IMPORTANT NEWS.

CAPTURE OF DON MIGUEL'S FLEET BY THE SQUADRON UNDER ADMIRAL NAPIER.

(From the Halifax Journal, Aug. 19.)

His Majesty's brig Serpent, Commander Symonds, arrived last evening in 26 days from Portsmouth.—We have just been kindly favored with a perusal of a London paper to the 20th July, and a Portsmouth one of the 24th.—On the 2d July, the squadron of Don Pedro, under the command of Admiral Napier, fell in with that of Don Miguel, consisting of two line of battle ships, two frigates, three corvettes, two brigs, and a Xebec. Don Pedro's squadron consisted of three frigates, one corvette, one brig, and one small schooner. After a severe action, the following vessels belonging to Don Miguel were captured :—Rainha, 90; Don John, 74; Princessa Real, 50; Freitas, store-ship, 48; Princess Corvette, 24; all of which, shortly after, reached Lagos Bay.

Don Pedro's squadron had 20 officers, and 60 men wounded—some severely; Don Miguel's, several captains, and ten other officers, and 120 men killed, and about 200 wounded.

Admiral Napier's share of prize money, on this occasion, it is said, will amount to £5000.

Between 4000 and 5000 of the inhabitants of Algarves had declared in favor of Don Pedro.

His Majesty's cutter Speedy, arrived at Falmouth, brought accounts from Oporto to the 7th July.—An attack was made on the 5th, by the Miguelites, on the French and English lines, between Sardello and Foz, but they were repulsed with considerable loss. The news of Napier's victory had diffused great joy.

Puriche and Abrante, it is said, have declared in favour of Don Pedro.—It is believed, that when the capture of Don Miguel's fleet is known at Lisbon, that that city, and the whole of the southern provinces, up to the Douro, will declare for the Constitutional cause.

Lisbon has been declared in a state of blockade.

" On board the Birmingham steamer, LAGOS, July 2.

" Our squadron was making every preparation, and at 20 minutes to 4 o'clock, p. m. the Admiral hoisted the Royal Standard, &c. and bore down on the enemy, followed by the Don Pedro and Donna Maria, the Portuense and Count Villa brig, a good way astern, owing to their dull sailing. The Admiral's intention was to board the Rainha on the starboard side, the Don Pedro to run up on her larboard side, to board and carry her. Our vessels carrying a stress of sail soon ran down on the enemy : When about musket shot off the Rainha, the storeship and the frigate commenced a very heavy fire on the Rainha de Portugal, and Don Pedro, and also the Don John commenced firing her stern guns, and whole broadsides from the corvettes and brigs to leeward.—Our brave Admiral took no notice of their firing, but ran close down, poured two well-aimed broadsides into the Rainha, and laid the ship alongside and boarded.

Admiral Napier being the first to mount, sword in hand, attired as a common seaman, supported by his officers, notwithstanding a brisk fire of musketry and the cutlasses of the enemy, through which he made his way, after struggling for nearly seven minutes, suspended by the cordage, and having received a blow on the side with an iron bar, when two or three of his officers jumped on board the Rainha, and he followed. The Don Pedro kept firing into the store-ship and Princessa Real, and carried away the store-ship's foretopmast, leaving her forecastle strewed with wreck. The Donna Maria fired several well-aimed broadsides into the Princessa Real frigate. At 4 30 the Don John hoisted sail, and made off; the corvettes and brigs followed their Commodore's example. The Rainha de Portugal sheered from the Rainha to give chase to the Don John, the Don Pedro standing across the Rainha's stern, raking her, and then gave her a broadside on the larboard quarter, when she surrendered, and the Don Pedro made after the Don John. The Donna Maria ran alongside of the Princessa Real frigate, and boarded her. She, however, succeeded in getting away with the Captain and part of the crew of the Donna Maria on board of her. She ran a good way to the N. E. followed by the Donna Maria, who, on passing the store-ship, fired a broad side into her. The Portuense and the Villa Flor engaged the store-ship. At 5 p. m. they hoisted Donna Maria's colours on board the Princessa Real frigate. At this time the Don John was carrying all possible sail, and the Don Pedro and Admiral's ship in chase; the enemies corvettes and two brigs crowding all possible sail, and running to the S. S. W. At 6 p. m. the Don John shortened sail, rounded to, and haul'ed down Don Miguel's colours. The Don Pedro ran up alongside of her on the starboard side, and boarded and secured her. The Admiral's ship fired some shots at the store-ship, when they surrendered and hoisted Donna Maria's colours.

" July 6.—At one a. m. we stood towards a vessel supposing her to be the Portuense, but which proved to be the Princessa Real. We hailed her, when they sung out Viva Donna Maria Segunda, and the Captain then came on board of us, and gave the vessel up. We then went on with our prize to Lagos Bay. at 5 a. m. we took the store-ship in tow, and set on full speed running N. E. for St. Vincent, all our vessels and the five prizes, viz.

Rainha—80 guns,	850 men.
Don John—74,	850
Princessa Real—56,	640
Freitas, or store-ship—48,	580
Princessa corvette—24,	320

Bearing N. N. E. distance about 12 or 14 miles; and at three P. M. the whole of the squadron cast anchor in Lagos Bay.

The second reading of the Church of Ireland Temporalities' Bill has been passed by a majority of 59 in the House of Lords.

