

ends a year, and often prevent lumber-men from total ruin, which sometimes ensues from the breaking up and destruction of valuable rafts. Independent of the safety of such a measure, the saving from dispatch, of provisions and wages, must be immense. It is supposed the cost of the boat will be about £5000—half of which amount is already subscribed, and the remainder, no doubt, will be immediately taken up.

York, (U. C.) August 5.—The crops throughout the country are said never to have been better than the present season. The wheat harvest is now drawing to a close in this vicinity, and the weather thus far has been rather favourable, with the exception of a few occasional showers.

BY AUTHORITY.

His Honor the President having received by the English July Mail (which arrived here late on Saturday evening), Official accounts of the demise of his late Majesty, of blessed and glorious memory, and of the accession of his present Majesty KING WILLIAM THE FOURTH, to the Imperial Crown of the United Kingdom of Great-Britain and Ireland, and the dominions thereunto belonging—directors were immediately given, by His Honor the President, for the proclaiming of the King, with the requisite solemnities and ceremonies. Preparatory thereto, at 10 o'clock this morning, minute guns commenced firing from the Artillery Park (and continued firing for two hours,) the Church bell tolling the whole of the time, in honour of the memory of our late most gracious and dearly beloved Sovereign.
At 12 o'clock, His Honor the President went in state to the Province Hall, where the troops in garrison were paraded, and then stated that it was his duty to communicate to those present, a dispatch which he had received from the Right Honourable Sir George Murray, one of His Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, announcing the demise of his Most Gracious Majesty George the Fourth, and the accession to the throne of William the Fourth. The Dispatch was then by His Honor's command, read by the Honourable Secretary of the Province. After the reading of His late Majesty's Council had taken the oaths of Fidelity to His present Majesty, and the like Oaths were administered to His Honor the President, His Honor took his seat in Council, in presence of a large assembly of the Magistrates, Clergy, and Officers of Government, Civil and Military, and of the principal Inhabitants of the Town and vicinity; when the following Proclamation was then read:

PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it has pleased ALMIGHTY GOD to call to his mercy our late Sovereign Lord King GEORGE THE FOURTH, of blessed and glorious memory, by whose demise the Imperial Crown of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and all other his late Majesty's Dominions, is solely and rightfully come to the High and Mighty Prince William Henry, Duke of Clarence and St. Andrews, and Earl of Munster:— We the President and Commander-in-Chief, and the Members of His late Majesty's Council, the Judges and principal Officers of his said late Majesty's Government of this Province and numbers of others, Magistrates and principal Inhabitants, being here assembled, therefore do now hereby with one full voice and consent of tongue and heart, publish and proclaim that the High and Mighty Prince William Henry, Duke of Clarence and St. Andrews, and Earl of Munster, is now, by the death of our late Sovereign of happy and glorious memory, become our only lawful and rightful liege LORD WILLIAM THE FOURTH, by the Grace of God, King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, and Supreme Lord, &c. of this Province of New-Brunswick, to whom we do acknowledge all Faith and constant obedience, with all hearty and humble affection, beseeching God, by whom Kings and Queens do reign, to bless the Royal Prince William the Fourth, with long and happy years to reign over us.

Given at Fredericton, this 23d day of August, in the Year of our Lord 1830.
GOD SAVE THE KING!

After which it was immediately signed by the President, the Members of His Majesty's Council, Colonels Norcott, Commandant, the Principal Officers of the Militia, the Magistrates, Clergy and other Officers, Civil and Military, and a great number of the Inhabitants. His Honor then advanced to the Portico of the Hall, where the Herald at Arms, standing upon His Honor's Right, proclaimed His present Majesty—all uncovered—the Troops presenting Arms—and Music playing the National Air of "God save the King," under a Royal Salute from the Royal Artillery Park—Colours hoisted. The Herald, then, mounted on horseback, and accompanied by the Sheriff, Coroner, Attorney-General and Secretary of the Province, together with the Officers of the York Cavalry, Artillery, Rifle Company and other Military, proceeded to different parts of the Town, where the Proclamation was again read—the troops presenting arms, and the rest of the Procession uncovered.

By the Honourable WILLIAM BLACK, President, and Commander-in-Chief of the Province of New-Brunswick, &c. &c. &c.
W. BLACK.

A PROCLAMATION.
Requiring all Persons being in Office of Authority or Government at the decease of the late King, to proceed in the execution of their respective Offices.

