Carson in the course of the day, the poll closed in his favor.—Large sums of money were pending on the election.—Dr. C. is said to be editor of the Newfoundland Patriot, a liberal paper established some months ago at St. John's.

JAMAICA.—By accounts from Kingston to the 30th November, received at St. Andrews, it appears that the reported dissolution of the House of Assembly is without foundation. The third reading of the Abolition Bill was postponed from the 29th November until the 3d December, in order to give time to make the measure as perfect as possible. It was expected that the business of the session would be got through by the 7th.

The Chronicle states, upon good authority, that it was the intention of Government to augment, immediately, the number of regular troops in the West-India Islands. The distribution of the additional Regiments will be so made as to render their services available to each Colony as circumstances may require.

TOBAGO.—The Officer in command a Tobago, ordered the Militia, on the 7th November, to hold themselves in readiness against any irregularity of the Negroes, who, in the present state of their discontent, might avail themselves of the approaching Christmas festivities to create a commotion.—Saint Andrews Standard.

Walter F. Osgood, of New-York, late an Attorney and Counsellor at Law, and of highly respectable relations, has been convicted of forging pension certificates on revolutionary claims, and sentenced to fourteen years imprisonment at hard labour in the State Prison.—Robt. Clinch, convicted as an associate of Osgood, was sentenced to two years imprisonment and $1000 fine.

It appears by a letter from London, published in the N. York Journal of Commerce, that Lord Brougham is losing his popularity as Lord Chancellor. The reporter is said to have declared his decisions so ridiculous that he was ashamed to report them.

☞ The Rev. Mr. WILSON will preach a Sermon in St. Andrew's Church, To-morrow (Sunday) afternoon, for the benefit of the Poor.

Ship Eleanor, Davidson, of this port, arrived at New-York on the 20th ult. from Liverpool.

Brig Britannia, Sicot, hence, at Baltimore, December 18.

The new brig Susan, Capt. Gray, (owned by J. M. Wilmot, Esq. of this City,) which sailed hence on the 11th Dec. for Philadelphia, with a cargo of salt, shipped a heavy sea in the gale of the 17th, off Barnegat, which carried away both masts, bowsprit, stancheons, and bulwarks, with every thing on deck. Two of the crew (James Man, 2d Mate; and Ebenezer Jeremiah, seaman,) were drowned. The survivors were taken off the wreck by the brig Monument from Havannah, and carried into New-York.—On the 20th, in lat. 38, long. 74, the Alto, (at N. York) fell in with the wreck of the Susan, and took off some sails, rigging, &c.

The mate of the Am. brig Owhyhee, ashore at Chatham, (Cape Cod,) arrived in Boston on the 21st instant, and stated that the brig Euphemia, George Bainbridge, master, from St. John, N. B. for Waterford, (Ire.) lumber loaded, went ashore on the outer bar, on Thursday evening, and went to pieces. Three of the crew were drowned, and another had his thigh broken.

The schr. Ann Isabell, Lovett, of Annapolis, from Boston, bound to St. John, went ashore in Gloucester Harbour during the gale of the 17th ult. and went to pieces—crew saved. Cargo valued at $3000.

The schr. Industry, Johnson, of this port, with 2200 bushels of salt on board, sunk at Wright's wharf, Philadelphia, in the gale of the 17th ult.—The schr. Charles King, was thrown, during the same gale, upon the wharf, and sustained some injury.—A British brig, bound to St. John, was reported to be ashore on Reedy Island.

Schr. Royal Oak, Durkee, 17 days from Bermuda, arrived at Yarmouth on the 26th ult.—reports having left schr. Water Witch, Cox, of this port, for Turks Island, and brig Cadwallader, M'Dorman, of Campo Bello, for Wilmington.

