NICHOLAS TO VISIT ITALY'S KING: Rome, Oct. 10.—It is expected that Em- peror Nicholas will visit King Victor Em- manuel within a week. Signor Melegari, the Italian ambassador to Russia, already has returned to Italy in order to receive his majesty. The strictest secrecy is being maintained as to where the meeting between the emperor and king will take place, but it probably will be at Raconigi, the summer castle in Piedmont, where the Italian sov- ereign this year has been making a pro- longed stay. According to some persons it will occur at Bari, on the Adriatic, northwest of Brindisi, which is rich in Russian memories. The Empress Alex- andra, who still is ill, will not accompany her husband to Italy. Emperor Nicholas abandoned the idea of a voyage to Italy by sea because Turkey granted permission for his ship to pass through the Dardanelles only on the condition that he would visit the sultan, while the emperor took the view that he would be the guest of the sultan, having ascended the throne at a later date than himself, should be the first to pay a visit. SUES WOMAN FOR DAMAGES: Portland, Maine, Oct. 9.—The most sensa- tional case of the present term of the United States Circuit Court was begun today when Mrs. Adele T. Salisbury, wife of Commander George D. Salisbury, U. S. N., appeared as defendant in an action brought by Mrs. Henrietta M. Heselton, 226 St. James. The incident on which the suit is based happened in Portland June 11, 1908, when Mrs. Salisbury lost a purse in a local hotel and thought Mrs. Heselton took it. WOODSTOCK FIRE: Woodstock, N. B., Oct. 10.—(Special)—At 1 o'clock this morning fire destroyed the dry house in connection with the Drysdale factory, owned by James Carr, but through the efforts of the fire depart- ment no other damage was done. The factory has not been in operation recently and the cause of the fire is unknown. FIRE DAMAGE $100,000: Milton, N. H., Oct. 9.—Practically all the entire plant of the Boston Ice Com- pany, including thirteen ice houses, a stable and a tool house were burned to- night, together with nine freight cars loaded with ice, which stood on the Boston & Maine railroad siding near the ice house. The loss is estimated at $100,000. PILES: Dr. Chase's Ointment is a certain and guaranteed cure for piles and every 20¢ tin of ointment, including postage, is sent to you free of charge. See testimonials in the press and your neighbor about it. You can use it and get your money back if not satisfied. 6c. at all Dealers or EDMANSON, HATES & CO., Toronto. DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT.

PURCHASING AGENT FOR I. C. R. APPOINTED Louis Lavoie Gets Position—Im- migration Increases — Ottawa Business Man Killed

Ottawa, Oct. 10.—Louis Lavoie of Rimouski, who for some years has been on the Intercolonial at Moncton, on the staff of General Manager Pottinger, has been appointed general purchasing agent of the government railways. He will have full charge of all purchases for the Inter- colonial and Prince Edward Island rail- ways. He will be stationed at Ottawa, and will have a clerical staff here. For some years practically all supplies for government railways have been pur- chased by tenders which have been opened at Ottawa. Tenders have been called for quantities and delivery taken, as required, or goods have been put into the store at Moncton. The stores department at Moncton will be continued. There was another lively clash last night between the authorities and the three safe breakers who have been dodging the police in the woods for a week. Many shots were exchanged, but no one was hurt and the fugitives made their escape again. During the month of August 15,387 immi- grants entered Canada, which is 5,305 or 53 per cent better than the previous August. In the first five months of the fiscal year immigrants entered Canada to the number of 115,636, a gain of 15,291. Hon. A. B. Aylesworth has returned to Ottawa after a four months absence, chiefly in England, where he was engaged on the Canadian-Newfoundland fishery case against the United States, which is before the Hague for decision next April. The case has been completed on both sides and statements of claims have been exchanged. Hon. Mr. Aylesworth did not have time to go to Vienna to be treated for his hearing, as was expected. He de- clines there is no foundation for reported differences between himself and Sir Robert Findlay in getting up the case. Walter M. Barry, vice-president of the firm of Harris & Barry, furniture dealers, and one of the leading business men of Ottawa, was killed here Saturday. He was crossing the Grand Trunk yard and was run down by a shunting engine.

