sung by the choir.

Rev. Mr. Lang was the preacher, and his text was Matthew xxvii—36: "And sitting down they watched Him there." The subject of the discourse was the multitude who assembled around the cross. Some were there, the preacher said, who were indifferent to what was being enacted, others were present for the sake of gain. Many were present from motives of opposition and a few out of love and devotion to the dying Christ.

The preacher went on to say that in modern times men assembled around the cross from very much the same motives. In ancient and medieval times it was customary to associate the sufferings of Christ with the celebration of Good Friday. In the first ages of the church, however, the ideals more commonly associated with the day were joy and victory won by the sacrifice of the cross. This, he contended, was the proper spirit in which Good Friday ought to be observed.

The collection was in aid of the Associated Charities of the city.

A GRAND KIDNEY MEDICINE

"Fruit-a-tives" Cured Him When Everything Else Failed.

Ulverton, Que., March 17th, 1908.

I wish to place on record, for the sake of others who may be suffering in the same way that I suffered, that no medicine I ever took did me so much real good as "Fruit-a-tives" did.

I suffered for many years with Kidney Trouble, with bad pain in the back.

I took every known kidney remedy and kidney pill, but nothing gave me any relief, and I was getting discouraged.

I was advised to try "Fruit-a-tives" and did so—and this medicine cured me when everything else failed.

I used altogether fifteen boxes of "Fruit-a-tives," and from the outset they gave me relief and I am now practically well again; no pain, no distress and all symptoms of kidney disease have entirely left me. I am very thankful to be once more well, and I freely make this statement for the sake of others who may suffer as I did. To them, I say try "Fruit-a-tives."

CLARENCE J. PLACEY.

50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, or trial size 25c. At dealers or from Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

ST. JOHN BOY LEADS

The race between St. John and Fredericton for the free trip to the Old Country offered by The Standard of Empire, grows closer as the contest proceeds. Cyril H. MacDonald, of St. John High School, on April 6 was 750 votes ahead of Cecil R. Carman, of Fredericton, but judging by the exertions being made by the people of Fredericton there will be a very close finish. It is to be hoped that local enterprise will give young MacDonald all possible support in order to enable him to win this interesting prize for St. John.

The Standard of Empire is giving the twelve high school and collegiate institute students that secure the greatest number of subscriptions to that newspaper a trip of three whole weeks in England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales. For the successful New Brunswick boy this means a free holiday of five weeks. The competition will close on June 1, and the boys will sail on the Empress of Britain on July 16.

The twelve successful boys will see all the principal historic sights of the Old Country and will have the honor of dining with Lord Roberts. Candidates from most of the principal high schools and collegiates throughout the dominion are working to win this exceptional prize, which is offered with the approval of the governor-general and of the premiers of the various provinces. All information as to how the trip is to be won can be obtained from the Standard of Empire, Stair building, Toronto.

BE A CHARMING WOMAN

You never saw a beautiful woman who didn't have beautiful hair. The charms of a beautiful woman lie in her hair. Many women do not realize the attractions they possess because they do no give proper attention to the care of the hair.

The women of the "400" are famed for their beauty, not because their facial features are superior to those of other women, but because they know how to keep young by supplying vigor, lustre, and strength to the hair.

Up to a few years ago Parisian Sage could hardly be obtained in America. But now this delightful hair restorer can be had in every town in America. Charles R. Wasson, 100 King street, sells it in St. John, N. B., for 50 cents a bottle, and he guarantees it to grow beautiful, luxuriant hair; to turn dull, lifeless hair into lustrous hair; to stop falling hair; to stop itching of the scalp. Understand, Charles R. Wasson, 100 King street, will give you your money back if it fails.

An association football match will be played this afternoon between the Bankers and All St. Johns, on the Every Day Club grounds.

Grafton—Yes, I suppose you read about Nuritch's ambition to be a senator?
Griff—Well, yes; I see by the papers that he says he's in the hands of his friends—
Grafton—That's it. I'm one of his friends.

OBITUARY

William H. Smith

The death of William H. Smith occurred yesterday at his residence, 203 Douglas avenue. He had been sick only a short while, but a long standing heart trouble complicated matters and hastened his death. Mr. Smith was very well known. He had been in the employ of Manchester, Robertson, Allison, Limited, for a number of years. He was a native of St. John and was born in High street in 1837. He was the eldest son of the late George Smith. At an early age he entered the dry goods store of the late John Armstrong and was in his employ for a number of years. After Mr. Armstrong's death he entered into partnership with W. H. Fairhall and opened a store in Prince William street. About 1879 the partnership was dissolved and Mr. Smith entered the employ of M. R. A., remaining until his death.

