St. John Globe

ST. JOHN, N. B., JULY 16, 1896.

SIR RICHARD'S POSITION.

In some western papers there is complaint or, at least, comment upon the placing of Sir Richard Cartwright in a position in the cabinet inferior to that taken by Mr. Fielding. Mr. Fielding is to be Finance Minister and Sir Richard Minister of Trade and Commerce. There is probably method in the arrangement and that it suits Sir Richard exceedingly well, for it is known that he does not intend to remain in the cabinet. He is to be appointed to some other position of importance, probably that of High Commissioner in England. If not to that then to a Commissionership to be created at Washington. Mr. Laurier has intimated that he will restore the controllerships to the full rank of cabinet ministers, thus bringing in a Minister of Customs and a Minister of Inland Revenue, as was the case before the ministry of trade and commerce was created. The inference may be drawn that when the controllers are raised to their old status there will be no need for the continuance of the Minister of Trade and Commerce, and that the office will be abolished. If this be a correct speculation it is quite easy to see why Sir Richard Cartwright took it, and why it was much wiser that he should be given this position than that of Finance Minister, which he must soon give up. In some of the papers there is a rumor that Mr. Dobell, of Quebec, is to be High Commissioner, and that he is merely in the cabinet as serving a kind of apprenticeship, but it is quite likely that for this rumor there is little real justification.

THE WINTER PORT.

There is more than one port in Canada striving to be the winter port. The St. Andrews Beacon is constantly putting forward the claims of St. Andrews. In Halifax a short time ago the claim was set up that the government should give to the carrying trade protection similar to that which was given to other lines of business, and the practical meaning of this was that freight should be carried to Halifax at the same rate as to St. John. Some time ago the Common Council of this city launched out into very extravagant expenditure in order to make St. John the winter port. A certain amount of success was achieved, and this induced the idea that further speculative expenditure would be desirable. Now it is suggested that the government should father the financial burthen. Perhaps this would not be so difficult a task if it could be shown that the other contesting ports would be satisfied, but they might embarrass matters with their claims of course. St. John can point to the success achieved here last winter as strong evidence that its claims are of practical value to the whole country; but the answer to this might very readily be that what has been so wel begun might be very well continued by those who begun it. No doubt if everybody could be satisfied that this winter port business has passed the experimental stage all would be well.

HELP THEM.

The committee who are endeavoring to have the skill and courage and pluck and honor of St. John upheld in an aquatic contest at Halifax, at the coming carnival, want assistance in the shape of money. They do not want a great deal, but they have not sufficient to enable them to go through creditably with the burden which they took up. Let it be added that St. John could not very well afford to allow the Halifax carnival to go on without taking some part in it. To our sister city it was due that some courtesy should be shown. Those who took up the burden of having St. John represented wisely agreed that our share of the competition should be along lines in which in the past we had shown considerable prowess, and in which we might hope to achieve distinction again. Further, what they undertook to do did not involve very heavy expenditure. The simple statement that some funds are still necessary ought to have the effect of bringing in all that is required to enable St. John to do its duty on this occasion.

Mr. W. Harold Sewall, of Bath, Maine, son of the Democratic nominee for the Vice-Presidency of the United States, is a Republican. The New York Herald enquired of him concerning his position in the campaign. He appears to be of Spartan stuff, for he replied that the Maine Republicans never failed to carry their State for the Republican nominee and never will, and he added that his relationship to the Democratic nominee for Vice-President has not, nor will it, affect his political views. Probably it required some courage to make this avowal.

If the people of Saskatchewan will accept Mr. Paterson in place of Mr. Laurier, they will have as their representative a member of the cabinet, and this will be an advantage to them, while it will virtually give Ontario a minister without a seat having to be made vacant for the purpose.

Montreal Gazette: Rev. Robert Ker, of St. Catherines, has created something of a sensation in western church circles by an article in which he questions the usefulness of many of the young people's and other associations and societies that in late years have grown to be so prominent a feature in church activity, if not in church work. While in some respects Mr. Ker puts his case very strongly, perhaps too strongly, against the societies, there is in what he says food for thought on the part of ministers and church managers as to whether something is not being lost as well as gained by the encouragement of so many organizations within the church. It will be a wonder if more is not heard on the question.