MARRIED ONE MONTH: Chas. R. Crocker Dies of Typhoid In Newcastle—Other Deaths: Newcastle, N. B., Oct. 10.—Charles Rowland Crocker, an Intercolonial employe, who also owned a large farm and who for the last two or three weeks had been suf- fering from typhoid fever, died suddenly this afternoon after a physician had pro- nounced the crisis past. Deceased, who was in his thirty-fifth year, was a son of the late Hugh and Helen Crocker, and a nephew of Timothy W. Crocker. He married Miss Loggie Napier, Mitamichi, a little more than a month ago. He is sur- vived by his wife, one sister, Mrs. Lyman Lauchland, of Dundas (Ont.). The funeral of Philip Jonas took place this afternoon, interment being in the Roman Catholic cemetery. Rev. Father Dixon officiating. Deceased was a native of Grand River, Gaspe, but lived here the last fifty years. He was seventy-eight years old. Deceased ruptured himself while working Thursday and died in great pain yesterday. Six children survive, all absent from home—Emma, Leva, Bessie, and Philip, of New York. The funeral was largely attended. Andrew, the only child of John McCabe, died today, aged six months. The only child of Mason Betts died last week. Last night gathering in the last of his harvest the barn of William J. Black, three miles from town, was burned. There was no insurance. The property was held under lease. The funeral of Mrs. John Donan, of Derby, who died Friday night of appendi- citis, aged sixty-five, took place here this afternoon and was largely attended. Rev. Father Dixon conducted the services. De- ceased's six sons were pall-bearers. She had been ill about two months, and is survived by her husband and the follow- ing children: Mrs. James P. Murphy, Mrs. William F. Black, Mrs. Peter Cobb, Mrs. James Donahue, Mrs. Allan Black, Mr. of Newcastle; Mrs. Charles Jones, of Ontario; John C. Arthur, Stanley, Sheri- dan, William and Leo, of Derby.

"A FOOL FOR LUCK" Sixty People Under Direction of Messrs. A. Chip Ritchie and H. M. Gardner. Surprising Novelties. Big Chorus. Pretty Ensembles. CONCERT ORCHESTRA OF TWENTY-TWO PIECES. SEAT SALE NOW OPEN

TOMORROW'S BIG SHOW AT THE OPERA HOUSE H. M. Gardner, of New York; A. Chip Ritchie, of this city, and others having to do with the big comedy-spectacle, A Fool for Luck, which is to be the attraction at the Opera House Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week, are perfectly well satisfied with the result of the full-dress rehearsal of late and it is an open secret that a big surprise is in store for local theatre-goers. A Fool for Luck is not a deep-plotted story, but a jingling, effervescent musical comedy overflowing with the latest songs, pretty choruses, fantastic marches and ensembles, partici- pated in by a sixty-strong group of young ladies and gentlemen who sing finely and act with the grace and care-freedom of professionals. Backed up by an orchestra of twenty-two players, under F. C. Jones, and staged with numerous novel effects, this production will be a sure hit. The Nora, James, of Glace Bay (N. S.), and Philip, of New York. The funeral was largely attended. Andrew, the only child of John McCabe, died today, aged six months. The only child of Mason Betts died last week. Last night gathering in the last of his harvest the barn of William J. Black, three miles from town, was burned. There was no insurance. The property was held under lease. Marie, Buffalo, and poin- east in Canada. GOOD DRY HARDWOOD For furnaces. Sawn, one cut, $1.80 per load delivered. GEO. DICK, 48 BRITAIN ST. Telephone 111 6. NEW YORK POLITICS New York, Oct. 9.—With William Ran- dolph Hearst's name as an additional as- set to the Republican-Fusion ticket, New York's municipal campaign shaped itself definitely today as a fight to oust Tam- many Hall from control of the city finances. Both Hearst and Otto T. Ban- nard, the Republican-Fusion nominee, say that their election is a matter of secondary importance so long as the remainder of the Fusion ticket wins, for this will mean Tammany's defeat for the board of esti- mates.

WE ARE CONFIDENT THAT as an advertising medium the Times will compare favorably with any in the field. There are a number of instances where the Times has been tried as an advertising medium and has not been found wanting. We have a plan whereby the pulling power of the Times can be tested which we'd be pleased to explain to any merchant interested.
