A GOOD IDEA.

Our experience goes to show that merchants who continue to sell goods at 30 per cent. below cost cannot stay in business very long; therefore we have always made it a point to buy our furniture as low as possible and sell them at a small profit, always taking care that the customer gets good value for his money. We are satisfied and think our customers are, too, that this is a good, old-fashioned way to do business. There is no need of having to deprive yourself of new and up-to-date furniture, while it is so cheap. If you want any description of furniture call around and see us.

BURGLAR SHOT DEAD.

NEW YORK, July 30.

Frank Wallwebber, one of a gang of three burglars, was shot and killed at 4.30 this morning by Policeman Meyers while he and his companions were fleeing from a liquor store in Pearl street that they had broken into. Wallwebber lived twenty minutes after being shot, but refused to give the names of his pals, who escaped.

CONDENSED DESPATCHES.

A MOTIVE FOR THE CRIME.

POSSIBLE CLUE TO THE HERBERT FULLER TRAGEDIES.

Had the Question of Color any Connection with the Murders?

NEW YORK, July 30.

Jonathan Spencer, steward of the Herbert Fuller, was a sort of hero among the colored people in South Brooklyn yesterday. It was with these people that Bram used to associate before his marriage and many of them remembered him to-day as a very pious young man, who went around with a prayer book, but in whom his friends did not have a great deal of faith. Something was said yesterday by Spencer, which, in connection with what is already known, goes to show that the question of color may have had something to do with furnishing a motive for the crime. Bram is almost white, and during ten years he has been sensitive in regard to color. It was one of the first subjects he brought up when he first met Spencer. He did not tell Spencer that he had colored blood and Spencer did not say anything about it, but the latter told a reporter about Bram coming to him and saying: "You would not blame a man for passing off as a white man if he could do it?" "No," answered the steward. "You see," said Bram, "there is such a prejudice against a colored man that he cannot get a show, and if he can fool people I think he is perfectly justified in doing so." The steward agreed with him, and was surprised some days afterward to hear Capt. Nash bring up the same subject. "The captain told me he thought the mate was a colored man," said Spencer to-day, "and Mrs. Nash also spoke about it, although I do not believe they ever said anything to the mate about it. After this, when the mate talked about the captain, I would tell him not to say too much, but I never told him the reason until after he was in irons."

"Then I said to him one day: 'Mate,' I said, 'the captain knew you were a colored man, and that was the reason I did not want to have you talk about him.' The mate seemed surprised." Spencer was asked about the truth of the stories of brutality told about Capt. Nash, and he admitted there was some truth in them. Spencer was the only one on the vessel at the time of the murders who had sailed with Captain Nash before, and to-day he told some stories about him which he has kept very quiet. "I did not want to say anything about Capt. Nash," he said to a reporter, "because everybody said he was a good man and he treated me well, but he was very brusque in his manner, and I knew he had a number of differences with the mate on the last voyage. This mate's name was Anderson. There is no doubt about Nash having been a very gruff man and he was a man who would run for his revolver on the slightest provocation. I never knew of him having trouble with the men. It always seemed to be with the mates, although I am sure that there was no trouble between the captain and Bram. There was always somebody in the cabin who would have heard it if there was trouble and Mrs. Nash or the second mate heard it; perhaps that was the reason they were killed. When Bram was engaged, and before I had seen him, the captain told me that he was coming, and he said he was a young man. When I went out into the galley I repeated the captain's remark to myself, and added 'if he is young he will want to be a good fighter on this ship.' Mate Anderson was a young man, and the captain had told me 'young men who did not know their business were not worth having around.'"

Spencer had an interview with Bram's wife. During the day the young wife had learned what had been kept from her during ten long years, that the man whom she had married was a negro; that previous to his marriage his associations had all been with people of different color from her own; that besides having twice deserted her, leaving her alone in the world with three small children, he had deceived her in other ways. She expressed no sympathy for him.

SPAIN'S DIFFICULTIES.

More Trouble in Carrying on the Cuban War.

LONDON, July 30.

