ceive their sentence.—If found against them, of which there is no doubt, they will be executed. They were a short time since convicted of Grand Larceny at King's County, upon which occasion benefit of Clergy was allowed them, and the simple fact of their identity alone remains to be established. This can and will be done. The time appointed for this purpose is the Monday preceding the sitting of the Circuit Court in August next.—His Honor recognized the Prisoners at once, but could not take judicial notice of it.

Robert Lee and Henry Payne.—These individuals were indicted for Grand Larceny, in breaking the store of Messrs Edward & Joseph Wilson. —Lee and Payne are two liberated convicts, from the Island of Bermuda, who in a very short time after their arrival here committed the above mentioned offence, and were introduced into our County Goal.—We have good grounds for complaint, and do complain that convicts from Bermuda (who if they are not adepts in the art of roguery, when first sent to that Island, after leaving such a well regulated boarding school, must be considered perfect masters of their art,) should be let loose amongst us, without means to support themselves, and without character to induce others to employ them. Each of these persons were sentenced to six months imprisonment, to be kept during the time at hard labour, and on the three last days of their imprisonment, to receive on the naked back 39 lashes each day.

William Holland was convicted of a Petit Larceny, for stealing a Camp Kettle from —— Scott, of Pennfield, and was sentenced to receive 39 lashes on the naked back, on Monday the 7th June, and be forthwith discharged.—The sentence was yesterday carried into execution.

Abraham Dane.—This is another liberated Convict from Bermuda. He was convicted of stealing a Watch from a person residing at the Ledge, St. Stephen, and sentenced to receive on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, the 8th, 9th, and 10th day of June instant, 39 lashes on the naked back, on each day respectively, and to be discharged.

James Anderson.—This is a youth between 15 and 16 years of age, who in company with another, Richard Austin, junior, still younger, were charged with an assault with an intent to commit a Rape upon a young girl residing in this Parish. The bold and reckless behaviour of the two youths, unhappily gave no promise of reformation, and unless the present punishment shall be productive of a salutary change, we fear their future career will be coloured with deeper shades of depravity than those which marked their late conduct. The Parents of these lads are greatly to blame. It is said that the Father of young Austin commended the conduct of his son in this disgraceful transaction. Parents should remember that they are charged with an awful responsibility, that the usefulness and good conduct of children throughout life—we might almost say, their eternal happiness or misery, in most instances depend in a great degree, upon early impressions of morality and religion. A neglected education and a disregard of religious duties, blunt the moral perceptions, and the mind instead of producing the fruits of virtue, engenders nothing but the rank weeds of sin. Anderson was found guilty of an Assault with intent to commit a Rape, and Austin was convicted of a common assault only: the former was sentenced to stand in the Pillory on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, for one hour on each day successively, and to pay a fine of £10 and stand committed till the fine be paid. Austin was sentenced to one month's imprisonment, to pay a fine of £5 and to remain in custody till it be discharged. The pecuniary part of the sentence was intended to fall upon the Parents as a punishment for their neglect and inattention to their children.

Alexander Moffat.—Moffat was indicted for stabbing James Price, with an intention to murder him.—This offence by our laws is capital. He was acquitted, but we regret that the indictment contained no count for a common assault; if there had been one, he would most certainly have been convicted upon it, and the court would then have had it in their power to punish him.

—— Simpson was indicted for stabbing a person named Goudy, with intent to murder him. He was also acquitted.

James Chandley was indicted for Manslaughter, in killing one David Harley, by pushing him over a wharf, but was acquitted, there was no evidence of malice whatever, indeed, the absence of malice was distinctly proved.—Chandley appears to be a man of a remarkably mild and peaceable disposition, and the death of Harley was solely attributable to his own imprudent conduct.

GRAND MANAN.—This Island so interesting and important, but so far detached from the rest of the County, seems not to get its due share of advantages from Provincial Grants.—An attempt was made to establish the Church of England there, but an improper person was sent as the Minister, who did much more injury to the cause than good. Education we are informed does not in general meet that encouragement that its vast importance demands. It is with pleasure, however, we learn that in the middle district of the Island, a meeting was lately called to take into consideration the promotion of good order by establishing a school, and a sum adequte to the building of a school-house was raised. At that time the timber of which the frame was to be made, was growing in the woods, but in six weeks a house was erected, sufficiently large to contain one hundred scholars, lathed, plastered and glazed, and on the 17th ult., the school went into full operation, and so punctually were the subscriptions paid and faithfully applied for the purpose intended, that not exceeding £3 of the cost was left unsatisfied, and this too in a district unaided by any official person whatever. Such an act is not only worthy of imitation on that Island, but in every county in the Province. We sincerely hope that the rising generation will derive every advantage intended by the spirited and praiseworthy founders of the seminary.

