Synopsis of Canadian Northwest Land Regulations

ANY person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years old, may homestead a quarter-section of available Dominion land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta. The applicant must appear in person at the Dominion Lands Agency or Sub-Agency for the district. Entry by proxy may be made at any agency, on certain conditions, by father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of intending homesteader.

Duties. — Six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each of three years. A homesteader may live within nine miles of his homestead on a farm of at least 30 acres solely owned and occupied by him or by his father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister.

In certain districts a homesteader in good standing may pre-empt a quarter-section alongside his homestead. Price $3.00 per acre. Duties—Must reside six months in each of six years from date of homestead entry (including the time required to earn homestead patent), and cultivate fifty acres extra.

A homesteader who has exhausted his homestead right and cannot obtain a pre-emption may take a purchased homestead in certain districts. Price $3.00 per acre. Duties—Must reside six months in each of three years, cultivate fifty acres and erect a house worth $300.00

MAPLE REBEKAH LODGE STARTED

At the special organization meeting of Rebekah subordinate lodge, I. O. F., at Sussex on Feb. 2, Dr. A. D. Smith, of St. John, special deputy, assisted by Miss Harriet, deputy president of the Rebekah Assembly, acting as deputy grand master, and Mrs. J. M. Ross acting as grand marshal, instituted Maple Lodge, No. 51. A delegation from Pearl Lodge, No. 9, of Moncton, were in attendance.

Acting Grand Secretary P. A. McGowan, under instructions of the special deputy, read the dispensation, after which the usual obligation was administered and the acting deputy grand master duly proclaimed Maple Rebekah Lodge, No. 51, organized.

Twenty-three or twenty-four were initiated by the degree team from Pearl Lodge, Moncton, after which the following officers were elected.

Noble Grand—Margaret Wallace.
Vice-Grand—Annie Warren.
Recording-Secretary—Alice Howes.
Treasurer—Frances Aldrich.
Financial Secretary—Mildred Burgess.

The installation of the newly elected officers was conducted by Miss Hattie Smith, installing officer, assisted by the sisters from Jewel Lodge, St. John West, and Pearl Lodge, Moncton. Speeches and refreshments concluded the meeting and the Moncton delegation left for the railway town on the early morning train.

A tickling or dry cough can be quickly loosened with Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. No opium, no chloroform, nothing unsafe or harsh. Sold by all druggists.

Following the installation of officers in the Elks' rooms, Charlotte street, last evening the exalted ruler, L. R. Ross, gave an at home to the members, which was enjoyed by many. Refreshments were served and an excellent programme of songs and speeches was carried out. Arrangements are being made for a smoker towards the end of this month.

AMUSEMENTS

NO CAMERAPHONE TODAY

The 62nd Band will occupy the Opera House tonight with their instrumental and vocal concert. The next cameraphone performance will be tomorrow at 2.30. There will be an entire change of programme, headed by Rafferty's Raffle, a one act comedy. The scene is Rafferty's saloon. The Awakening of Toys will be a big feature for the children for Saturday afternoon; Lackey and Devlin, Molly Gerue, and The Calendar of Love are all announced as first class numbers.

FAREWELLS AT THE NICKEL

The excellent performers now being heard at the Nickel—Misses Earle and Forrest and Mr. Cairns—will conclude their engagements with this change of bill and leave on Saturday for other work. Miss Earle, harpist-vocalist, is to render the following numbers: (a) The Waves, (b) Song, Are You Sincere? and (c) Dance of the Fairies. Miss Forrest has a bright catchy number in Smiling Star, and DeWitt Cairns has the best song he has sung for many months, the delightful ballad Darling. On Monday the talented singing duo Holmes and Buchanan will commence a stay at the Nickel after a considerable absence from the city. Edward Courtnais will join the Nickel staff as well. Today the picture bill will be: The Duke's Vow, romantic; The Signalman, dramatic; The Modiste, dramatic, and two clever comedies.

STAR PICTURES, TOWN TALK

The excellence of the picture programmes put on in the new Star Theatre in Union Hall, North End, has attracted widespread attention, and many go all the way from the city proper to enjoy them. The show now running, with the charming views of Lake Como, in Italy, is especially fine. There are three fine dramas and two comedies by the leading Italian and French as well as English motion photographers. Last evening the Star was completely filled all the time. Today Miss Von Branders will sing a pretty child-song, entitled "They'll Be Sorry."