It appears after careful inquiry that of the fifty establishments in the United States which had adopted the system of profit sharing only twelve continue it. Five have abandoned the system indefinitely and thirteen permanently.

GENERAL NEWS

Mr. Labouchere has taken to bicycling for recreation.

Lord Salisbury is 66 years of age. He spent fifteen years in the House of Commons, and has been twenty-four years in the House of Lords.

Parental authority is rapidly losing ground in European codes of law. In France the formalities for dispensing with parents' permission in marriage have been simplified and the age up to which it is required reduced, and now Germany has cut down the age up to which parental assent is needed to twenty-one.

The health board of New York is meeting with some difficulty in enforcing its rule against spitting in street cars, as it is not a matter for arrests. The conductors, however, do their best, and a warning is generally sufficient.

Dean Hole made a scene in Rochester cathedral recently. At a Sunday service the canon whose business it was to read the first lesson omitted certain passages which he thought improper. The dean was to read the second lesson, but before beginning he solemnly read the passages omitted in the first lesson.

At Ravenswood near Chicago there is an electrician who has very successfully applied his knowledge of the science to ridding his house of rats. When he took possession this spring the place was fairly overrun. He placed a number of live electric wires in different parts of the cellar and baited the ends with cheese. As soon as a rat took a nibble it turned over on its back without a sigh and the bodies being removed every day and fresh cheese applied the carnage went on until there is not a rat about the place.

HOT IN EUROPE.

Big Capitals Sweltering and Mercury Away Up.

London, July 14.

Intense heat prevails to-day throughout the southern portion of Great Britain and in France and Germany. In London there has not been a breath of air stirring and the mercury marked 80 degrees in the shade and 135 degrees in the sun. There were eleven hours of sunshine in London yesterday. In Paris the heat is so great that it has been found necessary to close many of the workshops.

BLEW OUT HIS BRAINS.

A Maine Farmer's Suicide—His Wife's Suspicious Death.

Presque Isle, Maine, July 16.

Frank Thomas, a farmer of this town, committed suicide this morning by blowing out his brains with a rifle. His wife died suddenly last Friday under circumstances indicating poisoning. On Tuesday the body was quietly exhumed and the contents of the stomach sent away for analysis. Thomas heard of this last night. The circumstances give rise to the suspicion that the woman was murdered.

ASHLAND'S GOLDEN AGE.

The Ashland (Maine) boom progresses steadily. Just below the Ashland town line, in the plantation of Sheridan, or No. 12, Range 5, large crews of men and teams are at work on the extension of the railroad to the location of the big mill. The basement of the boarding house, which will be 100 feet long by 33 feet wide with an addition of 25 feet by 25 feet, is about ready for the frame work. Work has begun on the dam and at present 75 men are engaged on the dam and boarding house. A large part of the hemlock for the dam is brought from Presque Isle on the cars to Ashland, where it is rolled off the cars into the river and floated down. This mill will furnish a train load of lumber daily during the sawing season. It is rumored that a pulp mill and a paper mill in connection with this lumber mill will be built before long.

MR. GLADSTONE CRITICIZED.

His Recent Letters Give Offence—Attacked by the "Daily News"—Suspected by the Nonconformists.

London, July 13.

It is an almost pathetic commentary upon the close of Mr. Gladstone's splendid career that every time he writes a letter nowadays it contains just enough to offend somebody who had hitherto made an idol of him. The press is giving him a good deal of attention, but almost invariably it is critically given. Even the Daily News, which never breathed a suspicion of his infallibility until recently, now attacks him sharply for his letter condemning the government's increase of armament, and bluntly tells him that his protest is made at an "inconvenient moment." The tories bitterly abuse him, turn upon him his own adjectives, "wild," and "wanton." The Nonconformists charge him with "pitiful evasion" in the matter of the appeal to the Pope to recognize the validity of the Anglican orders and point to Leo's encyclical, published in abstract by Cardinal Gibbons, as a proof that the Vatican has snubbed him.

QUEER SHIP IN PORT.

The Ancona is a Whaleback Sailing Vessel and a Source of Curiosity to Sailermen.

[New York Herald.]

