An Unbreakable Set of Teeth

There is a class of patients who do not object to paying a fair price for artificial teeth, if they can really secure comfort, usefulness and naturalness.

I have a set of teeth, such as is unobtainable in any other office in this city, to my knowledge. It is out of the ordinary line and unlike the teeth in general use. Its beauty is at once apparent, and it is practically unbreakable.

It will pay those, who are desirous of obtaining the best to be had in the dental line, to call and inspect this for themselves.

I will gladly demonstrate its superiority over other plates, even if you have no immediate intention of investing.

WILL SPEND EASTER AS THE CITY'S GUESTS

Several "Gentlemen" Sent Today by Judge Ritchie to King Street East Hotel

In the police court this morning, Joseph Cunningham, who was arrested for profanity to patrolman Bowes, debated for some minutes over his reply to the charge, and consequently the policeman was sworn. He stated that Cunningham approached him and demanded that a man on the opposite side of ——street be arrested, accusing him of stealing $36 from him. Bowes said he could glean little information from him to incriminate the man, who was Dominick Kerrigan, and he advised Cunningham to go away. Accompanied by a fusilade of profanity, Cunningham insinuated that the policeman resembled one who would permit a thief to be on the rampage without molestation.

To Judge Ritchie this morning, Cunningham said he was a native of Pittsburg, and as Kerrigan had admitted relieving him of the money, he was excited when he accosted the officer. A fine of $8 or thirty days was imposed.

Samuel McAuley pleaded guilty to intoxication, and was welcomed home from Montreal with a fine of $8 or thirty days.

Thomas Hanley's solicitations over the welfare of McAuley, caused a night's confinement in a cell for him. Patrolman Sullivan testified that Hanley followed him to Water street lock-up, while McAuley was under arrest and persisted in entering the lock-up, and was ejected. He was impertinent on the street, and was locked up. In court today he wept and said he was sent to St. John by a Halifax shipping agent to join the Victorian, but when he reached the city the turbiner had departed. He was extended his freedom.

Hazen and Charles McAnulty, who were arrested on a warrant for fighting on Westmorland Road on Saturday, said that fighting was an exaggeration for their tete-a-tete. Hazen said he had imbibed somewhat, and when advised by his brother to go home, he was in a contrary mood, and Charles struck him under the chin as an active inducement. Children congregated, and they fled leaving a coat for the police, as a memento of the occasion. They were both remanded.

Thomas Williams, who was taken into custody in a box car, adjacent to the depot between 1 and 2 o'clock this morning said he drank a "little," and and availed himself of the impromptu sleeping quarters that the empty car afforded. He paid $2 for intoxication yesterday, and to influence, his honor, he displayed the palms of his hands to him, with the comment: "These hands 'll pass I guess." "Yes, but your conduct won't" was the retort as he was fined $8 or thirty days.

Thomas McCall, John Pettigrew and James Ferguson were fined $4 or ten days for inebriation, and it was sugested that the police enquire where McCall, who is twenty years old, obtained his liquor. Officer McCollom vouchsafed that he was in McGuire's saloon on Water street.

The examination of Dominick Kerrigan, whom Joseph Cunningham accuses of stealing a cheque for $13.65 and $28 in cash and who was arrested in a Pond street boarding house last night, was commenced this afternoon. Cunningham, who was fined for profanity, will testify.

The marriage of Miss Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Harris, of Moncton to Hubert Sinclair, son of the late Edward Sinclair, of Mirimichi, is announced to take place on Wednesday, April 28th.

SHARP—At 106 Hazen street, April 8th, George H. Sharp, aged 59 years.

Funeral service at late residence, Saturday morning at 11 o'clock, burial at Apohaqui on arrival of 12.40 train from St. John.

THIRTY-SEVEN IN THE FIELD NOW

This is the Number of Aldermanic Candidates Already Out, and Nomination Day May See More—St. John to Have Keenest Civic Fight for Years

The approaching civic contest promises to be very interesting. Up to the present time there are thirty-seven candidates in the field for aldermanic honors, including the present aldermen. There will be a contest in every ward, except Wellington and Stanley, where it seems likely that Ald. Christie and Ald. McGoldrick will not be opposed, although it is stated an effort is being made to induce Charles Green, son of George Green, who was a candidate two years ago, to run in Stanley.

George A Knodell has announced definitely that he is in the field for Prince ward, and H. R. Roberts will run in Lorne ward. John Burley is announced as an appenent of Ald. Elkin in Queens and Havelock Wilson has entered the lists in Lansdowne, in opposition to Ald. Rowan. It had been rumored that W. G. Scovil would not be a candidate for Sydney ward, but Mr. Scovil announced today that he was in the fight to stay.

It is quite probable that several other names will come before the electors before the nominations close on Tuesday next.

The list of candidates now in the field are as follows:

At large—J. V. Russell, Ald. J. H. Frink, Ald. W. E. Scully, Frank L. Potts, J. W. Montgomery, Ald. J. King Kelley, Ald. H. L. McGowan, John Sime, Charles A. Clark.?

