JAMES PETERS, Jr.
January 1st, 1836. Common Clerk.

Notice.—Lectures.

THE Subscriber is desirous to direct the exertion of his mental and moral energies into such a course as will enable him to obtain, eventually, that consideration in society which he believes to be justly due—not, however, by attempting any pursuits which may compel him to relinquish his present situation.

He considers that object most probably attainable by communicating to the male adults of the city, such Knowledge as may be available in the pursuits of ordinary life: as for instance, the leading principles of Mechanical Philosophy, of Geometry, Arithmetic, &c.—One evening in each week will be appointed for such exercises, next Monday evening being intended as the first,—hour of commencement, 7; subject, Mechanics. They will be conducted in a room of the Masonic Hall.

In order, if possible, to remove every objection, the pecuniary engagements required of those who attend, shall be as moderate, convenient, and simple, as the Subscriber can make them; viz. that every person who enters the room during Lecture, whether as a visitor or auditor, shall forthwith deposit 6d. on the table.

The Subscriber begs leave to remind the Gentlemen of St. John, more especially the many respectable Clergymen with whom he is acquainted, that by encouraging the above undertaking, they will not merely forward his individual interest, but accomplish a solemn and public duty, and render a service to the community at large, by causing the dissemination of useful knowledge among those that otherwise must look for such an opportunity in vain.

JOHN LEE,
Author of the Proportional Formulæ.

For sale low. JOHN V. THURGAR.
January 2, 1836.

Fredericton, New-Brunswick.

VALUABLE PROPERTY, FOR SALE.

THE subscriber offers for sale, that commodious Dwelling House and Store, with suitable out houses and other conveniences—forming a complete establishment on a large scale.—The situation is well known to be one of the best, and most public in Fredericton—adjoining the public steam boat and sloop landing, granted for that purpose by the Legislature, and on that account a superior water privilege, where a wharf might be extended, in addition to the one already erected, sufficient to land all the goods and passengers that arrive at Fredericton in the course of the season.—And, for a person who is qualified to establish a genteel boarding house, there is no place better adapted on the river Saint John.

The lot is 68 feet on Market-street, and runs 165 feet towards the river on Regent-street, exclusive of the water privilege. The main building is 50 by 30 feet, three stories high from the wharf, and two from Regent-street, and finished complete to the garret. The lower story on a level with the wharf, (formed on three sides with a substantial stone wall, the front with frame work,) is used for the storage of goods, and from this there is an entrance into a frost proof root house, 32 by 16 feet, floored and partitioned, and capable of containing 2000 bushels of potatoes. The stable is also on this level, and is entered from the wharf, preventing all intercourse with any other part of the premises. In addition to the Store and Counting Room, which are fitted up in good style, and convenient for the transaction of business—there are two large parlours, two sitting rooms, a good kitchen, and three bed rooms, exclusive of the garret which is finished into four bed rooms.—The out store fronting on Market-street, is 30 by 20 feet, two stories high; a wood house is attached, extending 44 feet, until it joins the stable and hay loft, which forms an enclosure from Market-street to the wharf, and so arranged, that the whole can be visited without going out of doors. The wharf, stable, hay loft, wood house, root house, veranda, fencing, &c. were all added during the two last summers, consequently are entirely new, and in the very best condition; every defect that could be found in the main building, which was erected in 1828, has been carefully repaired.

To any of our enterprising neighbours at the Westward, who are about embarking in the lumber trade on the river St. John and its tributaries, and who wish to have a central situation, convenient to all the public offices at Fredericton, the above is most eligible, and being at the head of the sloop navigation of the river, is, in all other respects, convenient for business.

The above property can be viewed at any time, and further particulars made known by applying to Messrs. Crookshank & Walker, St. John, (N. B.,) or to the subscriber, on the premises.

N. B.—If not sold previous to the first day of May next, will then be let for one or more years.
R. CHESTNUT.
Fredericton, 5th Jan'y, 1836.

FOR SALE or TO LET,

JOHN TOOLE,

Merchant Tailor,—Dock street.

AN Irishman I am with a Scotchman in Co.
The Blue nose and Yankees to us are no foe,
They give us their custom because we sell cheap,
Our foreman will fit every man to his shape.
The young Scotchman he says he will always hold out,
We have two ships at sea our cloths to fetch out,
As for the country people, I am happy to see,
They are leaving their measure with us every day; [fall
I have commenced the New Year my prices to
In hopes all my customers yet to me will call,
For my clothes they are made neat, firm, and strong;
I defy all the Slop Shops that is under the sun.
My Cloths they are ready, both black, blue and brown,
For the inspection of my customers when they come to town,
My prices I have decreased one hundred per cent,
And still I am able to pay all my rent,
And as for my merchants with them I am clear,
And all my bad neighbours I need never fear.
'Tho they took down my balls and the sign carried away,
And committed them to the waves in the midst of the sea.
But Providence, I thank my God, was always kind to me,
The wind it blew most favourable, tho' it was far away,
The Captain of the Nelson Wood, so good, as he sailed up the bay,
He seen them floating with the tide, and to his men did say,—
Lower the boats, my boys, for yonder is a sign
Where I have bought pieces of cloth from him full many a time.
When he had landed on the wharf, he straight to me did come,
To tell me of my sign that he had on board for me,
So, instead of loss it was a gain I am happy for to say,
His crew left me five and twenty pounds before they went away.
I return all my customers my sincere thanks and a happy New Year,
And may they live long my Cloth for to wear.
When you come into town be sure you look out,
The Three Balls and Scotchman you'll easily find out,
They are nothing the worse I venture to say,
Though they crossed Saint John harbour, and were picked up in the bay.