A curious looking craft is the Ancona, a four-masted British ship, which made this port on Tuesday, fifty-two days out from Cape Town. She is of the whaleback type, and is the first of her kind to be seen in these waters. The hull, which is built entirely of steel, is of the "tumble home" type, broader at the water line than at any point above it. Her sides slope at such an angle that one can almost walk down them without the aid of a ladder. The steel sides curve over to meet a narrow deck, which runs flush from end to end. This is circled by an iron railing instead of bulwarks. She has the bow of a clipper and the elliptical stern of a racing yacht.

She was designed by Capt. R. W. Kelly, of Liverpool, a retired Nova Scotia skipper, after the models of the new whaleback steamers. Russell & Co., Liverpool, built the craft.

The Ancona comes here in ballast to load with case oil for Shanghai. She has a carrying capacity of 4,100 tons. Captain Lemuel E Robbins, of Yarmouth, N. S., commands the vessel. One of her seamen, James Burchall, fell into the hold during the voyage from Cape Town and died of his injuries.

KILLED WHILE THEY PLAYED.

Shocking Tragedy in Minnesota Caused by a Boy's Thoughtlessness.

St. Paul, Minn., July 15.

Through the carelessness of a young man named Beltart, near Marshall, yesterday, two girls were killed and a third was seriously injured. Beltart was herding cattle near his home and his two sisters and a niece named Dunholland went out where he was.

He suggested some sort of a game and tied the girls with a rope, one end of which was tied to the saddle on his pony.

A volley of laughter scared the pony, which ran away and strangled Miss Dunholland and one of the Beltart girls. The other may recover from the injuries inflicted.

A BIG ROBBERY.

Large Amount Stolen from Patients in a Hospital.

Philadelphia, July 14.

An extensive robbery was reported to the police late this afternoon. At St. Joseph's Hospital yesterday $30,000 in money and jewels was stolen from Mr. and Mrs. Moore, patients. The valuables were taken from a trunk. William H. Thompson, a professional nurse at the hospital, is suspected as the robber. He has disappeared and the police are looking for him.

POLICE COURT.

Andrew Davis, drunk on Union street, was fined $4.

Henry Wilson was arrested for drunkenness on Pond street. He had been arrested on Tuesday for drunkenness, but on account of his unfortunate condition — he being afflicted with paralysis—he was let go, as he promised to leave the city. He repaid this leniency by again getting drunk. He was fined $6 or one month in goal.

Distaff—Is Spiggot musically inclined?

Myers—To an extent. He's a weigher—runs the scale, you know, at the custom house.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

LOCAL NEWS.

MASONIC ENGAGEMENTS.

July, 1896.

Meetings will be held at Freemasons' Hall, Germain street, during the month of July at 8 o'clock in the evening, as follows:

Wednesday, 15th—Carleton Royal Arch Chapter.
Thursday, 16th—The Union Lodge of Portland, No. 10.
Tuesday, 21st—New Brunswick Lodge, No. 22—Emergency Communication.

The Knights of Pythias will observe Thursday, Aug. 6, as decoration day.

The State of Maine, from Boston today, brought 134 passengers.

This Evening.—Parlor concert of the Carleton W. C. T. U. at the residence of Mrs. Retallick.

To-morrow (Friday) is bargain day at S. C. Porter's. Read his advertisement in to-day's Globe.

The adjourned meeting of the Grand Temple will be held in Alexandra Temple hall on Friday, 17th inst., at 8.30 p. m.

An Outing.—The members of Jewel Lodge, Daughters of Rebekah, will have an outing at the Bay Shore on next Wednesday afternoon and evening.

Fine Millinery.—Attention is directed to the advertisement of Messrs. C. K. Cameron & Co. to-day. They are offering something special in hats, toques, bonnets, etc., at greatly reduced prices.

Bankers' Clearing House.—Total weekly clearings for week ending July 16, $615,228; total weekly balances for week ending July 16, $136,578. Alex. Buchan is the present manager.

The Monkeys are drawing immense crowds at the Opera House. They will remain only two days longer and all should see them. The entertainment is the best and most unique ever given in St. John.

The Pilot Boat Richard Simonds is offered for sale. She is 46 tons register, and is well fitted with sails, rigging and other material. She would make a splendid fishing, trading or pleasure craft, with very little outlay. See advertisement for particulars.