BOSTON, Dec. 24.—Returned brig Florida.—On Sunday last, 45 miles S. E. Cape Cod, fell in with Br. brig Hope, of London, from Boston, for St John, N. B. in ballast, dismasted, boats gone, deserted, and partly full of water—boarded her, and took some sails, rigging, &c. and set her on fire; soon after, fell in with Br. barque Sappho, Thomson, of Newcastle, from St John, N. B. with timber, for London, the crew preparing to leave the vessel in the boats, she having sprung aleak in the late gale, and found it impossible to free her—took off the officers and crew, and one passenger, (16 in number,) some sails, &c. and then set her on fire.—[The passenger, Mr SIMON COCK, of this City, arrived in town last evening, via Eastport.]

SAINT ANDREWS, December 24.—Arrived, ship La Bonne Mere, Campion, Norfolk, (Vir.); brig Woodbine, M'Allister, Trinidad.—27th, brig Colonist, Moloney, Demerara; Nehemiah, Hutton, Jamaica, 56 days.

The Woodbine encountered a series of tremendous gales, and having become short of water and provisions, determined on the night of the 9th instant, to run for the nearest land. Next morning they descried a vessel, stood for her, and in a short time discovered that she was on her beam ends, with her masts cut away, and signals of distress hoisted. The sea ran so high that they could not board her, but lay-to all day in hopes to render whatever assistance their own distressed state would permit. They saw the brig hoist out her long boat as a last resort, and they saw it stove into a thousand pieces as soon as launched. In the evening it moderated a little, and at great hazard they brought the captain and eight hands all safely on board the Woodbine—the only relief they procured was two bags of wet bread and 12 pieces of beef. The vessel proved to be the brig Hope, of London, Captain Thomas Carrick, owned by Messrs. Benson & Hunter, of London. She had sailed from Boston on the 10th inst. in ballast, for St. John, N. B.; and during the severe weather of the 19th, was hove on her beam ends, in consequence of the ballast and water having shifted. From this place the Mount Desert Rock bore N. E. by N. distance (supposed) 80 miles. Capt. Carrick saved part of his clothes and all the ship's papers. He reports that he kept company for several days with the Fenwick Keating, Atcheson, of St. John; but that on the occurrence of his disasters, and in spite of all his signals of distress, Capt. A. ungenerously deserted him!—If this be correct, language can hardly afford terms of reprehension sufficiently severe to depict the baseness of such conduct; and if there be any error, Capt. Atchison should be warned of the obloquy with which his name is assailed.—Standard.

[Captain ATCHESON has requested us to say that there is a very material "error" in the above statement; but as he has taken legal steps to redeem his character from the imputations so unjustly cast upon it, he deems it unnecessary to be more explicit until the truth shall be elicited before a proper tribunal.]

DECEMBER 28, 1833.

P. DUFF & Co. have just received on consignment, a supply of the following Articles all of which are warranted genuine:

Rowlands' MACASSAR OIL, for the hair;
Ditto KALYDOR, for beautifying the skin;
Ditto ODONTO, or Pearl Dentifrice;
Ditto ESSENCE OF TYRE, for changing red or grey hairs;
Ditto ALSANA EXTRACT, for the Tooth-ache;
Ditto CERELÆUM, for the Head-ache—an infallible, instantaneous, and permanent reliever of the most inveterate Vertigo, by external application.

The unprecedented base and flagitious attempts to delude the public by counterfeit imitations of Rowland's Macassar Oil; have arisen to such a pitch of audacity, as impels Messrs. Rowland, from a sense of duty to the public, to warn and caution the innumerable admirers of that highly popular article, to beware of those scandalous impositions. The impostors copy the very words and labels of the original inventors, which is the cause of many persons being misled in the purchase of the article above adverted to. Each bottle of the Original is enclosed in a Wrapper, on which are the words "Rowland's Macassar Oil," and between those words is the same minutely engraved twenty-four times—the name and address of the Proprietors, A. Rowland & Son, 20, Hatton Garden,

The lowest price is 3*s.* 6*d.*—the next price is 7*s.*—10*s.* 6*d.* and 21*s.* per bottle. All other prices, or without the Book and Label, are Counterfeits.

Particular attention to this Caution in purchasing, is respectfully solicited, as the proprietors cannot be responsible for the serious injury resulting from the use of Imitations now offered to the public.
