The ST. JOHN GLOBE is published every afternoon, that of Sunday excepted, by JOHN V. ELLIS and RICHARD O'BRIEN, under the firm name of ELLIS, ROBERTSON & CO. JOHN V. ELLIS, Editor.

St. John Globe

ST. JOHN, N. B., JULY 13, 1896.

TAKE IT WITH MODERATION.

It is, perhaps, quite natural that the Toronto Globe should grow excited over the conditions which exist in Canada, and should dance with joy over the prospects of better times which are now before the country. Good government is a great thing for any land and of that Canada has a plentiful scarcity. But our party and its leaders must show what they are made of by their works. We all have faith in them, in their integrity, honesty, ability, and all that. We believe that they will enable us to realize our anticipations of what is best for this country. Hysterical and fantastical eulogy of them is only wasted before sober-minded Liberals. The Toronto Globe is, perhaps, with good effect imitating the practices of the more extreme of the Conservative papers in its highly colored praises, and elaborate descriptions of leading Liberals. In Ontario the Conservatives had a great man in Sir John Macdonald, and probably there was something of method in the plan of having Conservative newspapers day after day publishing many columns of reading in order to inform the people of the fact. They were proceeding with the same tactics with regard to Sir John Thompson, although they responded somewhat slowly to the demand, or whatever it was, that they should adopt this line of action. Whether it is worth while to follow their lead may well be asked. Of course the Liberal party is weak in Ontario, where its principles should stand for much more than they appear to have done in this last election, and it may be necessary to popularize them by an effort to personify the principles of the party through what is almost a deification of some men in the party front. In many minds the impression is very strong that as the people gain in wisdom and in character they will easily distinguish the sober realities of sound statesmanship from those qualities which appeal merely to the imagination. In Canada the Liberal party has before it a splendid opportunity to show its character, its capacity, its power. It must show what it really can do by works, and words will not take their place. Probably, Ontario has been fed so long by stimulating the popular imagination as to what a prominent political leader should be that it is still necessary to keep up the practice; but as soon as the Liberals get into power they should substitute the gold of pure workmanship for the mere dross of personal adulation. And we have faith that they will be able to do it.

THE SENATE.

When the Liberals fill the vacancies existing in the Senate they will have in all about fourteen members in that body against seventy Conservatives. This will be a very small contingent of Liberals, but the present outlook is that the Conservatives will be much more fairly disposed to the Liberal party than they were when Mr. Mackenzie came into power. Sir John Macdonald was then defeated on the Pacific scandal and not upon questions of general politics, on which the country had pronounced. There was, therefore, less disposition than there is now to regard all the questions of the day from a broad standpoint. Then, again, the individuality and personality of Sir John Macdonald were of considerable strength in the Senate. He had in that body powerful personal friends who fought his battles from a personal standpoint. Just now there is no Conservative leader in whom the Senate is interested. In fact there is less of the personal in politics. Other influences will be at work to make the Senate less hostile to the Liberals than it was fifteen or eighteen years ago; and we may expect to find Mr. Laurier's task there not so difficult as was that of Mr. Mackenzie.

A few years ago a great many persons thought that the Republican party of the United States had seen its best days, and its rapid disintegration was expected. But the party survived defeat, and it won the Presidency at a moment when Democratic rule for many years seemed assured. But the triumph of Harrison was short-lived, and Cleveland again achieved for the Democracy a victory of which, however, the party has not been able to continue to itself the advantage. It is now the Democratic party which appears to be disintegrating. Its heresy on the silver question has driven out of its ranks many of its ablest and best men. In the party convention one-third of the representatives left before a candidate for the vice-presidency was chosen. The Republican protection heresy will not seem nearly so dangerous to the country as the Democratic doctrine in regard to silver.

Messrs. R. G. Dun & Co. have issued a statement of failures in Canada for the second quarter of 1896—ending June 30. There were in all 384, with liabilities of $2,815,249, against 351, with liabilities of $2,317,790 in the first half of 1895. Of the total eight were in New Brunswick with liabilities of $23,800, and assets of $17,300. Dividing the total failures between manufacturing and trading, it is found that 105 manufacturing concerns failed in 1896 with liabilities of $1,249,067, against 90 of $779,037 in 1895. Clothing and millinery, and leather, shoe and harness manufacturers are the most precarious class. In Quebec the failures were the heaviest.

