NARROW ESCAPE OF PATRICK McGOLDRICK

Patrick McGoldrick, father of Alderman John McGoldrick, had a narrow escape from possible death or serious injury shortly before eight o'clock last night when, in the dark, he walked over Rodney wharf and fell to the mud and rocks below. A rope was secured and Mr. McGoldrick brought to the surface of the wharf and taken to the Shore Line Railway station, where it was found he was uninjured beyond a severe shaking up. He was removed to the hospital in the ambulance and at a late hour last night was reported to be resting comfortably with no apparent serious effects from his accident. Had the tide been in at the time Mr. McGoldrick fell he might have been drowned.

LOMBARD PLEADS HE IS NOT GUILTY

Framingham, Mass., Oct. 19—With his own bedroom as a court room and with judge, lawyers and police officers supplanting doctors and nurses, Town Treasurer John B. Lombard pleaded not guilty today to a charge of forging two instruments, purporting to be notes of the town amounting to $50,000 and, waiving the reading of the complaint of the chief of police, was held in $20,000 for the superior court. His wife and Bernard F. Merriam, a fellow-townsman, furnished the securities, and Lombard sunk back on the pillows of his sick bed.

Earlier in the day one of the town officials of Weymouth brought in two notes of $15,000 and $10,000, on which there were certain signatures which were pronounced forgeries and a little later two men, who refused to disclose their identity, produced two others of like amounts, which were also pronounced spurious, so that with the four unearthed in Boston and Newton yesterday and those brought to light today, the total outstanding securities of questionable character tonight reached $125,000. The town clerk said at the close of business that there might be more.

Whether the holders of these notes can recover their money from the town is a question which will probably go before the courts and at the present time a somewhat similar case is pending before the supreme court at Washington. All the notes bear the signature of John B. Lombard as treasurer and that signature has not been questioned. The Weymouth notes were also signed by Selectmen William H. Walsh and Roger H. O'Brien. The signatures of these two selectmen were said to have been forged. The two notes brought in this afternoon bore the signatures of two of the selectmen at that time, William H. Walsh and Henry A. Stockwell. These signatures were also said to be forgeries. The other note of $15,000 was signed by Walsh and O'Brien.

The only development in the Boston end of the case today was the court proceedings in which the two Boston brokers, Chas. S. Cummings and Edward A. Mead, were held in $20,000 and $5,000, respectively, for the Suffolk grand jury on a charge of larceny of $24,122 from the Franklin Savings Bank. The bank paid that amount when Mead, who was said to be acting for Cummings, sold the bank officers one of the $25,000 notes of the town of Framingham, of which no record appears on the books of Treasurer Lombard. That note was dated October 20, 1909, and neither of the selectmen remember signing one at that time.

N. H. S. ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Natural History Society of New Brunswick was held last evening in their rooms on Union street. Dr. Geo. F. Matthew was in the chair. The report of the secretary on the work of the past year was read and showed the society to be in a most healthy state. The total membership is 612. The treasurer's report was very encouraging. Reports were received from the committees on the building, archaeology, botany, invertebrates, geology, the library lectures, publications and the ladies' association.

The curator's report shows a considerable amount of work done in the museum, a very large number of relics of the stone age in New Brunswick were received, and the museum now has a room devoted entirely to Indian relics. Many valuable minerals, rocks and fossils were received, the total number of donations for the year being 1,524. The museum now possesses 29,185 specimens and the library contains 12,153 books and pamphlets.

The interest in the museum is steadily increasing and if funds were available for a few new cases the museum would be one that the city might be proud of.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President—Hon. J. V. Ellis.

Vice-presidents—Dr. Geo. F. Matthew, Dr. G. U. Hay.

Treasurer—A. Gordon Leavitt.

Curator and corresponding secretary—Wm. McIntosh.

Recording secretary—John G. McKinnon.

Librarian—W. L. McDiarmid.

Additional members of council—T. H. Estabrooks, Dr. H. G. Addy, J. A. Estey.

Auditors—T. H. Belyea and T. O'Brien.

I. C. R. STATION AGENT IN TROUBLE

North Sydney, N. S., Oct. 19—Colin P. McDonald, station master at McKinnon's Harbor, was arrested here this afternoon charged with appropriating $190 belonging to the Intercolonial Railway.

McDonald has been in town for several days, and when arrested this afternoon, is said to have offered I. C. R. Policeman McPherson the amount of the shortage, which the latter declined.

The shortage was discovered while McDonald was absent from his station. When arrested he displayed a big roll of money.

BANKERS' OUTING

Representatives of the banks of British North America, Montreal, Royal Bank of Canada, Canadian Bank of Commerce, Union Bank of Halifax and Bank of Nova Scotia to the number of about fifty or sixty who participated in the recent regatta at Lily Lake drove to the Ben Lomond House last evening and enjoyed a very pleasant dinner. The party occupying three buckboards, left the court house at 6.30 p. m. and the drive to the Ben Lomond House was most enjoyable.

