DYNAMITE ARGUNENT.

SOLVING A LABOR PROBLEM IN COLORADO.

Mines Attacked—Several Lives Lost.

LEADVILLE, Col., Sept. 21.

Driven to desperation by starvation, Leadville's locked-out miners, who have been threatening the peace for two months, attacked the Coronado mine with guns and dynamite at one o'clock this morning, arousing the city and throwing the inhabitants into panic. Heavy explosions aroused sleepers in the eastern part of the city at the hour named. The mine is heavily guarded by special police behind stout barricades. The explosions were followed by many rifle shots from the vicinity of the barricade surrounding the mine, which are thought to have been fired by an attacking force to cover the retreat of dynamiters in an attempt on the works. The shooting lasted about ten minutes and was followed for some time by scattered firing. The works at the mine were set on fire, but it was extinguished by the fire department. Soon after a series of explosions was heard in the direction of the Emmett and Marion mines and it is supposed that an attack has been made upon these works.

A later report from the Coronado mine states that Fireman O'Keefe was fatally shot while attempting to turn on the water and that two unknown men are dead.

Many rumors are rife, one being that every building at the Coronado has been burned. Another states that John Mahoney, who works at the "big four," while on his way from the mine and near the Everett line was shot in the stomach and is believed to be dead. Another man had all his clothing torn from his body, but escaped with his life.

The miners were organized recently by the Western Federation of Miners and almost every mine worker was in the union when their demands were made. The miners asked $3 a day for all classes of workmen, including surface and underground men. The employers declared at the beginning of the trouble that they were willing to continue paying the wages which had prevailed in Leadville up to that time. Under that scale surface workers were paid only $2.50 and practically the only change the union proposed is the advance of the wages of this class of men to $3. The mine owners have refused to listen to any employes. They insist that the government, the courts and the newspapers are with the miners and it would be impossible for them to manage their own property if they made any concession. The courts say they are powerless unless the sheriff brings the offenders within their jurisdiction. The mine owners explain that the sheriff holds the key to the situation and he is in league with the strikers.

McMONAGLE'S DEATH.

Suspected Indians to be Removed to Calais To-day.

[SPECIAL TO GLOBE.]

ST. ANDREWS, Sept. 21.

Sheriff Forter and Attorney McKusick came down from Calais to-day to take over the three Indians held on suspicion of murdering Michael McMonagle. To the GLOBE correspondent the sheriff stated that the chief testimony against the Indians has been given by Mahar, Cox and Harrington, three very shady characters belonging to Calais. Harrington served six months in St. Andrews jail not long ago for perjury. The others have been behind bars, so that their evidence is not very reliable. Another Indian named Sebattis Tomah, supposed to have been in collision with the St. Andrews Indians, is under arrest at Calais, but Calais officers think now that he knows nothing about the case. The three Indians here are anxious to have an enquiry and have their reputations cleared. No one here suspects them of the crime.

CAIRO, Sept. 21.

General Sir H. H. Kitchener, commanding the Anglo-Egyptian expedition in the valley of the Nile, reports that the gunboats which were first to arrive at Dongola found only a few dervishes there, the main body of them having withdrawn.

Gen. Kitchener wires that he has sent a letter to Wad Bishara, the leader of the dervishes, calling upon him to surrender, and offering to pardon himself and his followers if they will lay down their arms.

The casualties on board the gunboats in the fight at El Hafir yesterday were one man killed and twelve wounded.

LOCAL NEWS.

FURNITURE SALE.—Mr. Gerow will sell household furniture and organ at 39 Lombard street to-morrow, commencing at 10 o'clock.

CONDEMNED.—Barque White Wings, Captain Lawrence, which put into Bahia in May last in distress while on the voyage from Rio Janeiro for Channel, has been condemned.

The Methodist ministers met to-day in the schoolroom of Centenary church. After the usual routine business and the hearing of church reports, the order of the day was devoted to the consideration of an exegesis on John iii. 5th, prepared by Rev. John Read.

SUDDEN DEATH.—William Lee, who lived at Little River with his mother, was found dead in his bed on Sunday. He had been ill for some time, but serious results were not so soon expected. He was about forty years of age and was unmarried. He was employed with Messrs. Lee Brothers.

SEAMEN SICK.—Barque Belt, Capt. Olsen, from Rio Janeiro, arrived at the Island yesterday. To-day the captain came into port and entered his vessel. Two of the seamen are sick from rheumatism, and they were sent to the hospital. The Belt will load at Harvey.

COLD STORAGE.—The benefit of cold storage for the preservation of fruit is well illustrated by a half barrel of russet apples which the schooner Florence Guest brought to-day from Granville Ferry. The apples are last year's production, but they are as sound and fresh as if they were picked this year. Mr. Herbert Weatherspoon, of Granville Ferry, had the apples stored since last year in a cold cellar. The apples will be placed on exhibition in one of the uptown grocery stores.

AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY SHOW.

It Was Held at Moosepath Park To-day, and Was a Small Affair.

The annual exhibition of the St. John County Agricultural Society was held at Moosepath Park to-day. The list of entries was quite small and the exhibition as a whole was poor. Some very fine horses were shown and the cattle, while all very good specimens, were young. The sheep and swine exhibit was only fair and the number of poultry was very small. The display of produce was quite disappointing. The samples which were shown were certainly fine ones, but the exhibit was so small and so few varieties were to be seen that it lacked interest. The attendance was small this morning, but a larger number of people visited the park this afternoon. Nearly everything shown at the fair to-day will be taken to the exhibition. The judges were: Fowl, F. W. Kaye and E. H. Turnbull; horses, Dr. Reid, Guelph, Ont.; cattle, Prof. Day, Guelph; produce, W. Alex. Porter, J. S. Armstrong.

The following won prizes:

REGRET EXPRESSED.

At our Millinery opening last season a number of people expressed themselves as being sorry that they had been tempted into buying before having seen our display. Some of them actually returned the Hats they had bought and came to us, while eleven (11) different persons brought the Pattern Hats they had selected elsewhere in to our Miss Robertson to be altered and made over. This shows the confidence of the people in the class of goods we carry and in the ability and taste of our head milliner.

This time our opening commences on Wednesday morning and will be continued until Saturday night.

We will show some of the "smartest" Pattern Hats and Bonnets ever brought to St. John.
