CITY LAWS.
At a Common Council holden at the Council Chamber, on the 22d day of July, A. D.
1835, read and enacted the following Laws:

A Law directing the uses of the Public Seals of the City of Saint John.

Be it ordained by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonality of the City of Saint John, in Common Council convened, That the Common Seal of the said City, and the Commonality of the City of Saint John, commonly called the Seal of the City, shall be kept in the custody and keeping of the Common Clerk of the said City for the time being, and shall be put and affixed to all Grants, Leaves, Freedom-Certificates, and all other Instruments and writings, which shall from time to time be made, granted, or issued by order of the Common Council of the said City, or otherwise provided for by the Charter of the said City, and that the fees to be taken therefor, shall be as follow:- To the Mayor for the Seal, five shillings; every Instrument to which the said Seal is affixed, five shillings; To the Clerk for the Seal, five shillings; every Certificate to which the said Seal is affixed, two shillings and sixpence.

Be it ordained, That the Seal commonly called the SEAL OF MAYORALTY shall be and remain in the custody and keeping of the Mayor of the said City for the time being, and shall be put and affixed to all such writings and Instruments as are usually and customarily certified under any seal of Mayoralty; and that the fees to be taken therefor shall be two shillings and sixpence for each Certificate to which the said Seal is affixed, and five shillings for the Seal of the Corporation, entitled "A Law directing the uses of the Public Seals of the City of Saint John and to regulate the admission of Freeman in the said City," (confirmed by the Lieutenant Governor and Council, on the 1st day of April, 1796,) and the same is hereby repealed.

A Law for the Regulation of Weights and Measures in the City of Saint John.

Be it ordained by the Mayor, Aldermen,
and Commonality of the City of Saint John, in Common Council convened, That all Weights and Measures used in the City of Saint John, shall be regulated according to the standard of the Exchequer of England; and that the Common Clerk of the Market of this City, shall procure and at all times keep a set of Weights and Measures made conformable thereto, which shall remain in his office, or some person by him for that purpose appointed, and appointed, as Assay for the purpose of assaying, and marking with the letters C. A. all Weights, Measures, Scale Beams, and patent Beams or true Balances not marked by the said Assayer and Sealer of Weights and Measures—and if any person shall, in weighing or measuring any articles for purchase or sale within this City, use any weights, measures, scale beams, or patent beams or true Balances not so marked, branded, or marked, and which shall not be conformable to the standard hereinbefore established, every such person shall forfeit and pay the sum of ten shillings for each and every offence.

Be it ordained, That the said Assayer and Sealer of weights and measures shall be entitled to demand and receive for inspecting and assaying, and for assaying, stamping, branding, or marking as aforesaid, the following fees: To wit:—for each weight, one penny; and for each measure containing more than one gallon, two pence; and for all smaller measures, one penny each; and for every yard stick, one penny; and for every scale beam, patent beam or true balance, one penny.—And on any such inspection or examination, any weights, measures, or scale beams shall be found not to be conformable to the said Standard, they shall be conformable to the said Standard thereof to the house of the assayer and sealer of weights and measures, for the purpose of being adjusted, stamped, branded, or marked, under the penalty of ten shillings for each and every offence.

Be it ordained, That it shall and may be lawful for, and the duty of the said assayer and sealer of weights and measures, to inspect and examine all weights, measures, scale beams, patent beams or true balances, used in the said City for weighing or measuring as aforesaid, at least

A Law to regulate the Public Burying Ground on the Eastern side of the Harbour, in the City of Saint John.
Approved of, and passed 22d July, 1835.

Be it Ordained by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonality of the City of Saint John, in Common Council convened, That no person shall dig any grave in the Public Burying Ground on the Eastern side of the harbour in the said City of Saint John, without application being first made to the sexton of Trinity Church in the said City, or other person having charge and superintendence of the said Burying Ground; nor shall any corpse be interred in any grave, the depth of which is not at least four and a half feet from the surface of the ground—and it shall be the duty of such sexton or other persons as aforesaid, to assign and point out the place where any such grave shall be dug, and that the depth of the grave be four and a half feet at least; and also to attend at every funeral and see that such grave be sufficiently covered up after the interment; and such sexton or other person as aforesaid, shall be entitled to demand and receive, for the service performed by him, the sum of five shillings and sixpence, and the further sum of five shillings if the said grave be dug, filled in and covered; and in case of any neglect of his duties as aforesaid, or of demanding more than the fees aforesaid for the service of any one grave as aforesaid, such sexton or other person as aforesaid, shall be liable to the penalty of twenty shillings for each and every offence.

Be it ordained, That if any person shall, under the penalty of twenty shillings for each and every offence, and such sexton or other person as aforesaid, shall be entitled to demand and receive for this service, from the person applying for such grave as aforesaid, the sum of six shillings and sixpence, and the further sum of five shillings if the said grave be dug, filled in and covered; and in case of any neglect of his duties as aforesaid, or
of demanding more than the fees aforesaid for the
or other person as aforesaid, shall be liable to the
offence.

Be it ordained, That a certain seal commonly called the SEAL OF MAYORALTY shall be and remain in the custody and keeping of the Mayor of the said City for the time being, and the head of Church-street, south side of the property of the subscriber, containing fifteen rooms, besides cellar and cellar kitchens—every part of which is well finished and in good order. It is an excellent stand for a Boarding House, or other business, being convenient to the Market Square, and will be sold on very easy terms.—If not disposed of by private contract previous to the 21st of November next, it will on that day be sold at Public Auction.

June 27.

FOR SALE.
THAT valuable ESTATE, in possession of the Subscriber, situated on the western side of Sidney-street; comprising a Lot fronting on said street, one hundred and twenty-five feet—extending the same in breadth to the rear of the property, and containing a convenient Dwelling HOUSE, and Out-houses attached, with a Garden in the rear, whose site and exposure are exceeded by none in the City.
The basement contains a large and airy Kitchen, fitted up with dressers, oven and boiler, two good store-rooms, a frost-proof cellar, and a well of excellent water; the principal story consists of five apartments, pantry and closets—two of these apartments are intended for bed rooms; the bed room flat above, being only a half story, with front and back stairs leading quite to the basement; the great part of the House was well papered and painted a few months past, and the whole is now in excellent order; so good and sure an opportunity for the investment of capital seldom offers. The property being situated in the very centre of the City, renders it a most desirable residence for a Gentleman engaged in business.
Terms and further particulars made known on application to the Subscriber, on the premises.
May 9th, 1835. THOMAS PADDOCK.
