FAVORITE IN $25,000 DERBY DIES IN STALL AT RACE TRACK

Settling the Athletic War in Upper Canada—Cameron's Time Doubled by Halifax Paper—Ring, Baseball, Bowling and Other Sport—Old Events Revived

Mexico City, Mex., Nov. 22—Howard, a bay colt, two years old, by Odd Fellow-Nimonia, died in his stall at the Peralvillo race track yesterday. He was imported from the United States for the $25,000 Mexican derby of 1910 and was held favorite in the future betting on that event. He was owned by George I. Ham, an American banker, who valued the colt at $10,000.

Montreal, Nov. 22—(Special)—At a meeting on Saturday night at which were representatives of twenty-five clubs, E. Herb Brown, president of the M. A. A., was elected president of the Quebec & Eastern Ontario Athletic body. The new association is to be the Quebec section of the Canadian Union, which is to be formed as a result of a Labor Day conference at Ottawa called to end the war between the C. A. A. U., and the Federation. The decision was reached unanimously.

James Y. Gathcomb of Concord (N. H.) has sold to H. H. Peck, of Waterbury, (Conn.) for $10,000 the two-year-old trotting colt Guy Audubon, 2:24 1/4 by Audubon Boy 1:30 1/4, out of Gaiety Girl, 2:15 1/4.

This is believed to be the record price for a New England-bred two-year-old, and Gathcomb has hopes that the sale will net him a considerable sum, as he is to have in addition to the $10,000 already paid, 15 per cent of what the colt may win in the Futurity events of 1910.

Guy Audubon was bred by Fred L. Lee of West Springfield, (Mass.) and was bought by Gathcomb last spring while on a visit to Macon, Ga., where James Brady was training the colt for Lee.

The Ring

(New York American)—Out West they are setting up an awful row about Jeff and his theatricals. The main cause of the commotion is that Jeff ordered from his official glove-maker, Sol Levinson, of San Francisco, a complete set of "stage maulers," together with bags and other apparatus. Levinson has made all the gloves Jeff has used in his career, with a few exceptions. He knows all of Jeff's whims, and Jeff is a crank when it comes to his hand upholstery. Jeff in his latest order, was particularly about getting the gloves big enough, and Levinson set about making twelve ounces.

The sporting writers do not fancy Jeff's sudden desire to occupy the limelight. They are saying as many unkind things about big Jim as they did when he first started from California with his "Wait a month or so and I'll tell you whether I am fit to fight or not." They say that Jeff can't be on the level with the public if he continues to strut before the footlights telling people what he intends to do.

It is almost certain that if Jeff hiked away to the hills now, he'd just naturally work his big woolly head off. The westerners haven't the faintest idea of the great physical change that has come over Jeff. He's not the rotund "pub" keeper that left the Golden Gate a few months ago. He drew himself up to his full height in the dressing room of the Plaza a few nights ago and remarked: "Some change in this condition, boys. Just a few more months and I'll be like my old self."

Outwards all that Jeff claimed seemed to be true. There was just the faint sign of a stomach. The muscles of his shoulders were bunched and his eye sparkled with health and strength. Jeff seemed quite determined and anxious to have the time of battle near. There is a long gap before the two great heaves enter the ring, and certainly Jeff shouldn't be concerned for making hay while the sun shines. He'd been a lion to start for the hills and hard work at this early date.

Kyle Whitney of San Francisco won the decision over Mickey McDonough of Brooklyn in a 15-round bout at the Queen City A. C., Manchester, N. H., Friday, having the better of the argument after the second round.

In a 10-round bout at the Syracuse A. C. Friday, Mattie Baldwin of Charlestown, Mass., completely outclassed Tommy Carry of Philadelphia.

The Young Men's Club of Salem has secured Jimmy Hanlan to meet Max Baker in the feature bout of eight rounds at its rooms tonight.

Freddy O'Brien and Al Demont meet tonight at the National A. C., South Boston.

The Bench

The annual Boston terrier show was brought to a close Friday night in the Mechanics' building, and with it came additional honors for the dog of the year. Mrs. Francis P. Kendall's Yankee Doodle did, "Along with the bitch, Sister Carrie, this 18-month-old beauty has won honors rarely carried off by older show dogs."

