paper in the County; but on reaching Saint Andrews, found that the Clerk of the Peace, who was also an Attorney in the cause, had never given the necessary notice. I however found six Magistrates convened, and was informed that a Constable had been sent to give notice to the others—they, however, did not attend. Seeing therefore, that the term of the Supreme Court where the case was to be tried was at hand, I proposed the Resolution in question (seven being present) which passed unanimously.

I am, Mr. Editor, your obedient servant,
TRISTRAM MOORE.

St. David's, Charlotte County, 12th August, 1833.

The Courier.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 31, 1833.

By the ship Kingston, which arrived at Halifax on Sunday last, London papers to the 27th July were received; and by an arrival at Boston from France, dates from Havre are to the 25th.—We have transferred to our columns the principal items of intelligence furnished by these arrivals, which, however, are not of much moment.

The success of Don Pedro's forces in Portugal, excites much interest in England. Ministers, it is stated, were considering the expediency of immediately acknowledging Donna Maria as Queen of Portugal. A motion made by Mr. Robinson in the House of Commons, drew forth a strong expression of feeling from that body, on Admiral Napier's victory over the fleet of Don Miguel;—the cheers were enthusiastic, and were continued for some time.

The resolution relative to sinecures, which was carried in the House of Commons in opposition to Ministers, is as follows:—"That in justice to the people who pay taxes, all sinecure places not merited by public services, should be abolished throughout the British Empire."

Mr. F. O'Connor had withdrawn his motion for a repeal of the Union between Great-Britain and Ireland.

Mr. Sinclair moved for leave to bring in a bill to repeal the Act of the 10th Anne, cap. 12, by which the patronage of the Church of Scotland was vested in the Crown. Mr. H. Rose, Mr. Colquhoun, Mr. Gillon, and other members supported the motion, and contended that the patronage of the Scotch Church had been a source of great annoyance and dissatisfaction to the people of Scotland. After some observations from the Lord Advocate, Sir R. Peel, and Sir R. Inglis, against the motion, it was suggested by the Speaker, that as the interest of the Crown was concerned in the right of presentation to the Churches in Scotland, the King's consent ought to be signified before such a motion could be entertained. The motion was consequently withdrawn.

The Irish Church Reform Bill, (on which it was feared the House of Lords would make a stand, and thereby embarrass Ministers, and cause a dissolution of Parliament,) passed in Committee on the 26th, and the report was to be received on the 29th. On the second reading of the Bill, the Duke of Wellington withdrew his opposition to the measure; and it is stated that he left the House, accompanied by several of his friends, a few moments previous to the division.

The affairs of Portugal had been under discussion in the House of Lords—the Marquis of Londonderry having moved for copies of the despatches received at the Foreign Office on the subject of the blockade of Lisbon and other Portuguese ports, by the squadron of Donna Maria, and a copy of the letter sent by the Foreign Secretary to the Agent at Lloyds. Earl Grey declined producing the papers at the time, but subsequently stated his willingness to do so.

Accounts from Madrid state that the capture of Don Miguel's fleet had produced a great sensation among the adherents of the Spanish Government. Previous to the news of that decisive victory, Ferdinand is said to have volunteered his good offices to Miguel, with the assistance of an army of 10,000 men; but the triumph of the liberal party in Portugal, having inspired the friends of liberty in Spain with fresh hopes, and signs of an early "movement" being apparent, Ferdinand has thought it advisable to retain his troops, for the purpose, no doubt, of endeavouring to keep in check, within his own dominions, a revolutionary spirit which he will find it impossible entirely to subdue.

Ireland, we are sorry to say, was again much agitated. The Orange processions in the north, are stated to have been revived with as much splendour as ever. On the 12th July, several party riots took place, in which lives were lost on both sides.—We have not seen any statement of the particulars.

We are indebted to the attention of a Gentleman who came passenger in the Water Witch, for Boston papers of Saturday last. They contain accounts from Portugal, brought by a vessel which was off Oporto on the 17th July—but we believe the intelligence is no later than has already reached us through the English papers. We subjoin a few extracts:

The Marquis of Palmella writes from Lagos, under date of the 8th July, that he has entirely completed the Judicial and Executive organization for all Algarves; that the 'Queen and the Constitution,' has been proclaimed every where, without a single town refusing to acknowledge the Legitimate Government. The 'Expeditionary Division' was daily increasing in force, and was prepared to make decided movements against the enemy.

