Daguerreotype PORTRAITS.

THE Public are respectfully informed that Messrs. FOULIS and MELICK take Daguerreotype LIKENESSES, in the premises lately occupied by Mr. Wentworth, in Prince William street, (nearly opposite Ranney, Sturdee & Co.) every day from 10 to 4 o'clock.

The portraits are executed by an improved process in the Manipulations, which secures a distinctness of light and shade, and also a faithfulness in the representation by a new arrangement of the lenses.

The pictures are finished by being coated with gold, agreeable to the directions lately promulgated by the Paris Academy of Sciences. This invention not only improves the tone, but effectually secures the impression on the plate from any future alteration, arising from effects of the atmosphere, or the action of light.

☞ Terms—3 dollars each, with a Case. No charge unless a satisfactory Likeness is produced.
