

The Evening Times.

VOL. V. No. 107

ST. JOHN, N. B., THURSDAY, JANUARY 13, 1910

ONE CENT

TWENTY FOUR RAILWAY LIVES LOST IN STORM

Steamer Czarina Ashore—Two Men Rescued and Five More Are on Wrecked Vessel Awaiting Help

Marshfield, Ore., Jan. 13.—Of the thirty-one men on the steamer Czarina, which struck on the Coos Bay bar yesterday and was practically wrecked, two have been rescued and there is a possibility that five more including Capt. Dugan and Harold Mills will be saved.

COL. TUCKER FALLS; HIP INJURED

Col. J. J. Tucker, ex-M. P., met with a painful accident on Tuesday last, and has since been confined to his bed. About 5 o'clock, as he was alighting from his sleigh in front of his residence, on Chalmers Hill, he slipped on the sidewalk, falling with great force.

WINS BILLIARD CHAMPIONSHIP

New York, Jan. 13.—Fred Eames, of Denver, won the world's championship of three-cushion carom billiards last night from Alfredo de Oro, the Cuban title-holder in the third block of fifty points played, by a final score of 150 to 137.

FIRE LOSSES IN CANADA MUCH LESS THAN LAST YEAR

Checks for More York County Loan Creditors—Hat pin Jabbed Into Man's Eye in Street Car

Toronto, Jan. 13.—(Special)—Total fire losses in the United States and Canada last year aggregated $200,649,200 as against $238,826,280 in the previous year, a decrease of about $38,000,000.

RUNAWAY REFORMATORY BOYS TRAPPED NEARLY TO MONCTON

Moncton, N. B., Jan. 13.—(Special)—Walking from St. John to within eight miles of Moncton, was the feat of Robert McRae and William Mulcahey, the two boys who escaped from the Boys' Industrial Home at St. John on Saturday last.

RAILWAY WORK ON THE PACIFIC

MacKenzie & Mann Leave Victoria After Completing Plans—Waterways Report Ready; Six Years in Preparation

Victoria, B. C., Jan. 13.—(Special)—Negotiations between MacKenzie & Mann and the government on the terms of the contract to be submitted to the legislature for construction of the Canadian Northern through British Columbia, were concluded yesterday and the railway kings left today for the east.

DEATH REVEALS SECRET OF A DOUBLE LIFE

Sproudsburg, P. A., Jan. 12.—Following the death of Robert J. Sewell, of New York, in the Monroe County Hospital, the arrival of the real Mrs. Sewell from Trenton, N. J., disclosed that Sewell had led a double life.

BANK OF ENGLAND

London, Jan. 13.—The rate of discount of the Bank of England remained unchanged at 4 per cent today.

BUTLER WILL NOT RETIRE FOR A MONTH

Minister Will Have That Time to Find Successor—Resignation a Surprise

Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 13.—(Special)—The resignation of M. J. Butler, as deputy minister of railways, came as a complete surprise to all the maritime province members and most of them do not hesitate to say that Canada has sustained a great loss by his leaving his transportation service.

BREAKS SKATING RECORD

Cleveland, O., Jan. 13.—Charles Rankin, of Cleveland, broke the women's indoor skating record last night when he skated the half mile in one minute sixteen and three-fourths seconds.

SAYS BALFOUR HAS FAILED TO ENLIGHTEN COUNTRY ON HIS PLAN

COMMENTS ON LAURIER AND BORDEN

Thunderer's Remarks on Speeches of Premier and Leader

CANADIAN LOANS

London Financial Times Says They Will go Even Better if Longer Dated—Many Want Ready Made Farms in Canada

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—Hon. Mr. Asquith, at Salisbury last night said the budget had been discussed for eight months but, although the country would be pulled in two days, it was left in darkness concerning Mr. Balfour's scheme of tariff reform.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—The Times says, the lively sense of imperial responsibility which Sir Wilfrid Laurier displayed in his recent speech in Toronto, gave deep satisfaction to thousands of good citizens at home.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—The Times says, the lively sense of imperial responsibility which Sir Wilfrid Laurier displayed in his recent speech in Toronto, gave deep satisfaction to thousands of good citizens at home.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—The Times says, the lively sense of imperial responsibility which Sir Wilfrid Laurier displayed in his recent speech in Toronto, gave deep satisfaction to thousands of good citizens at home.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—The Times says, the lively sense of imperial responsibility which Sir Wilfrid Laurier displayed in his recent speech in Toronto, gave deep satisfaction to thousands of good citizens at home.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—The Times says, the lively sense of imperial responsibility which Sir Wilfrid Laurier displayed in his recent speech in Toronto, gave deep satisfaction to thousands of good citizens at home.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—The Times says, the lively sense of imperial responsibility which Sir Wilfrid Laurier displayed in his recent speech in Toronto, gave deep satisfaction to thousands of good citizens at home.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—The Times says, the lively sense of imperial responsibility which Sir Wilfrid Laurier displayed in his recent speech in Toronto, gave deep satisfaction to thousands of good citizens at home.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—The Times says, the lively sense of imperial responsibility which Sir Wilfrid Laurier displayed in his recent speech in Toronto, gave deep satisfaction to thousands of good citizens at home.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—The Times says, the lively sense of imperial responsibility which Sir Wilfrid Laurier displayed in his recent speech in Toronto, gave deep satisfaction to thousands of good citizens at home.

