ST. JOHN, N. B., JULY 22, 1896.

POLITICAL.

The Toronto Telegram urges that the Conservative party should appoint a new leader. It is by no means clear who should make the appointment. Sir Charles Tupper became leader by selection rather than by election, and the gentlemen who appointed him cannot be very well satisfied with their work. It is not likely, with the prospect of the Conservatives remaining on the left of the Speaker for many years, Sir Charles Tupper will care to lead now; and it is very improbable that he will do more than lead the House under any circumstances longer than the present session. It is a great question, indeed, if he will desire to leave his pleasant life in England for a permanent Canadian residence. Mr. Foster might naturally expect to succeed Sir Charles Tupper in the Conservative leadership, but this may not be agreeable to the new men who are coming to the front in the Conservative ranks; Mr. John Ross Robertson, proprietor of the Toronto Telegram, is one of these. Just now the Conservative party is without a policy. In several of the more active of the party journals there are demands for a party convention, presumably for the purpose of devising a policy of some kind, but this demand is being met by the statement that such a call is premature; and this would seem to be correct. Just now there is not much evidence of any need for very great Conservative activity; and if the large number of persons formerly Conservatives who have become Liberals since the election proves anything, it may be taken to prove that the country, outside of the Conservative newspaper offices, and beyond a few groups of politicians, has just now only one party. Of course this will not always be so, nor is it desirable. Indeed, it is hard to tell what may take place in the country. The happy conditions which are alleged to have prevailed so long in our local politics, and which the new local leader is to continue, may, perhaps, be very generally imitated, and might be successfully introduced into Dominion politics. In that case a postponement of the Conservative convention may be made indefinite. We observe, however, that the Liberal premier in Ontario has been succeeded by a Liberal; and that the Liberal premier in Nova Scotia has also been succeeded by a Liberal. And this has much to commend it.

In his interesting but too brief paper on Burns, in Donahoe's Magazine for July, Dr. O'Hagan sums up by declaring that Burns is the representative poet of Scotland, the representative poet of human brotherhood, the representative poet of much that is great and noblest in the human heart. The influence of his genius, the writer thinks, will be assuredly permanent, and will widen with the centuries. The permanency of the influence of Burns is, perhaps, due to the fact that just as new hopes for a broader life were budding in the hearts of ordinary men Burns gave expression to these hopes and aspirations in dignified and musical verse. He touched things in the heart of man which the intellect was making ready for use. Indeed, Dr. O'Hagan expresses the situation tersely when he says that "Burns was born when democracy was beginning to assert itself."

Conservative journals have been intimating that in Mr. Tarte's appointment to the department of Public Works there was something sinister. The Ottawa correspondent of the London Advertiser says that Mr. Tarte, so far as he had desires upon the subject, wanted to be Secretary of State, which is presumably an easy and comparatively unimportant position. But Mr. Laurier desired Mr. Tarte to take the Public Works department, because it involved hard work and because that department requires to be thoroughly reorganized, and Mr. Tarte is a famous organizer. It is impossible to understand the objects of the attacks which the Conservative papers are keeping up against this gentleman. They are without foundation and they seem to be almost wholly personal.

Our gracious Queen, it appears, not only directs the Indians in some parts of Canada to vote, but she kindly gives her personal attention to the creation of Queen's Counsel in Canada. At first it seemed very strange how some of the New Brunswick names on the last published list got there, but this paragraph from the London Advertiser is a sufficient explanation, and ought to satisfy everybody:

Stuart Livingston, a young Hamilton lawyer, who was made a Q. C. by the late government for political services, gives this explanation of how the extraordinary list of Queen's Counsel came to be formulated: "There has been much complaint for some time past about the large number of lawyers in Canada whose claims to the title of Q. C. were steadily ignored. It even reached the ears of the Queen herself, because she wrote to the government requesting that more Q. C.'s be appointed. In fact, I saw the letter myself, and it was signed 'Victoria Regina.'" Her Majesty is indeed a busy woman if this legal gentleman tells the truth.

Among political rumors is one to the effect that when the House of Commons meets the Conservatives will propose Mr. Bergeron for Speaker of that body. The Speaker of the last House was Mr. White, an English-speaking member. Under ordinary circumstances a French Canadian would be the Speaker of the new House, but Mr. Laurier proposes that Mr. Edgar, of Ontario, shall be Speaker, and a French Canadian Speaker of the Senate. Mr. Bergeron will have no chance of election, and in view of the large number of Quebec ministers in the Cabinet the French Conservatives might for this reason show a generous disposition.

