NEW YORK FINANCIAL BUREAU.

New York, Oct. 7—Further short covering following the inception of a short retiring movement yesterday afternoon may be continued today. Support was extended in a more vigorous fashion yesterday and the professionals do not care to fight it as yet, according to gossip. We would not neglect to take profits on bulging on holdings acquired during the weakness yesterday.

When the shortage is eliminated the market may be vulnerable again. The conservative neutral attitude is still the best policy and we would continue to prefer as purchases on drops the good industrials, selling high priced rails, short on rallies, properly protecting both commitments. Money matters are now the acknowledged factor in the stock market, as suggested would probably be the case. The bank statement outlook is not good.

There may be some improvement by shifting of loans and other expedients. The Journal of Commerce says powerful banking interests came forward yesterday and checked the raiding by offering ten million dollars at five per cent.

Press comment and market literature refer to money as the dominating factor. The fact that the Bank of England, according to latest reports received by us, has failed to advance the discount rate today as expected, will probably be used to force in the shorts so far as manipulative interests are concerned. An advance is likely next week. Dividend increases are now appearing to make good the promises made so that treachery charged in that direction.

MORNING COTTON LETTER.

New York, Oct. 7—Yesterday's cotton market revealed one of the most interesting situations the trade has to deal with in months. As has been the case pretty much all this season, the larger buils had sold out on the bulges and got ready to take their cotton back on the breaks; the bears had covered on the advance, but were regaining their courage as the market declined. This much for the speculative side of the market.

In the supply and demand department the spinner was apparently making every logical threat he could on the subject of curtailment, with the object in view of frightening the planter to throw his cotton on the market and thus force the raw material to a better buying basis. But inthe south the planter has had a taste of blood in the shape of 13 1-2 cent cotton and when the price yesterday got back to 13 cents he simply sat down on the bales and refused to do business.

Thus today we seem to have on the one hand a semi-confident spinners by reason of successes scored in the the last few days by refusing to pay high prices and a semi-confident bear speculative contingent by reason of corresponding successes in the last few days though having undermined a weak commission house long interest. On the other hand we have the producer with enough cotton sold for cash to satisfy pressing debts, and a speculative bull interest that has made enormous profits for the season thus far and is not excessively loaded with contracts.

Surely out of this situation we shall have lively markets and the investor ned have no worry as to the question of opportunity to trade. It would seem that after the recent drastic liquidation in all markets, that short selling just now would be inadvisable. But investors should not be over zealous in loading up as three-quarters of the crop yet remains to come on the market, and doubtless a fresh rise toward the 14-cent level would start heavy hedge selling from the south.

LEAGUE HEADS CONFER; FINAL PLANS FOR WORLD'S SERIES

Chicago, Oct. 7—President Ban Johnson of the American League left for Pittsburg last night to join President Heydler of the National League and Chairman Herrman one day in advance of the opening of the world's series, to settle any serious difficulties or complications which may arise concerning the Pittsburg-Detroit worlds games.

The National Commission is especially anxious that ticket scalping be eliminated or at least eliminated so far as it is possible to do so.

The American League head stated that he had received advices from Pittsburg that the stories of alleged ticket scalping on a large scale were untrue.

The commission has arranged for special trains between Pittsburg and Detroit to carry the members of the contending teams, the umpires, business representatives of the two clubs, the members of the commission and a limited number of newspaper men.

Pittsburg, Oct. 7—A dense fog holds Pittsburg in its grasp today and there is fear of weather conditions tomorrow. A part of the Detroit team arrived here today and members of the National Commission reached the city about the same time.

More than 250 policemen will be stationed at the field. To avoid the anticipated crush at the park the newspapers are publishing a diagram of the seating arrangements with instructions to seat holders.

Buffalo, Oct. 7—At a meeting of the stock holders of the Buffalo Baseball club last night, President Potter relinquished his position as head of the local company and Jacob J. Stein, long identified with baseball in this city, was elected in his place. Louis B. Hart and Fred Bennisen were re-elected vice-president and treasurer respectively. The resignation of George Smith as manager was also accepted.

NEW YORK HERALD RAPS HARD NORTHCLIFFE'S PAPER PROJECTS

The New York Herald devotes two pages to Lord Northcliffe's $6,000,000 wood pulp and paper experiment in Newfoundland, where he has erected great mills and a model town, and declares that the timber experts who have visited the place and made a thorough investigation are amazed that Northcliffe has spent so much money there.

They describe it as "the most extraordinary deal for the manufacture of news paper in the history of Newfoundland or Canadian finance." The conclusions of the experts are thus summarized:—

1. According to experts fully a quarter of the Northcliffe company's entire "timber limits" consists of either barrens or bog land wholly devoid of forest growth and incapable of sustaining it. Fully a third of the land that was once timbered has been devastated by successive forest fires which killed all the trees, and of the green spruce timber now standing on the tracks as yet untouched by fire both the quality and the quantity have been exaggerated. Of the portions of the limits most easily accessible to tidewater the best of the timber had been culled out already by companies which held the tracts before selling out to the British investor.