WHEREAS by an Act made in the Sixth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty Queen Ann, intituled, An Act for the security of His Majesty's Person and Government, and of the Succession to the Crown of Great-Britain, in the Protestant line, it was enacted, that no Office, Place or Employment, Civil or Military, within the Kingdoms of Great Britain or Ireland, Dominion of Wales, Town of Berwick upon Tweed, Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney and Sark, or any of His Majesty's Plantations, should become void by reason of the demise of His said late Majesty, or his heirs or successors, Kings or Queens of this Realm, but that every person and persons in any of the Offices, Places and Employments aforesaid, should continue in their respective offices, places and employments, for the space of Six Months, next after such death or demise, unless sooner removed and discharged, by the next Successor, to whom the Imperial Crown of this Realm was limited and appointed to go, remain and descend: And whereas by an Act, made in the fifty seventh year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third intituled, An Act for the continuance of all and every Person or Persons, in any and every Office, place or employment, civil or military, within the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Dominion of Wales, Town of Berwick upon Tweed, Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark and Man, and also, in all and every of His Majesty's Foreign Possessions, Colonies, or Plantations, which he or she shall hold, possess or exercise, during the pleasure of the Crown, at the time of the death or demise of his present Majesty, until removed or discharged therefrom by the succeeding King or Queen of this Realm, it was enacted, that all and every person and persons, upon the death of the demise, of His said late Majesty, should hold any Office, Civil or Military, under the Crown, during pleasure, should, under and by virtue of the said Act, and without any new or other Patent, Commission, Warrant or Authority, continue, and be entitled, in all respects, notwithstanding the demise of His said Majesty, to hold and enjoy the same: But nevertheless the same should be held or enjoyed only during the pleasure of the King or Queen, who should succeed to the Crown upon the demise of his said late Majesty; and the right and title to hold and enjoy the same, under the authority of the said Act, should be determinable, in such and the like manner, by the King or Queen, who upon the demise of His said late Majesty, should succeed to the Crown, as the Right or Title to any office, place or employment, granted by such succeeding King or Queen, during pleasure, would by Law be determinable: I therefore, with the advice of His Majesty's Council, declare His Majesty's Royal will and pleasure to be, and do hereby direct and command, that all and every person and persons, who, at the time of the Demise of His said late Majesty, of Glorious Memory, duly and lawfully held, or were duly and lawfully possessed of, or invested in, any Office, place or employment, civil or military, within this Province, do, severally, according to their places, offices or charges, proceed in the performance and execution of all duties belonging to their respective Offices, whilst they shall hold the same respectively, during His Majesty's pleasure; And I do hereby require and command all His Majesty's Subjects to be aiding, helping and assisting at the Commandment of the said Officers and Ministers, in the performance and execution of their respective Offices and places, as they and every of them tender His Majesty's utmost displeasure, and will answer the contrary at their peril.

Given under my Hand and Seal, at Fredericton, the twenty-third day of August, in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and thirty, and in the first year of His Majesty's reign.
JOHN SIMCOE SAUNDERS,
Acting Secretary.

By Command,
JOHN SIMCOE SAUNDERS,
Acting Secretary.

On Thursday the 19th, the Lord Bishop of the Diocese, held a Visitation of the Clergy of the Archdeaconry of New-Brunswick, in Christ Church, Fredericton. There were present the Archdeacon and twenty-two clergymen. After the Morning Service, which was read by the Archdeacon, his Lordship, from the Pulpit delivered a Charge to the Assembled Clergy. The sentiments contained in this truly pastoral admonition, must have been pleasing to serious and good men, of all denominations, who heard it, and peculiarly fitted to make a deep and lasting impression upon the minds of those to whom it was particularly addressed. We may justly say, that this charge was distinguished for fervent and well-regulated piety, for paternal affection, sound and practical sense, and elegance of language. Happy will that Clergyman be who shall make it his chief study, and most earnest endeavor, to follow the counsels here so affectionately given to him. He will thus be enabled to make full proof of his Ministry, and, by the blessing of God, save not only himself but be instrumental also in the salvation of others.
We are happy to learn that His Lordship has consented to publish this Charge, at the earnest request of the Archdeacon and Clergy.

To His Honor, WILLIAM BLACK, D. C. L. President and Commander-in-Chief, in and over His Majesty's Province of New-Brunswick.

The Address of the Bishop of the Diocese, and the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Province.

May it please your Honor, The Bishop of the Diocese and Clergy of the Province of New-Brunswick, embrace the opportunity of being assembled at the Seat of Government, to present to your Honor their united sentiments of respect and esteem.

Whilst in common with His Majesty's other subjects in this Province, we look forward to great advantages to the Country at large, from your Honor's judicious administration,—as Ministers of the Established Church, we congratulate ourselves and our respective flocks, that it has pleased His Majesty to appoint to a station of so high importance and extensive influence, a Gentleman whose religious principles, well known attachment to, and communication and exemplary attention to our public administration, inspire and fill with well-grounded confidence, that every faithful countenance and support will at all times be extended to us.

Permit us, in conclusion, to offer your Honor, our sincere good wishes, and to assure you of our earnest prayers for the health and happiness of yourself and family.

Signed on behalf of the Bishop, Archdeacon and Clergy. JOHN NOVA-SCOTIA.
Dated at Fredericton, N. B., 19th August, 1830.

On behalf of the Clergy of the Archdeaconry of New-Brunswick.

To the Honourable and Right Reverend Father in God, JOHN, LORD BISHOP OF NOVA-SCOTIA, the Venerable Archdeacon and the Reverend Clergy of New-Brunswick.