Fully forty thousand persons viewed Governor Russell in his coffin on Monday, and the people showed in every way every possible respect to the deceased leader. Referring to the presence at the funeral of President Cleveland the Boston Advertiser says that was an "altogether fitting even, creditable and characteristic. The friendship between those two distinguished men had been very close for many years, much closer and more personal than any intimacy which results from mere political affiliation or ordinary social comradeship. It has been a friendship based on mutual esteem, ripened with acquaintance and rooted and grounded in similarities of taste and temperament, ideas and ideals."

The St. John correspondent of The Canadian Military Gazette thinks that with Col. Domville, of the Cavalry, and Col. Tucker, of the 62nd Fusiliers, in Parliament, and Surgeon Major Borden, of the 66th, in both Parliament and government, the military in the Maritime Provinces should be well looked after. No doubt they will be.

GENERAL NEWS

A candidate in Pottawatomie county, Kas., announces himself for office as follows: "I, of my own free will and accord and without the influence or over-persuasion of my friends, hereby announce myself for the office of register of deeds."

Saratoga, which was the rallying place for the gayety and fashion of the best old-time resort, is no longer an ultra fashionable resort. It attracts the bulk of its summer visitors now from among the class devoted to high thinking and plain dressing. Religious and philosophical, sociological and patriotic conventions assemble in Saratoga now, and claim it for their own.

There is a pungent freshness about the following: Mr. Harris, of Hammond, Ind., went on business to Delphi, in the same state, leaving his wife and child at Hammond. In Delphi he fell in love and went to live with a Miss West, who had just been bequeathed a fortune. Mrs. Harris then applied for a divorce and last week her lawyer, Mr. Knotts, of Hammond, informed Miss West that Mrs. Harris was willing to sell her husband for a specified sum in cash. Miss West made the purchase.

A custom which is growing among the poor people in large cities is the burial of their dead from the establishments of undertakers, many of whom have provided facilities for funeral services. It is cheaper and more convenient than going to churches, and is increasing in favor for that reason. The order for the ceremony now comes frequently with that for the burial paraphernalia, for in hundreds of cases the undertaker's place is much more commodious and presentable than the wretched homes which are entered by death.

A white man and a negro had a row in the yard of the former, over in Polk county, N. C., and the white man struck the negro twice on the head with a rock. The negro threatened to prosecute and the white man offered to pay him $5 to compromise, but the negro wanted $50, which was refused, and he swore out a warrant and hauled the white man up before a magistrate. After hearing the evidence the magistrate fined the negro $5 and costs, upon the ground that a man's house and yard were his castle. The white man then went the negro's security to keep him out of jail.

Chicago is to have the highest tower in the world. It will be 1,150 feet in height, and on the base 350 feet square. The Eiffel tower will be but a dwarf in comparison with it. The tower will be known as the City tower, and will be erected on the west side, on the old ball park. The property is owned by New York capitalists and negotiations were closed Thursday for a ten years' lease at $8,000 a year. It is said that the structure can be put up for a third less than the Eiffel tower, which cost $1,200,000. Thirty-five elevators will carry people to the different stages, where every sort of amusement will be provided.

A wise justice at Lyons, Wayne county, N. Y., has decided that a railway in that state is bound to carry fresh air free, as well as bicycles. A woman travelling on a train complained that the air in the car was bad. The conductor tried to open the window in the usual way, but was unable to do so and refused to get a crowbar to pry it open, whereupon the suffering woman smashed the glass with her parasol. The conductor then had her taken into custody on a charge of insanity. A doctor examined her and pronounced her rational. Her defence was that she had paid for her transportation and was entitled to fresh air with it. The justice thought so, too, and discharged her.

It looks as though X rays might be a portion of the dressmakers' tools in trade in the near future. The Queen of Portugal, having qualified as a doctor, has insisted upon radiographs being taken of some of the ladies of her court, when the painful truth was made manifest that they were all squeezing themselves to death. The panic that ensued when these tight laced women saw their skeletons has resulted in their commanding a 26-inch belt measure for all their gowns. That is the noble girth of the Duchess of York, who is said to have a beautifully proportioned figure, and the Queen of Portugal could not choose a better model for her wasp waisted ladies to follow. Viva la Venus de Milo!

Wheelmen in Paris are more dandified, not to say picturesque, than they are over here, where any old neglige shirt and tied round the ankle trousers are deemed a good enough bicycle costume. But the Parisians having, as small children, always gone bare-legged, take kindly now to the short socks and slippers of the up-to-date rig, which also includes very abbreviated knee breeches. No one, after living in Paris, minds seeing these bare calves. Not a French baby nor a French boy or girl under 13 years of age wears long stockings, unless the doctor so orders, consequently these bicycleurs in fancy striped silk shirts, all frills, and loudly colored socks, with yellow shoes, are not especially observed, save by Puritan tourists, who shudder as they feast their eyes.

