Table with 4 columns: Days of Observation, Hours of Observation, Temperature, Remarks. Data for Saturday, Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday.

We are enabled, from the receipt of Halifax papers, since our last, to present our readers in this number, with European dates to the 15th of March.—The news they contain, refer principally to the affairs of Turkey and the Allies.—Austria it is said, has at last, come into the view of the latter party, but nothing has transpired as yet to lead us to believe she has taken any active part in the anticipated struggle. The other Powers, however, are losing no time in making extensive preparations for commencing open hostilities.—A considerable length of time has now elapsed since we were made aware that Russia had a powerful army stationed on the Banks of the Pruth, ready to take possession of Wallachia and Moldavia, provided the situation of matters between the Autocrat and the Sultan should render such a step expedient or in any degree likely to answer those intentions which have long been ascribed to the Emperor.—The time it appears has now arrived for putting this army in motion. They have received orders to make an attempt at the accomplishment of the object for which they were originally placed on the Russian frontiers, and the next accounts will, in all probability, inform us of these troops having taken possession of these Provinces. Russia has declared War against Turkey, but, very judiciously for herself, has made the ground of quarrel a matter entirely distinct from her being connected with the Allied Powers in the Greek affair.—It is founded on some breach on the part of Turkey of the Treaty of Ackerman—what the breach is, we are not informed; but little doubt can now be entertained of the certainty of a War between Russia and Turkey for territory.

How far France and England may, for their individual interests, find it necessary to interfere, it is impossible as yet to tell. Ten thousand troops are destined by the former to proceed to the scene of action, and the latter, it is said, intending immediately six ships of the line to the Mediterranean.

Capt. HARE, of the brig Ward, which arrived last evening, 40 days from St. Ubes, reports, that two days previous, to his leaving that port accounts had been received there that Don Miguel had proclaimed himself King, with a determination to maintain the Old Constitution. This it seems had produced a sensation in the Country which ended in a downright tumult—so much so indeed as to bring about a regular disembarkation of the British Troops, who had previously been on board of transports, destined to convey them to England.—Some account of the commotion may be expected soon from home. In the mean time, we think the circumstances of the case are of some importance, and that in all probability, much blood will be shed before it is accomplished.

We understand, T. P. MANTER, Esq. has been appointed Warehouse Keeper at this port.
