HENLEY REGATTA.

THE LEANDER CREW AGAIN VICTORIOUS.

Not Quite So Much Interest Taken in To-day's Races.

HENLEY-ON-THAMES, July 8.

To-day's events in the Royal Henley regatta began at 11.30 with the second heat for the Thames challenge cup for eight oars. The heat was won by Trinity Hall, Cambridge, which beat the Kingston Rowing Club's eight by a length. In the fifth trial heat of the race for the grand challenge cup the Leander Rowing Club beat the New College by half a length. The sixth heat was won by the Thames Rowing Club, which beat First Trinity by a length. The fourth heat in this race was a bye for the Thames Rowing Club. The first heat for the visitors' challenge cup, for four oars, was won by Magdalen College, Oxford, which beat Trinity College, Oxford, easily.

The sky was clear and sunshine bright and again overcast at intervals throughout the forenoon, with a moderate breeze blowing obliquely across the course and against the rowers. The crowds along the river bank, upon the bridge and at other points of vantage were not so dense as they were yesterday, but they were still very large. There was a noticeable decrease in the number of Americans and a particularly noticeable shrinkage in the number of American flags, hundreds of Americans having taken their departure after the defeat of Yale, which, very naturally, was the only crew in which they took any special interest. Of to-day's races the most important one was between the Leander Rowing Club and New College, Oxford, eight, the general opinion being that New College would win. In this case, however, the general opinion was mistaken, for Leander proved to be the winner.

Yale crew remained quiet last evening. The men are all well and accept the situation philosophically, as do others of the defeated crews in the regatta. Yesterday's race between Yale and Leander is still the leading topic of conversation and discussion. Everybody praises the muscle and pluck shown by the Yale men. This emphasizes the importance of the Leander's victory and makes it appear that it was the better style of the Englishmen that won the race. Yale men will leave their quarters at Marsh Mills House Friday morning and will attend a dinner to be given in their honor by the Sports Club that evening. It is likely that upon that occasion Capt. Treadway will speak on behalf of the Yale crew. Delegates from all of the crews participating in the regatta are desirous of attending the dinner. The Yale men will return to the United States separately, as some of them intend visiting the continent.

In the grand challenge cup race between the Thames Rowing Club and First Trinity eight, the first event on to-day's programme, Trinity got away first, rowing at a stroke of from 21 up to 41; the Thames stroke running from 21 to 40. Trinity was a canvas ahead at the top of Temple Island, and at the half mile had increased the lead to half a length. The Thames then began to draw up and passing Trinity was leading by half a length at the Fawley Court boat house. From this point the Thames boat went away clear of Trinity and had her lead to the finish, winning by a bare length in 7 29. The Thames had the Bucks side of the course and was really sheltered from the wind. In the heat between the Leanders and New College boats New College started first at a stroke of from twenty-two to forty-three. The Leanders rowed at a stroke ranging from twenty-one to forty-two. The New College boat had a lead in a minute, having kept in front from the first stroke. There was a spat between the boats at the Rectory and New College was a length and a quarter ahead at the half mile, a lead which was maintained until the boats reached Fawley Court. The first half of the course was rowed over by New College in 3.20. Passing Fawley Court, Leander began to spurt and drew up level with the Oxford men at the mile post. Then the nose of the Leander's boat showed in front and at the Isthmian was three-quarters of a length ahead. Passing the Isthmian, the New College crew made a grand spurt, but the Bucks side favored the Leander boat and in the desperate trial of speed and endurance for the finish the form of the Leander men was clearly apparent, the latter boat crossing the finish line a length ahead in 7.06. Both crews were pretty well pumped. The New College men were the worst winded, however, and it was some minutes before they recovered. The race was a splendid one and both crews were cheered, Leanders of course receiving the largest share of the cheers.

In the third heat for the Thames Challenge Cup the Molesey Boat Club beat the Thames Rowing Club easily.

The fourth heat for the Thames challenge cup was won by the Societe D'Encouragement du Sport Nautique crew of Paris, which beat the crew of Trinity College, Dublin, by half a length. The Paris crew led over the entire course and finished in fair form. Theirs was a popular victory and the men were heartily cheered.

In the heat for the diamond sculls between Vivian Nickalls and the Hon. Rupert Guinness both men started with a stroke of from 19 to 36. Nickalls went to the front immediately, but crossed over to Guinness's station, from which side Guinness drove him back. At the quarter mile Nickalls had a lead of three-quarters of a length and again he went over to Guinness's side. He was again forced to return to his own side and this time he lost ground, at Fawley Court Guinness's boat was level with that of Nickalls and the two continued to row on even terms until the three-quarter mile post was reached, when Guinness began to draw ahead slowly. At the Isthmian Guinness was clear of Nickalls and continued to increase his lead until he crossed the finish line four lengths ahead in 9.19. Nickalls was greatly winded.

In the fifth heat for the Ladies' Challenge Plate, Baliol College, Oxford, beat Emmanuel College, Cambridge, by half a length.

The sixth heat for the ladies' plate was won by the Eton College crew, who beat the Radley College boat easily.

The fourth heat for the Wyfold challenge cup was won by the crew of Trinity College, Oxford, who beat the Cains College crew easily.

Boston Artillerymen Entertained at Windsor Castle.

LONDON, July 8.

