WEDDINGS

Dunn-Vallis

Rev. B. H. Nobles, of Victoria street Baptist church, officiated at two weddings last evening. At 8 o'clock, at the residence of Moses Doney, Adelaide street, he united in marriage Waldo Ernest Dunn, proprietor of Dunn's express, to Miss Margaret Vallis, also of this city. A few close friends witnessed the ceremony. The bride wore a pretty dress of blue silk. The groom's gift was a gold bracelet set with rubies and emeralds. A number of handsome presents were received. Mr. and Mrs. Dunn will reside at 208 Newman street.

Vallis-Doney

At 8.30 o'clock in the Victoria street parsonage, Rev. Mr. Nobles officiated at the marriage of Havelock Vallis to Miss Laura Doney. Both are St. John young people and their popularity was shown by many presents received. A number of friends gathered to see the wedding. The bride wore a dress of white organdie, trimmed with baby Irish lace. The groom's present was $25. From his employers, he received a handsome carving set and the groom's brother, Grant Vallis, sent an oak rocker. The bride's father sent a china dinner and tea set. Mr. and Mrs. Vallis will reside at 40 Main street.

Macumber-McLellan

A quiet wedding was performed last evening at the new residence of Rev. M. E. Fletcher, 240 Watson street, Carleton, when Mr. Fletcher united in marriage Edward Judson Macumber and Mrs. Laura McLellan. The bride, who wore a neat traveling suit, was attended by her daughter, Mrs. Mailing, of Winslow street. Mr. and Mrs. Macumber will reside for the present at 177 Winslow street, St. John west.

Rowley-Kilpatrick

A quiet wedding took place last evening at the home of Sergeant and Mrs. Henry W. Kilpatrick, 479 Main street, when their third daughter, Miss Emma, was united in marriage to William Frederick Rowley, of this city. The ceremony was performed in the presence of immediate friends and relatives by the Rev. J. C. Purdie, curate of St. Luke's church. The bride looked very charming in gown of white silk and carrying a bouquet of white roses. She was given away by her father. The young couple were unattended.

After the ceremony a luncheon was served in honor of the bride and bridegroom. Mr. and Mrs. Rowley will reside at 479 Main street. The young couple are well known throughout the city and the many valuable presents and useful presents which they received speak of their popularity. The groom is employed by T. McAvity & Sons, in the shipping department.

MISSION CHURCH CONCERT

There was a good attendance at a concert held last evening in the Mission Church school room by the ladies of the Holy Cross Guild. H. B. Schofield presided. Those taking part were: W. Ramsey, Miss Pearl Ramsey, Miss H. Gill, Miss Williams, Harold Colwell, D. C. Fisher, Miss Daisy Oram, Fred Oram, Miss F. Colwell, Miss McHarg, Mr. Campbell, Miss Jennie Marshall, Miss Rachel Marshall, Miss Tillie Stevens, Miss Alice Wilson, Miss Hazel Gill and a quartette of young ladies from the choir of Brussels street Baptist church, who very acceptably sang a number of selections. At the close refreshments were served.

A tickling or dry cough can be quickly loosened with Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. No opium, no chloroform, nothing unsafe or harsh. Sold by all druggists.

Winnipeg will shortly see its first Socialistic parade of 2,000 men.

THE CHARITY BALL

In selecting "The Charity Ball" for his opening play at the Opera House next Monday, Kirk Brown will be presenting one of the plays that gave Henry C. DeMille and David Belasco their earliest prominence as American dramatists. It is admitted that there has been several performances of "The Charity Ball" in St. John, but it is doubtful if any former presentation of the play here was given with the complete text as was used in the original production by Charles Frohman at the Empire theatre, in New York city. In including "The Wife" by the same authors, Mr. Brown is paying a vast sum of money in royalties, and deserves a little more than ordinary credit for having these two famous plays in his repertory. "The Sign of The Cross" was one of Mr. Brown's most successful plays last season, and will be presented Tuesday evening. "The Charity Ball" will be repeated Wednesday matinee. Wednesday evening the selection is Mark Twain's noted comedy, "Puddin Head Wilson." Mr. Brown's production of "The Wife" Thursday evening should attract a record audience. "The Merchant of Venice" is down for Friday evening, and will only be presented one time during the engagement. "The Wife" will be repeated Saturday matinee, with the high-class melo-drama "The Millionaire Detective" Saturday evening.