OBJECT TO INCREASE IN RATES

Taking Steamship Matter to Ottawa—Grocers of London Also Claim Grievance—To Cut Down Brantford Licenses

Toronto, Jan. 13.—(Special)—J. C. Douglas, of Gordon MacKay & Company, and Henry Brock, of W. R. Brock & Company, representing the Toronto Board of Trade, will accompany the Montreal deputation which will wait on the minister of trade and commerce and the minister of marine in Ottawa this afternoon, to protest against the announced 25 per cent increase in charges on all west bound Atlantic freight.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—As the result of secret sessions of the citizens' league, it is announced that a recommendation will be sent to the city council from that body whose representatives control the situation to effect that ten hotel and two shop licenses be cut off this year, thus reducing the hotels to six and shops to two.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The provincial Milk Commission has finished its report, and the document is to be once presented to the government through Hon. J. S. Duff, minister of agriculture. It is understood a series of important recommendations are made by the commissioners with a view to assuring a pure milk supply for the people of the province.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The grocers of this city and district are banding together to fight the co-operative bill coming up in the house of commons soon. They contend that the provisions of the bill are an injustice to the retail trade of the whole country, and a strong resolution signed by a large number of them, will be presented at Ottawa.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The demand for an increase in the retail price of shoes, retailers will probably increase their prices from ten to twelve per cent before the close of the present year.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The annual convention of the National Association of Boot & Shoe Manufacturers, held in London, was here yesterday and interviewed the Tourist Association and also members of the Guides' Association in regard to securing an exhibit from New Brunswick. He offers free space and light, and is willing to give a bonus of $100 providing the exhibit from this province includes some live game animals.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The body of Dr. Hannay will arrive from St. John tomorrow evening and be taken to St. Paul's church. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon with services by Rev. Dr. Smith.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The body of Dr. Hannay will arrive from St. John tomorrow evening and be taken to St. Paul's church. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon with services by Rev. Dr. Smith.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The body of Dr. Hannay will arrive from St. John tomorrow evening and be taken to St. Paul's church. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon with services by Rev. Dr. Smith.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The body of Dr. Hannay will arrive from St. John tomorrow evening and be taken to St. Paul's church. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon with services by Rev. Dr. Smith.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The body of Dr. Hannay will arrive from St. John tomorrow evening and be taken to St. Paul's church. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon with services by Rev. Dr. Smith.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The body of Dr. Hannay will arrive from St. John tomorrow evening and be taken to St. Paul's church. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon with services by Rev. Dr. Smith.

PAULHAM PLANS LONG AIR TRIP

World's Most Noted Aviator Talks of Hundred Mile Flight to San Diego—Receives Trophy

Los Angeles, Jan. 13.—Exhilarated by his easy success in breaking all high flight records, Louis Paulham, the French aviator, who became a world hero by his exploit of yesterday, may next essay a flight to San Diego, which lies more than 100 miles southward in an air line from the Dominguez aviation field.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The provincial Milk Commission has finished its report, and the document is to be once presented to the government through Hon. J. S. Duff, minister of agriculture. It is understood a series of important recommendations are made by the commissioners with a view to assuring a pure milk supply for the people of the province.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The grocers of this city and district are banding together to fight the co-operative bill coming up in the house of commons soon. They contend that the provisions of the bill are an injustice to the retail trade of the whole country, and a strong resolution signed by a large number of them, will be presented at Ottawa.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The demand for an increase in the retail price of shoes, retailers will probably increase their prices from ten to twelve per cent before the close of the present year.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The annual convention of the National Association of Boot & Shoe Manufacturers, held in London, was here yesterday and interviewed the Tourist Association and also members of the Guides' Association in regard to securing an exhibit from New Brunswick. He offers free space and light, and is willing to give a bonus of $100 providing the exhibit from this province includes some live game animals.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The body of Dr. Hannay will arrive from St. John tomorrow evening and be taken to St. Paul's church. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon with services by Rev. Dr. Smith.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The body of Dr. Hannay will arrive from St. John tomorrow evening and be taken to St. Paul's church. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon with services by Rev. Dr. Smith.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The body of Dr. Hannay will arrive from St. John tomorrow evening and be taken to St. Paul's church. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon with services by Rev. Dr. Smith.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The body of Dr. Hannay will arrive from St. John tomorrow evening and be taken to St. Paul's church. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon with services by Rev. Dr. Smith.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The body of Dr. Hannay will arrive from St. John tomorrow evening and be taken to St. Paul's church. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon with services by Rev. Dr. Smith.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The body of Dr. Hannay will arrive from St. John tomorrow evening and be taken to St. Paul's church. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon with services by Rev. Dr. Smith.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The body of Dr. Hannay will arrive from St. John tomorrow evening and be taken to St. Paul's church. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon with services by Rev. Dr. Smith.