Private advices received from Madrid state that the existence of a secret Cuban committee has been discovered there and certain Cuban exiles who were in Madrid have vanished. It has also been discovered, the advices say, that separatist schemes relative to the Philippine Islands are on foot. As a result of certain acts of insubordination among the last six hundred men embarked for Cuba and the discovery that secret proclamations were being circulated among the soldiers and in view of the notorious reluctance of the troops to go to Cuba, the reinforcements, 40,000 strong, who will be embarked at the end of August will be shipped without arms through fear of a mutiny among them and their arms will be forwarded by other vessels. The advices also state that desertions from the army are numerous, especially in Aragon.

ITALY LOSES A WARSHIP.

ROME, July 30.

The warship Roma was struck by lightning and set on fire during a heavy thunder storm. The flames spread rapidly and were approaching the powder magazine, when the commander ordered that a torpedo be attached to the hull of the vessel. All hands abandoned the ship and the torpedo was discharged. A great hole was torn in the hull and the Roma quickly sank. Nobody was hurt.

LOSS $150,000.

DESTRUCTION OF MONTREAL EXHIBITION BUILDINGS.

Insurance only $90,000—Exhibition will be Held.

[SPECIAL TO GLOBE.]

MONTREAL, July 30.

Montreal's Exhibition buildings were destroyed by fire at an early hour this morning. The fire broke out about 1.45 a. m. in the power house of the Park and Island Railway, situated on the grounds. A stiff breeze was blowing at the time and carried the flames to the main building, which was of wood. By the time the firemen reached the grounds the big building, machinery hall and the carriage building were destroyed beyond aid. The firemen worked hard, however, and managed to prevent any further spread of the flames. The scene from the city was a brilliant one, the whole northern sky being illuminated. The loss will be over $150,000. The company carries about $90,000 insurance. The fire will not interfere with the holding of this year's exhibition.

LOCAL NEWS.

THE REPAIR SHOPS of the C. P. R. at McAdam have been closed down for a few days.

ALLAN A. DAVIDSON was elected by acclamation in Northumberland county to-day.

STEAMER HAMPSTEAD, which went on Hilyard's reefs Wednesday afternoon, and was afterwards floated, is said to be badly strained and otherwise injured.

A. O. H.—Messrs. D. Lenihan and H. C. Mackay, of Fredericton, are in town completing arrangements for an A. O. H. excursion from the capital to St. John on September 7.

LANDSLIDE.—While some workmen were digging at a mud bank in a corner lot off the corner of St. James and Canterbury streets this afternoon a landslide took place and John Donnolly, aged about 65 years, was struck with the earth and knocked to the ground. He was rendered unconscious, but was quickly brought to by restoratives. His ankles were sprained, but he was otherwise unhurt. He was carried to his home on Middle street in a stretcher.

ROBBED OF $100.—Mr. Charles Piers, traveller for the Massey-Harris Company, had his pocket picked of $100 at the depot at noon to-day. Mr. Piers was on his way to Halifax. When purchasing his ticket he displayed quite a roll of money. He went directly from the ticket window to the train and when there discovered that his money, something more than $100, was missing. He looked through all his pockets and made a hasty examination back to the ticket window, thinking perhaps he had lost the roll. He failed to find it and then remembered that on his way to the train three men had jostled him somewhat and concluded they had picked his pocket. Mr. Piers said his only thought at the time was that they were very rough, because there was plenty of room to pass. A postponement of his trip was necessary.

PRACTICALLY ABANDONED.

The Prince Rupert Disaster Spoiled the Fusilier Band Excursion.

Everything was to be in ship-shape on board the steamer Prince Rupert at 1.30 o'clock to-day for the 62nd Band excursion to proceed to Halifax via Digby. At least this was what was told the members of the band, hence they abandoned the idea of going by train. This forenoon the band turned out in uniform and gave a free concert on the Market square. At the appointed time the band, as well as a large number of excursionists, were ready to take a delightful sail across the bay, but alas! the boat was not ready. The bandsmen's feelings were not quite as angelic as the strains of the music they produced this morning when they found out it was impossible to go by the Rupert. They talked of actions at law for damages and everything else. The soldier, however, is expected to be a man of patience and iron will, so, no matter what happens, he has to bear the brunt of battle. Although they were defeated to-day in going to Halifax, it was not the fault of the band. The boat was not ready, and, moreover, it was found that she would have to make a trial trip before she could carry passengers. Engineer Munro was sent for to-day to take charge of the steamer for the present. The failure to have the boat ready at the time was a great disappointment not only to the Fusiliers, but to more than a hundred other people to whom they had sold tickets.

