HALIFAX CLAIMS.

WANT I. C. R. TOLLS BETWEEN ST. JOHN AND HALIFAX ABOLISHED.

Cold Storage Scheme—The Case of the Translators Again.

[SPECIAL TO GLOBE.]

OTTAWA, Sept. 25.

The Halifax delegates are asking that the subsidy should be discontinued to any line of mail steamers going to Portland, and this being granted they demand that Halifax shall be placed on the same footing as regards ocean freights as St. John or any more western port. They claim that the pre-confederation promises made to Halifax have not been fulfilled; that the building of the short line has been an advantage to St. John and not to Halifax; that Halifax, owing to its fine Atlantic position, should receive more consideration, and so on. The simple English of their request is that the Intercolonial tolls on freight between St. John and Halifax intended for ocean shipment shall be abolished. They interview Hon. Mr. Blair to day and will meet the Privy Council to-morrow.

The sub-committee of the standing committee on agriculture met this morning and decided to recommend the adoption of the cold storage scheme outlined in Mr. Douglas' report and also the quarantine recommendations.

There was a caucus of the Ontario members of the opposition this morning.

The debates committee met this morning to appoint three translators in the places of those dismissed last evening. Mr. Monet moved the appointment of J. A. Geoffrion, Montreal; C. J. McCully, St. John's, and R. Fiset, Rimouski. It was moved in amendment that Messrs. Peland, Nolin and Fiset be appointed. Finally it was agreed that the dismissed translators should be left in office until the end of the session, and that the committee would meet again next week to appoint three men whose work would begin next session.

A delegation of about fifty, representing those who were under arms at the time of the Fenian raid in 1866, headed by Lieut.-Col. McMillan, of Guelph, and accompanied by Messrs. McMillan, M. P., and Semple, M. P., waited on the Premier and Dr. Borden this morning to ask that the claims of these men be considered. The government of that day issued a call for 25,000 men to repel invasion and no fewer than 32,000 responded. Of these there are, it is supposed, 16,000 still alive and it was proposed that their loyalty should be recognized by issuing suitable medals and giving a grant of land to each with the usual conditions of settlement allowed. Mr Laurier in reply said there would not be time this session to take the matter up. He would lay it before his colleagues and after careful consideration they would endeavor in some way to recognize these services by next session. This was regarded by the delegation as satisfactory.

CORNWALL, Ont., Sept. 25.

Dr. Bergen, Conservative M. P., took a turn for the worse this morning and it is feared the end is not far off.

Bicycle Records Broken—Burke Did Not Run at Boston.

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.

9 a. m. In the 24-hours bicycle race at the coliseum, the score for the first twelve hours is as follows: Gimm, 265 miles; Schinner, 255 miles 1 lap; Miller, 254 miles 2 laps; Walter, 242 miles 3 laps; Myers, 240 miles 1 lap; Schock, 225 miles; Harding, 230 miles 2 laps; Hansen, 221 miles 3 laps; Blakeslee, 207 miles; Hyde, 188 miles 3 laps. All American records from twenty-eight miles up were broken. Four men are now ahead of the record.

BOSTON, Sept. 25.

Thomas E. Burke's proposed trial against Wendell Baker's world's record for 440 yards straightway, which was to have taken place yesterday, has been postponed indefinitely. Manager Graham learned yesterday that it would be impossible for the New York officials, Messrs. Wendell, Hughes and Cornish, to come to Boston on Thursday and he did not care to have the trial without some representative New York men present. Moreover, Graham considered the weather too cold for a fair trial, and on a visit to Beacon Park found that a stiff wind was blowing down the course selected. He hopes that the trial may be made later during the Indian summer weather.

GERMANY AND TURKEY.

The Kaiser's Influence Said to be Paramount.

BERLIN, Sept. 25.

The Constantinople correspondent of the Frankfort Zeitung telegraphs that ten days after the recent massacre of Armenians in Constantinople Baron Von Saurma Jeltsch, the German ambassador, presented to the Sultan, on behalf of Emperor William, a photograph of the German emperor and his family. The other embassies were greatly astonished that the gift should have been presented under the circumstances. The members of the German colony regret that the presentation should have been made at such an inopportune time; in fact many of them believe it should not have been made at all. The correspondent adds that it has since transpired that the presentation of the gift was arranged prior to the massacre.

LONDON, Sept. 25.

The Daily News sees in the presentation of a photograph of the German Imperial family to the Sultan, and in the expulsion from Berlin of Prof. Thoumayan, the well-known Armenian lecturer, confirmation of the statements telegraphed from Constantinople that Germany's influence with the Sultan is now more powerful than that of all the other powers.

The Standard expresses sympathy with Mr. Gladstone's utterances, but contends that he suggests nothing practical. The Standard urges the government to continue to co-operate with the other powers, and not to enter upon rash enterprises despite them.

THE DUTCHER MURDER.

MEDICAL EVIDENCE AS TO THE BONES FOUND.

Sullivan Still Declines to Testify—C. B. McDougall's Statement.

[SPECIAL TO GLOBE.]