The visiting members of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Boston left the Hotel Cecil this morning for Windsor, marching with band and colors to the Waterloo station. They were escorted by the band of the Honorable Artillery Company of London and accompanied by the Earl of Denbigh, Lieut. Colonel of the Honorable Artillery Company. The Boston company were cheered all along the route. Upon their arrival at Windsor they were received at the station by the Mayor, the members of the Windsor corporation and a guard of honor. After being welcomed they marched to Windsor Castle, where they were inspected by the Queen. They were then entertained at luncheon in the orangery and afterwards were conducted through the state apartments of the castle. They returned to the railway station at three o'clock in the afternoon. The entire route from the castle to the station was profusely decorated with flags and the Stars and Stripes were hoisted upon the town hall. U. S. Ambassador Bayard and Mrs. Bayard were present at the inspection of the Artillery Company by the Queen. Mr. and Mrs. Bayard will remain at the castle as the guests of the Queen until to-morrow.

THE MINISTRY.

DID TUPPER APPEAL TO CHAMBERLAIN?

Sir Charles Tupper Has Gone to Tender His Resignation.

[SPECIAL TO GLOBE.]

MONTREAL, July 8.

Regarding the alleged appeal made by Sir Charles Tupper to Mr. Joseph Chamberlain because of Lord Aberdeen's refusal to sanction important appointments Le Cultivateur, of which Mr. J. I. Tarte, the forthcoming Minister of Railways and Canals, is editor, says: "Mr. Chamberlain has been the patron and sponsor of Sir Charles Tupper since his return to Canada. We have reason to believe that he saved the Conservative party from disaster during the last session. Mr. Chamberlain must learn that Canada is a free country and bound to enjoy responsible government. The intervention of the secretary of state for the colonies will not be tolerated. The part filled by Mr. Chamberlain is particularly offensive for French-Canadians. He seems to have put forth superhuman efforts to prevent Mr. Laurier from attaining the post to which his fellow-citizens have elected him."

OTTAWA, July 8.

Sir Charles Tupper went to Rideau Hall shortly before noon to-day for the purpose of tendering his resignation. He is said to be making terms with Lord Aberdeen, if possible, as to the signing of certain appointments before resigning; but on the surface everything points to resignation this afternoon. There is certainly a great deal of uncertainty among the ministers themselves.

This morning all the ministers gathered at 11 o'clock in the Privy Council Chamber, but after waiting a while they slowly dispersed. There is something in the wind, but one could only conjecture what it is. At all events the ministers cleaned up their desks this morning and bundled home all their papers. Packing had been arrested pending definite news. Practically the ministers are all out and walking round waiting and talking in groups.

As a rule when a minister goes to the Governor General to tender his resignation the thing is done and that is what Sir Charles Tupper has gone to Rideau Hall for.

LATER.

No doubt Tupper has resigned, and His Excellency has asked the ministers to hold their portfolios until their successors are sworn in.

Tupper himself still says he has nothing to say.

AGAINST SOUND MONEY.

SUB COMMITTEE OF THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

Submit a Report Unalterably Opposing a Single Gold Standard.

CHICAGO, July 8.

In the Democratic National Convention on Tuesday the recommendation of the majority of the organization committee, who named Senator Hill, of New York, as temporary chairman, was rejected, and by a vote of 556 to 349 Senator John W. Daniel, of Virginia, was selected. This was a decisive victory for the silver men.

The platform as reported by the subcommittee to the full committee on resolutions at its meeting this morning calls attention to the fact that the federal constitution names silver and gold together as the money metals of the United States and that the first coinage law passed by Congress under this constitution made the silver dollar the unit of value and admitted gold to free coinage at a ratio measured by silver dollar unit. The platform declares the act of 1873 demonetizing silver has resulted in appreciation of gold and corresponding fall in prices of commodities produced by the people, the enriching of the money lending class at home and abroad, prostrating of industry and impoverishment of the people. "We are unalterably opposed to a single gold standard. The gold mono-metallist is a British policy and its adoption has brought other nations into financial servitude to London. We demand the free and unlimited coinage of both gold and silver at the present ratio of 16 to 1 without waiting for aid or consent of any other nation. We demand that the standard silver dollar shall be a full legal tender, equally with gold, for all debts public and private, and we favor such legislation as will prevent demonetization of any kind of legal tender money by private contract."

The platform opposes the policy of surrendering to holders of the obligations of the United States the option reserved by law to the government of redeeming such obligations in either silver coin or gold coin. It opposes the issuing of government bonds in time of peace, demands that all paper money shall be issued directly by the treasury department, holds that tariff duties should be levied only for the purposes of revenue, denounces as disturbing to business the Republican threat to restore the McKinley tariff law, declares there would be no deficit in revenue but for the annulment by the Supreme Court of the income tax law which was passed by a "Democratic Congress in strict pursuance of uniform decisions of that court for nearly one hundred years," opposes the importation of foreign pauper labor, denounces the "profligate waste of money wrung from the people by oppressive taxation and lavish appropriations of the recent Republican Congresses;" denounces arbitrary interference by Federal authorities in local affairs, and objects to "government by injunction as a new and highly dangerous form of oppression by which the Federal judges become at once legislators, judges and executioners," favors just pensions to Union soldiers, extends sympathy to Cubans, opposes life tenure in public services, favors such administration of civil service laws as will afford equal opportunities to all citizens of ascertained fitness, holds that no man should be eligible for a third term of the Presidental office.

THE DIFFERENCE

Between the tailoring we do now while we are making Light Summer Suits at a big reduction and the kind of tailoring we've always done. We keep only good tailors, pay them the same prices, and get the same quality of work year in and year out. We buy good trimmings for the "insides" of the suits we make, and never have any other sort to use. Though we've made the price of Light Summer Suits in many cases one-quarter less, you get the best tailoring in every respect. It's our way of paying you for having a suit made in midsummer and leaving us fewer light goods to carry over. Now you understand why we're making

Light Suits to order for $15.