There is an intimation that the late government made a number of persons Queen's Counsel, and that the present government will cancel theese appointments. Let us hope that this will not be done. On the contrary the incoming government should approve of all who are appointed, and go a step further by abolishing the Queen's Counsel as a legal order or degree. What is the use of it? And, bestowed as it is now for political services, it is little short of being an annoyance.

Lord Wolseley is rapidly reforming the British army. In the cavalry and artillery hereafter the stable jacket will be called the mess jacket, and will be worn in mess dress only. In the infantry the mess jacket will be trimmed with white pipecord. Whenever gold-laced trousers or overalls are directed to be worn with full dress, they will only be worn on state occasions, at levees and in mess dress. Obsolete garments may be worn for two years longer.

THE LAURIER CABINET

WILL BE OFFICIALLY ANNOUNCED THIS AFTERNOON.

The Last "Slate"—Mr. Mills and the Bench—Appointments That are No Good.

[SPECIAL TO GLOBE.]

OTTAWA, July 13.

Mr. Laurier's cabinet will be announced officially at 3 o'clock to-day. No "slate" given out before then would have a great deal of value, and already a dozen have been announced, each different from the other.

Mr. Laurier was sworn in Saturday afternoon as President of the Privy Council, a portfolio which will leave the Premier free to attend to the important duties of first minister. Sir Oliver Mowat will be Minister of Justice and Mr. Tarte Minister of Public Works. It is probable that Mr. Blair will be Minister of Railways and Canals and Mr. Fielding is spoken of as Minister of Finance, with Sir Richard Cartwright as Minister of Trade and Commerce, but this is only rumor, as nothing official can be ascertained just now. Mr. Paterson is assigned to the Department of Customs, but if so he will be Minister of Customs, it being the intention to abolish by legislation the anomaly of controller. Dr. Borden will be Minister of Militia and Sir Henry Joly will fill another portfolio. Mr. Fisher and Mr. Mulock are both spoken of as Minister of Agriculture—a department both are specially qualified to preside over. Mr. Davies, the Maritime leader, will be Minister of Marine and Fisheries. A portfolio is assigned to Senator Scott, of Ottawa. Mr. Fitzpatrick, of Quebec city, is likely to be Solicitor General, and Mr. C. A. Geoffrion will be a member of the cabinet without portfolio. Mr. J. D. Edgar will be Speaker of the House of Commons with Mr. Brodeur deputy Speaker. Senator Pelletier will be Speaker of the Senate.

Hon. David Mills left last night for home, having elected to stay out of the cabinet and take a seat on the bench of the Supreme Court of Canada when the first vacancy occurs. So far as known no one has been named for the Department of the Interior, a post to which the Northwest and Manitoba have sole claim. Mr. Blair arrived last night. Mr. Fielding will not arrive for a couple of days.

The commission to revise and consolidate the Dominion Statutes has been appointed by His Excellency. It will consist of Judge Baby; Mr. Emerson Coatsworth, ex-M. P.; Mr. E. L. Newcombe, deputy Minister of Justice; Mr. J. S. A. Creighton, law clerk of the Senate; Mr. F. McCord, law clerk, and Mr. R. V. Sinclair (Ottawa) as secretary. This order-in-Council is not worth the paper it is written on, even with the sign manual of His Excellency the Governor General, because it has already been decided in England by the highest authority that appointments of such a nature, without a parliamentary appropriation, are void, and in addition the revision requires an act of Parliament, and this too is lacking. The appointments are therefore null and void.

The retiring government appointed 250 Queen's Counsel. These have now been sanctioned by His Excellency and will be published to-morrow. There are a few Liberal lawyers in the list, including Hon. David Mills and Mr. J. F. Lister, Q. C., but nearly all are party rewards.

LATER.

OTTAWA, July 13.

Mr. Laurier met his colleagues in the council chamber at eleven o'clock and talked matters over. Cartwright, Mowat, Blair, Davies, Borden, Mulock, Tarte, Fisher and Paterson were present.

It is said now that Cartwright will have the finance portfolio.

THE PARK.