2. Climatic conditions in Northern Newfoundland are such that shipments of the company's wood pulp and paper product for use in Great Britain from its ports and docks at Botwoodville, in Northern Newfoundland, will be impractible during six months of the year, when that harbor is closed by ice. The only alternative method of winter shipment would involve the expense of a freight haul of 268 miles to St. Johns, over a railroad operated by an unfriendly corporation, and reshipment from the port of St. John's upon steamships bound for England. The same climatic conditions and the brevity of the summer season will make the process of "driving" logs down the lakes and rivers from the more remote portions of the timber limits costly and uncertain.

3. Even at normal rates of wages it will be found difficult, if not impossible to reconcile skilled American and British workmen to a permanent residence amid such social and economic conditions as those of Grand Falls, Millertown and Botwoodville, and highly skilled labor is essential to the manufacture of wood pulp, sulphite and news print paper. As for the average native Newfoundlander, he is by habit and tradition a fine seaman and fisherman, but he is apparently incapable of adjusting himself successfully to industrial pursuits, even in the capacity of a common laborer.

NO LORD MAYOR'S SHOW THIS YEAR

London, Oct. 7—The old fashioned Lord Mayor's show, which, for a great many years has been one of the most picturesque functions to be witnessed in England, was abandoned this year by the new lord mayor elect, Sir John Knill.

Sir John proposes to have a military and naval display on the occasion of his assuming office and 5,000 volunteers from both branches of the service will parade in his procession. Only the gilded chariots of the lord mayor and of the sheriffs will remain of the old time pageantry.

NICKEL'S NEW FEATURES TODAY

The Nic[illegible] ...nces the latter half of the week [illegible] ...nificent programme, something [illegible] ...esome interest. Miss Grace R[illegible] ...'s just concluded her most succ[illegible] ...e in A Baby's Shoe, will have [illegible] ...story to tell on the same lines, entitled And A Little Child Shall Lead Them. This is a pretty domestic story with a few clouds and then a burst of sunshine. It is most pathetic as well. Last evening thousands availed themselves of the opportunity of seeing the Great Aeroplane Contests at Rheims, in France, with all the celebrated aviators of the day in the race. This is a long picture, showing the nobility of France and England at the meet, the individual airship pilots and their machines and then the exciting race in mid-air. The other big picture feature is a legend of the Cornwall coast in England, entitled, In the Quicksands, or how the monks of a well known monastery saved a forlorn traveler who afterwards turned out to be a great artist, divinely assisted by angels. There are other films. Miss Pauline Barry's new song today is Kerry Mills' Barn Dance, a novelty number. These fine nights and the Nickel's superb bills are attracting great crowds.

ORPHEUM

The Orpheum this week is giving an exceptionally pleasing entertainment. The pictures are instructive, entertaining and amusing. The vaudeville is the best that can be procured. Shaw and Shaw, in an Irish oddity, "A Bit of Blarney," are sustaining their reputation as comedians and portrayers of Irish wit. Judging from the laughter and aplause their act receives, they are more popular than ever.

Jimmie Cowper, black face comedian, is known from coast to coast as the funny man. His monologue is a laugh from start to finish. His inimitable personality on the stage, the rare quality of his wit, his abundance of good nature win the audience from the start and make them laugh with him as well as at him.

A $5 gold piece will be given away Friday night to the person holding the lucky number. Judging by the attendance the whole programme seems to meet public approval. 10-7—1i.

Yarmouth, N. S., Times says:—Captain Alexander Crowell, who has been pilot of the steamer Amelia for the past three months, has resigned that position. He left the steamer at Halifax last week and proceeded to his home in Barrington Passage where he will remain for the present. Capt. Crowell has been running on the steamers plying along the south shore continuously since 183 and during al lthese years has for the most part occupied the position of pilot. He has been on the Edgar Stuart, City of St. John, Monticello, Dominion, Alpha, Express, Seniac and Amelia. Before the days of the railway great numbers travelled by the steamers along the shore and Capt. Crowell was at all times popular with them. His exceptional skill as a pilot has been generally admitted form any years and the rarity of mishaps to the steamers on which he was employed has been largely due to his capacity and vigilance. Capt. Crowell is well known in St. John.

Important to All Women Readers of This Paper

Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney trouble and never suspect it.

Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease.

If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they will cause the other organs to become diseased.

You may suffer a great deal with pain in the back, bearing-down feelings, headache and loss of ambition.

Poor health makes you nervous, irritable and may be despondent; it makes any one so.

But thousands of irritable, nervous, tired and broken-down women have restored their health and strength by the use of Swamp-Root, the great Kidney, Liver and Bladder Remedy.

Swamp-Root brings new life and activity to the kidneys, the cause of such troubles.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle. You can purchase the regular 75c. and $1.25 size bottles at all drug stores in Canada.
