OPERA HOUSE TOMORROW

On Good Friday will be the last performance of Myrkle-Harder Company at the Opera House when two of their best plays will be presented. At the matinee An American Gentleman, a good, lively comedy drama, and at night A Country Boy in New York with Mr. Harder in the cast as My Jim. New vaudeville is announced for between the acts. Record crowds are expected.

AT THE NICKEL

Today at the Nickel the great art feature, The Return of Ulysses, will receive its final presentation. Last evening's large crowds of patrons actually applauded this film, a most unusual occurrence in a picture theatre. It is certainly a work of art, not only from the acting standpoint —the company of the Comedie Francaise, Paris—but in the particulars of scenic wealth and costuming. The other pictures —Where's My Sky-Piece, Boots and Saddles, The Crazy Barber, etc.—will be shown today too. Mr. Bennett will again sing The Weddin' O'Sandy McNab, and Miss Edwards will render a new number, In the Land of Nod, while Mr. Courtnais is booked for To the End Of the World with You.

On Friday the Nickel will be open at 10 o'clock in the forenoon with a new show throughout. The matinee will start at 1 p. m. sharp and the evening shows at 7. A very strong bill of pictures, song and specialties has been arranged.

AT THE STAR

Not content with making their pretty little picture theatre better than ever before, the management of the Star, Union Hall, North End, has made still further improvements and renovations. Tomorrow morning the house will be re-opened with a brand new show of pictures and new songs. There will be a bumper holiday matinee and in the evening the Star's Own Orchestra of professional musicians will play. The orchestra will also play Saturday. Among the improvements is an orchestra pit and rail in front of the curtain, the making of which allows more room throughout the hall. In order to keep its programmes up to the high standard set at first, the Star wil have a new vocalist on Monday, Mae Colyer, a soprano of concert quality whose abilities are well known to Maritime Provincial music lovers.

FRANKIE CARPENTER CO.

The theatre-goers of St. John will be interested to know that Frankie Carpenter and her company, who will appear here next week have selected new plays in which the popular little lady Frankie Carpenter is said to have the best line of parts that she has yet appeared in. The company has been selected with care and Mr. Grady promises entertainments of a high order. Pleasing specialties will be offered at each performance, and every play staged with special scenery.

DOGS RACE 412 MILES IN 82 HOURS

Alaskan Teams Start in Arctic Blizzard for Exciting Dash from Nome to Candle

Seattle, Wash., April 6—In the most gruelling race of dog teams Alaska ever has known, the pluck malamutes, owned by Al Berger, carried off first and second honors in the All-Alaska sweepstakes for $11,000 today, and annexed in addition the Suter Gold Cup. The race was from Nome to Candle, a distance of 412 miles, and much of it was run under conditions that put the animals to a bitter test of strength and endurance.

The local points for the townspeople were at the stands of the bookmakers. At these thousands of dollars were wagered on the result, the biggest single bet having been placed on a Siberian team. A pool of an even $100,000 was put up that these animals would score a victory. One wager of $10,000 was made that the race would not be finished within ninety hours. This bet was lost, the time of the winners being eighty-two hours and ten minutes.

All Nome watched the start of the race. The dogs got away in a blinding snowstorm. Thermometers were registering fifteen degrees below zero. A strong wind swept the snow and ice clad hills. The dogs did not mind the cold, but the wind tossed flakes of snow plainly gave them distress. With all the zest of the chase they moved off at the word while the crowd cheered and the drivers waved good bye, not certain they would come out of the contest alive.

Details of the race from start to finish are lacking, but it is known that the Berger malamutes No. 1 and No. 2 teams driven by Scotty Allen and Percy Blatchford, respectively, finished in the order named. A mixed team of hounds and bird dogs driven by George Fink came in third.

The Siberian dogs, which were the favorites and heavily backed, became snow bound and were hopelessly out of the race. Their driver was forced to turn back. The fate of some of the other starters is still unknown. Teams are straggling back to Nome, some of them in pitiful condition. It is estimated that $200,000 changed hands.

MAJOR STEPHENS TO GIVE ADDRESS HERE

Canadian Club Executive Met Yesterday Afternoon—Several Added to Membership

S. W. McMackin, E. W. Henry, A. M. Rowan, Louis Green, G. A. S. Hopkins, F. B. D. Hopkins, A. D. Hopkins and A. G. B. Ferris were elected members of the Canadian Club at a meeting of the executive yesterday.

It was announced that Prof. Andrews, of Mt. Allison, would be the speaker at a luncheon on Friday evening, April 16, subject, The Economic Value of a Good Citizen.

J. N. Harvey reported that he had interviewed Sir Andrew Fraser, Byron E. Walker and J. A. Macdonald in Toronto, but none of them could come this way at present. Sir Andrew Fraser may come to the lower provinces on a later visit to Canada. Mr. Walker is going soon on a holiday, and Mr. Macdonald to the Imperial Press Conference.

It was decided to invite Major George W. Stephens, of Montreal, asking him to address the club. Rev. Clarence McKinnon wrote that he would be glad to address the club at some future time, but could not do so at present.

There was a very interesting discussion of plans for future meetings of the club. The meeting was held in the Times building. There were present President C. B. Allan, Secretary E. T. C. Knowles, Geo. A. Henderson, M. E. Agar, Dr. Bridges, William Hawker, J. N. Harvey, Dr. R. F. Quigley, J. A. Estey and A. M. Belding.
