JOHN KNOX'S COURTSHIP.

A curious anecdote of Knox's marriage to Lord Ochiltree's daughter, is contained in a letter written by Mr. Robert Miller, minister of Paisley, to Wodrow, the historian of the sufferings of the Church of Scotland, dated Nov. 15, 1722. It is as follows:

John Knox, before the light of the Reformation broke up, travelled among several honest families in the West of Scotland who were converts to the Protestant religion. Particularly he visited oft Lord Ochiltree's family, preaching the gospel privately to those who were willing to receive it. The lady and some of the family were converts. Her ladyship had a chamber, table, stool and candlestick for the prophet, and one night about supper-time, said to him "Mr. Knox, I think you are at a loss by want of a wife?" To which he said, "Madam, I think nobody will take such a wanderer as I." To which she replied, "Sir, if that be your objection, I'll make inquiry, to find an answer against our next meeting." The lady accordingly addressed herself to her eldest daughter, telling her that she might be very happy if she could marry Mr. Knox, who would be a great reformer and a credit to the church; but she despised the proposal, hoping that her ladyship wished her better than to marry a poor wanderer. The lady addressed the second daughter, who answered as the eldest. Then the lady spoke to her third daughter, about nineteen years of age, who very faintly said, "Madam, I'll be very willing to marry him, but I fear he'll not take me." To which the lady replied, "If that be all your objection, I'll soon get you an answer." Next evening at supper the lady said, "Sir, I have been considering upon a wife for you, and find one very willing." To which Knox inquired, "Who is it, madam?" She answered, "My young daughter, sitting by your side at the table."

Then addressing himself to the young lady, he said, "My bird, are you willing to marry me?" She answered, "Yes sir; only I fear you will not be willing to take me." He said, "My bird, if you are willing to take me, you must take your venture of God's providence as I do. I go through the country sometimes on foot, with a wallet on my arm and a Bible in it. You may put some things in it for yourself, and if I bid you take the wallet you must do it, and go when I go and lodge where I lodge." "Sir," said she, "I'll do all this." "Will you be as good as your word?" "Yes, I will." Upon which the marriage was concluded. She went with him to Geneva. And as he was ascending a hill she got up to the top of it before him, and took the wallet on her arm and sitting down said, "Now, good man, am not I as good as my word?"

"MY FATHER'S WILL."—A good old man was one day walking to the sanctuary with his Bible in his hand, when a friend met him and said:

"Good morning, Mr. Price, what are you reading there?"

"Ah, good-morning," replied he; "I am reading my Father's will as I walk along."

"Well, and what has he left you?" said the friend.

"Why, he has bequeathed to me a hundred-fold more in this life, and in the world to come life everlasting."—Sel.

A NOTED BUT UNTITLED WOMAN.

(From the Boston Globe.)

Meane, Editors.—

The above is a good likeness of Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., who above all other human beings may be truthfully called the "Dear Friend of Woman," as some of her correspondents love to call her. She is zealously devoted to her work, which is the outcome of a life study, and is obliged to keep six lady assistants to help her answer the large correspondence which daily pours in upon her, each bearing its special burden of suffering, or joy at release from it. Her Vegetable Compound is a medicine for good and not evil purposes. I have personally investigated it and am satisfied of the truth of this.

On account of its proven merits, it is recommended and prescribed by the best physicians in the country. One says: "It works like a charm and saves much pain. It will cure entirely the worst form of falling of the uterus, Leucorrhoea, irregular and painful menstruation, all ovarian troubles, inflammation and Ulceration, Prolapsus, all Displacements and the consequent spinal weakness, and is especially adapted to the Change of Life."

It permeates every portion of the system, and gives new life and vigor. It removes faintness, flatulency, destroys all craving for stimulants, and relieves weakness of the stomach. It cures Bloating, Headaches, Nervous Prostration, General Debility, Sleeplessness, Depression and Indigestion. That feeling of bearing down, causing pain, weight and backache, is always permanently cured by its use. It will at all times, and under all circumstances, act in harmony with the law that governs the female system.

It costs only $1. per bottle or six for $5., and is sold by druggists. Any advice required as to special cases, and the names of many who have been restored to perfect health by the use of the Vegetable Compound, can be obtained by addressing Mrs. P., with stamp for reply, at her home in Lynn, Mass.

For Kidney Complaint of either sex this compound is unsurpassed as all infant testimonials show.

"Mrs. Pinkham's Liver Pills," says one writer, "are the best in the world for the cure of Constipation, Biliousness and Torpidity of the Liver. Her Blood Purifier works wonders in its special line and bids fair to equal the Compound in its popularity."

All must respect her as an Angel of Mercy whose sole ambition is to do good to others.
