THE MINISTRY.

Rumor steadily makes changes in the ministerial slate. A late report is that Dr. Borden, of Nova Scotia, will be Minister of Militia, and that Mr. Blair will be Minister of Marine and Fisheries. In the meantime the ministry that is still in has given no sign of when it intends to go out, and there are paragraphs constantly appearing suggesting that it may hold on until the date fixed for the assembling of Parliament. Or course, Parliament can be further prorogued, but if it is to be further prorogued the proclamation to that effect should be issued at once, as there are now only eight days to the date of meeting, and members who live at a great distance, and who desire to be at the opening, must make their start for Ottawa in a day or two. There are rumors that there is disagreement between the Governor General and his advisers and that His Excellency has refused to sign orders-in-council made by them. On the other hand the statement is made, apparently by authority, that "on Saturday Lord Aberdeen signed all the orders-in-council passed up to that date." With regard to the delay in resigning the Ottawa correspondent of the Star makes a statement which does not appear to be unreasonable:

The Council during last week managed to clear off an immense amount of departmental work, and but little remains to be cleared off. The political situation affords subject matter for much conversation. The accusation is frequently heard that the Ministers are hanging on for the sake of the loaves and fishes. This, at least, is a premature charge. When it is remembered that from April 24 to June 24 there were very few meetings of the Cabinet, the majority of the Ministers being away from their offices on campaign business, that, therefore, during these two months —the latter being the last month of the fiscal year—routine work had been accumulating, a fortnight is not long in which to have reduced all these arrears.

One thing appears to be quite certain and that is that the fiscal year closes with a deficit of at least a million of dollars on ordinary revenue account.

UNITED STATES TRADE.

The United States treasury has issued a table which presents at a glance the status of the foreign commerce of the great nations of the world in 1894. Diagrams exhibit the comparative volume of this trade and its gradations in value by decennial averages in the period 1885-94. Of course the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland has the largest foreign trade. Its decennial average is $3,361,318,870 of foreign trade, or $1,500,000,000 more than that of France, which ranks second; $1,760,000,000 more than that of Germany, which ranks third, and $1,800,000,000 more than the foreign trade of the United States, which takes the fourth place. The value of the foreign trade of the United Kingdom is, therefore, more than that of the United States and Germany combined, and only a little less than that of the United States and France. After the four leading commercial nations the descent is rapid, but it is a little surprising to find the foreign trade of little Holland, which stands fifth on the list, equal to 60 per cent. of that of the United States. In fact, the combined foreign trade of Holland and Belgium comes to within $64,000,000 of that of the United States. While 78½ per cent. of the American exports, 71⅓ per cent. of those of France, and 80½ per cent. of those of Germany are to European countries, only 45 1-6 per cent. of the British exports have a similar destination. Of British exports 7.20 per cent. go to South America, against the American proportion of 3.72, that of France 6.27, and that of Germany of 4.87 per cent. To Asia, Great Britain sends nearly four times as much as the other three great commercial nations combined, and to Africa only the French trade with Algeria prevents there being a like disparity. The lead which Great Britain has secured in controlling distant markets is, the Boston Herald says, fairly illustrated by the fact that her exports to Oceanica amount to twice as much as those of all the other trading countries of the world. To these islands of the sea, the United States sent in 1894 merchandise to the value of $11,735,000, against the $90,727,000 of Great Britain. The trade of Great Britain with all her colonies and dependencies reached in 1894 the very respectable total of $720,000,000. Of this $281,000,000 was with British India. The British trade with Canada was little over a third of this, but that with Australasia came within $38,000,000 of it. With the United States, Great Britain did about four-fifths of the amount of business transacted with all her foreign possessions.

Several articles in the Sun of late suggest that that paper in its new capacity as an opposition journal will develop a considerable capacity for meanness in political warfare. Perhaps our contemporary might go a step further than it has to-day and state who of the officials of the late government at Ottawa or elsewhere it would like to have removed. It is said that quite a number of these were independents at the last election. Does the Sun want Messrs. Tucker and Ellis to decapitate all of them?

There is a vacancy in the Senate for Nova Scotia, caused by the death of the late Mr. Kaulbach. It is not likely that the Tupper government will fill this up, nor is it likely that the attempt to do so would be successful.

