Enthusiasm in Holland knew no limits when it was announced that the queen had given birth to a princess, the heir to the throne. Proclamations of the happy event were made by heralds in the public squares, the heralds being dressed in quaint old time costumes. The official registration of the birth and the names of the little princess reads:

"Today, May 1, His Royal Highness Henry Vladimir Albert Ernest, Prince of the Netherlands, Duke of Mecklenburg, Prince of Werden and Schwerin, Lord of the Domains of Restock and Stargard, etc., aged thirty-three, has informed me, Hubertus David, Knight of the Order of Orange-Nassau, Civil Registrar of the Commune of The Hague, that the child presented to us, which is of the female sex, has been born in the Royal Palace, No. 68 Noorderinde, in this commune, on Friday, April 30, 1909, at ten minutes to seven A. M., and further that the said child named Juliana Louise Emma Marie Wilhelmina, Princess of Orange-Nassau, Duchess of Mecklenburg, is the daughter of himself, Henry Vladimir Albert Ernest, Prince of the Netherlands, and of his royal consort, Her Majesty Wilhelmina Helena Pauline Marie, Queen of the Netherlands, Princess of Orange-Nassau."

BANKER TRIES TO TAKE HIS OWN LIFE

P. H. Roy ex-President of the Defunct St. John's Bank Attempted Suicide this Morning.

St. John's, Que., May 26—(Special)—That P. H. Roy, ex-president of the defunct Banque De St. Jean, tried to end his life early this morning, is the news which created quite a sensation here this morning.

Rumors had it that Mr. Roy had shot himself and was dangerously ill, but when surgeons examined his wound it was found that he had shot himself in the left foot and that his wound was not at all serious.

The bullet entered the fleshy part of the foot and did not touch any bones. It was extracted with out any trouble and it is said Mr. Roy will be able to attend his trial today which he has been following very closely for the last couple of weeks and which doctors think led up to the shooting this morning.

That Mr. Roy attempted committing suicide is evident. He got out of bed and walked to the next room for his revolver and afterwards returned to bed where the shooting occurred. He evidently lost his nerve when about to fire a shot.

GERMANY TOO BUSY TO BOOM THE OLYMPIC GAMES

Big German Cities Are Devoting All Their Interests to the Building of Airship Stations

New York, May 26—A special cable despatch from Berlin says: The question of holding the Olympic games here in 1912 has been settled in the negative, there being practically no chance of completing the stadium in time. It will therefore be proposed at the conference of the Olympic committee to hold the next games at Stockholm.

The delay in finishing the stadium here is ascribed to the indifference of the big German cities, which are all devoting their interest and subscriptions to building airship stations.

QUEENS WHO SMOKE

No fact in modern social life is more striking than that so many of the queens of Europe find as much solace in tobacco as men do. The striking exception to this rule is Queen Alexandra, who has never smoked. In this respect she is different from her sister, the Dowager Empress of Russia, for the latter smokes a good many cigarettes a day. Another queenly smoker is the Queen of Rumania, the highly accomplished Carmen Sylva. The Queen Mother of Spain, as King Alfonso's mother is still called, is another smoker of cigarettes, as is the widowed Queen of Portugal, who, contrary to what might be expected in a resident of southern Europe, prefers Russian tobacco to any other.

KERRIGAN WAS ALLOWED TO GO

G. T. P. Laborer Charged With Theft, Dismissed by Judge Forbes—No Witnesses Against Him.

Dominic Kerrigan, who was arrested on April 7, by Patrolman Sullivan, on suspicion of stealing $3 and a check for $15 from Joseph Cunningham several days previously, and who was committed for trial on April 26 and was indicted by the grand jury yesterday, was liberated by Judge Forbes this morning on his own recognizance to appear when requested.

He was advised by his lawyer to depart from the city immediately.

Cunningham, the principal crown witness, left St. John soon after serving a term in jail for probation, and has not reappeared. On the day of the arrest Cunningham and another were together on Mill street. Cunningham approached Poleman Bowes, on that boat, and demanded that Kerrigan be taken into custody for theft. The policeman inquired for the grounds on which he based his accusation and Cunningham berated him for not complying with his request. He was promptly arrested and Kerrigan was located that night in his boarding house. Both men were laborers on the G. T. P. and were intoxicated during their sojourn here. Seven weeks ago Cunningham vehemently protested against what he thought was the laxity of the police in permitting Kerrigan to be free while now he fails to materialize to testify and in the event of Kerrigan being convicted, to recover the check and money taken from the accused. The check was payable to the informant. It is not likely that the case will be ever heard. The county court adjourned this morning until tomorrow morning.

