(mate's brother,) one seaman, a foreigner,—in all, fifteen persons.

For us, his passengers, to give publicity to an eulogium on Capt. Brown, might probably be considered uncalled for—all we shall say is, that we were very happy indeed in having such a guardian. His promptitude in acting, particularly in the above case, and his unwearied solicitude for the comfort and well being of us, and the preservation and further assisting our unfortunate fellow creatures may be equalled, but rarely, if ever excelled.

Signed on behalf of all the passengers.

The whole of the materials for the work therefor described to be of good sound timber of proper and sufficient dimensions. The Bridge when so reconsructed to be closely laid over with good black spruce poles, freed of the bark and flattened on the upper side—18 feet long, and not less than five inches in thickness; and beded on the stringers to show an even surface—and when thus covered throughout the whole extent to be surmounted on both sides with a good and sufficient hand-railing to be well braced.

The contractor will be required to give good and sufficient security for the satisfactory performance of the work within two months from the date before mentioned, and will be likewise bound to furnish a proper and safe mode of conveyance over the river for all passengers, teams, and carriages travelling the line for the short time the bridge must unavoidably be impassible during the progress of the work.

SEIDLITZ POWDERS!
BOOKS AND WHIPS.

Just received, per Lord Goderich, from London:—

THE genuine SEIDLITZ POWDERS.—These Powders, which are prepared from a correct analysis of the Seidlitz Water, are held in the highest estimation for their pucular virtues, in giving relief where Indigestion, Bilious affections, or Heartburn prevail, and when used according to the directions, form an effervescing aperient draught, more agreeable, yet possessing all the medicinal properties of the much esteemed Seidlitz Spring in Germany.

The good effects of this Medicine have been observed by many of the most eminent Physicians and Surgeons, in a variety of cases, particularly in those where the stomach has rejected all other aperient medicines; and it has consequently been found a most useful medicine in Bilious and other diseases incidental to warm climates.

The Preparation being almost tasteless, and its effects certain, it may be given with ease and advantage to children and adults who cannot take Salts in any other form, the fixed air rendering it as refreshing as Soda Water, and more efficacious.

A large and varied supply of Standard and interestingly useful RELIGIOUS PUBLICATIONS, in various bindings; calculated to adorn the splendid Library, or for elegant presents to friends; or in a cheap and popular dress suitable for the Cottage of the Poor.—This addition to the stock on hand makes this Book Establishment a unique of its kind, either in this or the adjoining Province of Nova-Scotia.—(Subscribers for the Commentary will please apply, as the 3d vol. is received.)

PROSPECTUS

OF A WEEKLY PAPER, TO BE ENTITLED
The Christian Reporter,
AND TEMPERANCE ADVOCATE.

THE present era is one marked by the transpiration of events connected with the diffusion of religious knowledge and the establishment of pious habits. Christians of various denominations, awaking from the deep and lethargic slumbers of spiritual supineness into which they had fallen, and for a length of time remained, are now combining their energies, and zealously employing their efforts in the promotion of the present and future happiness of their fellow men. At a period, then, like the present, when so much activity of a beneficial nature is evinced in other portions of the world, it is thought, by many respectable and influential individuals, that the circulation of a Religious and Temperance Paper, throughout the Provinces of New-Brunswick and Nova-Scotia, would add its quota towards the suppression of vice and the advancement of piety. With the desire of contributing, in a greater or less degree, to the securement of an object, so laudable as the one now mentioned, thro' the efficient instrumentality of the Press, the present periodical will be commenced.

The Christian Reporter and Temperance Advocate will be composed of original matter, and Extracts, selected with the greatest possible care from the most approved aathors and standard works, on the subjects of Religion, Temperance, Morals, Arts, Science, Natural and Moral Philosophy, and on any other topic calculated to interest and improve.

To the subject of Temperance, or the total abstinence from the use of ardent spirits, special attention will be paid;—assured, that intemperance presents a most formidable barrier to the extension of religion, and the enjoyments of personal, domestic, and civil well-being, opening an actual floodgate to the overwhelming torrents of misery and vice in all their diversified shades and deplorable characters.

It may be also stated, that an abstract of passing events, or General Intelligence will be given. —The propriety of uniting in a condensed manner, general intelligence, with the more ostensible objects of the Christian Reporter, &c., is so evident as not to require, in the Prospectus, a minute or particular illustration.

Of this the public may rest assured, that every exertion will be used, to render the Christian Reporter and Temperance Advocate worthy of their patronage—embracing in its pages all that variety of subjects which may have a tendency to instruct and benefit them in things relating to their present and future existence.

As there is not, at present, a Provincial Periodical of a precisely similar character, the hope is indulged that the contemplated Paper, of which this is the Prospectus, will be favourably received by the friends of religion and temperance in both of the Provinces, and obtain from them such support as may ensure its establishment, perpetuity and prosperity.

TERMS:—The Christian Reporter and Temperance Advocate will be published Weekly, at the CITY GAZETTE OFFICE, Saint John, in folio form, on an Imperial Sheet, at 12s. 6d. per annum, exclusive of postage; one half payable in advance—the other in six months.—The paper will appear as soon as a sufficient number of subscribers to cover the expense is obtained. All arrearages must be paid before any subscription can be discontinued, except at the discretion of the Editor.

N. B.—A limited number of advertisements, not inconsistent with the avowed principles of the paper, will be admitted.