The park readily attracted the public as a popular resort. On Sunday afternoon and evening it was crowded, and the road from Mount Pleasant leading down the hill and skirting the shores of the lake seemed to be covered with an endless flow of people in either direction. The afternoon was delightful and pedestrians, coaches, carriages and occasionally a bicycle filled the paths of the resort. If the street railway would extend their track to the park it would be a great convenience to the general public. One thing the St. John park possesses and that is variety. There are the hill and the level, the woods and the open field, rock and turf, stream and lake, and all these were in demand on Sunday. While the native attractiveness and picturesqueness of the scene were greatly appreciated, there were other attractions which received the attention of the visitor. The Salvation Army had taken a position in one portion of the park and were conducting a prayer meeting in the presence of a large crowd. A little way from them another and ever-changing crowd were visiting the pheasants. There are three of them and they are a popular gift to the park. The male bird is very beautiful and with his long golden plumage is in marked contrast to the other two. The pheasants were the centre of a curious crowd all day. Down in the lake the swans were receiving due attention. There are two of them and part of the lake has been fenced off for them in which they have plenty of room to swim. The swans are very pretty and certainly the lake is improved by their presence. The only thing that is unattractive is the ugly fence which encloses them and the packing box which serves as their house. They, of course, will be improved in time.

FREDERICTON NEWS.

FREDERICTON, July 12.

The Orangemen of the city and vicinity celebrated the 12th to-day by attending divine service at the Methodist church this afternoon. Rev. Mr. Teasdale preached an appropriate and eloquent sermon. The members marched to and from the church in regalia, headed by the 71st Battalion band.

Miss Mary McGarrigle, daughter of the late P. McGarrigle, of this city, was married at Vancouver on the 30th June to Mr. James Foran, a leading and wealthy resident of that city.

About fifty persons went down on the David Weston to-day to the Beulah Camp at Brown's Flats.

Paris has another clairvoyant or seer, a little boy of 9, named Paul Delpont, whose communicants are St. Joseph and St. Paul. The young seer's first feat was to announce that he had been told by St. Paul and St. Joseph that if a certain plot of ground were searched two skeletons and the long lost bells of an old church would be found. The neighbors dug, found the skeletons and bells and marvelled.

The Town Council of Birmingham, England, has before it an offer from Mr. Wm. Mackenzie, president of the Toronto Street Railway, and Mr. James Ross, president of the Montreal Street Railway and principal owner of the St. John Street Railway, to purchase the whole street railway system within the town.

Paper teeth are made by a dentist in Lubeck. One of his patrons has a set which has been in use for thirteen years, and gives complete satisfaction.

One of the largest life insurance corporations in New York is discharging a number of its clerks, owing to unusual dulness in its business at the present time.

LOCAL NEWS.

MASONIC ENGAGEMENTS.

July, 1896.

Meetings will be held at Freemasons' Hall, Germain street, during the month of July at 8 o'clock in the evening, as follows:

Tuesday, 14th—Hibernia Lodge, No. 3.
Wednesday, 15th—Carleton Royal Arch Chapter.
Thursday, 16th—The Union Lodge of Portland, No. 10.

THE COMMON COUNCIL will meet on Wednesday afternoon.

THE STANDARD DESIGNER for August is a very good number. It is for sale at the Department store.

THIS EVENING.—Monkey Circus at the Opera House.

Strawberry festival and sale at the Portland street Methodist church.

THE PENTAGOET.—A despatch to Messrs. Troop & Son from New York states the Pentagoet, with her cargo, will be towed to New York. She is not so badly damaged as first supposed.

THE YOUNG ELECTRICS of Carleton intend holding a first class entertainment in the Oddfellows' hall on Wednesday evening. Their programme is a good one and the entertainment should be well patronized.

THE ORANGE DEMONSTRATION at Hampton to-day was largely attended. About five hundred people came down from Sussex, and the first train from here took up about seven hundred. The second train also took away a large crowd.

A LARGE FORTUNE.—By the death of Mrs. Reid, formerly Annie Potter, of Kouchibouguac, which occurred recently in California, one hundred and twenty thousand dollars are left, most of which goes to relatives in Kouchibouguac.

THE MONKEY CIRCUS that is to be the attraction at the Opera House all this week is said to be the most interesting and amusing animal entertainment ever seen here. The fact that it is good is evidenced by the fact that Rufus Somerby is managing it.