AT THE NICKEL

The historical worth of the magnificent pictorial review of the career of Napoleon, which was presented at the Nickel last evening, and is booked again for today, made the film of unusual interest. The large numbers of patrons were deeply interested as the story of Bonaparte's life was reeled off on the immense curtain in elaborate and faithfully conceived photographs and the feature marked what might rightly be termed a new era in the history of film making in the United States, equalling the wonderful Pathe products.

Today's programme will include several bright comedies as well and the ballad, Dreaming, by Miss Annie Edwards, whose voice is more acceptable than ever. The Nickel is receiving many old-time pictures of St. John before the fire in its cash contest among children and next week will see some interesting reproductions on the curtain. The great New York Marathon raec of next Monday and Tuesday is causing interest.

AT THE STAR

The little Star Theatre in Union Hall, North End, is certainly delivering the goods, as the boys say, for last night in spite of the rainy out-of-doors the place was filled to capacity and the programme was greatly enjoyed. The Orchestra was an especially fine feature, playing continually from 7 until 10.30. It will perform again Friday night. Tonight the bill will include: The Frozen Waterfalls of the Alps, An Ambassador's Despatch Case, The Electrified Hunchback and several other up-to-date pictures. Miss Colyer, who closes her engagement at the Star next week, is being encored every appearance.

THE DALHOUSIE ROBBERY

Some Slight Clews Found By Officers Working on the Case

At the Royal Bank here and the Post office, both of which are interested in the Dalhousie mail robbery, no word was received yesterday shedding addtional light on the affair. Post office inspector, Colter and A. J. Gross, Superintendent of railway mail service, left for Dalhousie yesterday. I. C. R. dectective Noble is in the possession of a pair of shoes found near where the mail bags were discovered. The wrapper which contained $2,000 in bills of various denominations sent from the Dalhousie branch to the branch of the Royal Bank in this city, was also found.

TIMOTHY T. LANTALUM,
HARTLEY C. VANWART,
JOHN ROSS,
Assessors of Taxes.

Extracts from "The St. John City Assessment Law of 1889."

"Sec. 112. The Assessors shall ascertain, as nearly as possible, the particulars of the Real Estate, the Personal Estate, and the Income of any person who has not brought in a statement in accordance with their notice, and as required by this Law, and shall make an estimate thereof, at the true value and amount, to the best of their information and belief, and such estimate shall be conclusive upon all persons who have not filed their statements in due time, unless they can show a reasonable excuse for the ommission."

"Sec. 138. No person shall have an abatement unless he has filed with the Assessors the statement, under oath, within the time hereinbefore required; nor shall the Common Council in any such case, sustain an appeal from the judgment of the Assessors, unless they shall be satisfied that there was good cause why the statement was not filed in due time as herein provided." 31-3.

Synopsis of Canadian Northwest Land Regulations

ANY person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years old, may homestead a quarter-section of available Dominion land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta. The applicant must appear in person at the Dominion Lands Agency or Sub-Agency for the district. Entry by proxy may be made at any agency, on certain conditions, by father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of intending homesteader.

Duties—Six months' residence upon and cultivation of the soil in each of three years. A homesteader may live within nine miles of his homestead on a farm of at least 80 acres solely owned and occupied by him or by his father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister.

In certain districts a homesteader in good standing may pre-empt a quarter-section alongside his homestead. Price $3.00 per acre. Duties—Must reside six months in each of six years from date of homestead entry (including the time required to earn homestead patent), and cultivate fifty acres extra.

A homesteader who has exhausted his homestead right and cannot obtain a pre-emption may take a purchased homestead in certain districts. Price $3.00 per acre. Duties—Must reside six months in each of three years, cultivate fifty acres and erect a house worth $300.00.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy of the Minister of the Interior.