MARRIED,

On Monday evening, by the Rev. B. G. Gray, Rector of the Parish, Mr. THOMAS THOMSON, to Miss MARIA DEAN, all of this City.

In St John's Church, on Wednesday morning, by the Rev. Rector of the Parish, Mr. MICHAEL HENNIGAR, to MARY ANN, eldest daughter of Mr. Elijah Hunt, of this City.

At Fredericton, on the 3d instant, by the Rev. George M'Cawley, Mr. JAMES NISBET, to Miss JANET PATTON, both of that place.

At Clements, N. S. on Thursday the 3d inst. by the Rev. J. MILLIDGE, Mr. JESSE WARNE, of Grand Joggin, to Miss SARAH ANN BALCOMB, of the former place.

DIED,

In Eastport, suddenly, Mr. NATHAN LUNT, aged 72 years.

At Halifax, on the 31st ult. the Hon. STEDMAN RAWLINS, a member of H. M. Council of the Island of St. Christopher, where he was much respected. He had recently come to this country in the hope of restoring his constitution, debilitated by a long residence in the West Indies.

At the Island of Ascension, on the 30th January, in command of the Black Joke, Lieutenant Edward B. Pim. This truly meritorious officer was twenty-two years in his Majesty's service, during which period he was in eleven engagements, was twice wounded, and had his leg fractured; he was once knocked overboard by a blow from a handspike, while leading on a party to board a Portuguese slave ship; was taken up as a spy, and continued three days in a dungeon with the almost hourly threat of being hanged; was once much injured in saving the Chaplain Establishment from fire; and by jumping overboard, at several times, had the good fortune to save the lives of one Lieutenant, two seamen, and one marine.

The Brig Kelton, Capt Reaveley, from Dublin, for this port, with 175 passengers, went ashore at Cape La Bear, near Liverpool, (N. S.) early on the morning of the 31st ult. and soon afterwards became a total wreck. A boat having been lowered, the first and second mate, a seaman, and ten passengers, imprudently jumped into her, when she immediately swamped alongside, and as no assistance could be rendered, the unfortunate people were all drowned. The remainder of the crew and passengers succeeded in getting safely on shore and in saving the greater part of their baggage. ---Some of the passengers who arrived in town yesterday morning, via Digby, complain of having been robbed of a part of their property which they had only a short time before rescued from the wreck, but whether the depredations were committed by fellow passengers, or the inhabitants of the place, our informant would not undertake to say.

A mercantile correspondent of Messrs R. Rankin & Co. of this place, writes from Miramichi, that no fewer than five crews of vessels abandoned at sea had been brought into this port. Among the vessels which have suffered, is the Mearns, belonging to Messrs. Rankin & Co.—she was dismasted in a heavy gale on the Eastern edge of the Banks of Newfoundland, and on the 12th ul. was abandoned by the crew, who (with the exception of two boys taken to Miramichi, and, two men drowned,) have gone to Quebec.

Destruction of the ship Boston, at sea, by fire. —It has become our painful duty to record the loss of the ship Boston, belonging to the Boston and Liverpool Packet Company. The Brig Camilla, Capt. Edes, which arrived at this Port from Amsterdam, yesterday, fell in with Brig Idas, from Demerara for Halifax, having on board the officers and crew of the Boston, Capt. Mackay, from Charleston for Liverpool.

Capt. M. has placed in the Merchants' Hall a statement of the particulars of this deplorable disaster, from which we extract the following:

The Boston sailed from Charleston, May 18.—From the 20th to the 25th, with little intermission, there were heavy squalls, thunder and lightning, in which the masts and spars were much injured. On Tuesday, the 25th, in latitude 39 31, longitude 63 46, in the afternoon, a very black cloud came up from the S. W. and the ship was struck by lightning, which knocked down the Steward, and Isaac Hopkins, seaman, and filled the ship with electric fluid. Two "complaisants" were seen on the tops of two of the masts. Soon after, the ship was found to be on fire, the fluid having passed into the hold, and communicated to the cotton. The scuppers were closed, and the passengers and crew applied themselves with the utmost perseverance to putting out the fire, cutting holes in the deck to admit the water.

