THE PRINCESS VICTORIA.

BY MRS. OPIE.

Hail! youthful Princess, to thy graceful brow,
On which one day the diadem may shine;
While round their Queen thy kneeling subjects bow,
And all the pomp of earthly sway is thine:—

What dread pre-eminence! what dangerous power!
Yet he who gave them, means of safety gives,
If thou canst lift thy heart in danger's hour
To Him who died for us, and Him who lives.

Oh! mayst thou wish, by His own influence taught,
To bring all nations to His blest control,
And lend thy aid, with Christian ardour fraught,
To speed the book of books from pole to pole.

To cheer the Saviour's heralds on their way,
Whether they plant the Cross on India's sand,
Or bid the Star of Bethlehem shed its ray,
On souls benighted in our native land!

Labours of love, for royal favour meet!
And if aright that speaking face I read,
One sufferer's blessing were to thee more sweet
Than courtly incense, or than flattery's meed.

Then, if such deeds make worldly splendour dim,
From thy full heart ere thou thy pillow press,
Oh! may thanksgiving's strain ascend to Him
Who, with the WILL, bestowed the POWER to bless.

MAYST THOU BE HAPPY.

Mayst thou be happy, may no care
Its shadows o'er thee cast;
Few be the pangs thou 'rt doom'd to share,
And those few quickly past;
For thee may life's all sinless hours
E'er glide serenely by;
And be thy tears like passing show'rs,
That cloud the summer sky.

Bright be the spring-time of thy youth,
Joyous thy summer's bloom!
May hearts like thine, the shrine of truth,
Know not the winter's gloom!
May all who smile around thee, now
Fond hopes and joys are thine,
If change should come, but prove the glow
Of friendship's light divine!

If sorrow o'er thy youthful heart,
At times will hold its sway,
Virtue can foil its keenest dart,
And bear the gloom away;
Whatever be th' events of years,
Mayst thou, without regret,
Look back and find nor hopes nor fears
That age would fain forget!

VARIETIES.

The Ship Pennsylvania.—The line of battle ship Pennsylvania now on the stocks at our Navy Yard, under the shelter of a building that cost $45,000, is one of the most stupendous fabrics that was ever destined to float on the ocean. Her length on deck is 225 feet, which is more than half way from Fifth to Sixth street, in Chesnut, by twenty-seven feet, and her breadth 58 feet, which is 8 feet wider than Chesnut street, opposite the theatre, including the foot ways. She is large enough to carry 2000 men, which is a larger number than the whole American army that fought and gained the battle of Chippewa, and greater than the population of a considerable sized country town. She is of the burthen of 3000 tons, and could, if loaded with flour, carry the moderate cargo of 30,000 barrels, enough to supply bread for fifteen thousand people for a whole year. She is to carry 140 guns, thirty-two pounders, so that every time she discharges a full broadside, she will dispose of precisely a ton of bullets to help make iron pebbles for the bottom of the ocean, unless they happen to hit the enemy. She will draw 28 feet of water, and thus find it difficult to navigate in shoal rivers. One of her anchors which is to be seen at the yard, and which is said to be the largest one in the world, weighs 14,669 pounds, which is something more than five tons, and will require some merry piping at the capstan to get it apeak.—Phil. Gaz.

Commonwealth vs. Geo. B. Cheever.—We are informed by the Salem Observer, of this morning that sentence was pronounced yesterday by Chief Justice Shaw of the Supreme Court, on the Rev. George B. Cheever, convicted at the Court of Common Pleas, of a libel on Mr. Stone, contained in an article entitled "Deacon Giles's Distillery," published in the Salem Landmark, of which Mr. Cheever was the editor. Judge Shaw then sentenced the prisoner to 30 days imprisonment in the Common Jail, to furnish a bond of $1,000, with sufficient sureties, to keep the peace for the term of two years, and to pay the costs of the prosecution, which amount to about $130

A FLYING BRIDGE.—In one of his late letters, Mr. Brooks, the European correspondent of the Portland Advertiser, gives the subjoined account of a flying bridge, over the Rhine, near the city of Bonn:

"An anchor fixed at a certain distance up the stream, always greater than the breadth of the river, from which a cable of rope or chain passes to the platform of a ferryboat, which is here supported on a couple of large barges. This cable is buoyed up by passing over such a number of boats as may be found necessary. If the rudder of the large platform be moved so as to turn the heads of the supporting barges about a point of the compass towards the stream, so as to let out against the sides of the bows, they will, of course, sheer across or oscillate like a pendulum, with a slow and uniform motion, to the opposite side—the cable and its supporting boats edging over in the direction of the platform. By having the height of the platform the same as that on the piers or landing places on the sides of the river, carriages of any size, without unyoking the horses they may drive upon it, can pass over without disturbing passengers or baggage within them. I have been thus particular in the description of this bridge, because I think it might be used with profit on many of the rivers of the United States, where a ferry is difficult, and where it is not permitted to obstruct the river with a bridge.

