The Car and Carina land at Leth. en Route to Montreal.

The Russian Imperial yacht, the Car and Carina, which arrived this afternoon, the Car and Carina with their suites were transferred to a local steamer which conveyed them to the jetty, where they landed and took carriages to the railway station en route for Montreal. The route to the station was decorated to a moderate extent with bannisters, streamers, etc., with occasional scarlet bearing words of welcome to the Imperial visitors. Today was an ordinary autumn holiday in Edinburgh and Leth and great crowds of people were early on the ground to see the Russian Emperor. The gathering was very orderly and the town remarkably quiet.

The Prince of Wales, the Duke of Connaught and Lord Rosebery arrived from Dalmeny Park, Lord Rosebery's seat in Linlithgowshire, and took carriages to the jetty, where they embarked on board a steamer and went on to the Standard to meet the Car and Carina. The Prince of Wales boarded the Standard and greeted the Russian Emperor and Empress, remaining on board the yacht for some time. Before the Car and Carina landed rain began falling, spoiling the effect of the scene of the beflagged warships in the harbor and the gaily-uniformed regiments of troops which lined the route to the station.

LARGE LIFE INSURANCE.

Halifax Man Had $60,000—Fashionable (SPECIAL TO GLOBE).

HALIFAX, Sept. 22. James Fraser, a Halifax merchant, who died yesterday in the Belmont, Mass., insane asylum, had $60,000 life insurance. Miss F. Franklyn, daughter of George Franklyn, of S. Cunard & Co., and Lieut. Craven, R. A., were married to day at St. Luke's. The wedding was a fashionable one. There were three best men and three bridesmaids.

WAR WOULD FOLLOW.

Why Great Britain Does Not Interfere with Turkey. LONDON, Sept. 22. At a meeting Monday night in Shoreditch to protest against the massacre of Christians by the Turks, John Lewis, M. P., said he was authorized by the Foreign Office to say that Great Britain was confronted by an agreement between three powers that if she attacked Turkey on any excuse or pretext she would have to face that combination. If she did a single shot or took action alone it would mean at that moment there would be a European war.

THE KELVERDALE IN DISTRESS.

Obliged to Put Into New York in a Damaged Condition. NEW YORK, Sept. 22. The barque Kolverdale, of St. John, N. B., from Ship Island 32 days with lumber for Rio Janeiro, has put in here in distress. On Sept. 9, in lat. 38.30, lon. 68, after three days of thick, murky weather, she took a heavy sea-south-east gale, lasting twenty hours. She was holed by a huge sea, which broke her deck and drifted, stove the forward deckhouse and water tank, washed out the galley and fore-cabin, stove one lifeboat and washed three others overboard. She lost part of her deck overboard. The fore-topmast broke off at the cap, allowing the fore-mast and all attached to go by the board. During an attempt to get the vessel before the wind the rudder was carried away. When the storm abated a jury rudder was rigged and the vessel headed for this port.

THE WAR IN CUBA.

Dreadful Picture of Atrocities on Both Sides. VERA CRUZ, Mexico, Sept. 22. A correspondent in Pinar del Rio declares that Antonio Maceo's negro rebel bands are completely overrunning the western Cuban districts, burning the settlements, assassinating all peaceful and ill-treating helpless women. They blow up passenger trains and bridges with dynamite, destroying other foreign and native property, burn the tobacco fields, cut down the coffee plantations and thus decide the entire country. The coast towns are crowded with starving refugees. The sun is obscured by smoke by day and the heavens are lighted by the burning flames at night. General Weyler is hurrying reinforcements into the province to check the destruction. The letters received here from Santa Clara and other Cuban towns assert that Capt. Gen. Weyler's amnesty decree is a farce. R. B. is surrendering and expecting the amnesty therein assured, and received by the Spanish military outposts with open arms and temporarily liberated, are invariably re-arrested within a fortnight as spies or incendiaries, tried and convicted by a tribunal composed of marines and shot. It is also alleged that the majority of the prisoners of war taken on the field are being unconsciously despatched by the roadside, the Spanish commanders afterward reporting their fate as due to an attempted escape.

IRISH POLICE FIND DYNAMITE.

DUBLIN, Sept. 22. The Daily Express says that the police have discovered large quantities of dynamite and a pile of detonators at Marlin Park, near Galway. The explosives were found in a disused house, situated on the sea shore.