Boston Herald: The arrangements for the first convention of the National Council of Jewish Women in New York have been completed and the first meeting will begin Nov. 15, continuing until Nov. 20. There is every reason to believe that this convention will be a memorable event among the many interesting gatherings devoted to women's advancement and that it will mark this era with a white stone there is every reason to predict. Preparations have been made on a large scale by the committee, and the programme, so far as now known, promises to be exceedingly interesting. New York believes it may well feel proud of the convention, which is the first undertaking of the kind ever attempted by Jewish women. No one can say, in view of their many and exhaustless charities, that they will not be able to speak with eloquent authority on such subjects as "The Crowded Districts of Great Cities—Our Duty to Better Their Condition," "Organization of Charities" and "Children the Hope of the World—Their Needs and Training."

CHARTERED.—Barque J. E. Graham, West Bay to W. C. E., deals, 40s.

THE OFFICERS of St. John Council, No 52, R. T. of T., will be installed this evening.

MR. A. E. CLARKE will be at the Harkins excursion on Thursday and will photograph the company and take other pictures.

A. & A. S. RITE.—Members are requested to be at the apartments of the Rite, Freemasons' Hall, at eight o'clock sharp this (Wednesday) evening.

THE PICNIC SEASON began this week, and with it the rainy season commenced, although there was a somewhat improved condition of affairs to-day.

DRAMATIC READINGS gain much by skilful illustrating and this fact will be distinctly apparent in the entertainment given by the Grecian Art Tableaux Company of Boston.

MRS. ARMSTRONG will give another lecture on Health, to ladies only, on Thursday afternoon, in the W. C. T. U. Hall, Canterbury street, at 3 o'clock. These talks are full of interest and information, and should be appreciated. All ladies are welcome. Admission free.

FISHING.—Mr. Simeon Jones returned early in the week from his fishing river, the Nepisiquit. He killed forty-one salmon, seven of them on the day on which he left, and had excellent sport.

Messrs. Hayward, Godsoe, Evans and Peters (of Hampton), who were fishing on the Tabusintac, returned on Tuesday morning. They had fine sport and brought down a lot of large trout.

NORTH END SALVAGE CORPS.—The proposed organization of a salvage corps for the North End is creating a good deal of interest in that part of the city. The Board of Public Safety has appointed a committee to make the necessary arrangements and negotiate with Count de Bury for the purchase of the vacant lot near the corner of Main street and Douglas avenue, in view of the erection of a suitable building.

AN ELECTOR 103 YEARS OLD.—Mr. Joseph Matheson, M. P. P., sends the Halifax Chronicle the following interesting paragraph: "I had the pleasure on the 23rd inst. of driving to and from the poll with Captain Sylvester Sampson, who has attained the age of 103 years. The captain is in good health and enjoyed the drive very much. I would like to know if there is any other district that can produce an elector of 103 years."

L. O. A.—The Orangemen of St. John are to celebrate their anniversary this year at Hampton with the brethren of Kings Co. Two trains will leave St. John during the day, giving anybody wishing to spend a few hours in the shiretown of Kings a good opportunity to do so. The rate is low, and judging from past years all who may attend will have a good time. Dancing and sports of all kinds will be provided by the Hampton committee, which will be carried out on the ground adjoining the Curling rink. See ad.

THE FUNERAL SERMON is often overdone. It is not only a tribute, often greatly exaggerated, to the virtues of the deceased, but a tribute to the importance of his family circle. A minister tells a story of being waited upon by the family of a deceased member of his congregation. They wanted a funeral sermon. "And if you don't mind, sir," said the spokesman, "we should feel particularly obliged if you could put a bit of Latin in it. We think it would look so respectable."—Religious Intelligencer.

MONKEY CIRCUS.—Rufus Somerby's show opens at the Opera House on Monday, July 13th, and receptions will be held every afternoon and evening during the week at 3 and 8. The big attraction is Prof. Wormwood's monkey theatre. The monkeys are appropriately costumed, and will appear as actors, acrobats, equilibrists, dancers, leapers, gymnasts, bicyclists, pugilists, clowns and fun makers in a diversified entertainment, replete with novelty and fun. As usual, Mr. Somerby gives more than he promises, there being several other features which are not advertised.

A NEW PLAY TO-NIGHT.—The Harkins Company again presented "The New Boy" at the Opera House on Tuesday to a large and delighted audience. The play was well put on and won much deserved applause. This afternoon the same play was put on again and drew another good house.

This evening theatre goers will be given an opportunity to see "In Old Kentucky" produced again with all the beautiful scenery which was displayed here a few weeks ago. The success of that performance before will be greater to-night, as the company is much stronger and the stage effects better, and in Miss Tabor the company have an actor who is considered superior to any who have yet acted in "Old Kentucky."