SHOOTING AT BISLEY.

Neill, of Fredericton, Makes the Highest Possible Score.

LONDON, July 22.

The weather, which was clear and calm to-day, was much more favorable to shooting at Bisley than it was yesteaday and in the contest for the St. George's prize at 500 yards fourteen men scored 35 out of a possible 35. The Canadian marksmen did some excellent shooting. Weller and Neill each made 35, the highest possible score; Ogg, 33; Lieut. Mitchell and MacDonald each 32; Rose, Munro, Bent and Langstroth each 31; Huggins, Hayhurst and Harp each 30; King, Armstrong and Spearing each 29; Crowe and Campbell each 28; Lavers; 27; Mitchell, 23; Ruycons, 20.

FIGHTING IN RHODESIA.

The Matabeles Defeated Near Buluwayo.

LONDON, July 22.

General Sir Frederick Carrington, commander of the forces operating against the rebellious Matabeles in Rhodesia, telegraphs that he yesterday morning attacked the Matabeles' stronghold in the Metoppo Hill, south of Buluwayo. The fighting continued until two o'clock in the afternoon, when the position of the natives was carried and the kraals occupied by them were burned. Eighty of the Matabeles were killed. The British lost three killed and eleven wounded.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

NEW YORK, July 20.

Stocks were weak and at times demoralized to-day. New loan records were established for some of the leading railway and industrial issues and to the close of the London market.

The opening was weak owing to the receipt of lower cables from London, but later on foreign houses turned buyers to St. Paul, Louisville and Nashville and other international favorites. Their purchases, it may be added, had no influence and local traders supplied all foreign bids right up to the close of the London market.

Liquidations for home account were again heavy and the bears emboldened by the recent successes hammered away at the list with renewed vigor. Golden engagements to the extent of over $3,000,000 for export to Europe to-morrow proved disastrous to bull hopes right at the start and the engagements were accompanied by rumors of equally heavy shipments on Thursday.

Disease attacks the weak and debilitated. Keep yourself healthy and strong by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

LOCAL NEWS.

MASONIC ENGAGEMENTS.

July, 1896.

Meetings will be held at Freemasons' Hall, Germain street, during the month of July at 8 o'clock in the evening, as follows:

Thursday, 23rd—New Brunswick Lodge, No. 22—Emergency Meeting.

THE RACES at Moosepath this afternoon were fairly well attended.

STEAMER ST. CROIX, from Boston to-day, brought 145 passengers.

CHIFFONS.—From London to-day, full stock of black and colored chiffons.

STETSON, CUTLER & CO.'S MILL resumed sawing this morning. The mill was closed two days while the pond was being dredged.

STEAMER MAY QUEEN will begin the summer excursions on Friday, July 24, and continue each Tuesday and Friday, leaving Indiantown for Avondale (John O. Vanwart's) at 10 o'clock local time, returning about 6 30.

QUEENS COUNTY. — Messrs. Thomas Hetherington, ex-M. P. P., and A. W. Baird are spoken of as possible candidates for the vacant local seat for Queens county. It is to be hoped that the Liberals in that county will elect a staunch Liberal.

AT THE BAY SHORE.—Jewel Lodge, Daughters of Rebekah, of Carleton, are entertaining their friends at a reception on the Bay Shore this afternoon. Many Oddfellows are in attendance. The arrangements ensure a pleasant afternoon and evening.

MOLASSES.—The Yarmouth brgt. Ora arrived to-day from Fajardo, P. R., with molasses. She had a splendid run up to the Georges, which she reached in ten days, thence to port four days. She made the voyage from Barbados to Fajardo, loaded molasses, thence to St. John in four weeks.

BEARS.—Since the election bears have become very plentiful in Westmorland. William Polley, says the Transcript's Bayside despatch, recently met a bear and her cub in the highway, but they were peaceable and took to the woods. At Upper Dorchester two bears were seen a few days ago near Anderson's mill; both of them were captured in traps. One of them is very large.

MARRIED AT HAMILTON.—John M. Davidson, youngest son of the late Hon. A. A. Davidson, of Newcastle, and a brother of Mrs. McLearn, wife of Surgeon Lieut.-Col. McLearn, of the R. E. G. I., Fredericton, was married at Hamilton, Ont., on the 11th inst., to Augusta Carpenter, second daughter of the late Hugh McGinnis, of Toronto. The ceremony was performed at Christ Church Cathedral, by Rev. Thomas Geoghegan. Mr. Davidson is a clerk in the Bank of Montreal.