CONVERSAZIONE.—The ladies of Main street Baptist church will hold a conversazione in the new church building to-morrow (Tuesday) evening, at 8 o'clock. Music will be furnished by the Temple of Honor Band. This being the first gathering in the new church it should be interesting to all.

THE AMBULANCES.—The committee appointed by the Local Council of Women have decided to exhibit the ambulances at St. Andrew's rink on Friday afternoon and evening. Trained nurses will be in attendance to show how the ambulances are used and refreshments and music will be provided.

COWS POISONED.—An Andover despatch in the Sun says that a herd of cows belonging to Frank McQuade, of Undine, were poisoned last week, strychnine being used. Three cows have died and the others are not expected to live. The matter will probably be placed in the Attorney General's hands.

MR. NEWTON GLASGOW, whose death is announced as having occurred at Denver, was a native of this city and a half brother of Mr. Glasgow, superintendent of the ferries. His wife was a Miss Fletcher of Yarmouth, sister of Captain Richard Fletcher, and of Mrs. Geo. F. Everett, of Ottawa. He was a man of much energy, vigor and hopefulness, and friends here received the news of his death with much regret.

WITH THE MINISTERS.—The Methodist ministers met in weekly session in Centenary schoolroom this morning. There were three absentees—the new ministers of Centenary, Carmarthen street and Fairville churches. Rev. Mr. Marshall, the new president, was in the chair, and Rev. James Crisp was elected secretary. Rev. J. Shenton will officiate until he arrives in the city. The reports of the churches occupied the morning.

BROKE HIS LEG.—Horsemen will regret to hear that the racing days of the celebrated stallion Sir William are over. On Thursday, while sprinting on the Kentville track, he struck one of his forward legs against a hind foot and broke the forward leg between the fetlock and the foot. Sir William was one of the finest stallions in the provinces. Just a few months before the accident he had gone a half mile in 1m. 6¼ seconds, and, it is said, could have covered the full mile 2 17 or better.

GRAMMAR SCHOOL CAMP.—The boys of the Grammar school start on their annual camping expedition on Tuesday, and all those who intend joining the party are requested to meet at Oddfellows' Hall at eight o'clock sharp to-morrow morning. Messrs. Devitt, Myles, Clawson, Frink and Vaughan left for the camping grounds this morning and will have everything in readiness for the boys when they arrive. They took with them about fifteen tents and two hundred blankets. About thirty-five boys will be in the party.

BACK FROM UTOPIA.—A dozen members of the Guild of Nazareth of Trinity church, who have been camping for the past week on Lake Utopia, returned home on Saturday evening. They had a most delightful trip and thoroughly enjoyed the outing. They put up at the beautiful camp of the Utopia Fish and Game Association. Rev. Mr. Eatough was present with the boys and contributed much to the enjoyment of the trip. Camp Utopia is one of the prettiest spots in the Province and very popular with camping parties. Mr. R. T. Hayes and family are spending this week there.

"THE MEDICAL RECORD" for July 27 contains a table of contents of the volume for the preceding six months and a list of contributors. This list is of special interest, for it shows that about two hundred medical men in Europe and America have been contributors to the number. In the issue for July 4, Dr. William J. Morton, of New York, writes of "The X Ray and Some of its Applications in Medicine." There is an original article on the use of antitoxin in the treatment of diphtheria in private practice. There are reports of the American Orthopædic Association" and of the "Illinois State Medical Association," a London letter descriptive of what is going on in the world of medical science in the English metropolis, and a good many other matters are satisfactorily treated. William Wood & Company, publishers, 43 East Tenth street, New York.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.—At a meeting of St. Peter's Total Abstinence Society, held in the basement of St. Peter's church, Sunday afternoon, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term:

Richard J. Walsh, president;
James Morgan, vice-president;
James H. McHugh, secretary-treasurer;
William Morris, financial secretary;
Wm. J. Dalton, assistant secretary;
John Roberts, sergeant-at-arms.
Jas. B. Daley, } Trustees.
James Morgan, }
Edw. Burke, }

The Very Rev. Father Weigel, C. SS. R., is Spiritual Director. The society is in a very healthy condition financially, having a surplus on hand of six hundred dollars.