THE MAIL SERVICE to Digby, by the Prince Rupert, was stopped at the close of June, owing to the fact that the appropriation for the service had expired. The stoppage caused great inconvenience to St. John merchants, and various representations were made upon the subject to the postal department. The steamship company and the railway were willing to take the mails pending the action of Parliament, and a settlement of the matter was reached on Monday. The following, from the Deputy Postmaster General, is self-explanatory:

OTTAWA, 6th July, 1896.

* * * I have telegraphed the inspector to arrange for the continuance of the service if the company will agree to give an undertaking that the continuance is without prejudice and subject to the action of Parliament, and I presume there will be no difficulty about this.

Yours very truly,
WM. WHITE.

John V. Ellis, Esq., M. P., St. John, New Brunswick.

Mr. Whittaker, of the Post Office Inspector's department here, effected the necessary arrangements on Tuesday with the steamship and railway companies and the mails were sent this morning. Their despatch by the Flushing to Grand Manan, etc., is also arranged for as usual.

JULY WEDDINGS.—A quiet wedding was celebrated in the Cathedral at six o'clock this morning, the participants being Mr. John J. Barry and Miss Minnie McDermott, the eldest daughter of Mr. Alexander McDermott. Only the relatives and very intimate friends of the bride and groom were present. The bride wore a travelling gown of tan and carried a beautiful bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Gertrude McDermott, was attired in a gray gown trimmed with torquoise blue and carried a very pretty bunch of pink roses. The groom was supported by Mr. E. Owens. After the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. T. Casey, the wedding party drove to the residence of the bride's father on Duke street and partook of breakfast, after which the newly wedded couple left on the train for a honeymoon trip through the White Mountains.

A quiet wedding took place at noon today in St. Paul's church, when Miss E. May Beer, eldest daughter of the late Mr. W. H. Beer, and Mr. Henry B. Robinson were united in the bonds of matrimony. The relatives of the bride and groom occupied seats at the head of the church. There were no invited guests, but the church was well filled with friends of the young couple who wished to see the nuptials. The church was beautifully decorated with ferns and cut flowers. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. George Schofield, grandfather of the bride, assisted by the Rev. Canon DeVeber. Mr. Robinson was attended by Mr. John I. Robinson. The bride was given away by her uncle, Col. C. B. Beer, and was most becomingly attired in a travelling gown of grey, trimmed with white pearl buttons, small hat to match, trimmed with violets, and carried a beautiful bunch of white roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Florence Snider, wore a costume of black and white trimmed with chiffon, a black hat, and carried a large bunch of heliotrope.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Robinson left by the C. P. R. for a trip through Nova Scotia. They take with them the best wishes of many friends. They received many beautiful presents, among them being a handsome clock from the K. O. R. club.

PRESENTED WITH AN ADDRESS.—At the regular moot of Clan Mackenzie, last night, Clansman John Montgomery was presented with a congratulatory address on his recent entry into the band of benedicts. Clansman Robt. Milligan read the address and Clansman Montgomery suitably responded. The address was written on parchment and was handsomely inscribed by Mr. John Willet.

DEATH OF AN AGED CITIZEN.—Mr. Daniel O'Hara passed away at 9 o'clock this morning at his residence, Camden street, at the ripe age of 93 years. At the age of 16 years he came to this country, and first engaged in lumbering on the St. John river. Since that period up to the time he gave up work, Mr. O'Hara had been engaged in connection with timber, either as a hewer or handling it in some other capacity. Like a good many of the early settlers, Mr. O'Hara possessed a sound constitution, and this held good until nearly the end. For ninety-one years he never received any medical assistance, and he never remembered being sick. His memory was remarkably good for a man of his age. On Friday last deceased took a walk down on Rankin's wharf, and when he came back he complained of being cold. Since then be commenced to decline, and his end was an easy one. Mr. O'Hara was a kind man and lived a righteous life. He leaves five daughters and four sons; among the latter is Mr. Charles O'Hara, the well known barber of Mill street. Some of his children reside in the United States.