Don Pedro has conferred on Vice Admiral Napier, the title of Viscount of St. Vincent and Admiral of the Royal Navy, and has authorized him to name sixty of his officers as most worthy of the ancient order of "Knights of the Tower and Sword of Valor and Loyalty."

The papers announce the constant arrival of deserters at Oporto in large numbers; on the 13th, two entire regiments arrived. Don Pedro is represented to be very active. Affairs at Oporto had assumed a most encouraging aspect, and the papers contain minute details of sundry skirmishes in the vicinity, in which the troops of Donna Maria were victorious—compelling, on one occasion, the Miguelites to retreat, with a reported loss of eight or nine hundred men.

ANOTHER WHALER.—This day a splendid coppered Ship of 400 tons, called the Betsy Baker, intended for a Whaler from this port, was launched from the ship yard of Mr. WM. LAWTON, in Portland. She was greeted with a salute of artillery from the end of the North Market wharf. The Betsy Baker is owned by Messrs. W. & T. LEAVITT, and JAMES KIRK, Esq. of this City, and is to be fitted out immediately for a whaling voyage.—We are glad to see our merchants engaging so earnestly in this lucrative trade, and we trust the owners of this vessel will be amply rewarded for their present enterprise.

The frame of another vessel for the same owners, and intended for the same trade is, we understand, to be put up immediately on the spot from which the Betsy Baker has been launched.

NEW VESSEL.—We have frequently noticed the improvement that has of late years taken place in ship-building in this neighbourhood; but we cannot omit mentioning the Brigs Nonpareil and Trio, as additional specimens of the progress of the art. These vessels were built at Quaco—the former by Mr. MARR, for Mr. JAMES K. M'KEE, and the latter by Mr. BRADSHAW, for Messrs. BLAKSLEE & ESTEY, and Mr. JAMES HOLMAN, of this City—and are pronounced to be superior vessels of their class, and calculated to enhance the reputation of their builders.

INDIAN DANCE.—Another opportunity will be afforded the public, on Monday evening next, at HOPLEY's Theatre, for witnessing some of the amusements peculiar to the Aborigines of this Province. As our citizens are not backward in patronizing foreign mountebanks and slight of hand performers, we trust that a display of the characteristic feats of their Red Brethren of the Forest, (which are without any deception,) will have its due effect in collecting a numerous assemblage of spectators.—The company of "performers," we are informed, will be more numerous than on Thursday evening, and the arrangements in the Theatre are expected to give the audience a better opportunity of witnessing the exhibition of so novel a spectacle on our boards.

ATTEMPT AT ROBBERY.—On Saturday evening, about ten o'clock, three persons feloniously entered the house of Mr. THOMAS G. HATHEWAY, north end of Brussels-street, and after procuring a light proceeded to a shop on the lower floor of the building, from which they took some bread,—not being able to find any money. Mr. H., who was asleep at the time, on being awakened, immediately proceeded to the room where the robbers were, who hearing the advancing footsteps, began their retreat—Mr. H. arriving just in time to seize the hindmost by the foot, as he was making his exit through a window. The fellow, however, succeeded in rescuing his foot from the unwelcome grasp, and made off, leaving the stocking in the hands of the landlord.—The road was then watched by Mr. H. and his neighbours till midnight, when the rogues were discovered returning to town. Two of them were identified by Mr. Hatheway,—they were secured, and lodged in prison. A pair of shoes and the stolen bread were afterwards found near the premises.—Observer.

JOHN HOWE, Jun. Esq. Deputy Postmaster General, arrived in town from Halifax, on Wednesday evening, by land.

Passengers in the ship Druid for Bristol.—Lieut.-Colonel KELLY, 34th Regiment, and Mr. MURRAY, of Springhill, near Fredericton.