SUDDEN DEATH.—Jennie Cowell, a resident of Sheffield street, rather notorious in police circles, died suddenly on Sunday night in Melissa Howe's house on Sheffield street. Jennie had been in poor health for some time, being prematurely broken down by a life of dissipation. She was, however, able to go before the Grand Jury on Saturday and give evidence for the prosecution against Joseph Denaco, who was charged with burglary. It might be remarked right here that, in spite of her bad life, her evidence was always believed by the police, who gave her credit for truthfulness. On Saturday after the trial she appeared to be quite weak, but nothing serious was feared by those with whom she lived. On Sunday evening, however, she took a bad turn and died before medical assistance could reach her. Coroner Berryman was notified to-day and he and Capt. Jenkins visited the house and made some enquiries. The coroner will hold an inquest to-night.

PICNICS.—A large crowd of people went to the Chapel Grove to-day.

Father Byrne's picnic will be held to-morrow at Norton.

The Congregational church will picnic on Tuesday at Ludgate Lake. Trains will leave Carleton on arrival of the 8 10 a. m. and 1 40 p. m. trips of the ferry.

The Carleton Methodist church Sabbath school picnic will be held on Thursday, July 23, at Ludgate Lake. The Shore Line Railway will run two trains. An efficient committee has charge of the affair.

The Cathedral Sunday school picnic will be held at Torryburn on Tuesday, Aug. 4th.

Go to Westfield Beach, where the scholars of St. John's Presbyterian church Sunday school hold their picnic on Thursday. Trains leave at 9 a. m. and 1.30 p. m.

The Exmouth street Methodist church Sabbath school picnic will be held to-morrow at Watters's Landing. The steamer May Queen will leave her wharf at Indiantown at 9 30 a. m. and 1 30 p. m. Those not wanting to be bothered with baskets can be supplied at moderate prices at the refreshment tables.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Percy Lewin is on a visit to his father, Senator Lewin, Lancaster Heights.

Mr. deB. Carritte left to-day for St. John's, Newfoundland, on a business trip.

Miss Mary Rodden, of Chesley street, is entertaining her friends, Miss Anna Shean and Miss Nellie Doherty, of Boston.

Mr. W. G. Robertson, I. C. R. station master, has gone up river on a well-earned vacation. The assistant agent, Mr. L. R. Ross, has charge during his absence.

Prof. Andrews, of Sackville, was one of the principal speakers at the Washington Christian Endeavor meeting.

Miss Mina Fisher, daughter of the late G. Fred. Fisher, of Fredericton, and Ernest B. Jack, C. E., son of the late President Jack of the University, are to be married next week at the residence of Mrs. Stather, the bride's sister, at Omaha, and will reside at Harrisburg, Pa.

Mrs. W. F. MacDonald (nee Sue E. Watson) and infant son, of New York, are spending the summer with Mrs. MacDonald's parents at Thistle Cottage, Riverside.

Mr. Edward Lantalum returned from Quebec to-day.

Mr. M. B. Edwards came down from Fredericton this afternoon.

THE BEULAH CAMP.

The St. John river was a scene of much activity on Sunday, and the objective point was the Beulah Camp. By steam boat, by sail boat, by row boat, by wagon and on foot, people flocked to hear the gospel expounded, and to take part in the spiritual feast provided. It was a grand sight at the wharf in the forenoon—four steamers with their living freight (the Aberdeen from St. John being crowded), numerous small boats and seven or eight yachts, all filled with young men dressed in various costumes, clewing up sails, coiling ropes, etc., and all using nautical terms with as much ease as if they had spent years on one of Her Majesty's sloops of war. There was one feature noticeable about a great many persons who came from different points on the river, and that is they did not trust to luck for provisions, as they had their own interpretation of the lesson "take no heed of what ye shall eat or drink, consider the birds," etc., for most of them had lunches in baskets or in paper. The hotel people were kept busy, too, in providing food, while the men at the gates found it hard work standing exposed to the sun in selling admission tickets to the camp grounds. The heat was oppressive, and many had to leave the tent and seek cooler places. The addresses were earnest, and the people were urged to flee from the wrath to come by accepting salvation at once. The songs of praise were caught up by hundreds of voices and they could be heard along the shore a great distance. The surrounding country looked charming. There was a refreshing breeze blowing up the Reach, and the woodboats either beating down or running up "wing and wing" added much to the scene. Then the peaceful-looking homes on either side of the river made the place look like a demi-paradise, where sin might not find root. Notwithstanding all this, the devil seems to be no respecter of places or persons, for the inhabitants of those quiet dales and hills told how wicked they had been, and how near they had been to the rim of the fiery pit, but they were snatched as brands from the burning, and now enjoyed peace and happiness. Towards the afternoon the different steamers left for Fredericton, Hampstead and St. John.