A Beautiful Picture of the steamer Belgravia as she lies on the rocks has been hung up in the Dufferin Hotel. It is an enlarged photograph, the work of Mr. Percy Olive, formerly of this city, but now of Boston. The picture is a splendid specimen of this clever artist's skill.

Saved by Geo. W. Jones.—The Quebec Chronicle says: A young American while bathing at Lake St. Joseph on Saturday last narrowly escaped drowning, but was saved by the presence of mind and active exertions of Mr. George W. Jones, of St. John, N. B, who swam to his rescue and succeeded in saving the drowning man as he sank for the third time.

Injured by Hail Stones.—A young son of Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, Gondola Point, was quite severely injured by the hail storm on Monday last. He was out driving cows when the hail came down and was exposed during the full force of the storm. He was badly bruised on the body by the large hailstones and has since found it difficult to articulate with freedom. He is improving now.

"The Delineator."—The August number of this excellent journal of fashion displays two very beautiful visiting toilettes on a colored plate, and another colored plate exhibiting six styles of hats. There are many other designs, and a large amount of useful household reading. Altogether it is a fine midsummer number. For sale at the agents', Messrs. Macaulay Bros. & Co., King street.

Ordinations.—At the seven o'clock Mass in the Cathedral this morning, the Rev. Michael J. Coughlan and Rev. Joseph McDermott were elevated to the priesthood by His Lordship Bishop Sweeny, assisted by the Rev. T. Casey and Rev. F. J. McMurray. There was present a large number of relatives and friends of the young clergymen to witness the ceremony. Father Coughlan has been appointed curate to the Rev. E. J. Doyle, Milltown, and Father McDermott will assist the Rev. P. Farrell, Petersville.

All the Best Athletes in the Maritime Provinces are expected to compete in the electric light sports on the Bicycle and Athletic Club grounds on Tuesday evening next. The bicycle races will be closely contested. The sports will be well worthy of patronage, and should draw out a bigger crowd than ever before witnessed sports in this city, for they will be the best sports ever held here. They will be run off promptly and without long waits. The grounds will be brilliantly illuminated.

At Taylor's Island.—Mr. George Williams, secretary of the Y. M. C. A., has returned from Taylor's Island, where he went with the boys who are camping there. The journey down was pleasant and the arrival made without any mishap. There are 110 boys in the party and they came from points all the way between Halifax and Boston. The camping grounds are very picturesque and the boys are delighted with the place. The party from St. John consists of twenty boys, and is the largest single party among the excursionists.

Port of St. John.—Three steamers, two barques and one brigantine arrived during the week. There is practically no change in Atlantic freights. Steamers continue to be fixed. Since our last report a barque was chartered to load for South America. This branch of trade has picked up considerably this season. Coastwise trade is reported quiet. Vessels in port to-day, uncleared, number three steamers, of 4,485 tons; four barques, of 3,205 tons; three barquantines, of 1,257 tons; two brigantines, of 617 tons, and 28 schooners.

It is Regrettable that the entertainments given the last two evenings at the Institute by the Grecian Art Tableaux Company were so poorly patronized. Rarely does such a fine company visit St. John. The tableaux, especially scenes from Biblical and classical history, were certainly ahead of anything ever shown here in that line. The limelight pictures were very fine too. Miss Elizabeth Flower Willis, in her readings, was very good and had to respond to frequent encores. Miss Lois Shepherd has a very pleasing voice, and her illustrated songs were features of the entertainment, and Miss Blanche B. Sears, the violinist, played exquisitely. Altogether the entertainment was much above the average, and the few who were fortunate enough to see it went away thoroughly satisfied.

The Sale and Tea in the school room of the Rothesay church on Wednesday evening was largely attended notwithstanding the rain which fell in copious showers and marred to a certain extent the enjoyment of those who went from the city. Tea on a most elaborate scale was furnished from six to eight o'clock and many sat down to the tables which were beautifully set. In the evening a large number of fancy articles, the product of the needlework society, were disposed of at good prices, and ice cream and cake met with a ready sale. During the evening vocal music was furnished by Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Fraser, Miss Gilbert, Mr. Williamson and Mr. Lindsay, and instrumental music by Miss Hall, who was the accompanist of the evening. The entertainment was most enjoyable.