Mr. Smith was an active member of St. Luke's church. He was a church warden and had been a member of the choir ever since he was a boy. About 1873 he married Miss Frances Hilyard, a daughter of the late Thomas Hilyard who, with two sons and four daughters, survive. The sons are Rev. Walter H. Smith, of Sherbrooke Lake (Ont.), and Willard at home. The daughters are Mrs. F. G. Flewelling, of Pittsburg, Mrs. Thomas Charleston of Ottawa, Mrs. J. F. Macaulay of Grand Manan, and Mrs. Robert Beresford, of this city. The funeral will take place from St. Luke's church on Monday.

F. Marion Crawford

Sorrento, April 9—F. Marion Crawford, the novelist, died here at 7.30 o'clock tonight. He was born in 1854.

Mr. Crawford had been ill for some time, one of the symptoms of his affection being fevers, which tended greatly to weaken him. Professor Enrico di Renzi, director of the American Clinic of the University of Naples, was called into consultation at the Villa Crawford some ten days ago, and found serious bronchial and pleuretic complications. His illness had its origin in an attack of influenza. Death came peacefully and while his entire family were at the bedside, except the eldest son, Harold, who is in the far east. Until this afternoon the patient had retained consciousness, but apparently knew that the end was near and with calmness encouraged his family to bear up and cease weeping. The novelist's last words were: "I enter serenely into eternity."

According to the attending physician, Mr. Crawford collapsed last night owing to extreme weakness. He then was without fever. Sadly he expressed the presentiment that he was soon to die, but almost immediately afterwards, when alluding to the approaching Good Friday, he said: "I die with Christ." Mr. Crawford's daughter, at his request, then read to him Plato's dialogues, the novelist declaring that they taught him serenity in death.

Helena Modjeska

Las Angeles, Cal., April 8—Mme. Helena Modjeska, the famous Polish tragedienne and one of the most famous actresses of the American stage, died at 10 o'clock today at her island home at Bay City, Orange County, at the age of 65, after an illness of about two months. For several days she had been unconscious and her death was almost hourly expected. Bright's disease, complicated with heart trouble, was the immediate cause of death.

Gathered around the bedside of the noted actress when she passed away were Count Bozenta, husband of Mme. Modjeska; Ralph Modjeska and his wife, a son and daughter-in-law of Chicago, and Dr. J. C. Boyd, the family physician.

KIDNEY DISEASE COMES ON QUIETLY.

Perhaps no other organs work harder than the kidneys to preserve the general health of the body and most people are troubled with some kind of Kidney Complaint, but do not suspect it. It may have been in the system for some time. There may have been backaches, swelling of the feet and ankles, disturbances of the urinary organs, such as brick dust deposit in the urine, highly colored scanty or cloudy urine, bladder pains, frequent or supressed urination, burning sensation when urinating, etc.

Do not neglect any of these symptoms, for, if neglected they will eventually lead to Bright's Disease, Dropsy and Diabetes.

On the first sign of anything wrong Doan's Kidney Pills should be taken. They go to the seat of trouble, strengthen the kidneys and help them to filter the blood properly and flush off all the impurities which cause kidney trouble.

Miss Albertha B. Clarke, Stony Creek, Ont., writes: "I was troubled with kidney trouble for several years; my back was weak, I had such terrible headaches, and was so restless I could not sleep at night and tried everything without any benefit. Meantime a friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills, so I got four boxes and they completely cured me. I now feel as well as I ever did and would advise everyone suffering from Kidney Disease to try them."

Price 50 cts. per box, or 3 for $1.25, all dealers or The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

When ordering specify "Doan's."

Beautify the Yard.

A little expense, a little care and a little time spent on your yard at this period of the year will insure pleasing and satisfactory results during the summer and fall. To have a bed of flowers with a little color and symmetry is an easy matter, even if you have never tried your hand at it before. You surely have a neighbor who can help you, and if this plan fails, there is always the seed man to fall back on. Deal with a reliable firm in your own town and you will have the benefit of their experience. To the ailing woman, to the nervous woman, there is no occupation as fascinating as caring for a little patch of flowers. You plant the seeds, you water the ground carefully, and then, when the little leaves peep out from the soil in obedience to Nature's mandates, your pleasure is indeed great. Then you follow the delicate leaves through every process of their growth. It is a healthful and wonderful experience. Try it and see.

High Pressure Days

Men and women alike have to work incessantly with brain and hand to hold their own nowadays. Never were the demands of business, the wants of the family, the requirements of society, more numerous. The first effect of the praiseworthy effort to keep up with all these things is commonly seen in a weakened or debilitated condition of the nervous system, which results in dyspepsia, defective nutrition of both body and brain, and in extreme cases in complete nervous prostration. It is clearly seen that what is needed is what will sustain the system, give vigor and tone to the nerves, and keep the digestive and assimilative functions healthy and active. From personal knowledge, we can recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla for this purpose. It acts on all the vital organs, builds up the whole system, and fits men and women for these high pressure days.
