GREAT BRITAIN.

Captain the Hon. Charles John Coventry, second son of Earl Coventry, who on July 28 was sentenced to three months' imprisonment for connection with Jameson's raid into the Transvaal, has been released from Holloway jail, the prison physicians certifying that further confinement might be dangerous to his life. I was robbed and swindled by the quacks until I nearly lost faith in mankind, but thank heaven, I am now well, vigorous and strong, and wish to make this certain means of cure known to all sufferers. I have nothing to sell, and want no money, but being a firm believer in the univeral brotherhood of man, I am desirous of helping the unfortunate to regain their health and happiness. ABSOLUTELY PURE

IN THE MATTER OF THE FERRIE TRUST.

Mr. D. J. McIntyre, One of the Officials of St. Philip's Church, Speaks.

To the Editor of the Globe:

SIR,—I see by last Friday's GLOBE that A. B. Walker, barrister, suggests that this matter be left to the Nova Scotia A. M. E. church conference, which meets in this city this week under the auspices of the Rt. Rev. Bishop Grant, for settlement. I think this is a very wise and timely suggestion, and for my part, as one of the official board of St. Philip's church I heartily and cheerfully agree that it shall be so dealt with. I have not the slightest disposition whatever that it shall go into the courts of law for settlement if it can be rightly and justly settled in any other way. I may say that I feel perfectly sure that the conference with His Lordship's guidance will be fully able to settle it satisfactorily to all parties concerned or interested.

Let me further say that I also noticed the local paragraph in the GLOBE of the same date referring to the condition of affairs in St. Philip's church. I well know the origin and source of your reporter's information. Your reporter has been misinformed.

It strikes me that Messrs. T. C. Washington, C. E. Brackett and I. T. Richardson are carrying their personal hatred and ill-feeling towards Rev. Mr. Henderson too far altogether when they bluntly and unblushingly state and circulate unqualified untruths. The congregation of St. Philip's church is not as they have represented it, but, on the contrary, it is in perfect harmony and in perfect accord with Rev. Mr. Henderson.

I cannot for my life see what object these gentlemen have to gain by attacking the Bishop. Surely that gentleman has done nothing to offend them.

We simply requested His Worship Mayor Robertson to attend the opening of the conference and welcome the Bishop to our city. Now, if these gentlemen had been manly in their scheming and not gone to His Worship in a sly and underhand way in order to prejudice him against our arrangement to honor a distinguished member of our race, it would not perhaps appear so contemptible as it does. It is hard to fancy how it is possible for any set of men with a spark of soul in them to be guilty of such a cowardly plot.

Now as to the petition of these gentlemen and the petition of the Rev. Mr. Henderson, let me say that the former is not from the members of the church, while the latter is.

It is to be regretted that these gentlemen are trying all their powers to wreck and destroy our little church.

Yours very truly,
D. J. McINTYRE.

WOODSTOCK NEWS.

WOODSTOCK, Aug. 22.

The Wrapper Factory Company have now got into their new quarters, which is a large and presentable new building erected at the foot of Carleton street just as one approaches the river bridge. There are about thirty girls now at work and some twenty more will be engaged at once. There is room enough in the building for between 200 and 300 girls to work. Next to the Wrapper factory John Graham is building a very large warehouse, about as large as the factory building. Among the new dwellings in course of construction is a house for Mr. Fred Moore. The cellar is now being dug. It is on the corner of Broadway and St. Gertrude street.

The following compose the base ball team that will represent Woodstock in the match with the St. John Roses, which takes place in the Park on Monday afternoon: Smith, catcher; Fair, pitcher; Fripp, 1st base; Baker, 2nd base; G. McKinley, 3rd base; H. McKinley, short stop; F. Hayden, left field; J. Montgomery, centre field; Aubrey Connell, right field.

The Canadian Bridge and Iron Co. have the contract for the erection of the new bridge across the Meduxnakik to carry over the water pipe. It will be a structure in three spans, about 150 feet in all, five feet high and five wide, and made of steel. Michael Kelly is doing the masonry work. The total cost of the structure when completed will probably be upwards of $2,000.

Cold storage is still warmly discussed, and a good many people think the town has been too liberal in its offers to the company. There is now talk of the question being reconsidered.

