DIED.
At Amherst, (N. S.) on Sunday the 6th inst. JAMES KERR, Esq. in the 76th year of his age. Colonel KERR was a native of Dunfriesshire, and served as a Captain in the Queen's Rangers, on the continent of America, during the whole of the Revolutionary War, during which he was distinguished by repeated acts of bravery, and by the friendship and confidence of the highest officers in that service. He subsequently settled in King's County, Nova-Scotia, where he was appointed a Colonel of the Militia, and where his memory will long be cherished with the greatest respect. He lost three sons and one daughter, and has left a wife and twelve children, and a large number of grand children, to mourn the loss of an affectionate parent.

At Shelburne, on the 30th ult. Robert Bingay, Esq.

At Newport, on Wednesday the 3d inst. in the 90th year of his age, Mrs. Elizabeth Whidden, relict of the late J. Whidden, Esq. of Cornwallis.

In April last, at Teignmouth, (England), Mrs. Anna Desbriay, relict of the late Major-General Desbriay, of the Royal Artillery.
