VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM.—This truly valuable remedy has now been before the public for four years, and has proved itself the most valuable remedy discovered for Coughs, Colds, Asthma, or Phthisic, Consumption, Whooping Cough, and Pulmonary affections of every kind. Its sale is steadily increasing, and the proprietors are constantly receiving the most favorable accounts of its effects. The following New Certificates are offered for PUBLIC EXAMINATION!

TO THE PUBLIC.

I, Daniel P. Brayman, of Richmondtown, R. I. feel it a duty to acquaint the public, that I have received the most unexpected relief in a severe complaint of the lungs from the use of the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam. For three years previous to my trial of the Balsam, I had a severe pain in my breast, violent cough, frequent raising of blood, attended with great prostration of strength. For the principal part above of the time, I was under the care of a skilful Physician in Boston, who employed, beside many internal medicines, blistering, Seatons, &c. without any improvement in my case. Two months since I commenced with the Balsam, and have now taken two bottles! I am now able to labour most part of the time, have ceased to raise blood, and am almost entirely relieved of my cough. DANIEL P. BRAYMAN.
Boston, February 22, 1831.

Dr. Jeremiah Ellsworth, of Silver Creek, N. York, states in a letter to the Proprietors, Feb. 1830, that from personal acquaintance with the salutary effects of the V. P. Balsam, he can most confidently recommend it to those who are threatened with serious affections of the lungs.

Messrs. LOWE & REED—From the time that the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam was first prepared by Messrs. Reed & Howard, it has been used in nearly all cases of Coughs and Pulmonary Affections, which have occurred in my family; and I have recommended it to many others, and carefully inquired respecting its effects. I have never known it produce any injury; and except in confirmed Consumption, it has never failed of affording relief. Several cases have occured in my own family, and others among my acquaintance, in which the attending physicians have preferred administering other medicines for the diseases for which this Balsam is designed. No other medicine, however, has proved equally efficacious; and in several instances, when the other medicines had been used without effect for many weeks, the Balsam was at length resorted to, and speedily effected a cure. I find the printed directions which accompany the Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam, to be safe and judicious; and I would recommend that they be carefully observed.
Respectfully, your obdt. servt.

Something New!

MAY 10, 1834.

I BEG leave to inform the Public and all,
That I have cheap Goods—I hope they will call:
I have the latest of fashions—the colors wont fade,
With Silk, and white Satin, of a different shade;
I have lots of Lace Edging and no lack of Veils,
And plenty of Canvass to make a Ship's Sails;
I have ready made Clothing, just as you choose,
With a 'sortment of Stockings, fine Slippers and Shoes;
I have Muslin and Cambric, both very fine,
With a 'sortment of Linen, just from the Green Isle;
I have all sorts of Books that are taught at the Schools—
With a word to the wise, and a lesson to fools;
I have sundry more Goods too tedious to mention,
While I hope the above will attract your attention:
So now I invite you—the road it is fine,—
For I live in Portland, my name's B. O'BRIEN.

Take Notice!

MY name it is SHEILS, tho' some call me CHARLEY;
My place you will know—its in the same row with Barney;
So I hope you will stop, and call at my shop,
Where you may have a collation of the best in the nation,
With Grape Juice and Whisky in all moderation.
I do not deny but I sell Bread as I buy—to encourage the eater—
As I know I must die, I tell you no lie, I keep busy the Baker.
So I notice you all to my Golden Ball, ev'n round to the big Hill of Hoath,
To give me a call, as you pass to the Fall, and buy a cheap Loaf.
Let it be well understood that my Liquor is good and free from all 'dulteration,
So I verily mean, to pledge you again, in drinking to use moderation.
And now to conclude, as I meant that I should, by drinking a health to you all;
'Twill be the same case when you shall see my face at the sign of the Golden Ball.
Portland, 16th May, 1834.