A number of Centreville railway magnates are in town and the word now is that the road is a sure go. Sub contractors are around and work is being prosecuted on the northern end of the route. Mr. McIntyre, of New York, who is here, states positively that the road will be pushed to completion.

Archdeacon Neales leaves on Tuesday for Winnipeg to attend the general synod to be held in that city.

PEOPLE'S PASTIMES

Base Ball.

The St. Johns have been playing poor ball lately, but they rallied enough on Saturday to give the Tartars a licking, and to render the contingent of Fredericton sports very sad. While not exactly the best of ball playing all through, the game could not have been arranged better for the grand stand. That structure was full of rooters, and the exciting finish set them clean crazy.

When the game opened it was seen that the St. Johns were without Mills and White, and Murphy, who was to be in readiness as a spare pitcher, failed to grace the players' bence with his stalwart form. Driscoll, of the Mutuals, played, and he was faultless in batting and fielding. Stone pitched for the home team and Mitchell held him. He was not in his usual form and they hit him heavily and he gave place to McGuiggan. On the other hand Tibbitts, the Celestial twirler, was hit out of the box in the first inning and he retired in favor of Grace.

In the second inning the Celestials got four runs and the home team five. For the three next innings the home team was blanked, while the Tartars added five runs to their score. The St. Johns got one in the sixth, but in the seventh the Tartars got two more and blanked their opponents. The eighth was the St. Johns inning. With the score 11 to 6 against them, they went in to bat and succeeded in knocking in eight runs by heavy batting and daring base running. The Tartars got four runs in the ninth, which again gave them a lead of one. There was tremendous excitement when the home team went in for the last time. They got two runs in with two men out and won the game.

The Tartars protested the game on account of Driscoll not being one of the St. Johns' players. The protest is not well founded, for when the St. Johns retired from the league on account of being unable to name their players the Tartars waived the objection. Driscoll belongs to the city and is not a member of any other team in the league.

Hip! Hip!

How glad the Starlights were.

How much more people in the grand stand know than the umpire.

How well Driscoll, the colt of the Mutuals, played. He is a fast one, sure.

How childish Captain Tibbitts is. Refused a runner for a man who was able to run he got mad and wouldn't lend any gloves. His catcher, however, was using the St. John catcher's protector, and though the St. Johns asked him to keep it on, Tibbitts ordered him to take it off and play without any. He exposed his catcher to a danger he wouldn't dare run himself.

How exciting the next League game should be. The Starlights will meet the Tartars in Fredericton on even terms, and the game will probably decide the championship. The Starlights recognize this and are practising hard. They play the Alerts on Tuesday. An effort should be made to get a large contingent to accompany the team to Fredericton.

A Princely Stake.

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.

The Brighton Beach Racing Association is contemplating a long distance event that cannot fail to make the little track by the sea famous. The race is to be a four-mile. Entries to be made as yearlings, the conditions being for four-year-olds and upward, open to the world, and the association to add a sum sufficient to make the stake worth from $100,000 to $150,000.

With the object of directing the attention of old world breeders to the importance of the projected race, Mr. William Engeman, president of the Brighton Association, will send to Europe the coming fall agents, who will make a personal canvass of the breeding establishments in England and France. It is said that the inaugural running of this stake can be had in 1900.

BATHURST NEWS.

BATHURST, Aug. 22.

The funeral of the late Miss Duncan took place on Saturday afternoon from "Ellerslie," the residence of her father, Dr. Duncan, and was one of the largest ever seen in Bathurst. People of all creeds and classes were there to show their esteem for the deceased and their sympathy for the afflicted family. The religious services were conducted by the pastor of St. Luke's Presbyterian church, the Rev. A. F. Thomson, with whom were associated in the funeral procession the Rev. W. H. Street, of the English church, and the Rev. Wm. Harrison, of the Methodist church. Two hymns, which were favorites of the deceased during her illness, "Thy will be done" and "There is an hour of peaceful rest," were effectively sung by the choir. The pall-bearers were Messrs. J. A. Hendry, T. H. Baldwin, J. H. Dunn, C. S. Melanson, W. F. Napier and G. W. Grant. The floral offerings were numerous and costly, and were exceedingly beautiful. The grave was tastefully lined with moss and decked with daisies and other flowers. The interment took place in the new Presbyterian cemetery.

