EDUCATION. MR. JENKINS, (Master of Queen's County Grammar School) begs to acquaint the public, that his new house is ready for the reception of Boarders, in the construction of which no pains have been spared to render it a suitable residence for respectable boys; and to add to the domestic comforts of the young gentlemen already under his care.

The healthy, retired, and central situation of Gage-Town, together with the constant facility of communication which it affords at all seasons; are advantages not to be overlooked by those who wish to preserve the morals of their children, untainted, and to remove them from the vices, and incentives to idleness, which are to be met with in most towns.

It is painful to Mr. J. to reflect, that notwithstanding the conscientious discharge of his duty, both as the Master of a Boarding and Day School; he could not escape censure; and that false reports concerning his treatment of Boarders, have been circulated in a way, which he did not think worthy of notice; until convinced that they began to affect his interests.

He now feels himself imperatively called on to stand forth in his own defence; which he does with all the confidence that conscious rectitude inspires, and does not hesitate to call the charges foul calumnies, made up of glaring falsehoods and gross exaggerations.

To R. M. JARVIS, Esq. and Mr. L. H. DEVEBER he feels much indebted, for their friendly and judicious conduct in suspending their judgment, until they had made an impartial and dispassionate enquiry.

The result of which was, that they authorised Mr. J. to say, that the continuance of their children under his care, was the strongest assurance they could give of their satisfaction, and that reference might be made to them in any case, where parents hesitated to commit their children to Mr. J.'s charge, in consequence of the idle rumours in circulation. Gage-Town, July 12, 1829.
