Just now we are especially well prepared to satisfy the taste of "particular" men—men who demand something out of the ordinary in their attire, and yet not freakishness but perfect good taste in every detail.

For instance, our new line of Vests embraces many new effects in both cloth and knitted materials. There are novelties—lots of them—but as many quiet effects for those who prefer them. Prices, $2 to $5.50.

Our new line of Trousers includes lines priced from $2 up to $7.50, and excellent values in each. In the higher grades especially there are exceptional opportunities for selection of beautiful fabrics, modishly made.

SUITS—the very cream of the 20th Century tailoring. Also a representative line of "Gilmour's Own" made especially for us. Genuinely good values at $10 to $25.

SUPERIOR PAINLESS DENTISTRY!

"There is a world wide cry against the dentists that they torture their patients. Those of strong physique submit and endure the agony. With a second class this is simply impossible, and thousands of teeth are neglected and lost even though the patients may be able to pay for our most skilful services. Then there is a third class who, after months of mental torture in anticipation, finally come into our hands, and, with nerves strung to a hurtful point, pass through the ordeal, but at what a cost! We do not sufficiently consider the consquences of shock in the dental chair, yet undoubtedly many suffer for months and even years from injuries to the nervous system received whilst in our hands.

The greatest duty of our profession today is to discover and adopt a mode of painlessly performing our operations."

NOTE.—The above is an abstract from a paper read by an eminent dentist of New York City before a society of dentists in Philadelphia.

The famous Hale Method of painless dentistry, for which we are sole agents for Canada is the best Method on earth.

He was reported for two offences, one on September 18 and the other on the 21st, have denied both charges. He had been there on the 18th, but not on the 21st, he said, and on the 18th he had not been guilty of the charge against him. He was allowed until 2 o'clock to secure witnesses.

A charge of a somewhat similar nature was made against Michael Mercurio, a Greek, who keeps a poolroom in Mill street. He was reported for soliciting boarders within the station. He denied the charge, saying that he had been informed by the immigration officer that there were a number of friendless Greeks in the depot and accordingly went to their assistance. Policeman Smith said that when he asked Mercurio what he was doing and what his name was, he would not tell him. Christopher Nichols had told the witness that Mercurio was trying to get the Greeks to go to a boarding house with him and, as this was contrary to the law, he had made the report.

Nichols was placed on the stand, and said that he was looking after the foreigners, his countrymen, who were bound from Chipman to Boston, when Mercurio came along and interrupted him by attempting to take the men to a boarding house.

His Honor told the Greek he was liable to a fine of $20 on the charge.

In Saturday's police court, Wm. Swanton, not Stanton, was dealt with on drunkenness charge.

HARRY WHITNEY MAY COME A HUNTING HERE

Souvenirs of His Polar Voyaging Received By John W. Godard

John W. Godard, of Douglas avenue, has several souvenirs of the polar regions which he prizes very highly. They are pouches made from the skins of polar animals and were collected by Harry W. Whitney, the young New York millionaire, who passed through the city a few days ago on his way home after his hunting trip in the far north. Mr. Godard knew Mr. Whitney, having entertained him on previous visits here when he came to New Brunswick on hunting expeditions, and the souvenirs are from him.

One of the pouches is made of walrus, polar bear and seal skin, neatly put together and ornamented with colored beads. Another is of musk ox and one almost wholly of walrus. They were made by the Eskimos.

If Mr. Whitney's presence is not required in New York in connection with the polar controversy between Peary and Cook, he may come to New Brunswick hunting this fall.

J. W. DALLING OF WOODSTOCK DEAD

Grocery Merchant Held in High Esteem in Carleton County

Woodstock, N. B., Oct. 4—(Special)—J. W. Dalling died last night at his residence in Woodstock. He was a well known grocery merchant, aged fifty-two years. Mr. Dalling, although he was in failing health for some time, caused by tuberculosis, was able to attend to business until a few weeks ago. He is survived by his wife and one daughter, Miss Beryl Dalling; two brothers, Hugh of Woodstock and Fraser of Red Bridge; one sister, Mrs. Wm. Sutton, of Woodstock; and by his father.

Mr. Dalling was a man highly thought of in this county and wherever known. He was a quiet, reserved man who made a success of his business by hard work. He was a member of the Presbyterian church and a supporter of the Conservative party. The funeral will be on Tuesday at 2.30 p. m.

SCHUMANN-HEINK SEATS AVAILABLE YET FOR TONIGHT

Schumann Heink, the great contralto arrived in the city on the Boston train this morning, accompanied by her husband, Mr. Rapp, and Katherine Hoffman the brilliant accompanist, who will officiate in that capacity this evening. The piano arrived Saturday in care of Johnston & Company, and Steinway's expert turner came in from Boston to have the grand piano in the best possible shape for Madame Schumann-Heink. For those who have left the selection of seats till the eleventh hour, there are still excellent positions to secure, at each of the three prices, while gallery tickets are procurable at the low figure of one dollar. Interest in the appearance here of Madame Schumann-Heink is now very great and an extremely large and fashionable audience is assured. It is expected that Schumann-Heink will prove a surprise, as so very many who have not been privileged to hear a really great contralto, seem prejudiced against this class of voice, as compared with the soprano. To them a revelation is in store this evening. Carriages may be ordered for 10 o'clock.

The funeral of Mrs. Hall was held yesterday from her late residence, St. Patrick street. Rev. Dr. C. R. Flanders conducted the service and interment was made in Fernhill.