NO OPPOSITION TO THEM.

Six Members of the Government Chosen by Acclamation.

[SPECIAL TO GLOBE.]

KNOWLTON, Brome Co., Quebec, July 30.

In accordance with the expression of opinion of leading Conservatives at the convention last Saturday, Hon. Sydney Fisher, Minister of Agriculture, was returned by acclamation to-day.

Messrs. Tarte, Brodeur, Stenson, Parmelee, Meigs, Penny and other members of Parliament attended the nomination. There was a large crowd present.

QUEBEC, July 30.

Hon. W. Laurier, President of Council; Hon. Mr. Fitzpatrick, Solicitor General, and Hon. Mr. Joly, Minister of Interior, were elected by acclamation to-day in Quebec East, Quebec county and Portneuf respectively.

Mr. Laurier made a long and important speech. This morning he received a deputation asking for relief for the landslide sufferers and promised to consider their case.

TORONTO, July 30.

Hon. Mr. Mulock and Sir Richard Cartwright were returned unopposed.

REDUCING EXPENSES.

Unnecessary Employes Taken Off the Pay Roll at the Capital.

[SPECIAL TO GLOBE.]

OTTAWA, July 30.

Seven employes of the public works department have been notified that after to-morrow their services will be no longer required. Their chiefs reported to the minister that there was no work for them. Their names are Messrs. Smith, Roy, Chabot, Moffet, Friel and McMillan. In addition Charles Leduc, paymaster of the Ottawa river works, has been discharged, and his office, an unnecessary one, abolished. The accountant will, as formerly, carry on the work of paymaster. The position was created for Leduc.

It being reported to the Minister of Agriculture that there was no work for several extra employes in that department, they go to-morrow also.

Sir Oliver Mowat arrived last evening in a private car, with all his family, and took up house-keeping here.

There will be forty seats protested in Ontario alone. Monday is the last day for fyling protests.

AGAINST THE CHINESE.

VANCOUVER, B. C., July 30.

A monster petition to the federal government, praying for further restrictions on Chinese immigration to Canada, is being circulated. The petition recites that Chinese labor is driving out the white workingmen; that the United States, realizing this, has excluded the Mongolian coolies, and that Canada should adopt measures to keep them out. It urges that a tax of $500 be levied upon each Chinaman entering the Dominion as a means of lessening the number.

HOT WEATHER WEST AND SOUTH.

Many Deaths Reported.

CHICAGO, July 30.

There were seven prostrations from heat here yesterday. Reports from the principal cities and towns of the west and south bring tidings of unusually hot weather. St. Louis reports thirty-four persons prostrated, many of whom will probably die. Thirty-six horses fell dead on the streets and dogs were driven mad by the high temperature. The suffering was increased by the humidity in the atmosphere. Two deaths are reported. In Louisville the hot-weather record for fifteen years was broken.

STEAMER ASHORE.

NEW LONDON, Conn., July 30.

Propellor Tillie, under charter to the New York and Eastern Steamship Company, New York, went ashore on the south side of Fisher's Island during a dense fog last night and lies on a rocky bottom with a hole stove in her. It is doubtful if she comes off. She was chartered a week ago to run between Eastport, Me., and New York, and left here Sunday, so she was on her first trip, with herring for cargo. She is understood to be commanded by Capt. Brewster, who was in charge of the steamer Pentagoet when that vessel ran ashore a few weeks ago.

CHESS TOURNAMENT.

NUREMBERG, July 30.

The tenth round of the international chess tournament was begun at 9 o'clock this morning, the pairing being as follows: Maroczy vs. Winawer; Marco vs. Showalter; Schlechter vs. Teichmann; Lasker vs. Blackburne; Schiffers vs. Charousek; Pillsbury vs. Tschigorin; Albin vs. Steinitz; Porges vs. Tarrasch; Walbrodt v. Janowsky; Schallopp a bye.

At one o'clock this afternoon one game was finished, this being won by Schlechter from Teichmann. The other games were adjourned.