NEW YORK SHOW WANTS AN EXHIBIT

Offer From Sportsman's Show Received—Tourist Association Re-organized

Fredericton, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The tourist committee appointed by the board of trade a few days ago organized last evening for the ensuing year. Surveyor General Grimmer was elected honorary president; Mayor Chestnut, honorary vice-president; J. W. McCready, president; A. A. Shute, secretary, and F. E. Edgcombe, treasurer. A resolution expressing appreciation of the valuable services rendered by Mayor Chestnut, retiring president, was adopted. It was decided to inaugurate a vigorous advertising campaign.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The grocers of this city and district are banding together to fight the co-operative bill coming up in the house of commons soon. They contend that the provisions of the bill are an injustice to the retail trade of the whole country, and a strong resolution signed by a large number of them, will be presented at Ottawa.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The demand for an increase in the retail price of shoes, retailers will probably increase their prices from ten to twelve per cent before the close of the present year.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The annual convention of the National Association of Boot & Shoe Manufacturers, held in London, was here yesterday and interviewed the Tourist Association and also members of the Guides' Association in regard to securing an exhibit from New Brunswick. He offers free space and light, and is willing to give a bonus of $100 providing the exhibit from this province includes some live game animals.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The body of Dr. Hannay will arrive from St. John tomorrow evening and be taken to St. Paul's church. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon with services by Rev. Dr. Smith.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The body of Dr. Hannay will arrive from St. John tomorrow evening and be taken to St. Paul's church. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon with services by Rev. Dr. Smith.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The body of Dr. Hannay will arrive from St. John tomorrow evening and be taken to St. Paul's church. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon with services by Rev. Dr. Smith.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The body of Dr. Hannay will arrive from St. John tomorrow evening and be taken to St. Paul's church. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon with services by Rev. Dr. Smith.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The body of Dr. Hannay will arrive from St. John tomorrow evening and be taken to St. Paul's church. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon with services by Rev. Dr. Smith.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The body of Dr. Hannay will arrive from St. John tomorrow evening and be taken to St. Paul's church. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon with services by Rev. Dr. Smith.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The body of Dr. Hannay will arrive from St. John tomorrow evening and be taken to St. Paul's church. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon with services by Rev. Dr. Smith.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The body of Dr. Hannay will arrive from St. John tomorrow evening and be taken to St. Paul's church. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon with services by Rev. Dr. Smith.

PREPARE PLANS FOR NEW CITY AND COUNTY OFFICE BUILDING

Committee Considers Three Sites—Market Square, Court House and Prince William Street Below Customs House

The joint committee from the common council and municipal council appointed to consider the matter of having a new municipal building erected to provide offices for city and county officials, etc., held a meeting yesterday. Architect H. H. Mott was present and several available sites were considered.

DEATH OF A JOCKEY

Hamilton, Ont., Jan. 13.—John Little Wood, one of the jockeys who contributed to the racing successes of the late Marcus Daly, is dead here of pneumonia. He had ridden on all of the important courses of the continent.

ST. JOHN WOMAN DIES IN SYDNEY

A former resident to St. John passed away in Sydney (C. B.), yesterday in the person of Mrs. Jane Dunlop, wife of James Dunlop, in the fifty-seventh year of her age. She was very well known in this city and is survived by relatives here. Her body will be brought to St. John for burial, the funeral taking place from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Morley E. Strang, 57 Metcalf street, on Sunday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock.