Lieut. Col. Brough, R. A., and Dr. M'Donald, R. A., arrived at Halifax on Sunday last, in the ship Kingston, from London.

Extract of a Letter from River Philip, dated August 16.—The two persons that were lost in the woods near this place, the particulars of which appeared in the Novascotian of the 14th inst. were found by a party of men from Œconomy on the 12th instant, after being eleven days and nights in the woods, without food or shelter except the few berries they occasionally met with. The way they were discovered was by sounding a shell, and the girl, although at a considerable distance, succeeded in making the men hear her voice. When they were discovered, the old man was very feeble and emaciated, being unable to stand; the girl was in apparent health, though quite weak. The men constructed a sort of a litter, and placed the old man upon it, and brought him to the nearest house, a distance of 6 or 7 miles, where he expired a few moments after his arrival; the girl continues weak, but sanguine hopes are entertained of her final recovery.—Novascotian.

PROSPECTUS OF THE NEW-BRUNSWICK STANDARD,
And Saint Andrews' Commercial Gazette.

A WEEKLY NEWSPAPER,
To be published in St. Andrews, New-Brunswick.

IN announcing the intended publication of a Newspaper under the above title, it may not be improper to state, that the undertaking is unconnected with any former publication, and will be conducted on liberal principles.

The Editor considers that a Newspaper, to be generally useful here, should be pledged to no party, but present a compendium of the opinions of the best prints on the leading topics of the day, from which a correct judgment might be formed of the various lights in which subjects are viewed by different political parties. This method is his intention to adopt.

British, Colonial, and Foreign news, the policy and aspect of Courts and Countries, will be industriously collected and faithfully reported.

Passing events will be detailed as early as possible, in order to enable the enquirer to keep pace with the general information of the times.

The affairs of New Brunswick demand peculiar attention, and will be discussed with firmness and fairness. The vindication of liberty will not be allowed to degenerate into licentiousness; but an undaunted maintainance of political rights will be carried the whole length allowed by the Constitution.

The usual Lists relative to Commerce and Shipping will be carefully compiled; and whatever may be useful to the Farmer, the Lumberer, the Trader, Manufacturer, and Fisherman, will be diligently sought for and inserted.

Polite Literature, a taste for which has been successfully diffused by the periodicals of the day, will occupy a reasonable space in the STANDARD.—And articles of Wit or Humour will occasionally find a place; but it will be the Editor's aim to avoid frivolity, and to adapt even light reading to the improvement of the mind and morals. The flowers of Poesy will be culled with a delicate and sparing hand.

Original Communications will meet with all the encouragement their merits deserve; but detraction, however high its literary claim—attack on private character, however speciously cloaked—vulgarity of language, and any violation of decency, will be promptly rejected.

The strictest attention will be paid to the display of Advertisements, and in order to obviate the possibility of undue favour, it is intended that each continued insertion shall yield in place to that of more recent date.

The Editor refrains from dilating further on his views, being desirous of avoiding such professions and promises as cannot always be strictly observed, or satisfactorily performed.

The Standard, and Saint Andrews' Commercial Gazette, will be printed on a Super-Royal sheet, and published every Tuesday morning.

PRICE—Fifteen Shillings per annum—payable half yearly in advance.

 To be published in the beginning of September, 1833—by GEO. N. SMITH.

THE above Company have, by Letter of Attorney, bearing date 20th July instant, appointed the Subscriber their Agent for the Provinces of Nova-Scotia and New-Brunswick, and he is now ready to afford to all persons the most ample information as to the character of the said Company, as well as the advantages to persons insuring therein in preference to Offices in London, the rates being lower, the facilities of effecting insurance more certain and prompt, and a greater licence, by the terms of their policies, to travel in the United States of America and the British Colonies, without payment of extra premium. The Agent is also prepared with some valuable publications which clearly illustrate to the most prejudiced mind the many substantial advantages to almost all classes and conditions of persons to be derived from Life Insurance, and he will be ever ready to exhibit and explain the same to any who may be desirous of availing themselves of such advantages. The names of the Trustees (whose standing and wealth are known generally in Halifax,) are a sufficient pledge for the responsibility of the above Company.