At the dinner, which was an excellent one, Mr. Connel, formerly of the Bank of British North America, presided. The first toast was the King, which was honored in the usual manner. Blake McInerney, of the Royal Bank of Canada, proposed Our Country, which found an able champion in Mr. Howley, also of the Royal. The Banking Profession, proposed by Mr. McManus, of the Bank of Montreal, was responded to by Mr. Crawford, of the Bank of Nova Scotia. F. Godfrey Kinney, of the Royal Bank of Canada, proposed The Ladies and Mr. Nickerson, of the Union Bank, responded.

An excellent programme was carried out, consisting of readings by Messrs. McInerney and Kenney, songs by Messrs. Laidlaw, Irvine, Connel and Howley, and piano selections by Mr. Outram. The presentation of the prizes won at the recent regatta and the singing of Auld Lang Syne brought a most enjoyable function to a close.

People who borrow trouble are always anxious to turn it over to others.

You don't have to run a boarding house in order to board a train.

ANOTHER BIG NICKEL SHOW

After all its the great big pure and simple picture show that gets the crowd. Last evening the Nickel was packed to the doors from 7.15 until 10.15 with a discriminating class of people, people who take all the enjoyment out of high-class motion pictures that it is possible to take. The finest service of pictures money can buy has been contracted for by this big house of entertainment and upon this cornerstone of real merit the tremendous rush of patronage holds up. Today the new show is to be just as good if not better than the one just taken off. The distinguishing feature will be the Biograph's rural comedy, The Little Teacher, or the Bully Bullied. New Brunswickers will find that this charming bit of near-to-nature acting will strike a responsive chord. Of another trend of story-telling the Essanay Co.'s intense legal drama, The Twelfth Juror, will be of spell-binding interest. Then there will be a magical film by Gaumont of Paris and a roaring comedy. Can this bill be beaten for all-round interest or variety? Miss Pauline Barry is singing Toodles and Stingy Kid with much favor and Frederick Driscoll receives an encore or two each time he sings. Then there is that big distinguishing feature, the orchestra.

CLARK-URBAN COMPANY

The public demands cleverness in its amusements either at high or low prices. Repertoire in particular, includes talented people as they are continually called upon to assume parts which differ widely from each other. The Klark-Urban Company which opens a week's engagement at the Opera House on Thanksgiving afternoon, is justly celebrated for its remarkable gathering of clever people, gorgeous stage settings and high class comedies and dramas. The company is headed by Harden Klark a talented artist and thoroughly polished actor, and Miss Maisie Cecil is looked upon as being unusually clever. A solid car of special scenery is carried and no local settings will be used during the engagement. The following high class specialties will be introduced at each and every performance: Miss Maisie Cecil, songs and dances; Frank Clayton, comedian, vocalist and musician; A. E. Tenny, comedy juggler; Clark and Hanson, comedy sketch artists, and Schreiber Brothers and Klark and Urban, the Four Monachs of Music. An elaborate production of the great military play "Way Out West" will be given Thangsgiving matinee, and the great Southern play "At Piney Ridge," at night. Seats on sale at box office.

COLONIAL STOCK COMPANY

The Colonial Stock company last evening presented the London comedy hit, Lady Huntworth's Experiment, to a large and appreciative audience in the Opera House. The company is especially suited for this kind of a play and the cast is well arranged. Miss Edith Warren as Caroline, a cook, takes her part with great skill and provokes much merriment. W. H. Hartman and Burton Mallor, as the vicar and curate, are good, as are Carl Blaythe, the butler, and Cortland Hopkins. The work of Frank Oliver in the role of the rejected lover called forth considerable praise, and Percy Charters as Billy the newsboy made a hit.

The company gave a performance of A Wife's Peril at today's matinee. Tonight an intensely interesting detective play, A Woman's Victory, wil be produced. Those fho have seen Sherlock Holmes and Raffles will find more thrills than either of these well known dramas contain.

TORTONA ON HER TRIAL TRIP

Montreal, Oct. 19—Messrs. Reford received a cable from Newcastle yesterday stating that the new steamer Tortona, built for the Canadian Mediterranean passenger trade, has made her trial trip on the Tyne, making an average speed of fifteen knots.

The Tortona makes one voyage to Montreal this year and during the winter will ply between St. John and Naples and Genoa.

The offering on the occasion of the annual harvest Thanksgiving festival of St. Luke's was $429.42, to which may be added two previous gifts of $100 each, which were sent in a few days previous to the service, making in all a total of $629.42.

St. Cement's harvest Thankoffering was $210.00.