At the Driving Park to-day a game of base ball was played between the Campbellton and Bathurst teams, and resulted in a victory for the home team. Score, 16 to 11.

The bicycle race for the championship of the North Shore was won by Mr. Herbert Adams, of New York.

The Bathurst village band was in attendance and played a number of selections which were enjoyed by the large crowd present.

BAPTIST MISSION WORK.

WHAT IS BEING DONE IN THE FOREIGN AND HOME FIELDS.

Meeting of the Women's Baptist Missionary Union.

BERWICK, N. S., Aug. 24.

At Saturday afternoon's session of the Baptist Convention the Foreign Mission Board report was presented by Rev. J. W. Manning. The report spoke of the success of Foreign Mission Day last year and recommended that the last Sunday in March be observed as Foreign Mission Day; that missionary sermons be preached, and that mission bands, Sunday schools and B. Y. P. U.'s observe the day with appropriate exercises bearing on worldwide missions, and that special offerings be taken for the work. The report announced that Rev. R. Sanford had returned to India and was in good health at Vizianagram; that Mr. and Mrs. Higgins had been compelled to give up work at Parla Kimedy because of Mrs. Higgins's health, and Miss A. C. Gray was home on furlough. Reinforcements were sent to the front in the persons of Miss Maud Harrison and Miss Ida M. Newcomb. Rev. R. E. Gullison, lately of Lower Aylesford, and Mrs. Gullison are now available for service in India.

The report speaks very hopefully of the work at all the stations, and in all of them there is evidence of growth and progress. "A review of the whole field shows that during the year there have been 17 baptisms, 16 added by letter and experience; that there are 17 native preachers, 3 teachers, 11 Bible women and 5 colporteurs. It also gives an idea, though a very imperfect one, of the work done on the field. But it also shows with what fidelity and zeal the missionaries are prosecuting the work entrusted to them. One lesson of deep significance which we all ought to learn is that this work is not the missionaries', but ours. We are working in India for Jesus Christ. The missionaries are our agents. They represent us."

The report says how to increase the finances and make the income equal the outgo is a serious business. It is some satisfaction that, though 'times are hard,' the deficit of last year has been materially reduced. The total receipts for the year were $16,465 88, and the total expenditures, including the deficit of last year of $2,933.23, were $18,200.30. This leaves a balance against the treasury of $1,734 42. The salaries of the missionaries are now due and the outfit and travelling expenses of the new missionaries must be provided for. The churches in New Brunswick and P. E. Island have not done as well this year as last, while the churches in Nova Scotia have shown a gain over last year. Of interest accruing from the Bradshaw trusts (1 and 2) there have been received from the first trust $476.25, of which $221.65, less expenses incurred, have been paid over to the joint committee to be expended for home mission work in New Brunswick. There have also been received from the 2nd trust $706 92, of which $139.09, less the expenses incurred, has been paid over to the treasurer of the Home Mission Board to be expended for home mission work in New Brunswick.

The following bequests have been received, viz.: $200 bequeathed by the late Jesse Oakes, of Albany, N. S.; $1,029.79 by the late Mrs. Mary Smith, of Fredericton, N.B., and $100 by the late Mrs. Deborah S. Rogers, of Hopewell, N. B.

It has also come to the knowledge of your Board that the late G. P. Payzant, of Windsor, left to the Foreign Mission work of Nova Scotia the sum of $1,000.

The total amount received from bequests has been $1 429 79.

The estimated expenditures for the year are:

At the meeting of the W. B. M. U. on Friday the report of the corresponding secretary was read. Nova Scotia reports 144 societies, with a membership of 3,094; New Brunswick, 80 societies, membership 1,500. The treasurer's report was very encouraging. Nova Scotia aid societies collected during the year $4,901; New Brunswick, $2,058; Prince Edward Island, $556. A special donation was acknowledged from the late Mrs. T. A. Higgins (nee Miss Cramp), the daughter of the lamented Dr. Cramp, late president of Acadia College. The officers for the ensuing year were elected: Mrs. J. W. Manning, of St. John, president; vice-presidents, Mrs. Curry, of Wolfville, for Nova Scotia; Mrs. Alward for New Brunswick; Mrs. Mocket Higgins for P. E. Island; secretary, Mrs. Everett, of St. John; treasurer, Mrs. Smith, Amherst.