SUNDAY SHOOTING ACCIDENT.

A Young Lad Wounded by Careless Handling of a Revolver.

Fred Baxter, a lad 15 years of age who lives with his father, Walter Baxter, on St. David street, lies seriously wounded at his home with a revolver bullet in his chest.

This injury to the lad was the result of the careless handling of a revolver by some boys on Sunday. Baxter, in company with John McCullough, a lad about 14 years of age, and a number of other lads, was playing on the beach at the foot of Clarence street on Sunday morning about 11 o'clock. McCullough had procured a revolver, which he says he got from a boy named McCord. They arranged to fire at a mark, and McCullough started to put a cartridge in one of the chambers. While doing so he accidentally pulled the trigger, and a cartridge that was in the revolver when he got it discharged. The muzzle of the pistol was pointing to young Baxter, who was watching McCullough load the weapon, and the ball struck him on the chest, below the throat, and glanced off towards the back. The injured lad was carried home and Drs. D. E. Berryman and Holden were summoned to attend him. They found him unconscious and bleeding internally, and it was at first feared he would die. He passed a good night, however, and this morning his condition was greatly improved, so that hopes are now held out for his recovery. Young McCullough was arrested later in the day and locked up on a charge of wounding and causing grievous bodily harm and discharging firearms in the city. The young lad felt very badly over the accident and was quite ill in the cell during the night. This morning the magistrate released him on bail, Messrs. James McGillvary and Michael McWilliams becoming his sureties for $200 each.

ROBBED HIS BENEFACTOR.

A Young Englishman Arrested on a Charge of Theft.

George Stinson, of Pisarinco, was a satisfied man at 11 o'clock to-day, although the six hours previous were very anxious ones. When Mr. Stinson awoke this morning at his home in Pisarinco he discovered that $25 which was in a pocketbook in his vest pocket was missing. Sidney Shelly, a young Englishman who had been living with him for about two months, had also disappeared, and after due consideration Mr. Stinson came to the conclusion that where Sidney was there would he find the money also. A hue and cry was raised and men started in different directions after the young Englishman. Mr. Stinson drove to town and was successful in locating his man and he discovered him just in the nick of time, for the young man was boarding the American boat for a trip to the land of the free. Captain Hastings was near by and Mr. Stinson asked that Shelly be taken into custody. The captain obligingly complied with Mr. Stinson's request and Sidney was marched to the lock-up, sad and penitent. He had taken the money, he said, and indeed he couldn't deny it, for $21 60 of it was found on his person. He had purchased a watch, a vest and some refreshments with the balance.

Shelly came here in a schooner from New York and Mr. Stinson took him to live with him at his home at Pisarinco.

Shelly was arraigned before the magistrate this afternoon. Mr. Stinson did not wish to prosecute and he was allowed to go.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

ST. JOHN, N. B., July 9, 1896.

To R. Ward Thorne, General Agent for the Ontario Accident Insurance Company:

DEAR SIR,—Allow me to thank you for the prompt and liberal manner in which you paid my claim for my late accident, while insured in your company.

Trouble

Comes to everyone at some time in life.

Some trouble we can avoid, some we can't.

For instance, you notice a smell from a kitchen sink that is not pleasant, or it may be from your bathroom. You are away at business all day and don't worry about it Someone else does. Wife or child complains. Gets sick. Perhaps a fever or something as bad. Who's to blame? You noticed the smell.

Trouble like this can be avoided by calling here for a 25 cent package of

PHENYLE.

Used as directed it destroys bad smells makes the air sweet, kills germs, prevents disease. If you can't come telephone for it. Our number is 47.