Parliament, it is supposed, would not adjourn until the middle of September.

Lord Auckland laid on the table of the House of Peers, July 15, the report of the Commissioners appointed to enquire into the Colonial Revenues.

Sir E. Codrington said, in the House of Commons, July 15, that he had no doubt but by this time the right of Donna Maria was established in Lisbon. (Cheering.)

Ministers have been left in a minority on a motion for the abolition of 'all sinecures, not merited by public service'; also on an amendment in the Factories' Regulation Bill.

Captain Napier's name has been struck out of the list of the Navy.

Captain Napier's Post Commission bears date May 22, 1809.—He is directly descended from the ancient and noble family of Lennox, in Scotland.

Promotion —Commander M. Sweeney, of the Vernon, to be Captain.

It is understood that Government has issued orders for two additional ships of war to be put in immediate readiness for sea, and that they are to proceed to the Tagus, to afford protection to British subjects and their property, in anticipation of a violent struggle between the contending parties.

The Emperors of Russia and Austria, and King of Prussia, are, it is said, to hold a conference shortly in Bohemia, on the affairs of Poland.

A conspiracy against the life of the Emperor of Russia has been discovered in Finland.

Napoleon's statue, without Imperial robes, has been placed in the Place Vendome.

By arrivals from Constantinople, we learn that the preparations for the embarkation of the Russian troops continued.

MARRIED.

At Canning Church, Queen's County, by the Rev. Abraham Wood, Mr. CHARLES A. WIGGINS, to MARY EMILY, second daughter of Mr. William Tilton, of Musquash.

At Carleton, on Saturday evening last, by the Rev. F. Coster, Mr. GEORGE J. CLARKE, to Miss ELIZABETH F. M'LEOD, both of that place.

At Kingston, on Wednesday last, by William M'Leod, Esquire, Mr. HENRY THOMAS BULYEA, of Greenwich, King's County, to Miss ELIZA FRENCH, of Kingston.

DIED.

At his Quarters, in the Barracks, on Sunday morning last, in the 23d year of his age, WILLIAM R. CLEEVE, Esquire, Lieutenant of the Royal Artillery, stationed at this place. His death was occasioned by his having been thrown from his horse on the Friday preceding, as detailed in another part of this paper.—In thus recording his premature and melancholy fate, we cannot but bear testimony to the high character and uniformly honorable and gentlemanly deportment, during his residence among us, by which this amiable, accomplished, and excellent young man had deservedly gained the respect and esteem not only of those who were most intimately acquainted with him, but also of the inhabitants of the city in general, and few young men, we may safely say, have sunk into the tomb so sincerely, universally, and deeply lamented.

His remains were interred on Thursday last with Military honours.

On Wednesday evening, after a short but painful illness, Mr. THOMAS FEAREBAY, an old and respectable inhabitant of this place, aged 73 years.

At Yarmouth, on the 11th instant, MARTHA, wife of Mr. William Harris, in the 97th year of her age.

PROSPECTUS OF THE NEW-BRUNSWICK STANDARD,

And Saint Andrews' Commercial Gazette.

A WEEKLY NEWSPAPER,

To be published in St. Andrews, New-Brunswick.

IN announcing the intended publication of a Newspaper under the above title, it may not be improper to state, that the undertaking is unconnected with any former publication, and will be conducted on liberal principles.

The Editor considers that a Newspaper, to be generally useful here, should be pledged to no party, but present a compendium of the opinions of the best prints on the leading topics of the day, from which a correct judgment might be formed of the various lights in which subjects are viewed by different political parties. This method it is his intention to adopt.

British, Colonial, and Foreign news, the policy and aspect of Courts and Countries, will be industriously collected and faithfully reported.

Passing events will be detailed as early as possible, in order to enable the enquirer to keep pace with the general information of the times.

The affairs of New-Brunswick demand peculiar attention, and will be discussed with firmness and fairness. The vindication of liberty will not be allowed to degenerate into licentiousness; but an undaunted maintainance of political rights will be carried the whole length allowed by the Constitution.

The usual Lists relative to Commerce and Shipping will be carefully compiled; and whatever may be useful to the Farmer, the Lumberer, the Trader, Manufacturer, and Fisherman, will be diligently sought for and inserted.

Polite Literature, a taste for which has been successfully diffused by the periodicals of the day, will occupy a reasonable space in the STANDARD.—And articles of Wit or Humour will occasionally find a place; but it will be the Editor's aim to avoid frivolity, and to adapt even light reading to the improvement of the mind and morals. The flowers of Poesy will be culled with a delicate and sparing hand.

Original Communications will meet with all the encouragement their merits deserve; but detraction, however high its literary claim—attack on private character, however speciously cloaked—vulgarity of language, and any violation of decency, will be promptly rejected.

The strictest attention will be paid to the display of Advertisements, and in order to obviate the possibility of undue favour, it is intended that each continued insertion shall yield in place to that of more recent date.

The Editor refrains from dilating further on his views, being desirous of avoiding such professions and promises as cannot always be strictly observed, or satisfactorily performed.

The Standard, and Saint Andrews' Commercial Gazette, will be printed on a Super-Royal sheet, and published every Tuesday morning.

PRICE.—Fifteen Shillings per annum—payable half yearly in advance.

_ To be published in the beginning of September, 1833—by GEO. N. SMITH.