A SOLDIER'S LIFE

This will be one of the numbers of the musical treat to be given in the Opera House this evening by the 62nd Regimental Band, assisted by the Carleton Cornet Band. The concert will be given by permission of Lieut. Col. M. B. Edwards and officers of the 62nd Regiment, under the patronage of Col. G. Rolt. White, who has requested all officers of the militia to attend in uniform. In addition to the programme which received such favorable comment at the Tercentenary celebration at Quebec, there will be several vocal numbers by some of the city's best talent.

Hogan-Musgrave

Portland, Me., Feb. 3—This morning at 6 o'clock, in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, Dr. Francis James Hogan, a native of St. John (N. B.), son of the late Michael Hogan, of that city, was united in marriage with Mary Margaret Musgrave, of this city, daughter of the late Captain John W. Musgrave. The ceremony was attended by only the immediate relatives of the young couple, on account of the recent death of the bride's father.

Rev. Fr. Clary, the rector of the cathedral, was the officiating clergyman. Ellen Musgrave, a sister of the bride, was the bridesmaid, and John Hogan, a cousin of the groom, was the best man.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the Lafayette Hotel. Among those attending the wedding from out of town were Mrs. Julia Hogan, mother, and Miss Kathleen Hogan, sister of the groom, both from St. John.

Dr and Mrs. Hogan left on the early morning train for Bridgeport (Conn.), where he is engaged in the practice of his profession. They are to reside at 871 Park avenue, Bridgeport.

A very pleasant time was spent last night at a measuring party held in the Methodist parsonage at Silver Falls. More than 100 people were present, including a number from the city and Brookville and about $46 was realized. The programme included quartettes by little girls, readings by Miss Allingham and Miss Jennie Kerr, solos by Prof. Titus, Miss Edith Champion and Mrs. Champion, piano solos by Misses G. Young, Annie Baizley and Julia Jordan, a piano duet by the Misses Young and Baizley, and a vocal duet by Prof. Titus and Mrs. Wm. Shaw, jr.

The C. M. B. A. held an informal dance in their rooms, Union street, last evening. About fifty couples took part. The Conway-O'Hara orchestra was in attendance. The committee in charge of the arrangements was composed of Hon. R. J. Ritchie, Louis McDonald, C. P. O'Neil, John T. Kelly, F. O'Regan and W. J. Magee. The chaperones were Mrs. P. F. Lenihan, Mrs. C. J. Kane and Mrs. R. E. Fitzgerald. A very enjoyable evening was spent.

SIGNS OF IT.

His Dad (sternly)—Aha! You have been skating, although I told you not to.

His Boy (chattering)—How do you know?

His Dad—Why, you're soaked to the skin!

His Boy—Well, dat's a sign I been swimmin'.

OBITUARY

Eric O. Yeoman

Halifax, Feb. 3—Eric M. Yeoman, eldest son of the late James Yeoman, died suddenly this morning. He was twenty-three years of age. The deceased was a native of Newcastle, graduated from the Halifax Academy and at the time of his demise was a student at Dalhousie. He is survived by his mother, a brother, Robert, and a sister, Jean Yeoman.

Miss Margaret Barnes

Moncton, Feb. 3—(Special)—Miss Margaret Barnes, daughter of Hon. James Barnes, of Buctouche, died at the home of her brother, W. E. Barnes, here, this afternoon, aged 28 years. Deceased had been ailing some time but her condition was not regarded as serious until the last few days. Besides her parents she is survived by six brothers. The body will be taken to Buctouche tomorrow for interment Friday.

William Ward

Fredericton, Feb. 3—William Ward, a well known and respected resident of Oromocto, died at his home in that place this morning after a lengthy illness from heart trouble and complications. The deceased gentleman was about 75 years of age. He is survived by a widow, six sons and one daughter. The funeral will take place on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with services by Rev. Mr. Penna.

The special service in Queen square church last night was addressed by Rev. T. J. Deinstadt. The junior league assisted in the choir. J. Ritchie Bell, of Montreal, is expected at noon today and will lead the meeting this evening. There will be song service at 7.45; the full choir and orchestra will be present. At 3 o'clock this afternoon Mr. Bell will give one of his Bible readings. These are spoken of as rarely equalled and Bible students are asked to attend.

James McDonald, of St. John, charged with stealing, elected to be tried before Magistrate Connors this morning, pleaded guilty and was sent to jail for six months without hard labor. He claimed he had been drinking on the night the burglary was committed, but was told that this was no excuse.
