COMMUNICATION.

(FOR THE COURIER.)

Mr. CHUBB,—I was in great hopes that some account would have appeared in the Royal Gazette, of a Public Dinner, given by the Inhabitants of the Province of New-Brunswick, on the 9th of February, at the Seat of Government; it being the most splendid, and the most numerously attended, of any one ever given in this Province. Some of the most patriotic and loyal Toasts that could be proposed, were given on the occasion.—Among which I will beg the favor of you to record one or two, (which I partly recollect) in your useful paper.—When that of "Colonel Creagh, and the brave 81st" was proposed, Capt. Estrage very politely rose, (the gallant Lieut.-Colonel being absent,) and thanked the Company on behalf of his Colonel, in a very elegant and impressive Speech, expressing the high obligation he was under to the Company, for the Honor they had conferred on the regiment, in drinking their health on that occasion, and said, that as the 81st "had crossed bayonets with the French Soldiers "at the memorable Battle of Maida, they would "be equally ready and glad to do so again in de-"fence of the Loyal Inhabitants of this fine Pro-"vince, if ever occasion should require it."

The following Toasts were afterwards given by a half pay Officer, who was one of the earliest settlers in the Province,—"The glorious remnant of Officers, (now in the Province of New-Brunswick) who were placed on half-pay in the year 1783." And, "the surviving non-commissioned Officers and Privates of thirteen Provincial Regiments, who were disbanded on the River St. John, in the same year." He then, in addressing the President, with some animated observations, explained the manner in which the "American Loyalists were driven from their parental fields, their sweet homes, and native country—the privations and great hardships which they endured for their unconquerable attachment to their King and Constitution"; and proceeded, with some interruption, (for "the night was far spent") to say, "that it was owing altogether to those Loyal characters, and their descendants, (a great number of whom he beheld surrounding this board,) together with the disbandment of a great number of Officers and Soldiers, on the rude shores of St. John, that this fine Country owed its flourishing state;" and in addressing himself to the Officers present, he said, "Figure to yourselves, young Gentlemen, thirteen regiments, who had lately been fighting for their King and Country, cast upon the barren shores, where the City of St. John now stands, all gaily dressed, in British Uniform, with plumes and feathers in their caps, waving over their shoulders;" and he concluded with a beautiful metaphor, happily expressed, and delivered with much energy, "That had it not been for the above event, this Country, now covered with rich fields, and beautiful meadows, where herds and flocks graze, would have been the habitation of savages, and prowling wild beasts; and the walls of this splendid edifice would now have lain buried in the bowels of the earth; and that proud Forum, where Senators now debate, and Lawyers wrangle, would have been living trees, standing in the Forest of New-Brunswick."

The Weather during last week has been variable, but generally mild—several falls of snow have added to the depth of it, previously on the ground—should a sudden thaw take place, both the streets and houses of the city will be rendered uncomfortable.

The English Mail for January arrived at the Post-Office last evening. Dates, are only to the 9th—two days latter than our previous advices. By this conveyance, we understand that the expected MANDAMUS for the appointment of the Honorable WILLIAM BLACK, to the Presidency of the Province, in the absence of the Lieutenant Governor, has been received.

By reference to an article copied from the Jamaica Courant, it will be seen that a belief exists that Sir JOHN KEANE, at present Lieutenant-Governor of that place, has been appointed Lieutenant-Governor of this Province. As the despatches by the Mail could not be opened until they reached Fredericton, it is not as yet known whether Sir HOWARD DOUGLAS has had any intimation of the above appointment, and whether the whole is not barely a report without foundation.

The Legislature of Nova-Scotia.—In another part of this Paper will be found a copy of a Letter from Mr. BARRY, Member of Assembly for Shelburne, to his Constituents, on the event of his being, by a vote of the House of Assembly, rendered unable to serve them in his Legislative capacity;—also the remarks of the Free Press, on the subject.—Reference to these are sufficient to put our readers in possession of the circumstances connected with the affair.

We do not notice this circumstance as a matter in which the Province of Nova-Scotia is alone concerned;—the Colonies, generally, have an interest in the question to which it has given rise; because it is not impossible, that similar occurrences may take place in any of them.

The House of Assembly of Nova-Scotia has in this instance acted improperly, unreasonably, and unconstitutionally, if a regard to the interests of the Province, and the following of the practice or precedents of the House of Commons, are to guide the Public in forming an opinion on the subject.—By the step the House has taken, Mr. Barry's Constituents are deprived of his services, while at the same time, they have not the power of electing another to attend to their interests in his room;—His seat is not vacated, and therefore cannot be filled by another:—Whatever, therefore, may have been the feelings of the House towards Mr. Barry, personally, either with regard to Mr. Gough's Petition, or that of any other persons, a due regard ought to have been had for the interests of those who sent him there to represent them.

The misunderstanding which took place in the House of Commons, between Mr. Brougham and Mr. Canning, when the former charged the latter, though Premier, with "political tergiversation," is a case nearly in point.—The discussion of the matter took place, to be sure, with cleared Galleries and shut doors; but neither of the parties were excluded from hearing the discussions. Each had offended the other. But, according to an established rule, the House were determined that the matter should be made up before an adjournment took place,—and the thing was thus settled immediately.—Instead therefore, of framing an apology in Mr. Barry's absence, for him to make, upon coming into the House, an opportunity ought to have been afforded him of giving such explanation as might have, in all probability, prevented the excitement of feelings of animosity, and left the Township of Shelburne, their just representation in the Legislature of the Province.

Extract from a letter received by the Secretary of the New-Brunswick Auxiliary Bible Society, from the Rev. A. BRANDNAM, one of the Secretaries of the Parent Society—dated 1st Jan. 1829.

"You will be glad to hear that at home all continues to be well: friends, funds, and distributions are all increasing. Among the accessions to our friends I may mention the name of our new Bishop of Chester, who has lately been advanced to the Bench, and who, having been an old friend of the Society, has become one of the Vice-Presidents. His Lordship is brother to the Bishop of Winchester. It is a singular circumstance in our Eccle-iastical circles, to have two brothers on the Bench at the same time—and not a little gratifying to the Society, that they are both, as they have long been, firm friends."

NEHEMIAH MERRITT, Esq. has been appointed by the Common Council, one of the Port Wardens, of this Port.

(From the N. B. Royal Gazette.)

KINGSTON, (JAM.) FEBRUARY 12.

We understand from good authority that Sir John Keane has been appointed Lieut. Governor of New-Brunswick, in the room of Sir Howard Douglas, who has returned to England to prepare for his Mission to St. Petersburgh on the subject of the disputed Boundary Line between New-Brunswick and the United States.—Courant.