LITTLE LORD FAUNTLEROY was the attraction at the Opera House, Tuesday evening, and the performance delighted a good audience. All the parts were well taken and the members of the company received many warm tributes of praise. The specialties of Messrs. Brennan and Westcott were features of the entertainment. These artists compare favorably with any ever seen here. Little Lord Fauntleroy was repeated at the matinee this afternoon. To night there will be an entire change of programme.

QUICK RAILWAY RUNS.—The Moncton Transcript tells of a fast run that was made by a freight train from Chicago to Halifax. The run was made in a few hours under three days. An equally fast run was made from Chicago to this city last week. About five hundred barrels of pork from the Armour Company left Chicago Sunday evening and arrived here on Wednesday. The run was made over the Grand Trunk and I. C. Railways, and the pork arrived here some days before the bills of lading, and had to remain in the station until they arrived. The consignment of pork was to F. Tufts & Co.

NORTHUMBERLAND COUNTY. — The Newcastle Advocate states positively that Mr. John O'Brien, M. P. P., has been appointed recorder of wills and deeds, a position worth about $800 a year. The same paper says that the High Sheriff has received the writ calling for the election of a member in place of James S. Robinson, resigned: nomination on Thursday, July 30th; polling on Thursday, Aug. 6, and the declaration on Monday, Aug. 10th.

HON. L. J. TWEEDIE to day told the GLOBE that Mr. O'Brien had not been appointed registrar of deeds. Mr. O'Brien had declined to accept the position.

THE HORSE WAS UNHURT.—While the horse which hauls Jones's aerated water through the city was going down Princess street to-day aeration took place and the animal tumbled and partly upset the wagon. It happened just as the ferry steamer arrived and many willing workers were soon on the scene. The Post Office opened its doors and the clerks too came forth and assisted in lifting the fallen animal. While the burly form of an ex alderman held the horse's head down a well-intentioned man cut the nice pair of traces and soon the animal was free to rise with dirt in its eyes, but otherwise unhurt.

THE CHURCH CONCERT at Hampton, Tuesday evening, was a grand success. The concert was held in the Curling Rink, and was largely attended. Quite a number were present from the city and from Rothesay. All enjoyed the excellent musical and literary programme. Miss Manning, Rev. J. M. Davenport, Prof. Athoe, Messrs. Seeley, M. L. Harrison and T. Williamson, of this city, were among those who took part. A reading by Mrs. George M. Young was greatly appreciated. During the evening ice cream was served. The entertainment was a financial as well as a musical and literary success.

PICNICS.—The Fairville Orangemen picnicked to-day at Ludgate Lake on the Shore Line Railway. The attendance was good. Many of the fraternity from Pisarinco were present.

The congregation of Zion church picnicked at Westfield to-day. Two trains went to the grounds, each of which was well filled.

The Aberdeen this morning took a very large crowd of people to Waters's Landing, where the annual picnic of St. David's church was held. Another trip was made this afternoon and many went up river on it.

Hodgson's Grove was visited by the congregation of St. John's Presbyterian church. The tug Storm King made several trips and many availed themselves of the opportunity to visit this pleasant island on the Kennebeccasis.

The Carleton Methodist church Sunday school picnic will be held to-morrow at Ludgate's Lake. Trains leave at 8.30 a. m. and 1.30 p. m. Refreshments will be provided on the grounds.

ELECTRIC LIGHT SPORTS.—The electric light sports on the A. A. grounds on Thursday are creating great interest and excitement among athletes and bicyclists. The bicycle races especially should prove an attraction, for the track is in fine condition, and there is nothing more exciting than a number of wheelmen dashing around at lightning speed. Sancton, Salmon, Cornwall, Holman, Jones and Harris, of Moncton, will compete. In the sprint races, Glendenning and Humphrey, the fast Moncton sprinters, will compete in the 75 yard and 220 yard dashes, with several of our local fast men. All the events promise to be closely contested and spirited. The Artillery Band will furnish music. Excellent seating accommodation has been provided and nobody will be allowed inside the ropes, thus giving a grand view of the grounds.

ETHEL TUCKER NEXT WEEK.—The Ethel Tucker Dramatic Company will open a week's engagement in the Opera House on Monday next. This company is spoken highly of by the papers in the cities where it has appeared. The Rockland Star said of it: "The Ethel Tucker Company opened a week's engagement at the opera house last evening with 'La Belle Marie, a Woman's Vengeance,' and a better play could not have been selected and certainly not one in which Miss Tucker could have been more pleasing. In the piece Miss Tucker was given a chance to demonstrate her versatility, and to say that she did this in the best possible manner would be giving her very little of the credit she deserves. As Jean Carleton she was the innocent, trusting girl, lured on to disgrace by the promises of a villain, and as Marie Dubois she was the cool, designing woman of the world, intent upon revenging herself on the author of her disgrace. She was ably supported by H. P. Meldon, who is one of the cleverest actors ever seen here. The specialties were among the best ever presented in Rockland."