THE TIMES NEW REPORTER

SPORTING NEWS.

Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, in the rear of whose place in Hornbeam Settlement there is a small lake, told the Times new reporter a remarkable story this morning. He states that on Monday afternoon it rained trout on this lake. Several anglers from the city were there with Hiram and were just about to put out from the shore when they perceived a great commotion on the lake. Large fish were falling into the lake in great numbers. The party went out and had great luck, and captured many of these mysterious trout. The mystery, Hiram says, was cleared up later, when it was learned that an adjoining lake, which is closed to the public and held for the pleasure of a few plutocratic sportsmen, had been visited by a waterspout which gathered up the trout, swept them across the intervening territory and dropped them into Hiram's lake. Hiram will have teams ready to convey sportsmen to his lake at short notice. In order to ensure the safety of visitors in the event of a waterspout filling the boat with trout, each man will be provided with a life preserver.

A NIGHTMARE.

Our esteemed fellow citizen, Mr. Jamesy Jones, had a bad dream last night. He dreamed that St. John was provided with two watering cars such as they have in up-to-date towns, to run on the street car line and sprinkle the main thoroughfares throughout the dusty season. Jamesy, being a prudent citizen, who has several times threatened to migrate to the first discharge, literally riddled with adjectives. Kermit is well. Natives continue to arrive to worship the Americans, whom they regard as supernatural beings.

THE TRUTH ABOUT TEDDY.

Nairobi, Africa, May 26—Ex-President Roosevelt brought down another lying correspondent this morning. The African species is much more formidable than the American, but Mr. Roosevelt armed himself with a Big Noise and boldly attacked a huge specimen this morning. It fell at the first discharge, literally riddled with adjectives. Kermit is well. Natives continue to arrive to worship the Americans, whom they regard as supernatural beings.

KING EDWARD'S ENTRY WON THE CLASSIC DERBY TODAY

Minoru Captured Blue Ribbon of English Turf From Fifteen Starters—Great Crowds Saw the Race and His Majesty's Vic... Was a Popular One.

Epson, May 26—The Derby stakes attracted the crowd, which usually comes down by road. The customary costly turturats, the tradesmen's swagons, wagonettes and hansom cabs still were to be seen on the road, but the procession was diminishing noticeably. A feature of the parade this year was the taxicab. This vehicle enabled the busy man to leave his office after his morning's work and get down here in time to see the big race. There were few coaches out, but prominent among those that did come down were A. C. Vanderbilt's Venture, which was chartered for the day by Clarence Mackay, who had with him a party of American friends. The Venture was driven by Mr. Vanderbilt himself.

Many other Americans coming to the Derby for the first time chose the time honored road route, but instead of traveling behind horses they were in motor cars.

The great crowd which filled the grand stands and roamed over the heath took advantage of the special trains that ran every few minutes and deposited their passengers right at the track. The sun had come out before it was necessary to leave London by train and the doubtful ones who had been scared off by the rain earlier in the day, later joined the procession to the railroad station.

King Edward and Queen Alexandra, Princess Victoria, the Prince and Princess of Wales and other members of the Royal family came down by train. Upon arriving at Epson they were driven to the Royal enclosure in semi-state carriages, accompanied by outriders.

The Caterham plate of 200 sovereigns for two year olds, distance five furlongs, was won by Sun Cloud, Acunha was second and Hagwood third. Fourteen starters.

Epson, Eng., May 26—A heavy downpour of rain which commenced early this morning and continued until noon, with threats of showers during the afternoon kept thousands of the casual race goers from journeying down to Epson Downs today to witness the historic Derby. Undiminished and his majesty's Minoru is the favorite. The rain chiefly affected the crowd, which usually comes down by road. The customary costly turturats, the tradesmen's swagons, wagonettes and hansom cabs still were to be seen on the road, but the procession was diminishing noticeably.