MONCTON, Sept. 25.

At the Dutcher inquest yesterday afternoon Constable Thomas continued his testimony in regard to his visit at the Dutcher house. Among the American silver Mrs. Dutcher offered to sell him was a dollar piece. He did not buy any. She had a pocket full of silver, American and Canadian.

John O'Neill, bartender at the Queen Hotel, swore that on Friday morning after the tragedy a man with Colborne and Melanson called for drinks, and after paying offered to sell an American silver dollar piece. He did not know Sullivan. Sullivan was with them that morning. They talked about going to Martin's for clothes.

James Green, sworn, said: I live at Meadow Brook; on the day and night of the 10th inst. I was at Shediac; I was working around E. J. Smith's mills on the 10th taking away bark; I stopped work at six o'clock; I left after supper and went to Smith's store in Shediac, where I remained until 8 o'clock; Joe Lemanazzie and George McPhee were with me; they call it nine miles from Smith's mill to Meadow Brook; after getting back I went up to bed with Lemanazzie; I got up in the morning at 5 o'clock; my boy William came to me and told me that Dutcher's house was burned and his aunt burned up in the house; I went home; the house was burned down; the woman burned was my sister; I have always been friends with her; I don't know how much money she had; I heard the Sunday before the burning of the house that her son had left $100 with her; I have not been in very often the past summer; I saw him with Dutcher; I saw him around Dutcher's a week before the fire.

To Mr. Smith—I don't know whether Hugh Green and Mrs. Dutcher had a quarrel; as far as I know there were no hard feelings between Hugh and her; I don't know that Hugh blamed Mrs. Dutcher for taking a case of whiskey; I have a dog.

Thos. Mitton, sworn: I reside on High street; I was home on the night of the 10th; I generally go to bed at eight; I was awakened in the night by the barking of a dog; I heard footsteps; I got up out of bed and heard footsteps approaching; I went to the window and looked out; I could not tell who it was; the window was fastened; the door was locked; there was a streak of light on the sky, indicating daylight; I returned to my bed; I saw the man go into Sullivan's house; I heard the clock after a while strike 5; I got up very soon after that and made a fire.

Sullivan was brought into court again and Coroner Wortman again asked him to testify, but he declined to do so, saying he was acting on advice of counsel.

The first witness called on the re-opening of the inquest this morning was Dr. O. J. McCully, who had five separate boxes of bones taken from the Dutcher house after the fire. Numbers one and two were human bones. Box number three contained smaller pieces of bones, but were so broken that it was impossible to classify them, although they might have composed part of a human skeleton. Number four box did not contain human bones, but belonged to some small quadruped. In his opinion they might belong to a small dog. Number five collection were probably bones belonging to some large animal. The witness said that a person recovering consciousness after being assaulted would likely give expression to the last serious impression made on his mind.

To Mr. Smith—From the appearance of the bones in box number four I could not swear positively they belonged to a dog.

Dennis Hogan, sworn: Am interested in hotel property in Moncton, but was away from it Wednesday or Thursday previous to the Dutcher fire until the following Sunday.

C. Bruce McDougall, sworn: Am a journalist at present residing in Springhill, I met a man whom I took to be Sullivan one night during the week of the Dutcher fire. It was the night before I heard about the fire. I was around Moncton Thursday, 10th inst., and visited the hotels at the corner of Main and Archibald streets. I met a strange man. He spoke to me, but I did not know him. We went to the Hotel American together. After leaving there this man told me he was Dan Sullivan's brother. We then separated, as he said he had an engagement with a lady. Could not swear as to the time of meeting him, but think it was about two o'clock from what I have heard since.

Court adjourned for dinner.

PERFORATED WITH SHOT.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT TO A SAINT MARYS MAN.

New Point in a Fredericton Scott Act Case.

[SPECIAL TO GLOBE.]

FREDERICTON, Sept. 25.

A young man, Thomas Peppers, of Lower St. Marys, is lying in a precarious condition to-day as a result of a gunning accident which occurred yesterday afternoon. Peppers started into the woods in the rear of his home about 4 o'clock in company with a neighbor, Fred Duffy, to shoot partridge. When about a mile out Duffy stopped to load his gun. He placed the butt of the weapon, a breechloader, on the ground, holding the barrel between his legs. Having got the cartridge into its place he went to lift the gun, when the trigger caught on one of his legs, discharging the cartridge. Peppers had stepped about twenty feet ahead of Duffy and was looking up trees with his back towards the latter when the discharge occurred. The contents struck him in the back, fairly perforating his body from the knee joint up to the middle of the back. He gave an agonizing shriek and fell to the ground unconscious, in which condition he was conveyed to his home. His physician is afraid he cannot recover.

Police Magistrate Marsh is trying a Scott Act case to day against an employe of the R. R. C. I. canteen for selling liquor to one of the men of the 71st battalion, now in camp. Defendant contends that he has a right to sell to any member of the militia in uniform, and the question of whether militia canteen officers can be prosecuted under the Scott Act for selling liquor to men in uniform is involved.
