

At St. Stephen, on the 15th instant, in the 49th year of her age, Mrs. M. H. B. ANN, wife of Dr. R. W. Weston, and youngest daughter of the late Rev. Richard Clarke, formerly Rector of St. Stephen.

At Newcastle, (Miramichi), on the 7th inst. Mr. JOHN BURKE, aged 42 years.

In New York, recently, Mr. JOSEPH HARRIS, aged 23 years. Mr. H. was one of those accomplished musicians from Bavaria, whose concert has delighted so many parts of the country. His remarkable bass voice will be long remembered. The deceased, who, with his comrades was exposed to such great peril by the conflagration of the Hotel in Montreal last winter, never recovered from the cold he took on that occasion; and after lingering, with occasional temporary improvement, until now, has sunk at last in a strong and yet not among strangers, for he had made friends; and those, moreover, so long his companions in his beautiful art, were faithful and assiduous to his death bed.