After the report on home missions, Mrs. Simpson, of Berwick, welcomed the visitors in behalf of the Aid Society. This address was replied to by Mrs. Crandall in a few well chosen and appropriate words. The president's annual address was then listened to with wrapt attention. Mr. Parsons, president of the convention, conveyed the greetings of the convention to the Women's Union. Mrs. P. O. Foster read a very instructive paper on Mission Bands. Rev. W. V. Higgins, returned missionary from India, gave a map exercise to show that education through the eye was more easily grasped than through any other of the senses.

Bank

President Isaac Lewis of Sabina, Ohio, is highly respected all through that section. He has lived in Clinton Co. 75 years, and has been president of the Sabina Bank 20 years. He gladly testifies to the merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and what he says is worthy attention. All brain workers find Hood's Sarsaparilla peculiarly adapted to their needs. It makes pure, rich, red blood, and from this comes nerve, mental, bodily and digestive strength.

"I am glad to say that Hood's Sarsaparilla is a very good medicine, especially as a blood purifier. It has done me good many times. For several years I suffered greatly with pains of in one eye and about my temples, especially at night when I had been having a hard day of physical and mental labor. I took many remedies, but found help only in Hood's Sarsaparilla which cured me of rheumatism, neuralgia and headache. Hood's Sarsaparilla has proved itself a true friend. I also take Hood's Pills to keep my bowels regular, and like the pills very much." ISAAC LEWIS, Sabina, Ohio.

McAULIFFE AND GREENE COMPANY'S RETURN.

The popular singing comedians, Jere McAuliffe and Jos. Greene, supported by their excellent company, will return to the Opera House on Wednesday evening for a four nights' engagement with Thursday and Saturday matinees, opening with the very exciting English melo-drama, "The Black Flag." The plays to be produced are uniformly of a high order, dramatically and scenicly. McAuliffe and Greene believe in putting on their plays well and therefore carry special scenery for all the plays to be given by them.

Ladies' tickets for the first night's performance Wednesday evening can be had at the Opera House box office. Popular prices as usual for their engagement.

GENERAL USE OF MILITIA TITLES.

An Enquiry of the General Commanding the Forces and What it Brought Forth.

[Canadian Military Gazette.]

The following correspondence speaks for itself. A well-known commanding officer, writing General Gascoigne on the above subject, says: "I would like to have your opinion about a matter that is of some importance to the officers of the militia. It is as to whether we, militia officers, should be at all times known by our militia rank or only on some occasions. The position is this: Our commission from the Queen or her representative is practically the same as those of the permanent force or the regular army. We are liable at all times to be called out for service, and at all times the responsibility for thousands of dollars worth of stores rests upon us. Also, if we are called out, no business of any sort can relieve us of being obliged to go, and we are liable for service if attacked either in or out of our country. On the other hand we are, when not on military duty, engaged in our professions or business, and in consequence of this we bear a dual cognomen; at least this is the practice which prevails, and on reflection it seems to me to be absurd. For instance, this is the predicament: Most of us only call ourselves by our rank when on duty or at some military function, and with the same idea use two sets of visiting cards, one with plain Mr. So and So, for private and social use, and another with Captain or Major So and So, for calling on military personages or on superior officers, and to have to discriminate continually for fear of appearing presumptuous or appearing to force our rank on civilian society is neither a proper or pleasant position. Personally I am indifferent as to whether or not I am called by my rank on civilian occasions, as it would neither add to or diminish my position or amusements, but the dual individuality seems a weak and undignified position. I am not aware that any intimation or order has ever been received issued by authority as to which practice should prevail. It would be pleasanter if all the militia officers in Canada stood in an assured position, one way or the other, so that we might all understand our position definitely. We ourselves are the only soldiers Canada has; but I don't think that the trouble and responsibility we bear is understood by the civilian portion of the population."

General Gascoigne, in reply, says:

"I have no hesitation in replying to your letter. I consider that not only are militia officers justified in using their rank on all occasions, but I go further and hold that not to do so would be to imply that the value of the distinction was not held by them in great esteem. In Canada there is but one military body to-day—the militia—and I hold, therefore, that in every way officers are bound to be designated by their military rank."