A merchant in Leesburg advertises 'Ladies' indefrizables, flats and fidgets' for sale. What the deuce are they?

A REAL FRIEND.—A young man commencing business, asked an individual with whom he was on terms of the closest intimacy, whether he would give him his "custom," to which the other quickly and emphatically answered "no!"

"Why not! we've been a long time acquainted, and I always thought you were my friend."

"So I am—that's the very reason I can't patronize you; for I could give you what is called "custom" but as for paying that would be out of the question; thus, you see I am really your friend."

LANDS FOR SALE,

BY THE
Nova Scotia and New Brunswick Land Company.

THE New Brunswick and Nova Scotia LAND COMPANY having been long since incorporated by Royal Charter, with a Capital of £200,000 sterling, with power to increase that amount to £400,000; and having purchased from the Crown the most central and delightful portion of the Province of New-Brunswick, between the Rivers Saint John and South West, Miramichi, have been quietly and unostentatiously improving a large portion thereof for settlement. The improvements consist of a fine line of Road, cut and now travelled upon, directly through what may be termed the valley of the Nashwaak to the Company's new Town of STANLEY, where they have erected a Saw Mill of great power, with Circular Saws, capable of producing every description of boards and scantling necessary for Building, at the most reasonable rate and shortest notice;—a Grist Mill has likewise been built, with the most approved re-acting power, and the best and finest Granite and French Burr Stones introduced; so that the Settler may have the opportunity (without difficulty) of getting the produce of his Farm rendered serviceable at the least possible expence.

The Town of Stanley, delightfully situated on the banks of the beautiful river Nashwaak, offers every advantage and inducement, both from situation and luxuriance of its soil, for immediate increase of population. Gentlemen of wealth from England, having already fixed their location there, their buildings shewing at once a cultivated taste and certain satisfaction of future success; a tavern, a blacksmith's shop, and many houses have been erected by the Company, most of which are now occupied or in course of completion; one hundred and fifty to two hundred acres have already been cleared, and the principal part in a state of cultivation—proving to demonstration the capability and happy results produced by only ordinary labour, strict attention to the nature of the soil, and a proper mode of Agriculture.

The whole line of Road, from its commencement to the South West, Miramichi, offers every inducement for Settlement, on both of which a number of small farms have been laid off, some with clearings, and Log Houses built thereon, a few of which are inhabited, so that the Traveller will find accommodation at the most reasonable rate. The steady and persevering Emigrant will find that every attention will be paid, and every necessary facility given him to render his new undertaking as light and pleasing as the Company's interests may justly and fairly warrant.

The price of the Land will, as a matter of course, vary according to situation, but none will be higher than Twelve Shillings currency, or Ten Shillings sterling, per acre, for the present season, (Town Lots and Ten Acre Farms surrounding the Town excepted,) every information about which will be readily and cheerfully communicated by the Company's Agent at Fredericton.

As many applications have been made for Town Lots without positive situations being named, it will be necessary for the applicants to repeat their requests, and fix upon the number in the Town Plot they would wish to occupy.

TERMS.—The terms of payment will be made easy, as follows: One fifth to be paid at the time of purchase, upon which a Location Ticket of Possession will be given, the other four-fifths by annual instalments; but should the purchaser pay the whole amount at once, a discount of 15 per cent. will be allowed upon the purchase money, upon completion of which, a Deed, in fee simple, will be immediately prepared by the Company's Solicitor, to be paid for by the purchaser, putting him in absolute and sole possession.

The Company's Road has been cut out, but not yet finished, to Campbell, (another projected Town on the South West, Miramichi River.) At this Establishment, a valuable Property has been purchased by the Company, consisting of Saw Mill, Grist Mill, Blacksmith's Shop, &c. &c. for some years in active operation, Houses built by the Company, and a beautiful Farm under good cultivation; the line of road from Stanley to Campbell proving yet more fully the value and richness of the soil of this long neglected, little understood, and most valuable portion of His Majesty's North American Colonies.

An enquiry will bear out every statement made in the above advertisement, and as every attention and assistance will be given to the most humble but industrious settler, it is particularly requested that when real information is required, application may be made to
E. N. KENDALL,
Chief Commissioner, or
