RECTOR OF ST. JUDE'S NOW A BENEDICT

Weds Miss Coster This Morning—A. H. Likely and Miss Mollie Grey Married.

Rev. George F. Scovil, rector of St. Jude's church, West End, and Miss Edith Coster, daughter of Charles Coster, of St. John west, were united in marriage in St. Jude's church this morning at 6 o'clock. The Bishop of Fredericton officiated, assisted by Rev. Walter Dunham. Only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties were present and the happy couple were unattended.

The church was prettily decorated. Rev. Mr. Scovil and bride left after the ceremony for McAdam Junction, where they will be the guests of Rev. Mr. Dunham for today, leaving tonight for Montreal and sailing for England later. They will spend ten weeks in the motherland and on their return will reside in West End.

The wedding presents are numerous and valuable, including a purse from the wardens, vestry and congregation of St. Jude's church, a valuable gift of silver from the members of Carleton Union Lodge, F. & A. M., and many others from individual friends.

The bride wore a cream colored tailored suit with hat to match and her going away dress was of navy blue with hat of the same shade.

Likely-Gray

A pretty wedding took place in St. John Presbyterian church at 6 o'clock this morning, when Rev. A. A. Graham united in matrimony Arthur H. Likely, son of Joseph A. Likely, and Miss Mollie M. Gray, daughter of William Gray, both of this city.

The bride was very becomingly gowned in a beautiful costume of amethyst silk, tinged with a pretty shade of blue, and wore a hat to match. The young couple were unattended.

After the ceremony, at which only a few relatives and close friends to the contracting parties were present, Mr. and Mrs. Likely left for a two weeks' trip, which will include Boston, Niagara, Quebec and Montreal.

Many handsome remembrances were received by the happy young couple, amply testifying to the popularity and the esteem in which they are held.

PERMANENT PAVEMENT THE NEXT MOVE

General Committee to Be Called to Meet Next Week With Engineer.

It is probable that the general committee of the common council will be called to meet next week to take up with the engineer the matter of permanent pavement.

The engineer will make a report on the various kinds of pavement, as to what is most suitable for the different streets and the relative cost, etc. It is felt that if anything is to be done before winter a start will have to be made very soon.