The Picnic to-morrow of the Main street Baptist church, at Hodgson's Grove, promises to be one of the best of the season, and it should be liberally patronized. The usual games and amusements will be provided, and strangers will be made welcome and given a good time. The Clifton will go up at 8.30 and 10 a. m. and 1 30 p. m.

The Tabernacle Baptist church picnic will be held to-morrow at Long Point, Belleisle Bay. This is a new picnic spot, and a delightful one. It gives a beautiful sail up river, and the picnic promises to be a most enjoyable one. It should be well attended. The Aberdeen will leave Indiantown at 8 a. m. Many attractive features have been arranged.

Runaway Accident.—Mr. William Barnhill, of Fairville, was very seriously injured by a runaway accident on Wednesday, and Mrs. Barnhill, who was with him, was also hurt, though not as painfully as her husband. They were driving on the Crouchville road when their horse became frightened and ran away. The occupants were thrown out and Mr. Barnhill's collar bone and several ribs were broken. Mrs. Barnhill received a very severe shock and her wrists were sprained quite badly. They were quickly picked up and made as easy as possible. Mr. Barnhill's injuries, while painful in the extreme, are not as serious as first reported. He spent an uncomfortable night, but was resting easier today.

Birthday Picnic.—A large number of young people went out to Rothesay this afternoon to attend a picnic given by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Allison in honor of their daughter, Miss H. Gertrude Allison, who on Wednesday reached her majority.

Work Was Satisfactory.—One of the canvasses made against Mr. Gershon S. Mayes in reference to the projected West side improvements was that other work done by him was not satisfactory. Bearing on this point the following letter is of some value:

> St. John, N. B., July 8, 1896.
>
> G S Mayes, Esq., City:
>
> Dear Sir.—I am pleased to state, if it will be of any benefit to you in the present tender for work to be done by the city at Carleton, that the contract for the construction of this company's wharf at Sand Point made by you in the year 1891 was carried out promptly and to our satisfaction, and the fact of a supervisor being placed upon the work by the company during its progress was in accordance with the general practice wherever large expenditures are being made.
>
> Yours truly,
> H. P. Timmerman,
> General Superintendent C. P. R.

Recent Deaths.—The death is announced elsewhere of John William Hay, which took place at San Francisco on June 14. Mr. Hay was the eldest son of Edward B. Hay, a brother of Messrs. George U. and T. L. Hay, of this city, who left this city just before the breaking out of the American war to join his brother Robert, who was doing a fine business at the time at his trade as carpenter at Natches, on the Mississippi River. They both took up arms in favor of the South and were attached to a cavalry regiment and saw considerable service for a time, but were finally taken prisoners and remained so till after the war. Robert returned to his former place, Natches, and during the summer died very suddenly of pneumonia, his health being much broken down during his long confinement as a prisoner. Edward found his way to New Orleans, where he resided for some years and married there, but finally moved to California, where he has since resided. He has a charming family of six. This young man is the first death in the family circle, and he was the idol of them all. Mr. Hay was in the newspaper business and bade fair to have a very useful life.

The Ambulances purchased by the Local Council of Women will be presented to the Mayor and Common Council at St. Andrew's rink on to-morrow (Friday) evening at 9 o'clock. They will be on exhibition at the rink from 3 to 5 30 in the afternoon and from 8 to 10 o'clock in the evening. A band will be in attendance and ices will be served. Members of the hospital staff and trained nurses will exhibit the working of the ambulances. The entertainment promises to be an enjoyable one and should draw large crowds. The ladies are particularly anxious to have the presence on this occasion of all the medical men in the city and vicinity, and they asked the Globe to emphasize their desire in this respect. They are very much gratified with the success which has attended their efforts to introduce an ambulance service into St. John; and they hope that the small admission fee of to-morrow evening, which is to be devoted to the ambulance fund, will induce the people to attend in large numbers.