The Times Average Daily Circulation in December was 7,267 COPIES

THE TIMES Leads in the Afternoon Field

SAYS PRICE OF SHOES WILL GO UP

New York, Jan. 13.—Trade conditions demand an increase in the retail price of shoes. Retailers will probably increase their prices from ten to twelve per cent before the close of the present year.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The grocers of this city and district are banding together to fight the co-operative bill coming up in the house of commons soon. They contend that the provisions of the bill are an injustice to the retail trade of the whole country, and a strong resolution signed by a large number of them, will be presented at Ottawa.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The demand for an increase in the retail price of shoes, retailers will probably increase their prices from ten to twelve per cent before the close of the present year.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The annual convention of the National Association of Boot & Shoe Manufacturers, held in London, was here yesterday and interviewed the Tourist Association and also members of the Guides' Association in regard to securing an exhibit from New Brunswick. He offers free space and light, and is willing to give a bonus of $100 providing the exhibit from this province includes some live game animals.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The body of Dr. Hannay will arrive from St. John tomorrow evening and be taken to St. Paul's church. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon with services by Rev. Dr. Smith.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The body of Dr. Hannay will arrive from St. John tomorrow evening and be taken to St. Paul's church. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon with services by Rev. Dr. Smith.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The body of Dr. Hannay will arrive from St. John tomorrow evening and be taken to St. Paul's church. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon with services by Rev. Dr. Smith.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The body of Dr. Hannay will arrive from St. John tomorrow evening and be taken to St. Paul's church. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon with services by Rev. Dr. Smith.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The body of Dr. Hannay will arrive from St. John tomorrow evening and be taken to St. Paul's church. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon with services by Rev. Dr. Smith.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The body of Dr. Hannay will arrive from St. John tomorrow evening and be taken to St. Paul's church. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon with services by Rev. Dr. Smith.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The body of Dr. Hannay will arrive from St. John tomorrow evening and be taken to St. Paul's church. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon with services by Rev. Dr. Smith.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The body of Dr. Hannay will arrive from St. John tomorrow evening and be taken to St. Paul's church. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon with services by Rev. Dr. Smith.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The body of Dr. Hannay will arrive from St. John tomorrow evening and be taken to St. Paul's church. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon with services by Rev. Dr. Smith.

MAY MEAN GENERAL DEMAND FOR A HIGHER RATE OF WAGES

Washington, D. C., Jan. 13.—Demand for an increase in wages for the laboring men in the United States is forecasted in the action taken yesterday by the executive council of the American Federation of Labor in session here. President Goetz was directed to investigate more fully the recent statement by the census bureau that the annual production of wage-earners a week in the United States is about $2,500, while the wage earners' income is less than $900 a year.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The grocers of this city and district are banding together to fight the co-operative bill coming up in the house of commons soon. They contend that the provisions of the bill are an injustice to the retail trade of the whole country, and a strong resolution signed by a large number of them, will be presented at Ottawa.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The demand for an increase in the retail price of shoes, retailers will probably increase their prices from ten to twelve per cent before the close of the present year.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The annual convention of the National Association of Boot & Shoe Manufacturers, held in London, was here yesterday and interviewed the Tourist Association and also members of the Guides' Association in regard to securing an exhibit from New Brunswick. He offers free space and light, and is willing to give a bonus of $100 providing the exhibit from this province includes some live game animals.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The body of Dr. Hannay will arrive from St. John tomorrow evening and be taken to St. Paul's church. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon with services by Rev. Dr. Smith.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The body of Dr. Hannay will arrive from St. John tomorrow evening and be taken to St. Paul's church. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon with services by Rev. Dr. Smith.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The body of Dr. Hannay will arrive from St. John tomorrow evening and be taken to St. Paul's church. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon with services by Rev. Dr. Smith.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The body of Dr. Hannay will arrive from St. John tomorrow evening and be taken to St. Paul's church. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon with services by Rev. Dr. Smith.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The body of Dr. Hannay will arrive from St. John tomorrow evening and be taken to St. Paul's church. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon with services by Rev. Dr. Smith.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The body of Dr. Hannay will arrive from St. John tomorrow evening and be taken to St. Paul's church. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon with services by Rev. Dr. Smith.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The body of Dr. Hannay will arrive from St. John tomorrow evening and be taken to St. Paul's church. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon with services by Rev. Dr. Smith.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The body of Dr. Hannay will arrive from St. John tomorrow evening and be taken to St. Paul's church. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon with services by Rev. Dr. Smith.

(Times' Special Cable) London, Jan. 13.—(Special)—The body of Dr. Hannay will arrive from St. John tomorrow evening and be taken to St. Paul's church. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon with services by Rev. Dr. Smith.