Since the opening of the show he has had one unbroken string of wins, and won the ribbon for the best terrier in the show, the premier honor of the year.

Old Sport Events Revived

W. G. George of England (1884) holds the best record for the mile run, 4:12 1/4, at Lilliebridge, Eng., June, 1882.

W. A. Smith skated one mile, Dec. 27, 1874, for the amateur championship of London, Eng., in 3m. 46s.

The fastest mile by a horse (1884) is 1:39 1/4, made by Ten Broeck when five years old, carrying 110 pounds, and run at Louisville, Ky., May 24, 1877.

John McMahon defeated John H. McLaughlin in Chicago, Ill., in a collar and elbow wrestling match for $2,000, Nov. 23, 1878.

John Morrissey's fight with "Yankee Sullivan" at Boston Four Corners, Oct. 1882, was not squarely won by Morrissey. Sullivan made a perfect chopping block of him. "Awful" Gardner, who was seconding Morrissey, became engaged in the 37th round in a row with "Dublin Tricks," one of Sullivan's seconds, and the referee gave the bout to Morrissey. He was carried from the ring, Sullivan remaining on his feet and daring him to come back.

The schooner yacht Henrietta, 205 tons, James Gordon Bennett, owner, sailed from New York to Cowes, Isle of Wight, Dec. 11-25, 1896, distance 2100 miles, safety-stakes race with the Vesta and Fleeting, for $50,000, in 13 days 21 hours 55 minutes.

The schooner yacht (Sampson, N. Y. Y. C.) sailed from New York to Queenstown, Ire., in 12 days 9 hours 36 minutes.

Eleven miles have been run in an hour in America by P. Fitzgerald, New York city, June 16, 1879. "Deefoot" L. Bennett ran 11 miles 970 yards in an hour in England.

The Shamout Club's four-screw crew, Jeremiah Casey, the Gookin brothers and George Faulkner, hold (1884) the four-oared championship of the United States.

Charles A. Bennett, a San Francisco athlete, is credited with having lifted 11 tons of pig iron in one minute and 600 pounds at one time.

J. H. Hocking is credited with walking a mile in 7m. 1s. at the games of the New York Twelfth Regiment, 1882.

Captain John F. Morrill of the Boston Baseball Club, played chump-catcher with "Lew" Brown in Harry Wright's nine in 1876.

Charles Mitchell knocked John L. Sullivan down in the first round of their set, in New York city, May 14, 1883. It is the only knockdown Sullivan ever received (1884).

John C. Heenan was born in West Troy, N. Y., May 2, 1834, and died at Green River Station, Wyo., on the Union Pacific railroad, Oct. 25, 1873.

William Edwards defeated Dan O'Leary in a six day walking match at Sydney, Australia. The match was a pretty sick one, as the Australian only covered 373 miles and O'Leary 350.

L. E. Myers ran 250 yards in 28 seconds, June 3, 1883.

The best record for three miles, single scull, with turn, up to 1877 was 21m. 19 1/2s, made by James O'Neil at Santa-toga, Aug. 31, 1874. Courtney reduced the record to 20m. 14 1/2s, Teemer to 20m 10s., and Hosmer to 20m. 3s.

Athletic

The Halifax Recorder has doubts with reference to Cameron's time in his race with Fowler at Sydney on Friday, and says—

"Cameron is a fast runner, but his time of last night will have to be verified before being accepted. His time not only beats the Canadian records, but leads the American amateur records—far 6 miles by 20:15 seconds, the 7 miles by 1 minute 15:25 seconds, the 8 miles by 1 minute 10:15 seconds, and the 9 miles by 1:13:25. These amateur records were only made recently, when George Bonham ran his 10 miles in the record time of 22:44:35, and were made outdoors on a regular circular path, while Cameron's time was made in a rink, 14 laps to the announced mile."