FUNERALS TO DAY.—The remains of Mr. John O'Leary were interred in the Catholic cemetery, Sand Cove, this morning. Requiem Mass was said in the Church of the Assumption by Rev. J. J. O'Donovan, and the funeral, which was very large, then proceeded to the place of interment. The pall-bearers were Messrs. John M. Driscoll, Israel E Smith, Daniel Driscoll, Robert Norris, Michael Matthew and James Sugrue. Mr. O'Leary died very suddenly on Sunday. He had been out the day previous and talked with old friends in the best of spirits, but as the night advanced he became ill and grew rapidly worse, and died about 2 30 o'clock on Sunday afternoon. Mr. O'Leary was 65 years old, and death was due to heart failure. For over forty-four years he has been in this city, having come from Cork, Ireland, in 1852. He was very widely known, and by his neighbors in Carleton and friends elsewhere was very generally respected.

The funeral of Miss Susan Robinson took place from the residence of Mr. John R Armstrong, Wellington Row, at 2 30 o'clock this afternoon. Rev. J. de Soyres conducted the services and the hymns "Lord, I am Thine," and "Jesus, Thy Blood and Righteousness," were sung. There were no pall bearers and the interment took place in the Rural Cemetery.

The funeral of the late Miss Ethel B. Elliott took place this afternoon from her mother's residence on High street, and many friends of the deceased young lady followed the remains to their last resting place in the Rural Cemetery. Many persons sent beautiful floral tributes. The services at the house and at the grave were conducted by Rev. Mr. Minchin, pastor of the Congregational church. There were no pall bearers.

A FINE PRIZE.—There was placed yesterday in a conspicuous position, where it may be seen advantageously by everyone who passes or enters the store of Messrs. Macaulay Bros., King street, a very beautiful little picture. It is the prize selected by the Secretary of the Art Union of Ireland for Mr. Fred Sandall, of this city, to whose lot fell the right to receive a work of art, chosen from some of the exhibitions of this year, of the value of £15 sterling. This picture, however, which Mr. Sandall has got as his prize, had double that value placed upon it at the recent exhibition of the Royal Hibernian Academy. It was painted by Patrick Vincent Duffy, a well-known landscape painter and an eminent member of the Academy, of whose works there are now several examples in St. John. This little piece is entitled "At Glendalough" and is a view in that picturesque valley in the County of Wicklow, which abounds in charming views of the open country as well as in sweet streams and shady nooks and by-ways. Within this painted surface of 19¼ inches by 6½ inches, we have a wide prospect up the glen towards hills that bound the distance. There are no trees of any size to form an important feature of the landscape. But there are placed before us on the left side of the picture one of those remarkable round towers, whose origin and history are so uncertain, and which are more numerous in Ireland than in any other part of Europe. In middle of the view, and in mid-distance from the foreground, stand the ruins of a chapel of "Our Lady," around which are the graves of Christians of the past and present ages. And on the right appears a structure of somewhat curious form, which is called "St. Kevin's Kitchen." These venerable objects impart much interest to a scene attractive by its natural features, and render any faithful transcript of the spot valuable. All the different portions of the picture are good in drawing and extremely pleasing in color, the verdant hill-sides, the grey old ruins, the gleaming white gravestones, and the fresh foliage of trees being truthfully expressed. Over the scene spreads a sky full of strongly-painted yet brilliant clouds. Altogether this is a painting that will charm many a lover of art.

Arthur Everitt, Esq., is the Agent and Honorary Secretary in St. John for the A. U. of Ireland.

HARBOR IMPROVEMENTS.

A joint meeting of the Board of Works and winter port committee was held this morning, the Mayor presiding. A letter was read from Mr. H. P. Timmerman, on behalf of the Canadian Pacific Railway, stating their willingness to contribute $50,000 towards the proposed improvements, the grant to be subject to certain conditions and to be exclusive of dredging. They also presented the following as their estimate of the cost of the improvements at Carleton to provide berths for two or more steamers:

Wharf	$ 30,564
Two warehouses, 70x320	11,615
Dredging 63 000 cubic yards at 30 cents	18,900
Dredging 85,000 cubic yards at 50 cents	42,500
Tracks	2l,000
Cattle yards	2 590
Total	$108,169

The communication was considered at some length and a committee composed of the Mayor, Recorder, Director of Public Works, and Alds. Christie, Millidge, Waring, Purdy and Smith were appointed to confer with the C. P. R. as regards the communication.

TO THE COLORED CITIZENS.

We, the trustees of the Ferrie Trust Fund, in connection with St. Philip's building, have had our accounts audited by Mr. William C. Simpson and publish this notice for the information of the colored citizens of St. John in connection with said building and would ask your attention to his statement:

Trustees of St. Philip's Building:

GENTLEMEN,—I have audited the accounts of St. Philip's building, have checked the additions, the entries of payments with the vouchers, and find the balance, $61.26, correct as shown by the bank book.