Lorne — H. R. Roberts, Ald. Isaiah Holder.

Lansdowne—Ald. Alex. Rowan, Havelock Wilson.

Dufferin—H. E. Codner, Ald. John Willett.

Stanley—Ald. John McGoldrick.

Victoria—R. T. Hayes, James Millican, R. R. Patchell, Wellington Green.

Wellington—Ald. W. A. Christie, M.D.,

Prince—George A. Knodell, Ald. James Sproul.

Kings—Joseph A. Likely, Frank S. Purdy, Timothy O'Brien.

Queens—Ald. E. C. Elkin, John Burley.

Sydney—W. G. Scovil, Francis Kerr, Ald. Wm. Lewis.

Dukes—C. B. Allan, Ald. J. W. Vanwart.

Guys—J. Fred. Belyea, Ald. W. D. Baskin.

Brooks—F. L. Kenny, M. D., Ald. J. B. M. Baxter.

THE EASTER MARKET

Good Supply in All Lines, but Prices are Rather Stiff

The city market is well supplied for the Easter trade, meats, fowl, vegetables and green stuffs, eggs, etc, even to strawberries. Prices, however, in many instances are somewhat stiff. Spring lamb for example is ranging in price as follows:—

Fore-quarters $1.20, $1.25, $1.50 and hind quarter, $1.75, $2.00 and $2.50. There is an abundance of choice beef, principally the western article, though there is considerable nice local beef. The prices range as follows: Western 12c to 20c. and local 10c. to 20c. S. Z. Dickson is carrying western beef only and has a conspicuous display. The supply of beef is divided between western and local about 70 to 30 per cent. The former is not in the majority for any superiority over the New Brunswick beef, a big wholesale dealer informed the Times, but on account of the small supply of the latter as the result of lack of raising beef cattle in this province. In fact he further stated two of the most profitable carcasses in the market, being the best dressed and finished, were the New Brunswick product. Veal is selling at 12, 14 and 16 cents for light and 18 to 22 cents for extra choice. A particularly fine carcass is dlisplayed at Thomas Dean's it is a 13 weeks' old calf weighing 237 pounds, raised by John Chaloner of Kingston. Choice Easter ham and bacon is selling at 15, 16 and 18 cents. Eggs are selling at 25 cents up. Turkeys 32 to 35 cents a pound. Fowl are high, bringing $1.50, $1.75, $2.00 and $2.50 a pair. Pork 15 cents, cabbages 15, 20 and 25 cents. Celery 10 to 12 cents, Cucumbers 18, 20 and 25 cents a piece. Tomatoes 20 and 25 cents a pound. Rhubarb 15 to 25 cents a pound. Squash 3 to 5 cents; spinach, 45 to 50 cents a peck; lettuce, 6 cents; carrots, $1.20 per barrel; beets, $1.50; turnips, 90c. to $1.00; parsnips, $1.50. J. E. Quinn who is also a large grower has an especially attractive display of green stuff, in fact all the delicacies in and out of season. Here Mr. Quinn has an abundance of everything that goes to make up a tasty Easter dinner including palatable delicacies to the taste of the most fastidious epicure. Mr. Quinn is offering the following: Rhubarb, spinach, strawberries, tomatoes,, native cauliflower, radishes, lettuce, water cress, celery, parsley, new cabbage, and some extra choice cranberries. Also are to be found here sweet potatoes.

THE DAHOME ARRIVES

The Pickford and Black liner Dahome arrived this morning from Demerara, West Indies and Bermuda, with 16 first class passengers, three second class and nine sailors. The steamer encountered tempestuous weather on the voyage, but met with no mishaps. The saloon passengers were W. S. Harkins and Mrs. Harkins, Miss L. Moore from Demerara; W. Hockin, S. Johnston, J. W. Clancy and R. S. Gates from Trinidad, A. Marshall from Barbados, Mr. and Miss Purdy from Dominica, and B. W. Moffatt, Dr. E. B. Moffatt, E. Mittlestadt, Capt. F. L. Hingston, Mrs. Aubrey Brown, Miss M. L. Lockward from Bermuda. The second cabin passengers were J. Wayte and A. H. Outbridge from Bermuda, and Miss M. Hadstey from Demerara. The nine seamen were bound from Barbados to Halifax.

Mrs. Margaret MacLeod

New Castle, N. B., April 8—(Special)—The death of Mrs. Margaret MacLeod occured last night. The deceased was in her eighty-third year, and was a daughter of the late John McLaughlan, a native of Scotland, who settled in Nelson. After her husband's death, twenty-five years ago, the deceased removed to Newcastle, where she has since resided. She was an active member of the Presbyterian Church since her early girlhood.

The following children survive: Mrs. Thomas A. Clarke, Newcastle; Mrs. W. R. McMillan, Jacquet River; Miss Helen, teacher in Newcastle, and two sons, Lindley and William. Two sister, Mrs. Eliza Getchell and Miss Elizabeth McLaughlan, of Newcastle, also survive.
