CANADIAN CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATIONS.

Join the crowd by sending in your application for a course of instruction in the Canadian Civil Service. Opportunity is knocking at your door. I. C. S., 102 Prince Wm. St., City.

Mr. Camp referred to the proposed navy, put forward a plan for spending millions for machines to kill men, when they would do so much to build up homes and spread the gospel of peace. This brought him to his final plea that to promote temperance all organizations should unite to bring Mr. Camp spoke with much vigor and was heard by a very large assembly of people. The musical programme, led by the orchestra, included a solo by Miss Lulu Colwell, who sang with much feeling and expression.

Many in Toronto Hear Mrs. Pankhurst

Englishman Found Dead—Ontario Farmer Loses Life in Fire.

Toronto, Nov. 21.—(Special)—Miss Pankhurst, the noted English suffragette, was received in Toronto. She addressed an immense meeting on Saturday night in Massey Hall, and another in the local theatre tonight.

St. Thomas, Ont., Nov. 21.—(Special)—John B. McIntyre, an aged farmer living alone in the northern part of Yorkmouth, was burned to death in his house last night. The origin of the fire is unknown. The body was also destroyed.

Port Stanley, Nov. 21.—(Special)—The body of Alfred Hastings was found cold in death just north of the Franklin House barn on Saturday. A bruise was noticed over one eye. The coroner was notified and an inquest is now being held. Hastings was a British soldier and of good character.

Toronto, Nov. 21.—(Special)—Two men, Philip Drolet and Fred Doe, from Victoria Harbor, were breaking the law by using dynamite to kill fish in Georgian Bay to-day when the whole load exploded. Drolet was blown to pieces and Doe, being unable to swim, was drowned, their boat being wrecked.

NEW SINGER AND BIG FEATURE AT STAR TONIGHT

With a charming little singer in Miss Beulah Dennison, who is to make her bow in the child-song "Captain Willie Brown," and with a solo-drama of unusual interest the Star Theatre in Union Hall, North End, will commence the week of night in grand style. This song will be a programme that will create considerable comment, for a surprise will be sprung in the great Vitaphone production "The Scales of Justice," which is described as one of the finest picture-plays yet photographed.

A Pathic drama is the pathetic story "A Home Without Children," but "The Bogus Heir" is a round of laughter from start to finish. There will be a third reel as well, and plenty of bright catchy music. Miss Dennison is a most pleasing singer and has been heard of late years with a great deal of acceptance in Maine theatres.