All attempts to extinguish the fire proved to be unavailing, as it spread among the cotton like tinder, the boats were got out, and the officers, passengers and crew, had barely time to save themselves before the ship was in a complete blaze—had not time to save the clothing, watches or provisions, except a small quantity of the latter, and about 40 gallons of water. On the following day, Miss Boag, the only female passenger, died from fatigue and exposure. The cabin passengers were Admiral Sir Isaac Coffin, servant; Dr. William Boag and sister, (Miss Ansella Boag, above mentioned) Messrs Neil M'Neil and Saml S. Osgood. On 27th, were taken up by the Idas, and on 30th, were transferred to the Camilla.

Miss Boag, whose death is announced above, is stated to have been a most exemplary young lady. To leave a burning ship at midnight, and to take a boat upon the roaring ocean, the pitchy darkness relieved only by flashes of lightning, and the rain decending in torrents upon her unsheltered head, must necessarily have proved too much for one so tenderly nurtured, and indeed it may be a subject of great wonder, that those who were inured to hardship, should have survived. Before leaving the burning ship, the coolness of Miss B. was manifested in the highest degree; and when her sufferings were approaching their termination, she resigned herself calmly to the will of God, and died with a blessing for her brother and suffering friends, upon her lips. On the next morning, Wednesday, her body, the situation of the sufferers not permitting it to be longer kept on board, was committed to the deep, and the burial service of the Church of England read. At 3 o'clock, P. M. on Thursday a few hours after this melancholy duty was performed, the Idas picked up the sufferers, and treated them with the utmost kindness and attention; from which vessel, as above stated, they were removed on the 30th to the Camilla.

The Boston was valued originally at $36,000, on which amount she was at first insured. The first policy having expired, not long since, she was insured on $20,000; $10,000 of the sum was insured at the Colombian office and $10,000 at the New-England office in this city. None of the cargo, we are informed, was shipped on account of the company. It is believed to have been on English or Charleston account. It consisted in whole or principally of cotton.—Boston Patriot.

CHEMICAL

Embrocation

OR, WHITWELL'S ORIGINAL OPODELDOC; For Bruises, Sprains, Cramp, Numbness, Stiffness of the Neck or Limbs, Chilblains, Chapped Hands or Frozen Feet, Stings of Insects or Vegetable Poison.

THIS superior article is in the liquid form; one bottle of which is warranted to contain more than double the strength and efficacy of the old fashioned hard kind; it has performed some most astonishing cures in cases where Steer's Opodeldoc had completely failed. (See certificates attached to the directions.) It is particularly recommended by Dr. MITCHELL, the most eminent Professor of Physic and Chemistry in the College of Physicians in the city of New-York. Under such encouraging auspices, in a reading and reflecting community, there could, it is hoped, be found but few persons (having occasion for its use) who would hesitate to give it a fair trial; but like all celebrated compositions, the public are liable to be abused by imitations, therefore be sure that Whitwell's original Opodeldoc is stamped on each bottle, price 2s. 6d. each. —ALSO—

Whitwell's Grand Cordial Stomachic Detergent Bitters.

They strengthen the stomach, procure an appetite and assist digestion; they expel wind, procure a sweetness of breath, remove costiveness, and are the best medicine which can be used in the yellow Jaundice, and as they possess the peculiar property of destroying the bad effects of ardent spirits, when taken upon an empty stomach, are peculiarly calculated for taverns and licensed retailers.—Price 9d. each paper.

As an aid for the good effects of those Bitters, recourse should occasionally be had to JARVIS' PILLS. This most excellent medicine is not only useful in the above complaints, but also in dizziness, pains in the head, side or chest, dyspepsia, rheumatism, dysentery, slow fever, female complaints, worms, and in all cases where purging is necessary, they are always unattended with griping or subsequent costiveness, which is often the case with other Pills. (Price 1s. 6d. each box.)—Also for sale, the Boston Infirmary Itch Ointment, Lee's Pills, the celebrated Aromatic Snuff, for Head ache and Catarrh.—The above can always be obtained of Dr. WALKER, Agent for the Proprietor in this City. St. John, June 12, 1830.