DAMAGES CLAIMED.

NOVA SCOTIANS HAVE A CASE AGAINST THE VENEZUELAN GOVERNMENT

For Arrest of Captain Baxter and Detention of Vessel.

Capt. Baxter, of the schooner New Day, of Parrsboro, N. S., arrrived in the city today in the brigt. Ora, from Fajardo, P. R. Capt. Baxter was in command of the schooner New Day when she was seized by the Venezuelans, and the case is now in the hands of the British government. The captain had quite an experience with the Venezuelans. His vessel was under charter to load mining machinery for Venezuela for a Mr. Turnbull, an American, who owned a mine there. The cargo was carried at per charter, and Capt. Baxter had all the necessary papers signed by the consul. Mr. Turnbull went to Bolivar to clear the vessel, and everything appeared to be all right. But before he could get away, the authorities for some reason refused the clearance, maintaining that there was an infringement of the law. In the meantime despatches were sent out to the port where the New Day was lying to detain her. Capt. Baxter got quite a surprise when the captain of the port with four armed men put in an appearance and arrested him, and also took charge of the schooner. For thirty days Capt. Baxter was kept a prisoner. The matter was referred to the British Consul, but no one seemed to know anything about the matter. The captain of the port told Capt. Baxter there was nothing wrong with his papers, but the Judge, who seemed to have all to do with the arrest, would not consent to Capt. Baxter's release, nor allow the vessel to depart. He wanted Captain Baxter to engage a lawyer and go into court with the case, but the captain could not see any use in doing that. Finally the Judge held a court and notice was received by Captain Baxter that his vessel had been seized. When the Venezuelan officers boarded the New Day Capt. Baxter hoisted the British flag and left her in charge of the Venezuelans with the flag flying. Capt. Baxter was eventually freed from surveillance. As far as could be learned, the reason assigned for the seizure of the vessel was that the privileges granted to the manager of the mines by the late President were exiinct and that they had not paid taxes to the new President nor received an extension of the privileges granted by his predecessor, hence materials brought into the country were liable to seizure. One other hand there was a story current that the affair was done through jealousy. It seems that the mines are owned by an American company, and that they sank a good deal of money in their operations. Now an English syndicate want to buy the mines, providing they were as represented, and Mr. Turnbull had the machinery taken there to develop them, but there is such a hatred against the English over the boundary dispute that somebody had written the President about the matter, and the cargo was seized to prevent the mines going into the hands of the English. Capt. Baxter placed his case in the hands of the Imperial government. He wants $20,000 for the owners of the vessel, and $15,000 damages for himself. He is now on his way to his home in Canning, N. S. The New Day was built at Parrsboro and belongs to DeLong & Leaman.

DENIES HIS GUILT.

THE HERBERT FULLER'S MATE SAYS HE IS INNOCENT.

And Claims Seaman Brown Committed the Murders.

[SPECIAL TO GLOBE.]

HALIFAX, July 22.

The crew of the barquantine Herbert Fuller were to have been arraigned this morning, but as Medical Examiner Finn has not yet filed his report the men will not be brought before the magistrate until to-morrow.

Very little new regarding the tragedy has come to light. In the opinion of the medical examiner the second mate was killed first, the captain second and the captain's wife last.

All the evidence so far gathered seems to point strongly to the first mate as the murderer. This morning he protested his innocence and says Seaman Brown, who was at the wheel, must have committed the crimes.

The accused man ate a hearty breakfast and does not appear to be at all worried.

The bodies of the captain and wife will be sent to Harrington, Me., for interment.

How to Organize a Church.

During the last twenty-five years we have organized most successfully over 200 churches, and we have yet to hear a note of discord is ever heard within their portals, where sweet harmony only prevails, to the delight of their congregations. The cause of our success is the simple fact that we have supplied them with suitable Organs. Our ESTEY CHAPEL ORGANS, costing from 100 to 200 dollars, never fail to give the best satisfaction in churches of moderate means, while our VOCALION ORGANS, for larger churches, are simply magnificent. They are a perfect imitation in tone and power of a large Pipe Organ, at less than one half the cost and space. With such material, and our long practical experience, we feel confident that we can, better than ever, organize, or re-organize, churches to the entire satisfaction of congregations.
