THEIR LAST DAY.

CONSERVATIVE MINISTRY TO RESIGN AT LAST.

Mr. Laurier Expected to be Sent for To-Morrow—Meeting of Parliament to be Postponed.

[SPECIAL TO GLOBE.]

OTTAWA, July 6.

Sir Charles Tupper went down to Rideau Hall Saturday morning at 11 and held a two hours' conference with His Excellency the Governor General. It is said that Aberdeen questions the constitutional right of the defeated ministry to make some of the appointments to office presented to him for his sanction, and these differences of opinion led to the prolonged conference of Saturday.

It is also understood that the Premier informed His Excellency that he intended to hand in his resignation as head of the government on Tuesday at noon.

There was a three-hour session of the council on Saturday—from three o'clock to six.

Mr. Hugh John Macdonald left on the six o'clock train for Montreal and intends leaving for Winnipeg this evening. By that time the Tupper ministry will have practically ceased to exist.

It may be expected that Aberdeen will send for Laurier to-morrow and that the Liberal leader will on the same day undertake the task of forming a ministry. His first duty as His Excellency's adviser—a position he assumes the moment he is entrusted with the task—will probably be to secure a proclamation postponing the meeting of Parliament called for the 16th. A delay of two weeks would probably be necessary or perhaps three. If Tupper had resigned a week earlier, as he announced his intention of doing, there would have been no difficulty in meeting Parliament on the 16th.

Lieut. Governor Dewdney, who has been in Ottawa for a couple of weeks, is now en route to England, having obtained a three months' leave of absence, at the end of which time it is said he will resign the office. He holds his term as governor does not expire until November, 1897.

Under date of June 25th, two days after the general elections, the McMillan & Haynes Co. gave notice in the official gazette of the intention to apply for letters patent incorporating the company for the purpose of carrying on the business of manufacturing and selling saws, axes, scythes and other edge tools and metallic bedsteads, with a capital stock of $30,000 and headquarters at St. Catherines, Ont.

The Tupper ministry met in council this morning at eleven o'clock, probably for the last time. The sitting will likely last all day. It is said that the haste to get through to-day is due to expostulations from the Governor General based on the serious obstruction to public business caused by the present condition of affairs. At all events Sir Charles Tupper and his colleagues decided on Saturday to resign on Tuesday, p. m.

This government has an international reputation for changing its mind, but subject to this chronic failing the ministry goes out to-morrow.

CHICAGO, July 6.

A morning paper says the assertion was made at the silver headquarters last night that silver would have about 630 votes in the convention, though it was impossible for anyone to estimate the full strength of the white metal. The two-thirds majority, without the contesting delegations, was claimed with renewed confidence, and the figures which the leaders gave out showed 621 votes. There will be 930 seats in the convention, and the 621 votes claimed will give the silver men one vote to spare in controlling the nomination.

The National Business Men's League has established quarters here and issued an address to the people of the country, calling attention to the disastrous results that will follow the adoption of a free silver standard by the government. It is a non-partisan organization, but if the Democratic convention adopt the silver platform, the Democratic members will either refrain from voting for President or will vote for the Republican ticket. The members are scattered throughout the country.

LEBANON, Mo., July 6.

Richard P. Bland said yesterday: "I have no intention of going to Chicago; neither am I personally urging my nomination. I am in the hands of my friends and have every confidence in their ability and fidelity."

GERMAN WOMEN'S CLAIMS.

BERLIN, July 6.

A great women's congress assembled in the concert house in Berlin last week at which 1,500 persons, mostly women, were present. Congress made especial protests against the provisions of the government's civil code bill, particularly affecting women. Resolutions were passed protesting against the continued deprivation of women of their economic independence, against the relations of married women to their husbands as presented by the code, against the provisions that goods possessed by women shall become the property of the man she marries, against the provision that mothers are not allowed guardian rights over their children and against the refusal of the law to give illegitimate children full claims upon their fathers. No such demonstration of women was ever held in Germany, and the general opinion is that its importance and influence cannot be wholly ignored by the authorities.

THE COAL MINE HORROR.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 6.

Another investigation was made last night regarding the alleged rappings from the entombed men in the Twin shaft, and it was learned that John Owen, one of the shifts, did the tapping. He explained he did it to encourage the men who were at work. He was promptly discharged. It will take a week at least before men can reach the spot where the victims are. All hope of finding any alive has been abandoned.

MILLS SHUT DOWN.

FALL RIVER, July 6.

The formal curtailment of mill production was begun here to-day when fifteen mills closed down.

SHOOTING AFFAIR.

NORMAN McKENZIE, OF NEWCASTLE, WOUNDED

In a Fracas at a Hotel—A New Orleans Doctor His Assailant.

[SPECIAL TO GLOBE.]

CHATHAM, July 6.

John McKane, agent of the Merchants' Bank at Newcastle, and Norman McKenzie, druggist, were at the Waverly hotel, Newcastle, at 4 o'clock this morning.

They were making some noise when Dr. Baynon, of New Orleans, a guest at the house, requested them to make less noise and allow him to sleep.

This seemed to have angered the two, who followed Baynon to his room and gave him a severe beating, in the midst of which he drew a revolver and fired on them.

One ball left a mark along the top of McKane's head and the other two took effect in McKenzie's wrist and shoulder.

The latter is in a very critical condition and it is feared he will die.

Dr. Baynon went and gave himself up immediately and was admitted to bail.

The examination will be held before Police Magistrate Nevin on Wednesday.

B. E. Goodspeed, of Nashwaak Lodge, won the prize for bringing in the most members.

Section three of the finance committee's report, which carried, provides that the District Lodge be not allowed to retain any part of the per capita tax.

It was resolved and recommended to subordinate lodges that they adopt the uniform by-law, and that a member suspended six months be no longer a member of the order.

It was resolved that a memorial page in next year's report be dedicated to Mr. John Meehan, first G. C. T. of N. B.

Next followed installation of officers.

The report of committee on state of the order was adopted. Among other things it provides that $10.00 be paid to one who organizes a new lodge; $5.00 to one who reorganizes a lodge, and that practical aid be given to the establishment of juvenile temples.

It was resolved that the Grand Lodge secretary be directed to call into Grand Lodge the property left by dormant lodges.

After speeches by the officers elected the lodge adjourned to meet next year in Chatham.

In the evening a public meeting was held in the temperance hall. It was enthusiastic and crowded. Music of a high order was provided.

A humorous recitation and two songs of like character were given by Capt. Hamlin and were heartily encored. The devotional exercises were given by Rev. S. A. Fenwick. Addresses were given by W. L. Waring, G. C. T., S. A. Fenwick, W. M. Burns, Rev. L. A. Cosman, Rev. R. H. Fenwick, S. J. Monroe and W. R. Robinson. The latter was the speaker of the evening to elicit tremendous applause. All were good, vigorous addresses to evoke hearty applause.

Gasoline Stove Explodes and Causes Death and Suffering.

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., July 6.

Mrs. Adolf Menard and daughter Eva, aged 16, were terribly burned this morning by the explosion of a gasoline stove. The daughter died at 11 o'clock from her injuries. She had attempted to replenish the gasoline without turning off the jets, which were burning. There was an explosion and the flames caught the girl's clothing. Her mother ran to her assistance. Her clothes also became ignited. Their screams brought the neighbors to the house and both women were found on the floor with their clothing burned off, faces blackened and bodies and legs badly burned and swollen. The girl was unconscious. The mother was able to tell how the accident happened. They were taken to the hospital, where the girl died. Mrs. Menard's condition is critical. They are the wife and daughter of Adolf Menard, a prominent French citizen.
