LIGHTS MUST BE PUT OUT ON TIME

William O'Keefe Charged With Violating the Liquor Law by Having Lights in His Saloon After 10 O'clock.

William O'Keefe was the defendant this morning in an information against him preferred by Night Special Licenses, for infringing on the liquor regulations by permitting lights to burn in his saloon on Union street after ten o'clock on the night of February 2. A plea of not guilty was entered, and the information was sworn to by the prosecuting officer in the store at half-past ten on Tuesday night, and perceiving two men leave the street door. He knew one of the men. The lights continued burning until seven minutes to eleven, when they were extinguished, and subsequently two more men came out, one of whom was the proprietor, and the other was Hugh Beck. He did not try the door after the first couple had made their exit. Under cross-examination by the defendant, he did not know that the men were employees of O'Keefe. On one other occasion he saw men coming out of the saloon during prohibited hours, and reported the proprietor for selling liquor after hours. He heard Beck swear at the hearing that he was a paid employee of the defendant, but was not bound to believe him. He knows that Sutherland is a bartender in the saloon. This concluded the case for the prosecution, and the defendant was sworn on his own behalf. He stated that on Feb. 2, he engaged a new bartender. It is the custom for the employer and he to put things in shape for the opening the following morning, after closing each night. The bartenders leave at 10.30, and Beck at 10.45 or thereabouts. The shop is locked at 9.30 p.m. Beck and Sutherland, the cash, and the bartenders clean up. He said every policeman on the force is aware that both he and Beck come out of the shop after hours, and on Sundays. They never molest them, and know that Beck is his employee.

When Geo. A. Henderson, who conducted the prosecution remarked that the directory gave Beck's vocation as painter, the witness replied that he begins to work for him at 5.45 each evening after working during the day at Christie's factory. On holidays he works all day with him. He also aids in cleaning up every Sunday. He said it was usually 10.30 p.m. when he left the saloon, and on Saturday at 7.30 or 8. He did not consider that having his employees in the bar during forbidden hours was a violation of the law. All the other liquor dealers do the same. Mr. Henderson hereupon observed that every other barroom on Union street was devoid of occupancy after ten minutes past one on the night in question. His opening hour is generally half-past six. He cannot persuade his employees to clean up from the legal hour 6 until 6.30, and prefers not to burn the light then as patronage is rather lax at that early hour. He was under the impression that it was no offence to put things in order and compute the receipts after closing hour. If he ceased at precisely ten o'clock, his stock would become congealed by frost. The final rush for stimulants prevented the after hours work being done prior to closing. His Honor observed that a prima facie case had been made out, and the evidence before him indicated that Beck was a painter, and evidence must be adduced to controvert this. At the resumption on Monday at 2 p.m., Beck will testify.

PORTWARDENS SURVEY ON THE STEAMER SAGA

The portwardens held a survey on the Norwegian steamer Saga this morning, which vessel struck coming through the falls yesterday, and recommended certain repairs. Another survey will be held on the steamer after the tide leaves her at Kennedy's slip, so that the port wardens can get under the vessel's bottom. It is probable that the Saga will be allowed to proceed to her port of destination, Bridgetown and New Haven Conn., to discharge her million feet of lumber, after which she will have to go on a dry dock to have some new plates put in.

W. F. HATHEWAY CO., Ltd. St. John, New Brunswick, Canada. Blenders and Packers of Tiger Indo-Ceylon Teas. DEAR SIR,—Our choice at home of Tiger Tea is grade X, at 35c. per lb. Is it true that the tiny dried, whitish buds in Tiger Tea give it that fine delicate flavor? We used to drink China Tea years ago, but prefer the Tiger 1-lb. packets, as it looks cleaner, and because Tiger Teas are prepared and packed by machinery instead of by the nasty, sweaty hand-treatment as in China. The pretty blue and white label is enough to make one wish to taste a cup of Tiger Tea. The tiger paws on the label show how strong the Tiger Tea is. I am very glad to send you this letter about Tiger Tea, and if you wish I will send you a sketch of a tiger which would perhaps be fiercer than the tiger on your label. The rich cherry color of Tiger Tea, pleases everyone, and I hope that you will always keep the quality of it as good as it is now. I enclose the 12 cards required, and tell you truly this is my own handwriting. Every Canadian should buy a 1-lb. packet of Tiger Tea, for, besides the good quality, we know that the work of blending, labelling, boxing, packing, etc., is all done by Canadians in St. John. My age is.....; my last school teacher was..... Hoping that this letter will win a Tiger Tea prize, I am respectfully yours,