My Lord, Venerable Sir and Reverend Gentlemen, The Address of so distinguished a body as the Bishop and Clergy of this Province cannot but afford me high and unfeigned satisfaction.

If, in my humble but earnest endeavours to discharge the momentous duties of my present station, I shall be so fortunate as to retain your favourable opinion and approbation, it will prove to me a source of lasting gratification and comfort. But I must fear you entertain an expectation too flattering, advantages to be derived from my temporary administration of the Government.

I contemplate with sincere delight the growing prosperity, in this infant colony, of that pure and Apostolic Church to which I have the happiness to belong. And you may rely, my Lord and Reverend Gentlemen, on my earnest exertions, as it is my bounden duty, at all times, when in my power, cheerfully to contribute towards her welfare; and I feel confident that, while Divine Providence continues to bless us with a Diocesan of such distinguished talents, piety, and zeal truly according to knowledge, and aided by the diligent co-operation of his Clergy, the Church cannot but prosper.

I feel most thankfully the kind conclusion of your Address, in behalf of myself and family; and beg leave, my Lord and Reverend Gentlemen, to wish you all happiness and success in the discharge of your Ministry. WILLIAM BLACK.

Government House, Fredericton, August 19, 1830.

To the Honourable and Right Reverend Father in God, JOHN, by Divine permission, Lord Bishop of Nova-Scotia, exercising Episcopal Jurisdiction in and over the Province of New-Brunswick.

My Lord,
We the Archdeacon and Clergy of the Province of New-Brunswick, beg leave to express the satisfaction we feel at seeing your Lordship again among us in the performance of your Episcopal functions, and in the enjoyment of such a measure of health, as enables you to support the fatigues of so arduous an employment.

We consider this as an additional proof of your Lordship's zeal in promoting the spiritual interests of the people, and the more enlarged usefulness of the Clergy of this Province,—for which we acknowledge ourselves bound to return our sincere thanks to your Lordship; and to offer our united and fervent prayers to the throne of Grace, to bless and prosper all your undertakings for your comfort in this world, and your endless felicity in that which is to come.

Signed in behalf of myself and the Clergy, by me, GEORGE COSTER, Archdeacon.
Dated at Fredericton,
19th August, 1830.

MY REVEREND BROTHER, I beg you to be assured of my sincere thanks for your affectionate expression of satisfaction, that it has pleased God to enable me to be among you at the present time.

Nothing can be more dear to me than the welfare and usefulness of my Clergy;—nothing more encouraging to my humble exertions, than their readiness to co-operate with me in my endeavors to extend their usefulness,—and nothing can call forth more ardent gratitude to the giver of all good than his blessing upon these, our united labors of love.

That such blessing may forever rest upon your labors, and upon your respective flocks, has long been and shall continue to be my daily fervent prayer. JOHN NOVA-SCOTIA.
Fredericton, August 19, 1830.

BOARD & EDUCATION.

FROM the representations of some of the most respectable and experienced residents in St.
John, MRS. BLATCH, (from London), has taken into consideration the expediency of opening an Establishment for the reception of Young Ladies as Boarders, to be in all respects conducted on the plan of the best English Seminaries; and having, from her earliest infancy, been educated for the express purpose of devoting her time to Instruction, Mrs. B. has therefore been induced to adopt the resolution of receiving BOARDERS, and a limited number of Daily Pupils, at her residence in German-street.

At present, but few Boarders can be accommodated, but, should sufficient encouragement be given, the accommodations will be enlarged after the Christmas Vacation; and whenever the duties of the establishment require it, a thoroughly competent Assistant holds herself ready to leave England for St. John on the first intimation.

Having had considerable experience in the best methods of imparting instruction, both in schools and private families of distinction in England, Mrs. B. flatters herself that she will be enabled to give her pupils, not merely a superficial education, but a well-grounded knowledge in all the useful branches, which, combined with such accomplishments as may be required, and a strict attention to manners, deportment, and conversation, will render the useful and agreeable member of genteel society.

TERMS, and all other particulars, may be known by application to Mrs. BLATCH, German-street, St. John, N. B.—It is requested that all letters may be post paid.

The duties of the Seminary will commence on Monday, the 27th of September.

N. B.—Mrs. B. thinks it right to observe, that her present engagements in teaching Music and Drawing, will not be interfered with by this intended establishment, and she will continue to receive private pupils for those accomplishments at her own residence, during such hours as are not otherwise particularly occupied. This arrangement she deems necessary at present, while her design of receiving pupils for general tuition is merely in progress, as it would be by no means advisable to relinquish a certainty for an uncertainty; but, in proportion as either occupation may predominate, she pledges herself to devote her attention peculiarly to that, and to suffer no other engagements to interfere therewith. This line of conduct Mrs. B.'s friends unanimously consider prudent and fair, and she therefore leaves it to those who may favour her with their patronage to decide which avocation shall be her principal care. St. John, August 28, 1830.