North Shore Postmasterships.—The Conservative papers on the Miramichi are full of the troubles regarding the Newcastle and Chatham post offices. The Newcastle Advocate says:

J. R Lawlor is now acting as postmaster, having been among those appointed by the government at its last meetings. Mr. John Fish, not having received his discharge, claims that his salary is still running on and will demand it. The appointment is not a popular one for reasons which we may discuss at some future time. The responsibility for the appointment rests with Mr. Adams, who has had himself placed where the people's votes cannot affect him and cares nothing for their opinion. He is, no doubt, chuckling at the way he has overreached the member for the county in the dispensing of patronage by appointing another member of a favored family to an office under the government. Mr. Robinson emphatically declares the recommendation of Mr. J. R. Lawlor to be postmaster was not made by him or with his sanction. The hope is expressed by many Conservatives that the Liberals will upset the little game played by Mr. Adams, dismiss his nominee and appoint another in his place.

The Advance, one of the Conservative organs at Chatham, says there was "treachery in the camp" in the appointment of Mr. Lawlor. It was expected that Mr. R B Adams, who now has employment in New York, would resign the postmastership of Chatham, for which position Mr. J. L Stewart was said to be an applicant. Mr. Adams did not resign, however, and the new government will have the matter to deal with.

Mean Attempt at Sneakthieving.—Clergymen living in the country would do well to be on the lookout for an impostor who visited Westfield recently, but who, as far as known, failed to secure anything more valuable than a day's free board from the rector of the Westfield Parish. On Saturday evening last there arrived at the residence of Rev. Henry T. Parlee, at Woodman's Point, a young man about twenty-one years of age, bearing a letter purporting to be from the Rev. Mr. Hooper of the Episcopal church at Moncton to Mr. Parlee, introducing the bearer as a young college student from England who had been in Moncton for the last ten months. The letter also stated that the bearer had proved to be a valuable acquisition to the choir of the Moncton church, and hoped that he would be kindly treated by the Westfield churchmen during the day or two that he would be in the vicinity. He was at once invited into the rectory and made to feel at home. Later on the parson was not a little surprised to find that the stranger exhibited a woeful lack of knowledge of church matters in the railway city for one who had been a member of the choir there for nearly a year. This aroused his suspicions, and when later on the visitor was discovered in one part of the house when he was supposed to be in another part, the preacher decided to keep his weather eye open. During his stay at the parsonage the man exhibited a compass, which appeared to be a gold one, remarking that he had won it in a drawing. Sunday evening Mr. Parlee held service in Trinity church at Westfield station, and, of course, the young stranger was invited to accompany him. It was noticed that the singing did not appear to be any different from that of previous Sundays; in fact, the stranger's voice could not be heard at all. But it was at the conclusion of the service that he attempted to distinguish himself. When the rector retired to the vestry he was followed by the gentleman from Moncton and the vestry clerk, the latter bearing the collection, which he placed on a table and then retired to the church. The stranger picked up an envelope from the plate remarking, "I see you have the envelope system here," and then laid it down again, at the same time removing a dollar bill which had been placed on the plate by a city gentleman residing at Westfield for the summer. But the parson was on his guard and at once accused the other of stealing the money, whereupon he returned it to the plate, saying, "Oh, I was only fooling." Shortly after the visitor took his departure without even thanking the rector for his hospitality.

DRESS SERGES

That will Stand Everything but FIRE.

They are often called Storm Serges, but it's not necessary, as they are fine and beautiful in finish, and alike suitable for STREET, TRAVELLING or SEASIDE WEAR. No spotting, no changing of color by sea-water, sun or rain.

We claim them to be the best and cheapest Dress Serges ever placed on sale in Canada. Only one manufacturer in the world of the make of serges we are showing, and we hold the agency for this city.

How to Organize a Church.

During the last twenty-five years we have organized most successfully over 200 churches, and we are happy to say that no note of discord is ever heard within their portals, where sweet harmony only prevails, to the delight of their congregations. The cause of our success is the simple fact that we have supplied them with suitable Organs. Our ESTEY CHAPEL ORGANS, costing from 100 to 200 dollars, never fail to give the best satisfaction in churches of moderate means, while our VOCALION ORGANS, for larger churches, are simply magnificent. They are a perfect imitation in tone and power of a large Pipe Organ, at less than one half the cost and space. With such material, and our long practical experience, we feel confident that we can, better than ever, organize, or re-organize, churches to the entire satisfaction of congregations.
