We trust, however, that the Common Council will not stop here in their progress in City improvement. There is another crying evil to which we think, for the good of the citizens, their attention ought to be directed, namely, the difficulty which at present exists in obtaining or proving the exact line or boundaries of properties.—We know that several litigations have been occasioned in consequence of this, and it is surely the duty of persons holding public situations, having the power of making Laws and Ordinances, to prevent this if possible. We do not mean to say that we can at present point out the proper mode to be adopted in this instance, but we have no hesitation in saying that the thing is possible, at least as far as its operation may refer to the interests of a future generation.

His Excellency the LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR, and suite, arrived in Town by the Steam-Boat St. George, on Thursday last. His Excellency reviewed the troops in Garrison yesterday, and left the City for Head-Quarters this morning.

CORPORATION AND TEST ACTS.—During the debate in the House of Commons, on this subject, Mr. S. BROWNE said,—he would not propose the renewal of any oath, (hear)—all he desired was, that there should be a declaration, free, he hoped, from objection. The declaration to be subscribed by the party taking it, would "sincerely and solemnly declare that the subscribing party would not use any power that might be vested in him to subvert the rights of the Church of England, as by law established, nor any of the rights of the established Presbyterian Church of Scotland." He trusted there would not be seen any thing objectionable in the declaration, which, without affecting the religious scruples of any one, only sought to secure the rights and privileges of the established Churches of England, Scotland, and Ireland.

Mr. Secretary PEEL proposed the preamble of the Bill to be the same as that of the Bill brought in by Mr. GRATTAN, for the removal of the Civil and Military disqualifications of the Roman Catholics—to this effect—"Whereas the Protestant succession to the Crown is, by the Act for the further limitation of the Crown and the better securing the liberties of the people, established permanently and inviolably; and whereas the Protestant Episcopal Church of England and Ireland, and the doctrine, discipline, and government thereof, and likewise the Protestant Church of Scotland, and the doctrine, discipline, and government thereof, are established permanently and inviolably." And he would have every Dissenter, on taking office, to make the following declaration:—"I, A. B., do solemnly declare that I will not use any privilege, power, or influence, which I do now or may hereafter possess, by this office, to overthrow or disturb the present Church Establishments of the United Kingdom, or injure or weaken the Protestant Church, or deprive it of any of those powers or privileges which it enjoys as by law established."

Mr. FERGUSON, Mr. S. BROWNE, and Lord J. RUSSEL, severally explained—after which the resolution—That it be an instruction to the Committee and that they be hereby empowered to provide for the subscription of a declaration by all persons who would, under the existing law, be required to take the tests—was agreed nemine contradicente.

In this day's paper, we, by request, furnish our readers with the following extract from The Belfast Northern Whig, which, while it establishes the fact of the Reverend ALEXANDER CLARKE'S being a regularly ordained Missionary, from the Reformed Presbyterian Synod of Ireland, repels and discountenances in the most effectual manner, an insiduous report to the contrary, which, it should seem, is courting circulation with an industry that would aim at a total subversion of his Missionary usefulness throughout these Provinces.—Com.

Ordination.—On Friday, June 1, the Rev. Alexander Clarke was ordained, in the Rev. Mr. Alexander's meeting-house, by the Eastern Presbytery of the Reformed Presbyterian Synod of Ireland, as a Missionary to British America. The Services commenced with an impressive sermon, by the Rev. Mr. Alexander; and the ordination charge was delivered by the Rev. Mr. Henry, of Newtownards.—After which, the solemn ceremony of the imposition of hands was performed, and the services were concluded by prayer.—The Rev. Mr. Paul and the Rev. Mr. Clarke then addressed those members of the Missionary Society who were present, on the nature and usefulness of Missionary labour; refering to the extensive field which was about to be opened to the exertions of Mr. Clarke.

Lamentable Occurrence.—Yesterday morning three of our Pilots, Messrs. J. Reed, J. Anthony, and Abraham Mabee, having observed the brig Cabinet, from Youghal, off the harbour, launched their gig-boat, from the Lower Cove beach for the purpose of boarding her.—The two latter went out in the gig, the wind blowing from the southeast which occasioned a heavy swell in the harbour. In attempting to cross the bar near the Beacon, the boat shipped a sea and was capsized: she, however, righted, and the Pilots were enabled to get into her again. They had not after this proceeded but a little distance when from the same cause the boat upset a second time, when unfortunate to relate, Mr. Mabee, who was no swimmer, was unable to regain the boat, then drifting down by the current, was consigned to a watery grave.—Mr. Anthony providentially got on board again, but without oars or any thing by which he could be enabled to manage the boat:—His alarming situation, however, had been observed by Mr. Reed from the beach, who, together with the Messrs. Mills', proceeded immediately in a Pilot Boat for his relief. They succeeded in saving Anthony, after he had been nearly an hour exposed to the dangers of a merciless element.

Mr. Mabee has been long and justly esteemed as an active and enterprising man in his line of life.—He has left a Widow and six children to lament the untimely fate of an industrious husband and father.

MIRAMICHI, May 6.—The Caledonian Hotel, owned by Mr. J. M'Lauchlan, and a small House, the property of D. M'Donald, at Nelson, were totally consumed by fire on Saturday last.—The fire originated in the latter building owing to the carelessness of servants, and had it not been for the timely assistance of the inhabitants of Newcastle, who crossed the River with their engine, the loss of property, no doubt, would have been greater, as the buildings destroyed were situated in the heart of the settlement. We are happy to say that the greater part of Mr. M'Laughlan's furniture, working utensils, &c. were saved, and that he had a sum insured with the Ætna Insurance Company.—Mercury.

From the Eastport Sentinel.

Ship Echo, Mellen, of London, from Liverpool for St. John, went ashore last night, in the gale, at Bootman's head, 4 miles west of Quoddy Light, and will probably be totally lost. Crew, and 23 passengers saved. Had an assorted cargo which will be lost.

May 23.—Since the above was in type, we have learnt the following additional particulars.—The ship went ashore about ten o'clock, and the land was not discovered, it being very dark, till the moment the vessel struck. The crew and passengers immediately took to the boats, one of which, in a short time, succeeded in getting ashore, the other with the Captain, one woman and child, and six men did not reach the shore till about six o'clock in the morning, which gave rise to the report circulated that a number were lost. She was loaded with salt, chain cables, crates of ware, dry goods, pipes of brandy, gin, wine, &c. About 30 pipes, with a number of packages of goods, have been saved, though in a damaged state as the vessel has gone entirely to pieces. We understand that the most of the cargo belonged to Mr. Geo. Thomson, of St. John. The U.S. Revenue Cutters went to their assistance as soon as the news of the disaster was known.

Miramichi, May 13.—Captain Barkier of the bark Centurion, states that the ship Superb, Captain Keam, from Bristol, bound to Quebec, struck a piece of ice the 23d ult, on the banks of Newfoundland, and was stove in. The Captain and two of the men boarded a schooner the following day, and seven of the crew got on board the pinnace, which was hoisted out for the purpose of saving the crew, and it is supposed the painter broke, as she drifted from the ship, and having no provision on board, or any thing to work her, it is expected they soon perished. The remainder of the crew, eleven in number, were taken off the wreck by the brig Dianna, Capt. Lookup, bound to Bay de Chaleur, three of whom Capt. B. took from the Dianna, and are now in Miramichi.—Mercury.