"The time for each mile, as announced in the despatch, shows some particular facts, they thus being as follows: 4:30, 5:02, 5:04, 5:10, 5:17, 5:22, 4:27, 5:21, 5:31, 5:48. Why Cameron should run his seventh mile in such time as 4:27, and his last mile, in which a "desperate sprint" was made, in 4:48, is something which needs explanation, and cause queries as to the kind of watches used. Another point which gives rise to doubt is Fowler running in faster time than he has shown of late."

Baseball

Two new features of the status of Catcher Kling have been uncovered by President Charles Murphy of the Cubs. One is that Kling is not an outlaw and is not barred from organized ball for years and the other that he really does not want to play with any other club than the Cubs unless he can be manager.

THOSE DELIGHTFUL SWEDES.

"Ay tank Ay go across the street and get the tailor to mend my waist," drawled the Swedish foreman, showing his employer a very ragged vest.

"All right, John."

In a few minutes the Swede returned with his vest untouched.

"Aren't you going to have it mended?" asked the boss.

"Ay, tank not in that shop," replied the Swede. "Ay ask him what he charge an he say, 'Two dollar.' Then Ay ask him, 'Will you take the vest in part payment, and he wouldn't do it.'"

FORTY THOUSAND PEOPLE SEE YALE DEFEAT HARVARD

Capt. Coy's Kicking Gives Championship to the Blue—Football Victims Thirty This Season

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 20—The splendid kicking of Captain Edward H. Coy brought the eastern inter-collegiate football championship back to Yale today in an old-fashioned football game in which Harvard went down to defeat by a score of 8 to 0.

Driving the crimson team steadily back by his long punts, Captain Coy dropped two goals from the field, and the aggressive forwards of the Yale team contributed two points more by blocking a Harvard punt which resulted in a safety for the crimson.

While Yale seemed to win easily, the game was a distinct disappointment from a Harvard standpoint, for the crimson eleven showed more than twice the power of the blue in straight rushing, and at one time in the game carried the ball fifty-three yards in four scrimmages.

Nearly 40,000 people in the usual regalia sat for two hours beneath an Indian summer sky. It was ideal football weather and with constant cheering and frequent inspiring songs by the two undergraduate bodies, the game proved one of the most enjoyable in the history of the leading intercollegiate sport.

Wisconsin and Chicago Tie.

Chicago, Nov. 20—Wisconsin and Chicago Universities battled to a sensational six to six tie game on Marshall Field today.

Brown, 21; Carlisle, 8.

New York, Nov. 20—In a spirited and hard-fought game, in which old fashioned football predominated, Brown defeated the Carlisle Indians at the Polo grounds today, by a score of 21 to 8.

Bowdoin, 6; Tufts, 0.

Portland, Me., Nov. 20—On a muddy field on which the players slipped and floundered in soft clay, three inches deep, Bowdoin won from Tufts, 6 to 0, today. There was a fall of snow last night, and so slippery was the wet clay that at times players lost their footing and fell when no other player was near them.

Chicago, Nov. 21—Football has claimed a toll of thirty lives and 216 injuries during the present season, according to figures compiled by the Record-Herald today. This is the largest number of deaths recorded in nine years according to the Record-Herald figures which have been kept since 1901.

AT WORK IN 3 WEEKS

$4 Worth of Father Morrissey's "No. 7"

Cured Her of Inflammatory Rheumatism.

Mrs. Agnes Edgar, of Grand Falls, N.B., had a terrible time with Inflammatory Rheumatism. Anyone who has had this most painful disease will understand her suffering—and her joy when she found Father Morrissey's "No. 7" had cured her. She says:

"I took Father Morrissey's Prescription for Inflammatory Rheumatism. I had suffered everything with it, but in three weeks after starting Father Morrissey's Prescription I was able to do my work, and after taking four dollars worth of medicine I was well. I highly recommend it any sufferer with Rheumatism."

Rheumatism comes from bad kidneys. The poisonous Uric Acid which they should remove stays in the blood, accumulates in joints and muscles, and causes agony. Father Morrissey's "No. 7" puts the kidneys right, removes the Uric Acid from the blood and the whole system, and cures the Rheumatism. See a box at your dealer's, or from Father Morrissey Medicine Co., Ltd., Chatham, N.B.
