Melancholy Shipwreck and loss of lives.—The brig Mexican, Trussel, of Boston, was wrecked on Moose Pecca on the night of the 30th ult. and all hands on board perished, with the exception of one man. We have not ascertained the number of persons there were on board, nor the names of any person but the captain.—Eastport Democrat.

Shipwreck—Nine lives lost.—The brig Washington, Rider, from Boston for Cadiz, was capsized on the night of the 21st ult. about 50 miles from Cape Cod, and nine of the crew were drowned.—Joseph Hoskins, a Scotchman, who was at the helm at the time, succeeded in getting on the vessel's bottom, where he remained until the next day, when he was taken off by the ship Jacob Perkins, from Cronstadt to Boston.

MIRAMICHI, October 6.—The Eagle, which vessel arrived this morning, brought in the Captain and crew of the barque Argus, Rashligh, of Plymouth, from Quebec, bound to Plymouth. The Argus, after sailing, experienced very heavy weather, and on the 28th ult. was struck by a heavy sea, in lat. 46, long. 56½, and became water-logged. On the following day they succeeded in getting on board the Eagle. Capt. Rashligh informs us that he spoke the Ganges in the St. Lawrence, having on board the crew of the brig Lyra, of Plymouth, which vessel was abandoned at sea.

RICHIBUCTO, October 3.—On the morning of Wednesday last, the ship Friends, of London, R. Long, master, drove from her moorings off Cocagne Harbour, in a very heavy gale, and went ashore on the south point of the Island at the north side of the harbour, where she beat her bottom out, and became a total wreck. Materials saved.

Valuable Property for Sale.

THE following extensive and eligible Premises are now in the market, and will be disposed of on reasonable terms—viz :

First.—The House and Ground fronting on Prince William-street—three stories besides the attic and basement stories, having four rooms with fire places and six do. without, besides shop and ware-room, with a complete frost proof cellar under the latter—the whole at present occupied by Mr. John M'Millan, and long known as one of the first Book-selling establishments in this City.

Also—the House and Ground fronting on St. John-street, at the head of Peters' wharf, adjoining in rear to the first mentioned property—four stories, besides attic and basement stories, having six rooms with fire places and four without, besides shop and ware-room, with an extensive cellar under the latter—at present occupied by Messrs. Hand and Whitney, and particularly well adapted for a genteel boarding house, for which service its neighbourhood to the steam boat landing makes it very commodious.

The above two properties will be disposed of either separately or together: in either way they form most valuable stands for business, being situate in Queen's Ward, near the centre and in the most convenient part of the City.—The last mentioned house and ground are subject to a life rent.

Second.—Lot 1145, fronting on Sidney and Stormont-streets, (being a corner lot, 100 feet on the former and 40 feet on the latter street); also, Lot 1455, fronting on Courtney-bay—likewise, the western half of Lot 1085, fronting on St. James'-street. All these are situate in the Lower Cove, (so called,) as will appear on reference to the plan of the City.

Two of the above are most eligible for building lots, and the first one mentioned is now improved as a garden and under excellent fence.

Third.—A Farm of Land fronting on the Bay Shore, a little to the westward of the harbour of St. John, and extending northerly across the public road leading through that part of the Parish of Lancaster towards St. Andrews, containing 220 acres, the whole being within 5 a 7 miles only westward of the City. This property is well wooded throughout its whole extent, and possesses a good mill site on a powerful stream passing across it from some extensive lakes in its neighbourhood.

Good titles and early possession will be given to purchasers, and the payment for all or any of the above mentioned properties will be made easy and liberal.—Apply to Messrs. JOHN KERR and JOHN MOYES, or GEORGE MATTHEW, in Saint John, or to LEWIS BLISS, Esq. Halifax.

St. John, 3d October, 1835.

WHARF TO RENT.

THAT extensive WHARF, in Lower Cove, west side of the Market Slip, being 40 feet wide by 200 feet on the Slip. It is very well adapted for landing lumber, &c. in small vessels at any time of tide, and will admit vessels of any size to load at the lower part of the slip, or at the end of the wharf—besides having convenient access to St. Andrew's Street, for carting to or from. It will be let for one or five years, and possession given immediately. Apply at the Courier Office. September 19*th.*