GOOD NEWS FOR MR. STEVENS.

Wm. H. FLORAL NOTES.

BY H. E. GOOLD.

In answer to questions: Leave your Lily of the Valley plants in the ground; they are a hardy perennial, but matured pips or crowns can be forced at any time of the year provided they have had a dormant period (or rest). In regard to rose crimson Rambler, you can leave it in the ground, but in late November, after first heavy frosts, lay it down on the soil, cover it with a few inches of soil and over that place six inches of straw manure, dead leaves or similar material. Do not think it will stand the winter here in open ground without being protected. Do not uncover until first of May. Cuttings taken from roses growing in open ground will seldom root in summer months, or in any high temperature; cuttings from open ground plants, made from ripened wood after growth ceases in autumn, can be rooted if placed in sand or soil kept moist and not allowed a temperature of over 40° or less than 30°. Under these conditions the cuttings will root in from three to four months. Propagation of rose cuttings in high temperature have to be cuttings taken from roses growing under glass.

If you wish to increase roses in the open ground the safest way is to layer them, which may be done from spring to September by bending down a shoot, the wood of which should be well matured at the portion to be worked. Cut a slit in the stem half-way throughout, and split the shoot for about an inch; scoop out a shallow trench in the soil, lay a few inches of the cut portion in the trench, letting the end of the shoot remain in the air; cover the cut portion firmly with soil, and lay a turf or sod over it and keep moist, and in six weeks roots will be emitted from the cut portion. The rooted layer can then be cut from the parent plant and transplanted or potted, forming a new plant.

For a safe destroyer of the worm which infests your hops use paraffine emulsion, the formula for preparing which has been published in these notes many times.

Callas can be repotted at any time of the year. Any good, rich soil will answer. They grow best flooded with water. They should have three months' rest, perfectly dry, every year; separate at end of dormant period when potting up. If your oleander is root-bound, give it weak liquid manure freely. Lack of nutriment is the probable cause of blighted buds. Do not try to force your chrysanthemums; they have their own period of blooming according to habit of varieties, early to late, and cannot be forced except at the expense of vitality of the plant and consequent inferiority of bloom; should never be allowed to dry out, as it hardens the wood and injures the bloom. Keep them cool, give them all the sun, air and all the water they need, always having good drainage. When pots are well filled with roots feed liberally with weak liquid manure up to the time the buds show color, then cease feeding, or injury may result to color of bloom.

All questions relating to floral matters addressed to H. E. Goold, florist, Sussex, N. B., will receive prompt replies.

ATTACK ON THE "SANCTIFIED."

SUFFOLK, Va., Aug. 24.

A congregation composed of 103 men, women and children, calling themselves "The Sanctified Band," has been located for some time on Chowan river, near Montrose, N. C. They were anchored in four arks fifty yards from the shore. The band preached sanctification and holiness and their influence had become so great that the congregations of the churches were disintegrated and hundreds of people converted to the new doctrine. Their influence was of a baneful character. Husbands and fathers feared for their wives and children and domestic ties were broken. Sunday morning before daylight a mob of enraged citizens with rifles, swords and pistols made an attack on the boats. One woman was killed and several men wounded.

THE CHIEF ENGINEER.

The "Empress of India's" Chief Engineer Tells an Interesting Story.

Mr. Francis Somerville, one of the best known men in the steamboat traffic on the rivers and lakes of Ontario, having been engaged in this business for fifty years, and who resides at No. 195 Upper Colborne Street, Kingston, speaks as follows of his recovery from the sickness which has affected him for some time.

Said Mr. Somerville: "The grip left me with kidney troubles and gravel. I had severe pain over the kidneys and in the small of my back, also between the shoulders and in the bladder.

"The urine was very dark-colored with a great deal of muddy sediment. I went to Mr. McLeod's drug store and bought two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills. I have taken them with what people tell me is the usual good result.

"They have cleared the urine, removed the sediment, relieved me of distressing pain in the back and between the shoulders, and have built me up in a surprising manner. In fact, I am entirely free from the troubles which affected me before taking these remarkable pills, and I recommend them as a certain cure for all troubles arising from kidney disorders."