W. C. SIMPSON, Auditor.

POLICE COURT.

John Walsh, drunk and using profane language on Union street, was fined $8.

Mary Ann Reid, drunk on Paradise Row, was also charged with being a common vagrant. She was sent to jail for six months.

Albert White, a lad arrested on suspicion of stealing a watch belonging to Prof. Edmunds, the Y. M. C. A. gymnastic instructor, protested his entire innocence, and he was remanded until Saturday.

The preliminary examination of Joseph Denaco, charged with breaking and entering the store of John Sealy on South wharf, was commenced this forenoon. The examination was continued this afternoon. James Connors, Denaco's pal, is detained as a witness.

The market committee of the Common Council are endeavoring to prohibit Messrs. F. B. Dunn & Co. from selling their smoked meats in the market, as they claim it is against the regulations and unfair to other dealers. They have reported Mr. Stephen B. Smith, who is in their employ, with violating the by-laws. The matter will be tried on Friday.

STEWARD OF U. N. B. APPOINTED.

[SPECIAL TO GLOBE.]

FREDERICTON, July 8.

The Residency Committee of the University Senate have made arrangements for next academic year: Michael Neville has been appointed steward and will assume the duty August 1st. Albert Everett and Thomas Osgoode were the only other applicants for positions.

CIRCUIT COURT.

The Circuit Court this morning took up the case of Sinclair vs. Wallace. The plaintiff is Mr. John A. Sinclair, the lawyer, and the defendant lives outside the city. The action is brought to recover the amount of a note for $4,700. The defence is that the note was purely an accommodation note for A. Sinclair & Co. and that the plaintiff knew this.

A. W. Macrae and W. Pugsley, Q. C., for the plaintiff and A. H. Hanington, Q. C., and the Attorney General for defendant.

The Grand Jury were allowed to go this morning to meet again Friday morning at ten o'clock.

FREDERICTON NEWS.

FREDERICTON, July 7.

The York Municipal Council held its semi-annual meeting to-day. A discussion of the dog tax law passed at the last session of the Legislature occupied most of the time except that which was devoted to the routine business. Nearly all the members expressed strong opposition to the law. Every parish in the county excepting Kingsclear will petition for exemption from the operation of the act.

Monday was the 25th anniversary of the marriage of Rev. Mr. Sellar, pastor of the Methodist church at Gibson. The reverend gentleman was called away to Boston the other day and is now absent from home, but that did not prevent a large number of his congregation from calling at his residence to express to Mrs. Sellar their good wishes. Mr. J. E. Simmons read an address expressive of the high esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. Sellar are held by the congregation and Mrs. Sellar was presented with several valuable gifts.

Dr. J. W. Bridges and bride arrived home to-night.

A DARING DEED.

COTTAGE CITY, Mass., July 8.

Charles I. Alden, animal painter of New York, saved the lives of Mrs. C. Casper and Miss Florence Cowan, of New York, at a bathing beach, yesterday. Joseph R. Gardner, of Cambridge, was also instrumental in the rescue. The bathers got beyond their depths and Alden ran to their assistance. In their struggles they bore him beneath the surface many times, but by a supreme effort he got them near the shore, where they were taken in charge by Garner, who swam some 100 yards in remarkably quick time to their aid. The ladies were in a very exhausted condition.

It will probably be found that the estate of the late lamented Baron Hirsch will realize $80,000,000, after deducting the $20,000 000 already generously expended for the benefit of the Jewish community in the Argentine scheme. Of this, one-half is devoted to charitable purposes under the supervision of four trustees, who, in addition to all their expenses, are to receive for five years, as compensation for their trouble, the sum of $20,000 per annum. The remainder is absolutely at the disposal of the baroness, who is thus left in possession of about $40,000,000.—London Telegraph.

Verdi has just deposited in bank at Milan a sum amounting to $80,000 in American money toward the first cost of the new "Verdi House of Repose" for aged and destitute musicians and operatic librettists. Furthermore, he has promised three times that amount for the completion and endowment of the institution; to which, after the death of Mme. Verdi, should she survive him, a large portion of the residue of his estate will be devoted. In this he is following the example of Rossini, who founded alms houses and music schools for his native Pesaro. The architect of the new Verdi building is Camillo Boito, brother of Verdi librettist.
